The Ring.

FIGHTERS, BIG AND LITTLE.

There are many events of fistic importance about to take place within a brief period, including the Jackson-Corbett mill, the assured meeting between Frank Slavin and Jake Kilrain, and the contest between Ike O'Neal Weir and Johnnie Griffin, which is due to take place in the Ajax Club of Boston next Friday night. On his performances Weir is an overwhelming favorite, though many are found whose confidence in the stamina of the game little Braintree boy induces them to take the short end. To the amazement of all who know him, Weir was trained faithfully for the contest at the Falmouth stock farm in East Sudbury, and, barring accidents, will enter the ring in the best condition of his life. Griffin, with his usual consciencious regard for his own and his backer's interests, has done good work at his Brockton residence.

George Dixon's most dangerous rival for the bantam championship of the world, Abe Willis, the Australian, is to be tried out by Billy Hawkins, a clever 'Frisco boxer, at the California Athletic Club in a week's time. Hawkins has shown undoubted ability in the ring, having acted for a couple of years as the club's trial horse for men of his weight. After the coming battle, the directors will have a better line on the Australian's ability, and, if he should develop as anticipated, they will probably agree to Dixon's terms of $5000 as a purse and $500 for expenses to fight the Australian to a finish next August.

Bobby Burns, who so summarily disposed of the Canadian champion, Jack Fitzpatrick, a couple of weeks ago, is looking for a chance at Cal McCarthy. McCarthy says he will meet Burns in the Ajax club of this city for a purse of $1000, $900 to go to the winner. Cal inists that Dixon won from him on a fluke, and says he will try to get on another match with Dixon as soon as possible. He claims that a "chance blow in the second round dazed him, and from that to the end of the fight he was not himself."

Concerning Horses.

W. S. McKie, the well-known horse dealer, left Pictou this morning with about 18 P. E. Island horses for St. John. He will arrive here this evening. Most of the animals are driving horses. They will all be at Smith's stable, Germain street after their arrival here. Chas. F. Trask of Gardiner, Me., is in the city and will probably purchase a number of Mr. McKie's horses. Mr. Trask has already purchased several horses in this city, which he intends selling in the United States. Mr. A. Berryman left yesterday morning for New York via. St. Stephen, with five horses for the American market. He will likely buy others at the border.

This Evening.

Among the Shipping.

THE ADRIA DAMAGED.—The three-masted schooner Adria, Captain Thompson, St. John for New York, while trying to beat out of Portland, Me. harbor, in a light wind Sunday forenoon, ran ashore near Portland headlight, and stuck fast on the rocks in front of Cape Cottage. She signalled for a tug, which attempted to pull her off, but broke several hawsers and finally abandoned the task until high water. Fortunately the sea was quiet and the vessel floated shortly after 5 o'clock, and as she was leaking quite badly, she returned to port and will make temporary repairs.

GASPEREAUX are being caught in larger numbers above the falls this spring than for several years past and the wharfmen about the public slip at Indiantown present quite a busy appearance once or twice a day when the fishing boats come in from different points along the lower part of the river to discharge their loads of fish. For the past day or two the catch has run as high as 5,000 to 7,000 a day for some of the boats that are well equipped with good nets. Messrs. E. M.
