House adjourned at 6 o'clock.

FREDERICTON, April 14.

Several unimportant Bills were before the House to-day. A Bill relating to the participation of the St. Croix passed in Committee. Progress was reported on the Bill relating to Municipalities, as also upon the Bill relating to non-resident licensees of the City of St. John.

The Bill relating to the Police of the City of St. John was slightly considered. Mr. Watts's amendment that all cases under the Prohibitory Law, and others of a like nature, be tried only before the Police Court, was carried by a majority of two, after an animated discussion.

The Trade Committee recommended a sum of money to be placed at the disposal of his Excellency the Lieutenant Governor to settle claims of Brewers and others, arising out of loss sustained by the operation of the Prohibitory Law. This report was accepted not without considerable opposition, being offered to the recommended appropriation. (The sum is said to be £10,000.)

Mr. M'Naughton's Bill to amend the Election Law stands as the order of the day for Friday.

House adjourned at quarter to six o'clock.

Prohibitory vs. Stringent Liquor Legislation.

The following is from the True Witness, a Canadian Roman Catholic paper:

"Two systems of Temperance Legislation have each their respective advocates. The one proposes to suppress drunkenness by a total prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors; and hence the liquor traffic is somewhat essentially and literally evil. The other proposes to effect the same object by what they call "stringent" license laws. They would not condemn the traffic as evil; but they would throw as many impediments in the way of the sale of liquor, and make the situation of the dealer so disreputable, and so preventive as to deter all respectable men, all with any character or property to lose, from engaging in the hotel or tavern business. Of the two, we must confess that the plan advocated by the "Maine Liquor Law" men seems more impracticable; is certainly more sweeping; than that advocated by the friends of the "stringent" license system."

ARRIVAL OF THE CAMBRIA.

SEVEN DAYS LATER.

HALIFAX, April 14th.

The Cambria arrived at Halifax on Monday the 14th inst., at 6 o'clock, A. M. The Asiatic reached Liverpool at midnight the 30th ult., and Baltic at 7 on the morning of Friday the 28th, bringing the intelligence of the Pacific.

Action of the suggestions made by the press and individuals, the Government has sent out steamers to search for the Pacific on the north west coast of Ireland.

The Cambria conveys Government Dispatches to the Governments of British American Colonies.

CONFERENCES.

Congress met again on Thursday the 27—all the members were present. The deliberations were reported to be important. A basis for a treaty of peace it was confidently believed, would be signed on Saturday the 30th March.

The correspondent of the "London Times" says that the Court tradesmen have been ordered to prepare illuminations for Saturday, definitely. Other papers say some day, others one day next week, but all agree will be early.

Previous intelligence from Paris had stated that Diplomatic difficulty is on the point of being settled. It will be remembered that on Saturday the 22d, the Plenipotentiaries assembled with the expectation of that day terminating their labours.

Napoleon is reported to have fully supposed that the business was over, and to have ordered the guns of the Invalides to announce the conclusion of peace at the same time that the "Te Deum" was being celebrated for the birth of his son.

The claim of Prussia to sign the treaty on equal terms with the other Powers, caused the delay. Lord Clarendon having earnestly pressed Prussia's claim, and insisted that she should only adhere to the treaty in the same manner as France did to the treaty of 1840, which was signed without her participation in making it.

The Paris "Patrie" Government paper, now says, without infringing on the necessary reserve, we can announce that the difficulties of which some foreign correspondents have spoken, have not been attended with any important consequences; the Congress and its commissioners continue to labour at their task. The commission consists of all the second Plenipotentiaries, Prussia, Wurtemburg, Cowley, Hubner, Brunow, Villamarina and Hatzfeldt—Depasto Bey being ill, Ali Pacha replaces him.

The "Times" correspondent says, that Clarendon prevailed in his motion, and that an arrangement is come to that Allies shall sign one protocol and that a second shall be drawn up, which Prussia and the Allies shall sign jointly. The committee are now occupied in the reduction of both protocols, the only delay, supposing no accident to occur, can only be in the proper training of the protocols.

The London Times' editorial speaks of our Ally's unwieldy and undignified demonstrations in favour of peace and conceives that the British will be discontented with the terms of peace, the only results to England being her victories and consciousness of undiminished resources.

