GONE UP IN SMOKE

Mount Forest, Ont., June 16.—About 11:45 this morning fire started in the planing mill owned by G. Scott. The building, together with the lumber and machinery, was completely destroyed. The building was insured for $800, but the contents, amounting to $3,000, were a total loss.

WAS GERMANY DUPED?

New York, June 15.—A dispatch to the Herald from Berlin says: In view of the unexpected achievements of Russian diplomacy, especially in regard to the Chinese loan, it is thought here that the German ambassador in St. Petersburg and the German minister at Pekin have been duped. It is probable they will both be recalled.

PERISHED BY THE WAYSIDE.

New York, June 15.—A Recorder special from Mapimi, Mexico, says: The bodies of 33 negroes have been found on the barren plains north of here. The bodies are those of colonists who were brought here from Alabama several months ago. They escaped from the colony, and in their attempt to reach the United States became lost in Sacti desert, and are supposed to have perished for lack of food and water.

London and Environs

No other month so fair of face
No other month so fraught with grace,
No other month so sweet of tune,
As leafy, fragrant, rose-crowned June.

—Dr. Bucke, of the London Asylum, will examine Shortiss, the Valleyfield Que., murderer, as to his sanity.

—Mr. N. C. Lowe, representing a Canton, Ohio, bridge company, was in the city on Saturday conferring with the street railway company.

—Miss Florence Macdonald, city, was maid of honor at the wedding of Miss N. Moffat, of Galt, and Mr. W. Jenkins, of East Nissouri, at Berlin, the other day.

—The funeral of the late Wm. Calder, of Nelson street, took place on Saturday afternoon to Woodland Cemetery. Court Brighton Lodge of Foresters had charge of the service.

—Deputy Sheriff Watterworth and County Constable R. W. Ward have returned from Kingston, where they escorted Millick and Howard, the thieves sentenced to three years in the Penitentiary.

—Early yesterday morning the firemen extinguished a blaze which had gained considerable headway in a frame shed in rear of Mr. Fred Smith's, 644 Talbot street. A woodshed in an adjoining lot was also slightly damaged. Loss about $150.

—The following donations were very gratefully received at the Protestant Orphans' Home for May: Four boys' coats, Mrs. Capt. Heming; children's clothing, Mrs. C. Leonard; Harper's Magazine, Mrs. Geo. Burns; Graphics, Mr. Wm. Smith; forty-two loves bread, Mr. Gilmour; prize cakes, Wm. Mayell & Co.

—The Bach-Guonod Meditation, for violin and piano, received an artistic rendering at the hands of Miss Allen and Mr. J. W. Fetherston yesterday morning in the Opera House. At the close of the service Rev. W. Graham said he was glad to see the violin had been at last consecrated to the service of God and not to the devil, as in the past.

—The funeral of Robert Riddell, the Westminster township farmer who committed suicide by hanging himself to a tree, took place on Friday from the family residence, con. 2. It was attended by residents from every section of the county, and was one of the largest ever seen in the district. Interment took place at Pond Mills Cemetery. Rev. E. H. Sawers, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, conducted the services.

—The correspondent of the Ottawa Journal attending the General Assembly here, writes as follows to that paper: "The Forest City is well named, being embowered in foliage, all the streets almost and the squares being beautifully shaded. The man who named this spot London was not troubled with modesty or lack of ambition, and the naming of the stream that runs through this town after the river that bears on its swelling bosom the argosies of the nations, was a high feat of imagination. Nevertheless, the city is very beautiful is situated in what is called the Garden of Ontario, and has many charming spots of interest. The streets and squares, whilst beautifully laid out, are generally not macadamized or paved, and whilst the City Council have for a long time been deliberating what is the best kind of paving (a la Ottawa), the Londoner has his choice of dust or mud, according to the clerk of the weather."

CORNER-STONE LAYING.

