If it is a question of price—then, all things considered, "Salada" is the greatest tea value for the money paid, for experience has proven that "Salada" (packed in air-tight lead packets) is tea excellence.

Magistrate (severely)—"Didn't I tell you the last time you were here I never wanted you to come before me again?" Prisoner—"Yes, sir; but I couldn't make the policeman believe it."

Little Elvira—"Mamma, when the fire goes out, where does it go?" Mrs. Gaylord—"I don't know, dear. You might just as well ask where your father goes when he goes out."

SUCCESSFUL WEEK ON NORTH SHORE

Organizer Clinch Forwards Work of Fish, Forest and Game Protective Association

MORE BRANCHES IN VIEW

Says He Finds Strong Feeling for Export Duty on Pulpwood -- Reports of Violation of Game Laws Along Lines of Railroad Construction in New Brunswick.

D. W. Clinch, organizer for the New Brunswick Fish, Forest & Game Protective Association, returned on Saturday from the North Shore. On all sides he says he met with most gratifying support, leading citizens showing interest in the Association by assisting at his meetings. In Chatham at one time a commissioner of the State of Maine Fish and Game Commission, Hon. Chas. Oak, of Bangor, declared the statistics quoted by Mr. Clinch to be absolutely correct and emphasized the importance of hatcheries and the protection of moose with a lower non-resident license, and free trout streams.

Mr. Clinch is to again visit Petitcodiac to complete the organization of a branch and reports active branches in Chatham, Richibucto and Campbellton as a result of this week's work. On Monday evening he will address a public meeting in Chipman and will visit Bathurst, Tracadie, Buctouche, Sussex, Sackville, Dalhousie and other points along the Intercolonial at an early date.

Mr. Clinch says he found that the questions of an export duty on pulpwood, the checking of illegal netting in tidal and non-tidal waters, the prevention of the wholesale slaughter of moose, caribou and deer, to be matters of interest. Though the association has taken no stand on the first named, the opinions expressed by those interviewed were practically unanimous for an export duty.

The association, he says, is daily in receipt of authentic information as to the slaughter of song birds, big game and small by foreigners along the International Railway and the line of the G. T. P. in the vicinity of Chipman and through Victoria county. A woodsman just returned from the Kedgewick told him at Campbellton of finding a magnificent bull shot through the heart and left lying in the river, untouched. Last week moose meat was sold in Restigouche county.

Mr. Clinch has had two communications from the department of marine and fisheries to the effect dams reported by him as requiring fishways have been specially inspected. Though it is impossible to state at present just what will be done, he believes the department will see proper fishways established if possible. He has also taken up a number of complaints with Mr. Harrison, the fisheries inspector at Fredericton. All the mills which Mr. Clinch declared were dumping sawdust along the banks and in the stream direct were, he says, reported by Mr. Harrison's wardens as guilty. The association is indebted to Mr. Harrison for courteous treatment of reports and the handling of them. Mr. Clinch discussed the subject at length with Professor Prince, of the shad commission, while in Nova Scotia.

THREE CITY BANDS TO PLAY AT THE EXHIBITION

Milltown Cornet Band Will Also Be Heard—Other Good Musical Features.—The Pike.

Three city bands will provide music at the exhibition this year—the 62nd Regiment Band, the Artillery and the City Cornet. An opportunity will also be afforded to hear the Milltown Cornet Band, an excellent musical aggregation from the border town, which will run an excursion from St. Stephen and vicinity on Wednesday, Sept. 16. It is expected a large number of people from that section will take advantage of the low excursion rates offered by the railway companies to visit St. John's big fair.

With orchestras in the two amusement halls and demonstrations by prominent pianists at several piano exhibits there will be music a-plenty. The premier attraction in this line, however, is Miss Darling, the leading soprano singer of the grand opera company, which will be at the Opera House the week of the 21st. This talented singer will occupy a prominent place in the programme at the opening exercises, Saturday night next.

