The Presidential Election.

MEAGRE INTELLIGENCE.

Cleveland Probably Elected.

WIRES PROSTRATED.

ST. JOHN, Nov. 5.

Reports up to midnight to the effect that Cleveland carried New Jersey and Connecticut by small majorities. Illinois doubtful. Ohio strongly for Blaine. Republicans may carry Virginia and West Virginia. New York will be very close with the chance for Cleveland, Republicans may be defeated in Indiana, and Cleveland finally elected, but at present all is surmise.

Wires down on the Mainland in all directions.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5

Reports very contradictory, and results uncertain. Blaine carries New England, except Connecticut, also Pennsylvania. Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Kansas. Cleveland carried the solid South, except Virginia and West Virginia (which are doubtful) New Jersey and Connecticut. The following are claimed by both parties: New York, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Virginia, West Virginia, California and Oregon. New York State is close—supposed will not be five thousand either way.

Democrats seem most hopeful, but, until fuller returns are received, it is impossible to more than guess who is elected. In several states majorities will be very small.

VERY LATEST.

New York gave majority for Cleveland.

Wedding Bells.

The principal event in social circles this week has been the marriage of the Rev. George W. Hodgson, Incumbent of St. Peter's (Anglican) Church, in this city, to Miss Gertrude M. DesBrisay, second daughter of the late Theophilus DesBrisay, Esq., of Spring Park. The ceremony was performed yesterday morning by the Rev. J. A. Kaulbach, Vicar of Truro, and was witnessed by an immense number of persons. The church was very nicely decorated, the chancel brilliantly lighted and the music well rendered by a large choir, under the instruction of Mr. L. W. Watson. The wedding party looked exceedingly well. The bride, in an elaborate dress of white silk, being attended by her sisters, Misses Rosa and Eleanor DesBrisay, and by Miss Kate Davies, was given away by her brother-in-law, R. F. DeBlois, Esq. R. R. Hodgson, Esq., officiated as best man. The ceremony concluded the wedding party returned to Spring Park and partook of breakfast, after which they left by the 9.15 train for Hunter River en route to the United States. If the number and value of the presents which they received may be accepted as an index of feeling, their friends are many, and the good wishes for their happiness hearty indeed. We cordially unite in offering Mr. and Mrs. Hodgson our warm congratulations and best wishes for their future health and happiness.

Charlottetown, February 27.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

THE city is full of gentlemen usually termed "drummers," but occasionally known as "commercial tourists."

WE are glad to note some much needed improvements in the facilities for posting letters and papers at the Post Office.

H. PRICE WEBBER re-opens to-morrow evening in Market Hall, with play of "Miralda, or the Yankee in Cuba." Give him a full house.

THE brig Ariadne, owned by Longworth & Co., Trainor, master, arrived in London on Saturday last, nineteen days out from Charlottetown.

THE Scott Act is again "hung up" in the city, and until the Supreme Court give judgment upon a certain point now before them no fines can be collected nor offenders imprisoned. Meanwhile the traffic increases daily.

MESSRS. PETER CURRAN, lately Inspector of Schools for the eastern section of the Island, and Jas. W. Morrison, of Savage Harbor, leave to-morrow morning for Rome to prosecute their studies for the priesthood at the College of the Propaganda.

REMEMBER the trot at Upton Park to-morrow between "Young Ham" and "Black Pilot." The heavy rain to-day will wash the track, and, if the day is fine, the race will come off without fail as the track will be in good condition, being thoroughly drained. An excellent race is expected.

THIS week we commence the publication of a new story intituled "The Bully of the Village, or Tom Temple's Career." It is by the same author as "Only an Irish Boy" and "Tom, the Bootblack,' and if it creates as much interest among our readers as these two stories did, we shall be satisfied.

GREAT preparations are in progress for the Bazaar in aid of St. Joseph's Convent, to be held in the Market Hall, on Wednesday and Thursday next. A great interest is evinced among the friends of the institution in the undertaking, and every nerve is being strained to make it a success. We sincerely trust it may be so.

THE Corporation are at loggerheads with Mr. David Small over a warehouse which Mr. Small purposed removing from Queen's Wharf to Lord's Wharf. Injunctions have been obtained, a watchman keeps sentry day and night, the building blocks up the foot of Queen Street, and the lawyers will probably make the most money out of the affair.

THE steamer Heather Belle will carry passengers from Orwell, Halliday's Wharf and China Point to the Convent Bazaar on Wednesday and Thursday next at one first-class fare. Wednesday's tickets good to return on Thursday. The steamer Southport will also convey passengers from points on the Hillsborough River to Charlottetown and return, at one fare.

