WHOLESALE EMIGRATION FROM SCOTLAND.—It is said that several gentlemen from Scotland are in New York representing a large emigration Society, having a capital of £750,000, which they propose to invest in Southern lands if sufficient inducements are offered. The society is mainly composed of the industrial classes, and on the reception of a favorable report from their representatives here, will increase their capital to £1,000,000, and commence emigration immediately.

RATHER CLEVER.—The Chief of Police of Kingston must be remarkably cute. A contemporary says that a few nights ago when that terror to evil doers attempted to arrest a Frenchman as a murderer, he was not satisfied that he had the right man, but knew the man he wanted had been in the army, so, the officer "smartly challenged him to attention, when the man immediately straightened himself up in a soldierly manner," and thus betrayed himself.

A remarkable ugly and disagreeable man sat opposite Jerrold at a dinner party. Before the cloth was removed Jerrold accidentally broke a glass. Whereupon the ugly gentleman, thinking to twit his opposite neighbor with great effect, said slyly "What, already, Jerrold! Now I never break a glass." "I wonder at that," was Jerrold's instant reply, "you ought whenever you look in one."

From Mexico.

CAIRO, June 29.—Matamoras dates of the 15th are to the effect that the defeat of Negrette, after his unsuccessful attempt on Matamoras, is confirmed. He is reported to have lost seven hundred killed and two hundred taken prisoners.

Juarez is buying up all the old arms in the United States.

The 'Commerce' reports that the president of ex-republic of Mexico is compelled to fly to Pass del Norte, escorted by Carvasal and Quesada, with some cavalry, on the approach of the troops, under Aymeid, which occupied Chihuahua. There had been some shooting from the left to the right bank of the river, in which the Surgeon in-Chief on the staff of Gen Mejia, who was at Santa Cruz, when on chief ferry landing from Brownsville came near being killed by shots fired, it is ascertained, by sentinels stationed on the Brownsville side. The Commerce asserts that ten American soldiers were engaged in the attack which was deliberately and wantonly made. It is also asserted that though Gen Mejia made immediate reclamation on the subject, no reply has as yet been made by Gen Brown.

ROBBERY BY A SERVANT GIRL.—$300 WORTH STOLEN.—On Tuesday evening last a coloured servant girl, in the employ of Professor Halpin in Huron College, committed a rather extensive robbery of all sorts of portable household articles. Professor and Mrs. Halpin left their residence for a walk, leaving it in charge of the coloured servant, the nurse and children. While away, the former, who gave her name at different times as Isabella Thompson and Isabella Smith respectively, rummaged the wardrobe, bureaus and closets at will, and purloined a great many articles of value, consisting of clothes, ornaments, jewellery, among which were seven silk and satin dresses, collars, brooches, bracelets, &c., &c., to the value of $300. These she took to the back premises and concealed them in the ash barrel and elsewhere, carefully covering them with some kind of rubbish. The governess, in afterwards searching for something, discovered the theft, when an inquiry was immediately instituted, resulting in finding the articles in the position described. The thief herself was nowhere to be found, and we believe the case has been lodged with the proper authorities for investigation, who no doubt will use their best efforts for the detection and bringing to justice of the criminal. —[London Free Press.

☞ 'Tommy, take these eggs to the store, and if you don't get ninepence a dozen for them, brink them back.' Tommy went as directed, and came back saying—'Mother, let me alone for a trade. They all tried to get 'em for a shilling, but I screwed 'em down to ninepence.'

☞ Workmen have commenced and are now actively engaged in the erection of the new depot of the Great Western Railway, at the foot of Yonge street Toronto.

☞ A correspondent of a N. York journal asserts that, in one of the markets of that city, poultry are deprived of their feathers while still alive, having been previously dipped in hot water to facilitate the operation.

☞ An editor says that he has seen the contrivance that lawyers use when they 'warm up with the subject.' He says it was a glass concern, and held about a pint.