All is hustle and bustle at the show grounds now. Exhibitors are at work getting their trimmings put up, carpenter are fashioning booths, heavy machinery is being moved in and everything seems to indicate that all will be complete and in smooth running order for the opening night.

The Pike will be much more attractive this year than ever and in addition to the mystic maze, which will be its leading feature, there will be numerous booths and stands that will make this brilliantly lighted laugh centre a place of more interest than ever.

The work of building the mystic maze, which has been carried on for several weeks, is now nearly completed and this bewildering labyrinth is guaranteed to produce an unlimited supply of hilarity.

OBITUARY

Mother of Hon. F. J. Sweeney.

At Melrose, Westmorland county, on Thursday, Mrs. Sweeney, mother of Hon. F. J. Sweeney, died in the 84th year of her age. She leaves four sons and two daughters. The sons are Hon. Francis J., of Moncton; Michael D., teacher, of St. John; John J., lumberman and mill owner; Dennis, farmer. The daughters are Mrs. P. J. Mahoney and Mrs. Jeremiah Holland, of Melrose. Mrs. Sweeney was born in Cork (Ire.), and came to this country when fifteen years old. She first made her home in Melrose, where she spent the remainder of her life. Her husband died about six years ago. Mrs. Sweeney had been ill for the past few years. She was of a kindly disposition and beloved by a wide circle of friends for her many kind acts.

Mrs. Ann W. Steeves.

Moncton, Sept. 4 (Special).—One of Moncton's oldest residents in the person of Mrs. Ann W. Steeves passed away this evening at the home of C. J. Harris, in her 84th year. Deceased has lived in Moncton and vicinity all her life. She conducted in early life a private school at which many citizens got their early education, fifty years ago. She was the widow of Israel Steeves, but leaves no family. One sister, Mrs. Robert Lee, lives in St. John. L. A. Mills, barrister, St. Stephen; George E. Mills, Lewisville; are brothers.

Mrs. Steeves had lived here for some years with her nephew, C. J. Harris, of the I. C. R., and up to a few months ago she enjoyed remarkably good health for her years. The funeral takes place Monday afternoon next.

Patrick Martin.

Patrick Martin, aged 69, who resided with Mrs. Sarah Cullinan in Stanley street was found dead in bed on Saturday morning by Miss Cullinan. Coroner Berryman was summoned and he pronounced death due to heart failure. Mr. Martin had not a relative in the world and had lived with the Cullinan family all his life.

Left an orphan at the age of fifteen months by the death of his father by accident, he was confided to the care of Mr. Cullinan's mother and after her death he remained with Mr. Cullinan's family. He had been in failing health for some years and had given up work, though he was able to do chores about the place.

He usually arose each morning to light the fire but on Saturday he did not appear and Miss Cullinan went to his room to waken him. She received no answer to her call and, entering the room, found that he had passed away. Mr. Martin was generally respected, having been a man of quiet and industrious life.

Mrs. James A. McKenzie.

Death came suddenly on Saturday evening to Mrs. Mary McKenzie, wife of James A. McKenzie of 82 Brussels street. Two of her daughters, the Misses Margaret and Catherine McKenzie, had left the house for the depot intending to leave on the evening train for Hampton where they were to have spent the holiday. When they left their mother seemed to be in her usual good health. Before the train started, however, a message reached them that she had been suddenly stricken with apoplexy and was dying.

Mrs. McKenzie lived only about an hour from the time she was stricken. Dr. J. M. Barry had been hurriedly summoned, but nothing could be done. Mrs. McKenzie was Miss Quinn, daughter of the late John Quinn of Fairfield, parish of Simonds. Besides her husband she is survived by one son, Alexander, in Windsor, and three daughters the Misses Margaret, Catherine and Jennie, all at home.

Mrs. George M. Anderson.

