The Chronicle.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1865.

Police Court.

Mathew Torrance, of London, appeared before his Worship, the Mayor, A. Oliver Esq., on Saturday, 16th inst., charged by one Mrs Sarah Maria Howard, (colored), with attempting to assault her. J. McCaughey, Esq., appeared for the prisoner, and requested his Worship to have the witnesses removed from the court. Complainant said she had only one witness, a little girl, who was requested by his Worship to withdraw, when Mrs Howard deposed as follows:—Yesterday, Friday, between 12 and 1 o'clock prisoner came to my house, and said he understood that I kept a "dissipated" house; that Mr Jones and Mrs Alice Williams told him so. I told him to leave as no one lived with me save a girl 12 years old; he said he would not leave till he got what he came for. He then came toward me and made an attempt to take hold of me, and again said that he would not go away until he got what he came for. I ran and picked up the axe and said I would chop him if he came near me. I said I would complain to the Mayor. He said do not, and I will leave; he then went away. Swear positively that the prisoner is the same man.

After being cross-examined by Mr McCaughey, the girl, who appeared to be a very intelligent colored girl, was brought into court. She identified the prisoner as being the man who assaulted her adopted mother, and selected him from half a dozen other persons who had been placed beside him. The difference between her statement and Mrs Howard's was in regard to the time the assault took place, the witness stating that it took place a little before the 11.45 train went east. For the defence

G. T. Barnwell, Stationmaster, was called, who testified that the prisoner was employed by the G. W. R., and was whitewashing the stationhouse yesterday, and it was utterly impossible for the prisoner to have been at complainants house between the hours of 12 and 1; the house is over half a mile from the station, and he had seen him in the waiting room at least half a dozen times between 12 and 1 o'clock.

After more evidence was produced to prove that the prisoner was at the station at the time the assault was stated to have taken place, his Worship decided to dismiss the case, stating that he had no doubt that an assault had been committed, but thought there must be a mistake as to identity.

A boy named Jackson was also brought up and fined for picking butternuts from the tree on Elisha Hall's farm. We hope this will be a warning to other boys.

The Lecture by Mr. McCarroll.

We would again remind our readers of the lecture by this eminent wit and scholar, to take place in the Town Hall on the evening of Tuesday next. Below will be found a few additional notices of the press:—

From the Toronto Leader.

* * * "Of Mr McCarroll's ability there is need to say little: it is well known not only in this city but throughout the country.—The gems of poetry he has published in the Leader and other periodicals have made his name "familiar as household words" where ever the influence of true poesy is experienced or poetic taste cultivated. In the walks of literature he is equally well known, as possessing a high order, and especially as a humorist whose writings afford continual food for merriment and pleasure. * * * If Mr McCarroll does not secure full benches, it will be useless for the Committee" (Mechanics' Institute) "to expect that any subsequent lecturer will."

From the Guelph Herald.

* * * "His poetry has the true ring, and his flute playing has the soul of melody, while the facetious epistles of 'Terry Finnegan' gave evidence of his possessing a rich vein of rich humor. 'The House that Jack Built' has drawn large audiences and been received with great applause wherever produced."

From the Toronto Globe.

"The first lecture of the season was delivered by Mr James McCarroll in the Music Hall last evening to a good audience. The lecturer is known to our citizens by the nom de plume of 'Terry Finnegan,' over which he has contributed to several publications his well known letters. * * The lecture last evening was what may be called a medley, being part musical, part satirical and the remainder scientific, biographical and historical. It abounded in humor and was frequently and heartily applauded."

From the St. Mary's Perth Standard.

* * "The qualmness of the subject necessarily gave rise as to how the lecturer would handle it, and few would have expected the extraordinary flow of sublime philosophy that Mr McCarroll extracted from 'The House that Jack Built.' There was a most respectable audience, who were evidently delighted with the rich strains of eloquence and exquisite music of the talented lecturer and performer."

