THE TORONTO WORLD.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPT. 11, 1884.

Bon Marche open till 10 to-night.

THE GENERAL SESSIONS.

The Grand Jury Throws Out the Bill Against J. T. Thompson.

The case of John Neill, who was charged with attempting to commit an indecent assault on Mrs. Beer at her husband's hotel, King and Bathurst streets, about a month ago, was the first case called in the general sessions yesterday. The jury returned a verdict of indecent assault. John Fitzpatrick was arraigned on a charge of shooting with intent at the previous prisoner. On the evening when the assault was committed Fitzpatrick, who is a brother of Mrs. Beer's, heard her screams and rushed up-stairs revolver in hand. He saw Neill running away and fired three shots after him, but as the evidence did not show that the shots were fired at Neill the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. George Ferguson was charged with assaulting his wife. He has already served three months for a similar offence, and the jury brought in a verdict of common assault.

Wm. Coleman, charged with stealing a rake and shovel from Jacob Abraham on July 25 last, was acquitted. He is at present serving an eight months term. Robert and James Spencer, for breaking into the residence of Mrs. Redden on Cecil street, were next tried. Evidence was given by some carpenters who had seen the men enter the house, and who had notified Detective Hodgins. Wm. Coleman, a pal of thieves who had previously given the whole thing away to Hodgins, was placed in the dock, but he denied any knowledge of the affair, and said that it was merely a put up job on Hodgins. The jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The grand jury returned the following true bills: Fred Thornton, two charges larceny and receiving and assaulting with intent to rob; Mary Ann Stevenson, larceny and receiving; Jas. S. Simmonds, feloniously wounding; John Grant, indecent assault; Tom Jones, felonously wounding; Patrick O'Brien, felonously wounding; Dugald McKinnon, larceny and receiving.

The grand jury threw out the bill against John. T. Thompson, the alleged defaulter of the Parkdale school board funds.

Remember the Bon Marche keeps open every night during the exhibition till 10 o'clock.

A Palace of Fur.

It was simply impossible to pass the corner of King and Church streets last night so large was the crowd trying to gain an entrance to James H. Rogers' annual exhibition of furs. This firm was first established in 1815 by the late Joseph Rogers, and since his demise it has been carried on by James H. Rogers. It is well known as one of the largest retail fur houses in the dominion, and occupies the whole of a five-story building on the corner of King and Church streets. The building from top to bottom was carpeted with seal skins last night, and the display of furs would have to be seen to be appreciated. Every fur that is used in the trade was there from the costly sealskin to the cheap red squirrel—black furs, grey furs, red furs and yellow furs were there in prodigal profusion. In one corner was a $750 Alaska sealskin overcoat and in other corners were pilled many thousands of dollars worth of Alaska sealskins for ladies' muffs and jackets. The walls were hung with furs, and they actually hung in festoons from the ceiling. It was a plethora of furs of all sizes, colors and descriptions. In the front room on the second floor, which was set aside for the purpose, were ladies' mantles, caps, muffs, cloaks and tippets. There were satins de Lyon circulars lined with Siberia squirrel and trimmed with pointed hare, and fully a hundred of other kinds of circulars for ladies. Many a lady lingered in this room fully an hour last night meditating how she would get her husband to invest some of his hard-earned shekels in a cloak or mantle for her.

As there were a great many unable to gain admission last night Mr. Rogers has decided to let his store remain open tonight so that all who wish may see this palace of fur.

For blankets, quilts, etc., go to the Bon Marche.

Business Troubles in Canada.

The following business difficulties are announced by Bradstreet's: Ontario—Georgetown, W. T. Jackson, assigned in trust, groceries; Mount Forest, John Sheppard, assigned in trust; Lindsay, Simon Byrne, assigned in trust, shoes, etc.; Orono, Isabella Hepburn, estate of, assigned in trust, millinery; Strathroy, F. G. Westlake, assigned in trust, photos. Quebec—Chambly, McColl Bros., assigned in trust, hotel; D'Israeli, Joseph Marceau, assigned in truft, general store; Montreal, F. H. Hardy, assigned in trust, tobacco; Montreal, Louis Houle, assigned in trust, drygoods; Montreal, McDonnough Wm., assigned in trust, laces, etc.

See the ottoman cord dress goods, all wool, worth 55c. for 38c. per yard at the Bon Marche.

Bagging the Crooks.

