TWENTY-TWO OF THEM

Big Batch of Election Protests Disposed Of at Osgoode Hall.

Leave to Change Petitioner in the London Case Asked For.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—At Osgoode Hall today, 22 election protests were dismissed by Justices Osler and McLennan. The following is the list: East Middlesex, South Brant, Monck, East Hastings, East and West Hamilton, Prince Edward, West Kent, West Durham, Welland, West Hastings, Center Bruce, South Wentworth, South Norfolk; and cross-petitions, Dundas, North Lanark, Lincoln, Frontenac, South Waterloo, Addington and East Algoma.

The respondent in the East Middlesex case alone asked for costs, which were given. He was represented by Barrister Elliot, of London.

Barrister McPhillips arranged today to apply on Monday for the substitution of J. B. Simpson for Wm. Wheeler as petitioner in the protest against Col. Leys. The application will be heard by Judge Osler. Wheeler refuses to swear that the particulars furnished by the Conservatives are true.

The original petitioner in the case against Col. Leys and his lawyer disagreed, and the latter ejected him forcibly from the office. Hence the request to substitute Joseph Burt Simpson in place of Wheeler.

Messrs. Grant, Aylesworth and Denton represented the Liberals in all the cases before the court.

LATE SPORTING

BASEBALL.

THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Pennant problems were settled some days back, and the result was foreseen when Cincinnati took its slump and Boston and Baltimore went ahead, though with Boston leading by a good margin over Baltimore. One of the two questions left for the past few days has been the matter of fourth club in the league, and when Louisville took one game from Cleveland yesterday the contest was ended in favor of Chicago, thus giving Burns' team a finish higher up than a team from the Windy City has made in several years. Philadelphia cinched its place in the first division, crowding out New York, when it took a double-header from Brooklyn Thursday. Following is the standing:

NATIONAL LEAGUE STANDING.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Boston	101	47	.682
Baltimore	96	52	.649
Cincinnati	92	60	.605
Chicago	85	65	.567
Cleveland	81	67	.547
Philadelphia	78	70	.527
New York	76	73	.510
Pittsburg	72	76	.486
Louisville	69	82	.457

GOLDSTICK VS. BASTEDO.

At Osgoode Hall, before Chief Justice Armour, the case came up of Goldstick vs. Bastedo—Judgment on motion for defendant for prohibition to the first division court in the county of Middlesex. The plaintiff resided and carried on business in London and the defendant in Toronto. The defendant went to London and ordered goods there from the plaintiff to be manufactured for him, and when manufactured to be delivered to the express company at London, to be by them carried to Toronto and there delivered to the defendant upon receiving from him the agreed price thereof. Held, that whether or not the express company were the agents of the plaintiff or of the defendant to receive the goods when delivered to them made little difference for they were certainly the agents of the plaintiff to receive the price of them upon delivery, and the defendant having refused payment of them on delivery the breach of the contract took place in Toronto, and the whole cause of action did not arise in London. Order made for prohibition with costs against the plaintiff. L. F. Heyd for defendant. W. E. Middleton for plaintiff.

DENMARK'S DEAD QUEEN

Remains Placed in the Vault at Roskilde.

Loie Danced Before the Envoys and Made a Arbitration Speech—Bismarck's Valet Sells Mementoes.

BISMARCK'S VALET SELLS MEMENTOES.

Stuttgart, Oct. 15.—An old valet of the late Prince Bismarck, now retired, is doing a thriving business selling small mementoes in the shape of haberdashery, which were presented to him during the lifetime of the great statesman. The most remunerative articles are some of the famous old cravats which prominently distinguished the prince's neckwear from that of his contemporaries. One black satin cravat alone brought the valet 85 marks.

BURIAL OF DENMARK'S QUEEN.

Copenhagen, Oct. 15.—After the mourning service in the death chamber the coffin containing the remains of Queen Louise of Denmark (who died Sept. 20) was borne to the funeral car by the King of Denmark, the Czar of Russia, the King of Greece, Crown Prince of Denmark and other members of the royal family. The funeral cortege then proceeded to the railroad depot, followed by all the royal family on foot. The route was lined by dense crowds of bareheaded people. The train with the coffin on board started at 5 o'clock for Roskilde, nineteen miles from here, the residence of the Danish kings of middle ages, where the remains were placed in the vault prepared for that purpose.

Thousands of people awaited the arrival of the funeral train at Roskilde, where the same distinguished personages carried the coffin from the train to the hearse. Ladies in deep mourning strewed flowers ahead of the body throughout the route to the cathedral. Behind the hearse walked the king of Denmark and his three daughters. On arriving at the cathedral the royal bearers relifted the coffin to its place on the catafalque within.

DANCED BEFORE THE ENVOYS.