The County Court civil docket was very light, consisting only of five cases, none of which were of much importance, consequently we will not trouble our readers with any lengthy report of the proceedings. The first case tried was

Scott vs. Parkhurst et al. An action on a promissory note. The pleadings in this case were amended at the trial, and finally postponed until next sitting of the Court, upon defendant agreeing to pay the costs of the day. F. R. Ball counsel for plaintiff, and James McCaughey for defendant.

PRESENTMENT OF THE GRAND JURY.

The Grand Jurors for our sovereign lady the Queen upon their oath present, That, in accordance with their duty, they have visited the gaol, and found the same, in all respects, in a satisfactory condition. The prisoners express themselves satisfied with the treatment received from the gaoler and his assistants and are, we believe, kept in as much comfort and cleanliness as is consistent with their safe custody. The Jurors aforesaid beg to congratulate your Worship and the people of the county on the small number of crimes which have been committed in the county since the last general gaol delivery, and is apparent from the paucity in numbers of the prisoners which have been confined.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A Case of Sun Stroke.

On Wednesday last, the wife of Isaac Gager, of South Norwich, had occasion to go to a neighbor's, about two miles distant from her home. It appears that she had gone in the forenoon, and about two o'clock she started to return. About five o'clock a man travelling with a buggy found her lying upon the road insensible. He put her into his buggy and took her to the house of Mr Doerge. Shortly afterwards she was sent home, when remedies were applied but without avail. The services of Dr. Tisdale of Otterville, was procured, and in about three hours she began to show indication of returning reason. At the time of writing she is still very low, but is progressing favorably, and under the skillful treatment of the doctor it is expected that she will soon be convalescent.—Com.

☞ A certain minister was holding forth one Sabbath morning in a school house, when at the close of his sermon the following note was handed to him for announcement: "The Rev. Mosely Peeke will preach into this school house this evening;" in reading which he made a mistake, and read—"The Rev. Mosely preach will Peeke into this school house this evening." It is understood that a large congregation turned out.

Oil Lands.—The Bothwell oil land gift sale has been postponed until the 17th October, and will then take place at London, C. W.

Burley.—American papers announce that Bennet G. Burley, who has so long been in confinement without trial, made his escape from Clinton county jail, Ohio, on Sunday afternoon.

☞ Speaking of the Exhibition, the London Free Press of yesterday says:—"We are happy to state that the number of persons on the ground yesterday was largely in excess of any of those present upon the corresponding day at any Exhibition yet held in Canada! No less than 24,000 tickets were sold at the gates, and not less than 30,000 people, it is calculated, were upon the grounds during the day—Good for the West!"

☞ Gold in New York yesterday closed at 144¼.

☞ Our advertising columns indicate that the fall trade has commenced. We have, not room, this week, to particularize. We would merely [illegible] that Messrs. Palmer, J. I. Ferguson, Joseph Browett, S. G. Read, and W. A. Cromwell & Co., announce the receipt of fall goods—the stock this season being larger than usual. See advertisements.

☞ During the present week Messrs W. A. Cromwell & Co., opened over one hundred packages of new goods. See their new advertisement.

☞ The Exhibition at London caus d a great influx of strangers to our town during the week. Almost every night this week most of our hotels have been crowded. Mr Brady, of the Mansion House, on Wednesday stabled no less than one hundred horses.

A Murderer Caught.

The Mitchell Advocate says:—Most of our readers will have heard of a most brutal crime committed about two months ago in Nashville, Virginia, were a wealthy planter and his whole family were murdered, and afterwards robbed. Three arrests were made soon after, and the parties found guilty of being implicated in the diabolical affair. The one who cut the throats of the servants, however, was still at large. A reward of $8000 was offered for his arrest. Detective Warson, who is Deputy Sheriff of Nashville, went in search of the fiend. He tracked him into Canada, and after about seven week's chase arrested him in the Gore of Dowine, on Friday last. The detective was under disguise at the time, and had he not presented a revolver at the murderer's head, he would have experienced some difficulty in putting on the handcuffs. This being done his person was searched, when a bowie-knife was found secreted between the lining of his vest, and a seven shooter in one of his boots. The party, accompanied by a Canadian detective, passed through Mitchell on Saturday last, from whom we learned those particulars. He went by the name of Jones in Canada, but his real name is Tracy. He is also arrested for stealing a span of horses.