There is a large detachment of the police force on duty in plain clothes. A careful watch of all incoming trains is made, and any suspected crook who may arrive stands a good chance of being put out of the way where he will do no harm during the stirring fair days. Policeman C. Slemin captured the first suspect. It was Edward Scott, a young crook who has lately returned to town from the States. Yesterday he was hanging around Union station when arrested attending to no visible occupation.

Pedal Overwear.

A man's foot, and more especially a woman's, should always look neat and tasty. An ill-fitting boot or shoe is at once a sign of neglect in personal appearance, and at the same time gives to the observer the fact, that the wearer must suffer serious inconvenience. The Toronto Shoe company, corner of King and Jarvis streets, is the headquarters for all kinds of pedal overwear. Their store is brimfull of the latest styles in boots and shoes, marked at extremely low prices for cash.

Strangers remember, no trouble to show our goods and prices at the Bon Marche, 7, 9 and 13 King street east.

Poison in the Pickles.

A little alarm was caused among the friends of J. Donald McDonald, barrister of this city, by a despatch in the Mail yesterday morning that Mr. McDonald and his family, who were en route to New York, were poisoned at a railway refreshment booth from eating pickles. The case, however, did not turn out to be very serious, as their friends did not receive any unfavorable news last night.

LOCAL NEWS PARAGRAPHED.

Circus in town to-morrow.

Second day of the great fair.

The Mascotte will be presented at the York street pavilion to-night.

Last week the city carriers delivered 136,492 letters and 35,960 newspapers.

The banquet to Mr. Mowat will take place in the Granite rink, Church street.

Ald. Lobb is a leading candidate for the chairmanship of the executive committee of the city council.

The provincial union of the women's christian temperance unions will be held in Toronto in October next.

The excavation at the back of the Grand opera house on King street is left in an unguarded condition at night.

There were two large audiences at the Grand Opera house yesterday. Michael Strogoff has proved a popular attraction.

J. & J. Lugsdin of 101 Yonge street, have a big stock of fall hats just opening out. They are an old and reliable firm noted for best quality goods at low prices.

Morris, Lary & Co., have opened a general collection agency at 29 King street west (up stairs). The firm undertake all collections and guarantee prompt returns.

The queen's bench divisional court will sit to-morrow at 11 a.m., for the purpose of giving judgment in the following cases: Brundage v. Howard, Brown v. Nelson, Mara v. Cox.

A runaway horse creatsd an excitement on Carlton street last evening. The horse was captured at the corner of Church and Carlton after he had reduced the buggy to splinters. No person was hurt.

See the black dress silk, very wide, worth $1.30 for 80c. per yard at the Bon Marche.

Two Female Crooks.

Nellie Weir and Jane Sheehan of St. John's ward have both bad reputations, especially the former. They were prisoners at No. 2 police station last night, charged with robbing a man named Peter Kitchen of his shirt and a small sum of money in Queen's park. Kitchen got too warm and took off his shirt, and he charges the girls with stealing it and going through him.

Camp of an Army Corps.

Forepaugh's Great Show spreads enough canvas to shelter an entire army corps.

Wouldn't Take Him.

From the Atlanta Constitution.

"Will this road take me to Atlanta?" asked a traveler of a "cracker."

"No, sir-ree," replied the countryman; "narry a time."

"That's strange," mused the first speaker. "A man told me a few hours ago that it would."

"He lied, stranger; I've been hyar twenty y'ars, and I hain't seed it tuck nobody annywhar yit; and I don't s'pose she ever will long as folks kin ride an' walk."

"Well, if I follow the road I'll get there, won't I?" smilingly asked the traveler.

"Not much; fer ye kaint foller it, kase she don't move, an' ye kaint foller nothin' what don't move long in front of ye."

"But if I travel this route I'll soon reach the city, I reckon."

"Then ye struck it, mister; jes' keep a movin' the way ye're goin' an' ye'll git thar after a while. Mornin' to ye."

Bon Marche open till 10 to-night.

A Chance for Industry.

From the Cincinnati Times-Star.

"Look a heah, Andrew Jackson, why doan' ye go out on the side ob de hill an' dig up a lot o' dat yallar mud and 'spose o' it to some o' dem plictikel companies, 'stead o' loafin' aroun' de house all day? Yo'se been idlin' 'round heah jess long enuff."

"Fo' de law sakes, ole 'ooman, what's dat yo'se talkin' about?

"What's I talkin' about? What's I talkin' about? Why doan' yo keep dem wufless ears o' yourn open an' find out what folks is a doin'? Great big plictikel kampayn goin' on an' all dese plictikel gemmen a throwin' mud every time dey see each other, an' yo doan know nothin' about it! Why doan' yo look about yo?"