Paris, Oct. 15.—The Spanish and American peace commissioners attended a reception given in their honor at the office of the Figaro, at which Coquelin the elder, Coquelin the younger, and Signora Guerrero, the greatest Spanish actress, took part in an entertainment.

Then Loie Fuller danced, while electric lights flashed the American and Spanish flags on her swirling draperies. Not content with this, Loie insisted on making a speech in English, and addressing herself directly to the American commissioners, recited an original poem, pleading for peace and ending with the words, "May arbitration win the day."

The Spanish commissioners applauded loudly, but the American commissioners received Loie's impertinence with stony silence.

BANDITS BETRAYED.

Rome, Oct. 15.—News has reached here from Palermo of the arrest of a bold bandit named Antonio Ferrara, who had planned to kidnap in broad daylight Signora Maria Cupani, the beautiful 18-year-old daughter of Baron Cupani, a Sicilian millionaire. Seven men were implicated in the plot. The girl was to be intercepted in her daily promenade in the public park of Palermo and forced into a landau. She was to be kept imprisoned in the house of Ferrara until a ransom of half a million dollars should be secured from the baron. The plot was betrayed and detectives stationed in and around the park. They succeeded in arresting only Ferrara, the leader of the kidnapping band.

THE G. T. R. FIRE BRIGADES

The Official Test at Queen's Park—Made in the Rain.

Under the supervision of Mr. James Black, of Montreal, inspector of the G. T. R. fire department, the two fire companies at the G. T. R. car shops held their annual contest this morning. The contest took place at Queen's Park, in the rain, but it did not dampen enthusiasm. The judges were Chief Roe, Dr. English, Superintendent King, J. B. Laurie and Mr. Farand. The companies were:

No. 1—Thomas Treleaven (captain), F. Stinson, J. Player, W. C. Macer, R. Maxwell, W. Cripp, D. McLeod, J. Harrison, E. Cripp, R. Comber.

No. 2—Joseph McWood (captain), W. Kingsnorth, J. Fitz, J. J. Owens, A. J. Abram, J. H. Smith, D. H. Brett, S. Pellow, W. Amor, C. R. Cleft and R. Rider.

There were two tests—the wet and the dry. The times made by both companies were:

No. 1 Company, wet test—First move, 30⅞ seconds; second move, 10 seconds; third move, 32¼c seconds. Total, 72⅝ seconds.

No. 1 Company, dry test—First move, 27½ seconds; second move, 11½ seconds; third move, 11¾ seconds. Total, 50¾ seconds.

No. 2 company, wet test—First move, 30 seconds; second move, 13¾ seconds; third move, 15¾ seconds. Total, :59½.

No. 2 company, dry test—First move, 30⅜ seconds; second move, 10 seconds; third move, 12½ seconds. Total, :52.

The above time is that of Mr. J. Black, the official time-keeper. Chief Roe, Dr. English and J. Adkins, who held four watches, contended that the third move of No. 2 Company, dry test, was done in 10½ seconds, making the total 50 seconds.

BETTER TRAIN CONNECTIONS

The L. E. and D. R. R. Accede to the Wishes of Western Ontario Travelers

Mr. William Gray, president of the Western Ontario Commercial Travelers' Association, waited recently upon Mr. Woollatt, superintendent of the L. E. and D. R. R., in reference to train connections on that road which the traveling fraternity desired. Mr. Woollatt fully concurred in the wishes of the association, and has made certain changes of great convenience to them. The train leaving Ridgetown at 8:20 a.m. will make connections with the M. C. R. at Fargo Junction for all points east and west. Connections will also be made at 9:05 at Chatham Junction for the north—Wallaceburg, Dresden, etc.—and with the G. T. R. train leaving London at 6:30 a.m. for Detroit; also with the train from Detroit arriving in London at 10:20 a.m. An hour's wait will be saved at Chatham Junction in the morning, making connections with the L. E. and D. R. R. for Detroit and intermediate points.

YUKON REFORMS

Suggested by Major Walsh, and That May Become Law.

[C. P. R. Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, Oct. 15.—It has been stated in this correspondence already that Major Walsh is in favor of a very heavy reduction, if not an entire abandonment, of the royalty of ten per cent paid to the government on the gross output of gold from Yukon. It is now understood that the major has reported in favor of making one-half of Yukon council elective, the other half to be appointed by the government. The commissioner, who would be presiding officer, would have the veto power in case of a tie. All members of the council would require to be selected from the Yukon district, and to be taxpayers, and to be entitled to vote at elections, etc., as well as British subjects.

This part of Major Walsh's report will doubtless engage the favorable attention of the government, and it is more than likely that the Yukon government act will be amended next session in this direction.

A DINNER PILL. — Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment, it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and convey the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indigestion.