FRANCE AND ENGLAND FRIENDLY

The Cattle Plague Trouble.

Farther Point, Sept. 19.

The steamship Damascus, which left Liverpool on the afternoon of the 7th, and Londonderry the next day, passed this point this afternoon for Quebec.

Queen Victoria would return to England from Germany on the 8th.

The annual meeting of the British Association for the advancement of science, had commenced at Birmingham.

Satterthwaite's circular of the evening of the 6th, says we have again reports of considerable business in American securities. There was a disposition to buy 5-20's on expectation of lower rates for gold, until the arrival of the Moravian, reporting the probability of a new loan, when the quotation gave way, and after being 6¾ they dropped nearly 1 per cent., and closed at 6¾ to 6⅞. For Erie there have been numerous inquiries, and prices have advanced more than 1 per cent on the week. Illinois shares, on the other hand, have been offered for sale, and although they exhibit no alteration in price from last week, the tone of the market is not stronger. Railroad bonds are quiet, but the Atlantic and Great Western is in demand and advancing.

The Paris Moniteur is highly satisfied with the manner in which the people and press of England greeted the French fleet. The friendly relations been England and France are founded on mutual interest, and the uniformity of their principles in matters of public law. They rivaled one another in disinterestedness to ensure the independence of the Ottoman Empire; and when France had freed Italy, England determined no longer to retain the islands, and consented to restore them to the original nationalities.

The Minister of Agriculture had addressed a report to the Emperor on the cattle plague, and the Emperor has issued a decree prohibiting the introduction or passage through France of cattle from England, Holland, or Belgium.

ARRIVAL of the AUSTRALASIAN

NAVAL FORCE STATIONED ON COAST OF IRELAND.

Death of Tom Moore's Widow.

New York, Sept. 20.—The Cunard mail steamer Australasian, which left Liverpool at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 9th inst., arrived here at 9 o'clock to-night.

The Etna reached Liverpool early on the morning of the 8th.

The China arrived at Queenston early on the 9th.

The Cork Reporter announces that the government had ordered a number of gunboats and two men of war to be stationed off Bantry Bay and other stations on the west coast of Ireland.

Cyrus W. Field is a passenger by the Australasian. He was present at one of the meetings of the British Association, and made a brief a sech expressive of increased faith in the ace mplishment of the Atlantic cable double line next year.

The New York correspondent of the Daily News expects to see strong colors to the ugly look the negro question is assuming in America.

Mrs Moore, widow of Thomas Moore, the poet, is dead.

The Paris Patrie says a monument is to be built at Portsmouth to commemorate the visit of the French fleet.

It is rumored that a matrimonial alliance has been formed between Duke Austa, son of the King of Italy, and the Princess Isabella, daughter of the Queen of Spain. Another rumor points to the Prince Amedas as her probable husband.

The Italian Chambers is dissolved.

It is stated that Earl Russell replied to the Austrian communication, relative to the Eastern convention, expressing satisfaction that the solution arrived at is only of a provisional and transitory character.

Late accounts from Constantinople place the destruction of buildings by the Stamboul fire at 2,800, and 22,000 persons rendered homeless. One estimate is as high as 12,000 buildings.

Death of Wm. Notman, Esq., M. P. P. for North Wentworth.

From the Hamilton Times of Wednesday.

We regret to have to announce this evening the death of Wm. Notman, which occurred at his residence in Dundas, between the hours of eleven and twelve last night. The illness which terminated in his death, was one of long duration, Mr Notman having been obliged to remain in Quebec during the session held in the early part of this year. The symptoms that appeared then showed that the disease—softening of the brain—which finally conquered him, had already obtained a firm hold. He was removed by his friends from Quebec to Dundas, and although he rallied occasionally, it soon became evident that all hopes of ultimate recovery must be banished. That he was sinking became more and more apparent during the past few weeks, and last night death put an end to the struggle, and the weary brain obtained rest.

