PEND D'OREILLE DIGGINGS.

Report of Revival of Interest in Old Placer Region

Not Far From Rossland in British Columbia—One Man Said to Have Found $20 a Day on the River's North Bank—Mining News.

There has been a sudden revival of interest this spring in placer diggings along the Pend d'Oreille River, and about 100 men are said to be hunting for gold in the region near Waneta some miles from Rossland towards the international boundary line. About 25 men are working on the north side of the river, and the most successful of these is said to be "Pittsburg Bill," who is reported to have made as high as $20 a day out of his pannings. This man's diggings lie about 400 feet above the present bed of the channel and seem to be in the old course of the stream before it was eroded to its present depth. Big money was taken out of the stream years ago, but the idea of prospecting the high ground seems to have arisen only recently. The gold taken out is said to be coarse and to run $16 an ounce. According to this story, which is published in a western paper, a gang of 50 men backed by a St. Louis company is at work on the south side of the river.

ALASKAN GOLD.

Placer Deposits of Kotzebue Sound to be Worked.

The working of the placer deposits in the Klondike is leading to fresh attention being paid to the deposits of Alaska. George G. McNamara of Spokane, Wash., is at present getting up a party of 150 people to leave for the Kotzebue Sound region in June. The immediate destination of the party will be a point on the Kowack River, 125 miles from the coast, where an old prospector says that years ago he panned $9.70 worth of gold out of three yards of dirt. The party will also take north with them a lot of tobacco, pipes and other trifles which they believe they will be able to trade off to the natives for the precious metal.

Is Kelley Creek Sold?

Lytton, May 16.—Several English engineers passed through here yesterday after examining the Kelley Creek Mining Co.'s property near Lillooet. It is said the control of the mine will be turned over to the English syndicate shortly and that work will be commenced this summer. They experienced some difficulty in getting out to the property owing to the melting of snow on the mountains.

Cariboo Pays Another Dividend.

J. B. Coulthard & Co., Brokers, of 28 Victoria-street, Toronto, have received word from British Columbia that the Cariboo Mining, Milling and Smelting Company have just paid another dividend of two cents per share, making the total amount paid up to-date $205,000, while the trial balance dated May 1, 1898, shows a treasury account of $35,314.91. The informant also states that the showing at the 300-foot level is magnificent, that the company was never in a more prosperous condition, and that Cariboo is certainly one of the safest and best investments in the mining market to-day. In reply to an enquiry about Deer Park, they are advised to hold any stock they may have for a substantial rise. The staff is being increased and work pushed more vigorously than ever.

THE STRIKES.

Probability of an Early Settlement of the King Co. Trouble—Upholsterers Still Out.

Mr. W. B. McMurrich of the firm of McMurrich, Coatsworth & Hodgins has been appointed agent to look after the enforcement of the alien labor law, and in his absence Mr. Hodgins is acting as deputy. On Saturday night a statement of the grievance of the two firms as relating to American labor was sent down to Ottawa by Mr. Hodgins, containing the original contracts and affidavits entered into between employers and American help. Advice from the Solicitor-General is now awaited.

A conference was held yesterday between the executive of the King strikers and Mr. J. D. King, and another will be held today, and it is probable that some settlement will be effected whereby the strikers will return to work. They are willing to drop all action if the Americans are deported.

The eighteen charges against the strikers were withdrawn with the exception of one case, where Wellwood was fined $1 and costs. Magistrate Denison wished to make it suspended sentence, but Mr. Du Vernet asked for an acquittal or a judgment, in order that an appeal might be made.

The Upholsterers.

The men on strike intend to start a shop of their own, and are prepared to do all kinds of upholstering, carpet laying, draperies repairing, varnishing, etc. They say by cutting out middlemen's profits the work will be done cheaper.

It seems that no settlement of this strike is at all likely. Although the Gold Medal Company has offered as high as 25c an hour, it is with the proviso that the workers must be non-union. The T. Eaton Company are offering 22½c an hour also to non-union men, and, although the strikers ask only 20c, they can't get back at these prices.

Distinguished Baptist Divine.

