'TWAS A VERY QUIET HOLIDAY

Most of the Pleasure Seekers Went Out of Town to Celebrate Labor Day.

FIREMEN CALLED TO DUNDURN.

A Lot of Leaves Were in a Blaze—Funeral of Mrs. Gartshore—General News Notes.

Hamilton, Ont., Sept. 4.—(Special.)—Hamilton was a very quiet place to-day. Most of the pleasure-seekers went out of the city to take in the celebrations at London, Brantford and other places. The weather, while fine, was cool, and the nearby resorts were not largely patronized.

Firemen Called Out.

Shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon the Fire Department was called to Dundurn Park. There were not many people in the park, but the firemen attracted a big crowd there and advertised it well in view of the proposed purchase by the city. A big pile of leaves and branches thrown over a bluff at the west end of the park had been set on fire. Chief Aitcheson got out nearly 900 feet of hose, and he and his men were occupied two hours in extinguishing the blaze. No other damage was done.

Mrs. Gartshore's Funeral.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Gartshore took place this afternoon from her son's residence, Bay-street south, to Dundas. Rev. Dr. Laing of Dundas conducted the services and the pall-bearers were sons and grandsons of deceased.

CITY TRADE UNIONS LABOR DAY PARADE.

uninitiated this display of the actual routine of the various trades was a revelation. The operations were performed exactly in the same way as if in the factory.

Fighters of Flames.

The Toronto Fire Brigade easily made the finest display. There were one hundred firemen in line, in addition to the drivers of the numerous fire engines, hook and ladder wagons and hose reels. All of Toronto's fire protection seemed to be present at the procession. The soldierly carriage of the firemen elicited rounds of applause all along the line of march. Their red jackets and their steady marching drove many to the conclusion that Tommy Atkins was on parade.

The firemen are not eligible to receive any prize, and were therefore not in the competition for the cup presented by the Toronto Letter Carriers' Association.

Fine Industrial Display.

The industrial division of the procession comprising the various displays of merchants and manufacturers formed a large part of the parade.

Prominent among these were the displays made by the International Association of Machinists, by the International Ironmoulders' Union, and by the St. Lawrence Foundry Co. The Brotherhood of Boilermakers and Shipbuilders of America had a unique and suggestive get-up. A large yacht with sail decorated with Union Jacks typined to the spectators the employment and trade of the union. The schooner was pulled along on a large truck.

The Bakers' Union was not so well represented as usual. Their numbers were small but the general appearance of the 50 bakers in their outfits of spotless white was very favorably referred to.

The Cigarmakers' Union made a decided hit in their long gray ulsters and hats. There were two hundred and fifty of them in line.

When the Elephant Marched.

The profession was closed with a miniature wild animal show, composed of two large elephants, two cameis, one elk and two donkeys.

The celebration of the laboring population of Toronto is significant. It shows that labor has come to designate a distinct body of men, and it proves beyond a doubt the existence of a labor cause and a social question. Yesterday's demonstration is significant as showing the gradual spread of trade unionism in Toronto. The laborer and workingman of this city are now more and more realizing the fact that, for success in the struggle of capital and labor, unity and not selfish competition is necessary. Labor is daily growing stronger and more united and is learning how strong it really is when it holds together. The labor demonstration of 1899 stands forth as a landmark in the history of Toronto's unionists and as such they regard it.

To These Give Thanks.

The Labor Day Demonstration Committee was composed of the following: Chairman, George W. Dower; secretary, Robert Glockling; treasurer, Charles March.

The Street Railway Company and the Ferry Company did an enormous business.

Every nook and place of vantage was occupied by an eager crowd of spectators.

An accident was with difficulty averted on King-street near Toronto-street. A horse became frightened at the large crowd and reared on its hind feet preparing to run. The rider's skilful management of the horse aroused praiseworthy comment.

Last year none of the three regimental bands of the city took part in the procession. Yesterday the 48th Highlanders' band was present and also the Highlanders' pipers.

Notes by the Way.

It was a noticeable fact that many processionists, spruce and eager at the commencement, were weary and footsore when Lakeside Park was reached.

The procession was reviewed from various points by the judges, Controller F. H. Woods, Col. J. H. Mead of the Toronto Field Battery and ex-Ald. George McMurrich.

A handsome souvenir and program of the Labor Day celebration was printed by Thomas G. Soole, printer, 10 King-street west. It was prepared by the Printing Committee for Labor Day and contains cuts of prominent unionists.

The procession was over two miles in length and occupied one hour in passing.

Then followed two elephants bearing advertisements for Oak Hall, one elephant representing Monsoon tea, two cameis advertising a publishing company, 11 Parisian laundry wagons, four Frazee express wagons, 11 Lawrence baker wagons, two Salada tea wagons and numerous other vehicles.

Across the Bay.

When the parade reached Lakeside Park, the floats and vehicles dropped out of line and proceeded to their various destinations. The different unions then marched over to Yonge-street wharf, where steamers were in waiting to carry them over to Hanlan's Point.

There were many amusements afforded them at the Island, and all were heartily indulged in. In the pavilion a first-class orchestra supplied music for dancing all day long. On another improvised platform a cake walk took place, the winner to receive the large, handsome model cake donated by the Bakers' Union. Then several thousand people went into the grounds, where they witnessed Toronto defeat Montreal in a well-played and interesting game. At the conclusion of the game the grounds were thrown open and the sports commenced.

Results of Games.

Only half the program of events was run off. The remainder will be held on Saturday afternoon. Following are the results of the games held:

Bossed the Games.