The death of Annie, wife of George M. Anderson took place on Saturday afternoon, after a long illness. She leaves one son, Robert N. Anderson of Fredericton; and four daughters, Mrs Frank Macfarlane of St. John, Mrs. Clarence McCready of Moncton; Mrs. Alfred Archibald of Amherst and Miss Alice at home also two grand children, Irene McCready and Margaret Archibald and two brothers, Geo. Turner, of Clarendon, Queens county and Oliver Turner of Tracey, Sunbury county, and one sister, Mrs. Elisha Smith, of Weymouth, N. S.

Mrs. Anderson was a daughter of the late William and Mary Turner of Yarmouth, England.

Mrs. John Hea.

Mrs. Mary E. Hea, widow of John Hea, died in her home on Saturday morning aged eighty-eight years. Mrs. Hea, who was Miss Treadwell before her marriage, was well known and very popular and her wide circle of friends and acquaintances will hear of her death with regret. She is survived by one son, Arthur Hea, of Boston, but who is now visiting in this city; three daughters, Miss Annie and Mrs. Lawrence, school teachers here and Miss Alice Hea, organist.

Mrs. James Chisholm.

Mrs. Christina Chisholm, wife of James Chisholm, of 128 Erin street, died Monday after a long and painful illness, aged sixty years. She had been in the hospital recently, but as there was no hope of her ultimate recovery she was taken to her home. Besides her husband she is survived by five sons, William, Edward, Robert, George and Fred, all of this city, and two daughters, Mrs. Charles Godfrey, of Carleton, and Mrs. Sadie Riggs, of this city. The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon.

Capt. W. H. Wall.

Digby, N. S., Sept. 7.—(Special.)—Capt. Wm. H. Wall, an old time master mariner, died at his home in Digby this morning, aged 86 years. He is survived by a widow but no family. He was born in Smith's Cove and was for many years wharfinger on the government wharf here. He was a member of the Digby Baptist church and a highly respected citizen of the town.

W. J. Ewing.

The many friends of W. J. Ewing, formerly of St. John, but for many years a resident of the United States, will be grieved to learn of his death, which occurred suddenly last Friday, the 4th instant, at his residence in South Framington (Mass.) Though Mr. Ewing removed from here more than twenty years ago, he visited St. John regularly, and friends always commented with satisfaction and interest on the remarkable affection he manifested for everything pertaining to the old home.

Mr. Ewing had for years been engaged in shoe manufacturing, and twice his business was completely destroyed by fire. Old friends here well remember the debating clubs and reading societies of which Mr. Ewing was a most valued member. The studious habits acquired then he retained through life, and the result was a mind of remarkable development. The deceased was an enthusiastic Britisher and, although realizing that in many ways it might be personally advantageous he persistently refused to take out naturalization papers across the border.

The funeral took place yesterday from his late residence in South Framington. The deceased leaves a widow and two sons to mourn the loss of as devoted a husband and father as ever lived. The oldest son, Walter, has for the past month been a member of the dental staff of Dr Maher in this city.

Sackville News.

Sackville, N. B., Sept. 7.—Friday was the last day on which tax-payers could save five per cent. by paying their taxes. Thomas Murray, the town clerk and treasurer, was a very busy man all day.

A valuable dog belonging to a gentleman living on York street, recently died from the effects of what was supposed to be poisoning.

The death of Miss Esther Barnes, of Mt. View, took place recently at the home of Wilson Cole. She was eighty-five years old and leaves two brothers to mourn their loss, viz., Joseph Barnes, of Moncton, and Fred Barnes, of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Beharrell, who have been the guests for some weeks of Mrs. Beharrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ernest Smith, left recently for their home in Lowell (Mass.).

Work on the Intercolonial Hotel is progressing well. The Sackville Woodworkers have the contract and work is expected to be completed in about two months.

At the regular meeting of the town council held last week it was decided to purchase five hundred feet of hose, two nozzles and to purchase and install five additional fire alarm boxes. The estimated outlay for these improvements is $900. The council also voted $130 to be used at the discretion of the fire committee either in paying the expenses of the local firemen to take part in the tournament at Chatham or in the improvements in the firemen's room in the fire hall.