Toronto is to be favored with a visit from a distinguished Baptist divine in the person of Rev. E. E. Chivers, D. D., of Chicago, General Secretary of the Baptist Young People's Union of America. He will come from the Baptist convention in Hamilton, and the Toronto Baptist Young People's Union will hold a special mass meeting in the Jarvis-street Baptist Church on Friday evening next to welcome him to the city. Dr. Chivers succeeded Dr. Wilkins as secretary in March, 1897, relinquishing the pastorate of a prosperous church in Buffalo, N. Y. A former parishioner, writing of him at that time, said: "Dr. Chivers is a native of Wales and has in his make-up the toughness of physical and moral fibre and the breezy freshness of spirit which seem characteristic of the people of that land, the descendants of the old British stock that resisted Cæsar's legions, a freedom-loving people, in whose heart the principles held by Baptist Christians have found good soil. In a home of simple Christian piety he early recognized the spiritual issues of life, and in his boyhood became an intelligent Christian. He was still a boy when he felt that his work for the Master was to be as a minister of the gospel. His preparatory studies completed, he went to Pontypool College, and afterwards to Regent's Park College, London, where he studied under Dr. Joseph Angus, the Nestor of Baptist teachers in England. He came to the United States in his teens, and soon became pastor of the church at Waterford, N. Y., and entered upon his work in earnest. So well did he labor for several years that, when the young Prospect-ave. Church in Buffalo became pastorless, they looked, through the eyes of their careful committee, and said: 'We want this young Welshman for our pastor,' and he went to Buffalo." The Baptists of the city will, no doubt, turn out in force to greet him, and the meeting will also be of interest to Young People's workers generally.

Endorsed by Physicians.

When physicians endorse and prescribe a preparation the public may have unlimited confidence in its virtues. Speaking of Abbey's Effervescent Salt, The Maritime Medical News, in its October issue, says: "Abbey's Effervescent Salt is a pleasant effervescing aperient, and is a valuable substitute for nauseating mineral waters. It has been highly endorsed by leading physicians of Great Britain and the continent of Europe."

Since its introduction here, Abbey's Effervescent Salt enters into many of the prescriptions of Canadian physicians. Abbey's Effervescent Salt is especially useful in cases of La Grippe, Sleeplessness, Loss of Appetite, Biliousness, Sick Headache, Constipation, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Spleen Affections, Nervous Depression, Indigestion, Sea Sickness, Flatulency, Gout, Fever, Skin and Kidney Complaints. Its use purifies the blood and clears the complexion. Sold by all druggists at 60 cents a large bottle. Trial size 25 cents.

Board of Trade Council.

The Board of Trade Council met yesterday afternoon, with the president in the chair. Four new members were admitted, as follows: Samuel J. Cherry, miller, Preston, proposed by D. O. Ellis, seconded by J. L. Spink; Harvey J. Gould, miller and grain merchant, Uxbridge, proposed by J. H. Sproule, seconded by F. J. McBean; Joseph C. Bisaillon, grain and hay merchant, Tilbury, proposed by W. M. Stark, seconded by J. Goodall; Francis W. Hay, grain merchant, Listowel, proposed by C. W. Baird, seconded by J. L. Spink. Messrs. J. L. Spink and C. B. Watts were nominated to fill the vacancies on the Board of Examiners and Arbitrators for Ontario. The appointing of these members rests with the Government. Messrs Kent, McLaughlin, Howland and A. E. Ames were added to the Taxation Committee.

S. Ackerman, commercial traveler, Belleville, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for Inflammatory Rheumatism, and three bottles effected a complete cure. I was the whole of one summer unable to move without crutches, and every movement caused excruciating pains. I am now out on the road and exposed to all kinds of weather, but have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I, however, keep a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Oil on hand, and I always recommend it to others as it did so much for me." ed

CRIMINAL ASSIZES OPENED.

Judge Rose on Abuses at the Jail—Prison Reform Needed—Calendar of Prisoners for Trial.

The Criminal Assizes opened yesterday, Mr. Justice Rose presiding. Only four cases are on the docket, as follows: Mrs. Elizabeth Malone, charged with the death of an infant; William Crawford and John Barrett, criminal assault, and Alfred Graner, for an attempt.