"Dat's so, honey, but ain' day lots o' mud layin' all aroun' in de streets? Whefore would day want to buy mud when day can get all day wants fur nothin'?"

"'Spose day is mud all aroun' de streets. What does dot signerfy. Doan' yo spose dat dem plictikel gemmen wants some nice, soft mud what'll stick when day throw it?"

Bon Marche open till 10 to-night.

A Fifty Mile Race Track.

From the Detroit Free Press.

"Yaas," said an old settler, "we ran horses in Texas."

"Then you take an interest in the noble sport?" asked the stranger.

"I was engaged in a horse race some years ago in which I took a right smart interest."

"Running race?"

"Hit war."

"Mile or half track?"

"Hit war a fifty mile track, stranger. Texas is a big state."

"A fifty mile track! I never heard of such a thing. And did you win?"

"You bet."

"How much did you win?"

"I won the hoss, stranger."

Q. O. R.

—The punctuality of the Queen's Own Rifles at all meetings and parades has become proverbial since they commenced having their watches repaired at R. Given Doherty's, 205 Queen street west, a few doors west of Simcoe. 1-3-6

Bon Marche open till 10 to-night.

The Sound in the Hall.

From the Pittsburg Chronicle Herald.

"Has he gone, dear?"

"Yes, grandma."

"And what was that sound in the hall, Jessie?"

"Why, it must have been the door shutting, grandma."

"Your grandma may be old and deaf, Jessie, but doors did not shut with a sound like that when she was a girl."

"Did the men wear mustaches then, grandma?"

"No, my dear."

"Well, that makes the difference, probably."

Economy.

—The secret of economy lies in the buying of upholstering, such as parlor or drawing-room suites, in the purchaser going to an establishment where they make it a specialty of manufacturing first-class goods. T. F. Cummings, 349 Yonge street, has the reputation of being an experienced workman, who thoroughly understands his business. You can rest fully assured of getting what you want, and at reasonable figures.

Bon Marche open till 10 to-night.

DOMINION DASHES.

The Grangers' oil well at Kincardine has proven a failure, and a new one is to be bored.

The election of Hon. F. Langelier, liberal, M.P. for Megantic has been contested.

St. Matthews church, Quebec, has received $4000 as a legacy from the late Mrs. Nairne.

Neil McLeod, a Nova Scotian, was assassinated in a mining camp in Mexico a short time ago.

Alex. Crerar, a brakeman whose parents live at Shakespeare, was killed at Chesley station the other day.

Last week at Waterford, Kings county, N.B., a boy six years old, son of Mr. Samuel Poley, fell backward into a boiler of hot lye, and was so severely scalded that he died.

A young woman named Hawley, while walking on the Kingston & Pembroke railway track Tuesday night, near Sharbot lake, was struck by a train and died a few hours afterwards.

Adolphus Shrensby, a well-known young man living at East Tilbury, disappeared suddenly last week. He owns considerable property, and is thought to have met with an accident somewhere.

Out of consideration for the wife and family of Lew Robbins, the abductor of Miss Fraser, the latter's father has consented not to press the charge of kidnapping and adultery against the scoundrel.

James Munson, a carriage trimmer at Essex Centre, went to Detroit last week with a livery team to buy some material for finishing the pulpit in the Methodist church at that place. He fell among the Philistines, left the team at a stable where he got $25 on them, and has not been seen since.

Thomas Parkinson commenced the erection of a dock at Manitowaning, but was ordered to discontinue work by the Indian department (which enjoys a monopoly of dockage there) on the ground that the department controls the water front. Parkinson, however, is backed by the local council and residents, and will not heed the order, so that trouble may be expected.

Colored tips in all shades, see our window. worth 85c. for 38c at the Bon Marche, 7 and 9 King street east.

A White man Joins the Senecas.

A Syracuse, N. Y., despatch says. "Among the Six-Nations Indians the receiving of a white man into their confederation is a matter of great pomp and jubilee. They consider such a course an acknowledgment of the superior nobility of the red man. Charles W. Hutchinson, an ex-mayor of Utica, has been adopted recently into the Seneca tribe of Indians. He goes by an unpronouncable name signifying corn-planter. As the Indians regard maize as their principal article of food and give several corn dances in thanksgiving of that crop the selection of this name implied a high honor. Governor Squires, of Washington Terriory, accompanied the mayor and a large party of Uticans to the Onondage Indian reservation, headquarters for the councils of the Six-Nations, where the adoption of ex-mayor Hutchinson took place. There was music by an Indian band, a nude Indian performed pagan rites, speeches by dusky sachems, a big pow-wow and dance, and Charles W. Hutchinson became a Seneca Indian of the Wolf clan.