Miss Gladys Snowdon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Snowdon, left last week for Truro, where she will attend the academy.

W. P. Bell, Mt. Allison 1907, passed through town on Saturday en route to his home in Halifax. Since graduation Mr. Bell has been engaged on the C. P. R. survey in the west. He intends taking a special course at Harvard this fall.

E. W. McBride, mechanical superintendent of the Tribune, accompanied by his wife and child, left Saturday morning for Digby, N. S., where he will spend a few days with relatives.

The annual exhibition of the Sackville and Westmorland Agricultural Society will take place on Wednesday, September 30, and Thursday, October 10.

The Mt. Allison Ladies' College and Mt. Allison Academy and Commercial College will open next Thursday.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. A. B. Copp gave a very enoyable bridge party. Mrs. Copp, who made a charming hostess, was assisted by her niece, Miss McLeod, of Amherst; Misses Frances Estabrooks and Lulu Ford. Mrs. F. B. Black captured the prize. Among the ladies present were Mrs. Sprague, Vancouver, B. C.; Mrs. Lane, Montreal; Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. A. G. Beharrell, Lowell, Mass.; Mrs. Nichols, Winnipeg; Mrs. Hamilton, Amherst; Mrs. Jubien, Mrs. H. C. Read, Winnie Allison, Mrs. C. C. Avard, Mrs. J. F. Allison, Miss Hester Wood, Minnie and Jane Estabrooks.

H. S. Paisley, editor of the Tribune, was one of the speakers at the Liberal meeting held in Salisbury Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris are rejoicing over the advent into their home of a baby girl.

D. Cameron, inspector of the Royal Bank, left last week for Scotland. He will be absent several weeks.

Mrs. Keillor, of Amherst Point, is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Amasa Dixon.

Mrs. Harvey Copp is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Wilson, Moncton.

Miss Hickey, who has been ill for several weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. W. Copp, is now convalescent.

Bedford Leger, clerk for R. C. Tait, Shediac, passed through town last week en route to Port Elgin, where he spent several days with friends and relatives.

St. Martins News.

St. Martins, Sept. 7.—Mrs. Joseph Carson, who has been visiting her daughters in Florenceville and Upham, returned to her home on Saturday.

Miss Ruth Bradshaw, of St. John, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Bradshaw, Orange Hill.

Miss Jessie Copp, who has spent the summer with relatives in Waterside, has returned home.

Robert Gillmour, of St. John, spent the holiday with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Gillmour.

Harry Stuart, of St. John, spent a few days in the village.

Horace Titus, of St. John, spent Sunday here visiting friends.

Rev. B. H. Nobles and wife were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Vaughan on Sunday. Mr. Nobles very acceptably filled the pulpit of the Baptist church morning and evening.

Mrs. J. Beaman, of Smithtown, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Sweet, returned to her home on Monday.

Mrs. James Mawhinny and daughter Helen, who have been visiting relatives here, returned on Saturday to their home in Beaver Harbor.

Miss Orion Black returned on Friday to Wolfville, where she will continue her studies.

Miss Ethel Brown, or Lorneville, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. William Daly returned on Friday from visiting friends at Fredericton.

Miss Alice Kerr, of St. John, is spending a short time with relatives here.

Miss Nettie Compton, of St. John, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Lydia Vail.

Stop Your Cough

Three or four drops of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment on sugar relieves tickling in the throat and stops the cough. Colds if unchecked, may cause serious throat and lung troubles. To avoid risk, apply Johnson's Anodyne Liniment promptly.

Johnson's ANODYNE Liniment

Has been a successful family remedy for nearly a century, for both internal and external uses.

Internally for Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Bronchitis, and most respiratory disorders.

Externally it dismisses any pain. Cuts, Wounds, Sprains, Muscular Rheumatism, Swollen and Frost bitten Feet. Pain leaves the moment the liniment is applied.

Guaranteed under the Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906. Serial number 818.

At all Druggists, 25c. and 50c. Get a bottle now. KEEP IT ALWAYS IN THE HOUSE.