R. R. FITZGERALD, Esq., Q. C., was engaged all last week at Tignish hearing evidence upon the claims of parties interested in the refund of duties paid upon mackerel exported to the United States in 1871. Malcolm McLeod, Esq., Q. C., was present on behalf of the shippers, and Mr. Sutherland, of Davies Sutherland and Weeks, represented the fishermen. The enquiry is not yet concluded, and will be resumed next week.

OUR Telegraph officials to-day have been most zealous in their efforts to obtain news of the Presidential Election yesterday. Elsewhere we give the latest telegrams which have been received, but as the storm on the mainland has prostrated the wires in all directions, communication is very difficult, if not absolutely impossible. It is only due to the Anglo-American Company to say that their lines are in complete working order notwithstanding the rough weather.

THE remains of the late Dr. Archibald McLeod, who died recently at New Westminster, British Columbia, were received here last Thursday evening and were interred in Belfast on Friday. The deceased was a very promising young man, who had taken high honors at College, and bade fair to make a good name for himself in his profession. His early decease is mourned by his parents and many relatives on the Island as well as by numbers of friends whom he had drawn to himself in his new home.

WE regret to hear of the death of Captain Angus Young, of Pinette. It appears that on Sunday last he left Picton in his schooner, the Conqueror, with a load of coal bound for Pinette; when off Flat River he went out on the main boom to shorten sail, in doing which he fell overboard and sank in a very short time. A boy who was with him was powerless to assist him and was compelled to run the schooner on shore, where she soon went to pieces. Capt. Young was about forty-five years of age, and unmarried, and was held in much esteem by many friends and acquaintances.

MR. SCHANNAN, Chief Engineer of Government Railways, in company with P. S. Archibald, Esq., Chief Engineer of the Intercolonial Railway, arrived in Summerside on Saturday evening and immediately proceeded to Tignish, whence they started on a tour of inspection of our Island Road on Monday morning, which was concluded yesterday. We understand that the examination was found perfectly satisfactory; the road, road-bed and rolling stock all being in excellent order. At some points during the inspection the speed accomplished was very creditable. Upon the Georgetown branch twenty-four miles were travelled in thirty-five minutes, and the journey from Souris to Charlottetown, sixty miles, including stoppages, was made in two hours.

THE annual meeting for the election of officers of the Caledonian Club was held on 28th ult., when the following officers were elected: Chief, His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Macdonald, (re-elected); President, Arch. McNeill, (re-elected); First Vice-President, John Small Macdonald; Second Vice-President, James McLeod; Treasurer, John W. Morrison, (re-elected); Financial Secretary, N. J. Campbell; Recording Secretary, John M. Campbell; Corresponding Secretary, Robert J. Campbell; Piper, Peter Ferguson; Board of Directors, Alex. Beaton, East Point; H. L. Macdonald, Cardigan; J. F. Robertson, Charlottetown; S. McRae, Charlottetown; John McEachern, Charlottetown, David Small, Charlottetown; D. McRae, [illegible]down; N. McKelvie, Summerside; C. Macdonald, [illegible]tagan.

Movements of the Fishing Fleets and Fish Receipts.

For the first time since the middle of July the weekly receipts of codfish at this port have fallen below one million pounds. Halibut and pollock have been in liberal supply, but the receipts of shore mackerel show a falling off, and it is not expected that very large accessions will now be made to the stock. We notice 50 fishing arrivals reported at this port the past week as follows:

Fares.	Grounds.	Codfish. lbs.	Halibut. lbs.	Mackerel. bbls.
19	Georges	411,000	7,200
1	Grand Bk	80,000

6	Bk hali't'g		195,000
22	Mackereling			4,200
50		605,700	202,200	4,200

Other receipts, 195 bbls. herring, 800 qtls. hake, 400,000 lbs. pollock and 1,200 boxes smoked herring.

For the corresponding week of last year the receipts were 434,500 lbs. codfish, 17,800 lbs. halibut, 6005 bbls. mackerel, 70,900 lbs. pollock, 850 qtls cured hake, 22,000 lbs. haddock, 50 bbls. herring, 1700 qtls. mixed fish, 294,000 lbs. pollock, and 1,400 boxes smoked herring.

Recent mackerel receipts at other ports: Portland, 1,160 bbls; Boston, 1,255; Wellfleet, 600; Boothbay, 255.—Cape Ann Advertiser, Oct. 30.