The corner-stone of the new Dundas Street Center Methodist Church will be laid on the forenoon of July 1 by Mr. Wm. Bowman, a steady friend of the church since its first inception many years ago. Addresses will be given by Mr. Bowman, by Dr. Williams, president of the London Conference; by Rev. A. L. Russell, chairman of the district, and others. There will be music by a choir of little girls, trained by Dr. Zeigler. It will be a great day for London Methodism.

OFF TO SOUTH AFRICA.

Messrs. John Rattray and James Deacon, two of the most popular members of the Balmoral Pleasure Club, left at 4:30 yesterday afternoon for Cape Town, South Africa, where they will pursue their respective callings. The other members and a large number of friends learning of the loss the club was about to sustain, gathered in the Balmorals' room on Saturday evening to give Messrs. Rattray and Deacon a farewell. An hour or so was first spent in a social way, when Mr. Dan Donaldson, the president, requested the departing members to step forward. He presented them with a brief address, expressive of sincere regret at their leaving the city, but wishing for them the greatest degree of success in their new, far away home. The address was accompanied by two beautiful gold rings, which the members hoped would prove pleasant reminders of many enjoyable hours spent in the Balmoral Club rooms. Messrs. Rattray and Deacon responded, heartily thanking their fellow-members for the gift. Scotch dancing, accompanied by Donald McGregor's bagpipes, was indulged in, and the crowd dispersed at midnight. About 100 friends assembled at the Grand Trunk yesterday afternoon to have a parting handshake.

SIX YEARS LOST.

Young George Barker, of Niagara Falls, Returns Home.

Inherits His Father's Artistic Ability and Has Made a Mame for Himself in New York.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., June 16.—About six years ago George Meredith Barker, a son of the late George Barker, the noted landscape photographer, becoming dissatisfied with his home on Buffalo avenue, left it. The boy was then but 13 years of age and knew nothing of the world. His father did all in his power to get some trace of him, but could not. A few months ago the boy's father died, and to settle up the estate the boy was advertised for in a number of papers. The remaining members of the family looked upon him as dead. On Wednesday afternoon came a letter addressed to George Barker. The daughter opened it and found it to be from her brother.

On the receipt of the letter S. J. Devlin went at once to New York, and Friday morning the missing boy of whom so much had been said returned home.

George gave the cause of his running away from home as domestic unpleasantness. He went directly to New York and began the struggle for a livelihood. The first two or three years were hard ones to the boy. Inheriting his father's love of art, he studied hard as a sketch artist, and for the past two or three years has been very successful. He made friends with several artists and newspaper men, who helped him to get orders from various publications, all of which were pleased with his work.

Having at last been successful in his calling he decided to write to his father, not knowing that both his father and step-mother were dead. The young man is now nearly 20 years of age.

A BUSY PEOPLE.

The Employed Number 22,735,661—Big Increase in Women Workers.

Washington, June 16.—The occupations of all people in the United States above 10 years of age are reviewed in a census bulletin just issued. The total working population in 1890 was 22,735,661, of almost 48 per cent of the whole number of persons 10 years old or over. Of these 18,820,950 were males and 3,914,711 females.

The numerical increase in persons engaged in "gainful occupations" since 1889 is shown to be 5,343,562, the increase in males at work being 4,076,008 and females 1,267,554. The greatest increase has been in the number of persons engaged in trade and transportation, which was almost 78 per cent, the increase for females being especially large or over 263 per cent. This increase is due principally to the large number of females now engaged as bookkeepers, clerks, stenographers, typewriters and saleswomen.

Professional men and women have increased almost 57 per cent in number, and those classified as in domestic and personal service as over 24 per cent. In both of these classes the percentage of increase for females is largely in excess of that for males. People engaged in manufacturing and mechanical industries have increased 49 per cent, and in agriculture, fishing and mining 13 per cent. The number engaged in these classes are as follows: Agriculture, fisheries and mining, 9,013,201; professional pursuits, 944,323; domestic and personal service, 4,360,506; trade and transportation, 3,325,962; manufacturing and mechanical industries, 5,091,669.

A Cool Suggestion.