Mr Notman was well known throughout Upper Canada, and especially in this section, both as a lawyer and a politician. He was one of the oldest members of the bar living, having been called to it in 1827, during the same term as Judge Burns, and the team after the late Sir Allan McNab. In political life he was generally successful in his appeals to the people, and has occupied a seat in Parliament at various times during the last eighteen or twenty years. The greatest political battle he fought was when he wrested North Wentworth from the Hon. Robert Spence, after the latter gentleman had betrayed the Reform party by joining a Tory government. Since then he has held the Riding against all comers, having in one contest beaten Mr T. H. Mackenzie, of Dundas, and in another beaten Mr A. Brown the Warden of the county. So firm was his hold upon the affections of his constituents and so true a return did he make to their confidence, that we doubt whether any opponent could have dislodged him from the representation of the Riding. The confidence reposed in him by his constituents, and his own natural abilities, marked him out as one who should have risen to a high position in the House, but a lack of energy on his part allowed inferior men to be elevated over his head. He was more than once spoken of in the Ministerial crisis as a probable member of the incoming Government, and upon the opening of the present Parliament he was freely mentioned as the one who was entitled to the Speakership of the Assembly. That some such honors were not conferred on him is a great matter of reproach to those who had it in their power to grant them.

Oil on the Brain!!—A complaint, it is said, that is very prevalent in our Town, should be attended to at once, the nervous and excitable system, being much overstrained, and the biliary organs in consequence, much deranged. A sure antidote for such derangement will be found in Priddy's Anti bilious Pills, they being a sure cure for all complaints arising from a disordered stomach and liver. Those who use them speak highly in their favor, and the statement that they are the best [illegible]

A Large Spider.

A sudden panic fell upon the worshippers on Easter Day in a large church at Lisbon. An enormous spider was suddenly seen to descend to an amount web that is said to have existed for many years. The creature was so huge as to make the woman begin to scream, and a scene of general terror and excitement followed. When Aracline was captured she was found to be, with legs extended, nearly five feet long. She weighed six pounds.—Foreign Paper.

We think that may fairly be called "a whopper." We mean the story as well as the spider.

How Will You Look!!—Yes, I am better than I have been for months past, since I commenced taking Dr. Ansbury's Anti-bilious Pills. It is really astonishing, too, how well the children thrive by their occasional use. R. S. Priddy, Proprietor, Ingersoll. 617sm

A Cat Killed by Robins.—A most remarkable instance of the belligerent qualities of the robin recently happened in Somerset, Pa. It appears that a half grown cat belonging to a citizen, had a fancy for killing young chickens and birds. A few days since when puss was engaged in her favorite amusement, some six or eight robins combined to close his career. They attacked her in a body, pouncing upon her with great fury, and planting their beaks into her head with a severity which caused the cat to indulge in frightful screams. Upon the inmate of the house coming to her assistance the robins retired from the conflict, and the cat escaped under a kitchen. Not coming out for a rather disagreeable smell issuing therefrom in a few days afterwards, the floor was taken up, and the cat found dead, with her eyes picked out, and other evidences about her head of having been severely dealt with.

Holloway's Pills.—Derangement of the stomach and bowels. As the stomach by the agency of the gastric juices assimilates digested food into elementary blood, we cannot be too careful of preserving it in a healthy and vigorous condition. Holloway's Pills are a powerful corrective and detergent, and by their curative properties cleanse and purify the ingested food in its process of conversion to blood. In all disorders of the bowels and viscera, their curative qualities are unequalled.