What Our Visitors Should See.

—Visitors to the industrial exhibition are pouring into the city by every train, many of them not only to visit the fair, but also to take in the many sights of Ontario's capital. To begin with, every one should see the Zoo, the only institution of its kind in Canada. Forepaugh's white elephant will be here on the 12th and 13th. "Plunger" Mackie's "Hotel Hanlan," the spot where all Hanlan's trophies are on view should also be seen. Harry Piper's baby show at the Zoo will also form a drawing card. But no one who wishes to take in all Toronto's sights should fail to see Dineen's big show of furs, etc., a chance not to be missed. The spot is the north west corner of King and Yonge streets.

Remember the Bon Marche keeps open till 10 to-night.

— People who wish to note the progress Toronto is making ought to visit West Toronto Junction. It is within a few minutes of the Union station by the trains of either the Ontario and Quebec and the Grand Trunk or the Northern. The junction station of the C. P. R. is now in full blast and freight and passenger trains are stopping there every short while. New houses are going up all round while the plans of many handsome ones are still in the hands of the architects. Real estate in the neighborhood has steadily risen in value and promises to advance still more rapidly. A lot or block in this locality is the best investment a workingman or capitalist can go into. It will double itself in two years just as Parkdale, Brockton and the whole west end has done. Some of the best lots in West Toronto are to be had from George Clarke, 295 Yonge street.

Great Negligence.

—There is great neglect with most people to maintain a regular action of the bowels, which causes much disease. Burdock Blood Bitters cure constipation. 2 4 6

Bon Marche open till 10 to-night.

A Sad State.

From the Merchant Traveler.

"It's a pity," remarked the preacher, "that the world is so prone to be untruthful."

"Well, yes, rather," replied a layman.

"I have noticed for some time past that the evil has been growing, and not only in great things, but even about small things lies will be told."

"True, very true," answered the layman, sadly; "I was reading yesterday that 'heaven lies about us in our infancy.'"

Then the preacher put on his hat and went out to commune with the hitching-post.

No Such Word as Fail.

—A failure to relieve or cure summer complaints can never be truthfully applied to Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. All dealers sell it. 2-4-6

Actor and Priest.

From the Chicago News.

William Florence, the actor, and Mgr. Capel, the famous prelate, have been friends for a number of years. It is not known whether a trifling incident which occurred a few days ago has interrupted their friendly relations. They met on the street here in Chicago, and, after a general conversation, Florence asked Capel whether he ever spent an evening at the theatre, intending, in case of an affirmative reply, to invite him to one of his performances. Capel shook his head. "No," said he. "It has been twenty-four years since I attended a theatre, and I cannot conscientiously bring myself to patronize a place where the devil is preached." Mr. Florence protested that the monsignor placed a false estimate on the theatrical profession. "Ah, no," replied Capel, with a sad smile; "you people are sincere enough; you don't know it, but you preach the devil all the same." "Well, your grace," inquired Florence, with great urbanity, "which is worse, preaching the devil from the stage without knowing it, or preaching Christ crucified from the pulpit without believing it?" "Both are reprehensible," replied Mgr. Capel, and bowing stiffly he went his way.

Respect Old Age.

—An old favorite is the remedy known as Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Thirty years reliable for cholera morbus, diarrhœa and summer complaints. 2-4-6

—The reason why "Nonsuch Washing Compound" should be used in preference to all other washing preparations. First, It is perfectly harmless. Second, It saves more than half the labor. Third, It is the cheapest in the market. Many more could be given but this should be sufficient. For sale by all grocers. Lowden & Co., Wholesale, Agents for Toronto. 2-4-6.

DAY'S BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Established 1862, will be REOPENED on MONDAY, Sept. 1st next. This College is a thoroughly practical business school. A large number of its graduates and members are occupying responsible positions in Canada and the United States on their own as well as on others account, and by the satisfactory manner in which they discharge their duties, plainly evince the great benefit to be derived by pursuing a systematic course of instruction in accounts and business practice, under the supervision of a practical accountant and a man of business experience, before entering into mercantile life; and to which all, both principals and employees, give their unqualified assent and endorsement. All who require business training are requested to make inquiries as to the high reputation the Principal of this College has established, and still maintains by the thoroughness of his work. For terms address JAMES E. DAY, accountant, College Rooms, opposite Royal Opera House site, Toronto. 46