The Games Committee was composed of: H. Stevenson, chairman; J. Wilson, treasurer; William Glockling, secretary. The judges were: Messrs. W. A. Vickery, R. Gimblett, H. Stevenson, F. Harley, T. Morton, H. Taylor. Mr. J. H. Kennedy was official starter; W. Y. Reid, assistant starter and Frank Smith referee.

Musical Program.

A grand free concert was held in the roof garden in the evening, which was largely patronized.

A splendid program of songs and musical selections was rendered by good talent. Some of those who contributed were: Bert Harvey, Eddie Piggott, Mr. Bruce Bradley, Mr. G. T. Beales, Miss Mabel De Geer and the famous colored quartet. Mrs. Bert Harvey made an efficient accompanist.

The Labor Day pleasure-seekers returned home at a late hour, feeling tired out, but being highly pleased at the success of their great demonstration.

Lunch and Speakers.

Directly after the parade the committee who arranged the demonstration, and a number of guests adjourned to the Coleman Cafe, where they partook of luncheon. Mr. Albert Williams had prepared one of his usual pleasing dinners for his visitors, and made every accommodation in his spacious dining hall for their comfort. The chairman of the committee, Mr. George Dower, presided, and seated on either side of him were Mayor Shaw and members of the City Council and prominent men in labor circles. Mr. E. F. Clarke, M.P., and Controller Woods, both of whom are members of Typographical Union No. 91, responded to the toast of "Labor." "The Corporation of Toronto" was replied to by Mayor Shaw and City Treasurer Coady, while Mr. O. A. Howland did honor to the "Legislative Assembly." The toast drunk to the health of the judges was responded to by Col. Mead of the Toronto Field Battery. His Worship and Mr. E. F. Clarke, M.P., in replying to the toast of the chairman, congratulated Mr. Dower on his work as head of the Labor Day Committee. Mr. Dower returned thanks in a brief address. After the happy luncheon, the party crossed over to the island to see the amusements.

THE SEAMEN'S STRIKE IS ON

Ship Owners Declined to Accept the Invitation For a Conference on Wages.

THE MEN ARE VERY DETERMINED

Traffic at London Has Not Yet Been Affected—All Ports in the Kingdom Involved.

London, Sept. 4.—The general strike of seamen and steamer firemen which has been threatened for some time was declared to-day, the shipowners refusing to accept the invitation of the Seamen's and Firemen's Union for a conference in regard to fixing the rate of wages for firemen and sailors on steamers at £6, and for sailors on sailing vessels at £4 monthly, a slight advance in the average wages now paid at the various British ports.

Reports as to the effect and thoroughness of the movement have not yet been received except from South Shields, where, it is stated, two thousand men have gone out. Many meetings have been held in the vicinity of the London docks, the speakers expressing the determination of the men to remain idle until their demands have been granted. But traffic at this port has not yet been affected.

It is not likely that the strike will be completely organized for several days, and until then its extent will not be known or its results keenly felt. The manifesto of the union ordering the strike includes all the ports in the United Kingdom.

GOLFERS ENJOY THE HOLIDAY.

Rochester Lost on Toronto Links, Where Sociability Was Predominant.

Fewer pleasanter matches have been played upon the links of the Toronto Golf Club than that played yesterday morning between Rochester and Toronto golf men. A strong mutual friendship has been created between these two sportsmanlike clubs by previous meetings, and the present friendly contest served not a little to strengthen the feeling of regard with which each has inspired the other. The Rochester gentlemen proved themselves once more as agreeable companions in the smoking room as on the greens, and the club house rang with many a capital song and chorus.

The continued drought has robbed the links of much of their beautiful color, and here and there the putting-greens tested the delicacy of both eye and hand. But the play was good and much enjoyed by both guests and hosts.

Weather favored the players, and not one of the 28 had anything to complain of in matters of wind or light. Victory fell to the hosts, but in no way damped the ardor of the guests, the kindliness and sociability of whom once more elicited the admiration of those gathered at the board of the club house to do them honor. If some holes were lost, more hearts were won.

For Piles use Dalley's Family Salve. It never fails to cure. 25 cents a box, reduced to 10c.

Lively Day at Kingston.

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 4.—The labor unions had a lively demonstration to-day. In the morning seven unions turned out, including carpenters, masons, laborers, moulders, machinists, tailors and printers. They numbered over 700. With bands and flags they paraded the streets, and then took cars for Lake Ontario Park, where an immense picnic was held. The day was spent in sports, horse races, dances, foot races, &c. Addresses of an entertaining character by the attendance was very large—6000 or 8000. Addresses of an interesting character were delivered by Mayor Ryan, Ald. Donnelly and B. M. Britton, M.P. One accident of a serious character occurred. In a runaway Mrs. Thomas Arnell, Division-street, was knocked down and had her thigh broken.

For Burns and Scalds use Dalley's Family Salve. It relieves at once and leaves no scar.

The Day in Ottawa.

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—Labor Day was observed here as a general holiday. There was the usual street parade, which was not so large as in former years in the forenoon, and games in the afternoon on the college grounds. There was also a baseball match between the Pastimes of Ogdensburg, N.Y., and the Catholic Order of Foresters' team. The result was 11 to 4 in favor of the Pastimes.

Great Turn-Out at Buffalo.

Buffalo, N.Y., Sept. 4.—Labor Day was appropriately observed in this city. The parade this morning was the largest of its kind ever seen in Buffalo. Fully eighteen thousand men were in line.

Lively Music at Windsor.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 4.—The weather favored Windsor's Labor Day celebration, the first ever held in the city. Three bands in the procession furnished lively music for the march. The callithumpian exhibition by the Ideal Minstrels was a feature of the parade. There was a program of sports on Ouellette Square in the afternoon and to-night a band concert and speechmaking at the band stand on the Grand Trunk Railway property.