Sold at the manufactories, No. 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and No. 244 Strand, London; and by all druggists. If the reader of this "notice" cannot get a box of Pills or Ointment from the drug store in his place, let him write to me, 80 Maiden Lane, enclosing the amount, and I will mail a box free of expense. Many dealers will not keep my medicines on hand because they cannot make as much profit as on other persons' makes. 25 cents, 62½ cents, and $1 per box.

A CARD.

THE subscriber would most respectfully inform the inhabitants of Ingersoll and the public generally, that he has purchased the interest of HUGH KERR in the business carried on in the Town of Ingersoll, under the name and style of FERGUSON & KERR, as Dry Goods and Clothing Merchants, and he hopes by strict attention to business and courtesy to customers, to merit a share of the extensive patronage and support so liberally extended by the public to the late firm.

BRITISH PERIODICALS,

VIZ:

1—The London Quarterly (Conservative.)
2—The Edinburgh Review (Whig.)
3—The North British Review (Free Church.)
4—The Westminster Review (Liberal.)
5—Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory.)

The American Publishers continue to reprint the above named periodicals, but as the cost of printing has doubled, the price of paper nearly trebled, and taxes, duties, licenses, etc., largely increased, they are compelled to advance their terms as follows:

TERMS FOR 1865:

For any one of the four Reviews	$4 00
For any two of the four Reviews	7 00
For any three of the four Reviews	10 00
For all four of the Reviews	12 00
For Blackwood's Magazine	4 00
For Blackwood and one Review	7 00
For Blackwood and two Reviews	10 00
For Blackwood and three Reviews	13 00
For Blackwood and the four Reviews	15 00

☞ Subscribers in the British Provinces will remit in addition to these prices Twenty-four cents a year for Blackwood, and Eight cents a year for each Review, to cover the U. S. Postage.

The works will be printed on a greatly improved quality of paper, and while nearly all American Periodicals are either advanced in price or reduced in size—and very generally both—we shall continue to give faithful copies of all the matter contained in the original editions. Hence, our present prices will be found as cheap, for the amount of matter furnished, as those of any of the competing periodicals in this country.

Compared with the cost of the original edition, which at the present premium on gold woals be about $100 a year, our prices ($15) are exceedingly low. Add to this the fact that we make our annual payments to the British Publishers for early sheets and copyright in Gold—$1 costing us, at this time (Jan. 1865) nearly $2.50 in currency—and we trust that in the scale we have adopted we shall be entirely justified by our subscribers and the reading public.

The interest of these Periodicals to American readers is rather increased than diminished by the articles they contain on our Civil War, and though sometimes tinged with prejudice, they may still, considering their great ability and the different stand-points from which they are written, be read and studied with advantage by the people of this country, of every creed and party.

THE FOUR REVIEWS FOR 1863.

A few copies of the above remain on hand, and will be sold at $5 for the whole four, or $2 for any one.

FARMER'S GUIDE,

Rhymes for the Times!

If you want a Watch of Chain
Of fancy style, or even plain;
If you want a Clock, that's good,
Of Brass and steel, or even Wood;
Don't hurry on the street, but call
At once upon one C. P. Hall,
Who has a stock that's really large,
And sell he's moderate in his charge.

Come English, Irish, Scotch and Dutch,
And French and Yankees in a hatch;
You'll find my shop is open wide,
Where all your wants can be supplied.
If Forks and Plates, and Cups and Toys,
Yours are to please the girls and boys;
Or Fiddles, Banjos, Harps, or Dulls,
You'll find a large supply at HALL'S.

Some Spoons and Forks, and Plated Ware,
Cruets and Mugs of pattern rare;
Cake Baskets, Salts and Napkin Rings,
Besides a lot of other things.
Bring in your Butter, Eggs and Cheese,
Or almost anything you please;
Don't stand aloof or be afraid,
I'll try my best to make a trade.

You know my place, I feel quite sure—
It's opp site the Printer's door;
We call it Thames Street in Ingersoll,
My name you'll find is C. P. HALL.

P. S.—A little more for groceries—
I have the Singer Sewing Machine,
That do the work up strong,
And as for quality can't be beat