In charging the grand jury, His Lordship called the attention of the jury to the want of classification among persons in the jail. Many of our jails, he said, are mere schools for crime, and there should be some separation of those awaiting trial or for their first offence from the hardened criminals.

His Lordship also referred to the treatment of inebriates and cited a case of a man who had been educated for the priesthood, and afterwards became a drunkard. In 10 years his arrest and punishment had cost the city $1800. In this time he had been convicted 111 times. What good has been done to this man or society by these repeated committals? remarked the Judge. I think we had better call a halt, as drunkenness is a craving or disease, which is only renewed by confinement.

Concluding, the Judge asked the jury to visit the new Court House, which he said was a credit to the architect and would give standing to the city.

Mr. J. K. Kerr, Q.C., will conduct the Crown's business.

An adjournment was made until 10 o'clock this morning.

NOT ENOUGH SPACE

Allowed for Canada's Exhibit at the Paris World's Fair.

Montreal, May 16.—(Special.)—It seems that there is general confirmation of Lord Strathcona's opinion that it would be hardly worth while for the Dominion to make any great effort in the way of presenting an exhibit two years hence in the great French Capital with such a limited amount of space at this country's disposal. The World has seen several gentlemen who had gone through the Paris, Chicago and Philadelphia exhibitions, and they all agree that the amount allotted to Canada by the Imperial Commission, viz., 12,000 square feet, would be quite useless as a displaying place for the industrial and agricultural exhibits that Canada would want to send to Paris.

Here is the exact condition of affairs. The British Empire gets 358,000 feet, and Canada will get of this 12,000, but the Dominion, with her seven provinces and territories, rich in agricultural, industrial and mineral wealth, will not get even a clear space of 12,000 feet, for, when the space of the walks and alleys is deducted, there will be but 900 feet of net space remaining. The limited space given to Canada at the coming event on the Seine will be better realized when it is known that the Dominion had over 50,000 feet at the Philadelphia Centennial of 1876. Here are the figures: Manufacturers' building, 27,000; machinery hall 5000, agricultural hall 3000, cheese and butter hall 5000, loghouse 3000, women's building 1000. Other space allotted to Canada exhibitors brought the total up to a figure exceeding 50,000 feet, and with this, the Dominion did herself so much credit, that, Generad, now Senator, Hawley, declared that Canada's exhibit equalled that of any six of the American Union. It is quite evident that with 9000 feet at this country's disposal at Paris, the display which Canada made at Chicago and Philadelphia will not be repeated in Paris in 1900.

An Old St. John's Ward Celebrity.

Ann Jane, the little, weather-beaten, lame old lady whom the residents of the Ward address as Mrs. Robinson, whenever they wish to be more than ordinarily polite, came back to the Ward yesterday after her thirtieth incarceration in durance vile. Ann Jane is about 70 years of age, with a round, wrinkled face, that looks as if its possessor had drunk the bitter cup of life to the dregs. As soon as released from jail Ann hobbles on her crutches to the side door of the House of Industry on Elizabeth-street, and, with her bottle beside her, takes up her position for the day. When a carriage rolls by with a well-dressed rider Ann looks at her own shabby black and, shaking her fist, breaks out fiercely: "D— you, you can ride while I have to walk!" These imprecations get louder and louder until the police are finally appealed to, and Ann is arrested. Yesterday, however, a great calm seemed to have settled on the soul of the old lady, and whenever the residents, who all have a soft spot in their hearts for her, would ask, "Going to have another free ride to-day, Ann?" she would invariably answer, "No, I guess I'll behave myself."

Additions to the House of Industry.

The Building Committee of the House of Industry has determined on the erection of two wings at the institution. One will be attached on the west side and the other on the south, both three storeys high, and to cost $13,000. It was thought at first that the western wing would suffice, but by itself it would provide neither dormitories enough nor a suitable dining room. The appropriation of $17,500 voted by the Board last summer will easily cover the cost. The new additions will make accommodation for 225 newcomers and relieve the jail of many aged inmates now occupying cells for no other crime than that of poverty.