The armistice is not formerly prolonged, but telegraphic instructions are sent not to renew hostilities without express orders.

CRIMEA.

Advices are to the 13th, the health of the French has improved. Several conflagrations occurred in Eupatoria.

Ten thousand English troops were at Balaklava.

General Marmora has left Constantinople for the Crimea.

The Polish General Scamoyski has arrived at Constantinople.

The English fleet was expected at Malta. The weather in the Crimea continued stormy.

Omer Pacha had a lengthened interview with the Turkish ministry. He seems determined to resign unless he receives certain satisfactions he demands. There is no excitement whatever in Britain respecting American difficulties, and interest in the subject is almost extinct although papers continue to discuss them editorially. A writer dating from Paris over the signature of a statesman sends an admirable letter on the subject to the London Times.

The London Marine Insurance underwriters held a meeting to discuss present state of that business. Baring presided. Discussion adjourned.

Louis Kossuth writes to the press, expressing himself mortified by the recent appeal made by Walter Savage Landers, respecting Kossuth's straitened circumstances.

The crew of the Russian frigate Diana arrived prisoners at Falmouth.

FRANCE.

The papers continue to publish showers of congratulatory addresses.

A review of one hundred thousand men will be held at Paris to celebrate the signing of peace. The review nominally as a compliment to Count Orloff, the only soldier of the Plenipotentiaries.

Among the rumours prevalent are, that the Emperors of Russia and Austria have respectively promised to visit Paris soon after the conclusion of peace.

Six thousand French have embarked at Marseilles for the Crimea, probably to supply the sick vacancies.

Napoleon determines to send an expedition and colonization to Madagascar. England does not oppose.

SPAIN.

The Queen of Spain has performed the annual ceremony of washing the feet of the poor, as did the Emperor of Austria. Nothing more of reported Carlist troubles.

GERMANY.—The Assembly of Hamburgh rejected the project for a constitution drawn up by the Germanic diet.

AUSTRIA.—Differences between Austria and Rome relating to the proposed conference to interpret the Concordat, have been mutually arranged.

Very bad feeling is exhibited by Russia and Prussia towards Austria. It is exhibiting itself in numerous small matters.

PERSIA.—Mr. Murray, British Minister from Persia, is still at Tabriz, but it is said that Persia having apologized, he will return to Teheran.

MARKETS.—Breadstuffs dull; Western Canal flour, 31s. to 33s.; Ohio, 36s. to 37s. Cotton 3-4 d.

DEATHS.

On Tuesday morning, Mrs. Hannah Bunn, aged 76 years, relict of Thomas B. Cornhill, in the 40th year of her age.

Monday morning, Janet Ai William, infant daughter of Mr. Wm. N. Melick, aged 4 weeks.

At the residence of Mr. H. Rowe, Carleton, St. John, on Thursday, Elizabeth, fourth daughter of Mr. William H. Rowe, of Westfield, K. C.

[FOR THE CHRONICLE.]

SUGGESTIONS TO MR. ALDERMEN.—Will the Mayor, and Corporation tell the people why THEY do not, as by Law directed, compel Mr. John Walker, Nichols' Estate, and the Peters' to pay their respective assessments for the opening of Canterbury street? and pay it over to those to whom it belongs.

A TURRETED ARMADILLO.—The United States steam frigate Merrimack, which recently left Boston, under command of Captain Pendergrait, and concerning which all the "papers" have been speculating the past few weeks, carries the most terrific armament of any vessel of her class in the navy. On the main deck she will carry two sixty-four-inch guns, each weighing nine thousand pounds. On her spar deck she has fourteen eight-inch guns, each weighing seven thousand pounds, and two ten-inch guns, one forward and the other aft, weighing twelve thousand pounds—in all forty shell guns. Her length over all is three hundred feet; breadth fifty-one feet six inches; and measurement four thousand tons, with conveniences for carrying seven thousand tons of coal. She carries a full complement of five hundred and sixty officers and crew.

AN ERROR.—As a second thought given by the Printers in Boston, the following truthful and sensible lesson was issued—

"The Press.—The world who is expected to know everything will all be undone, and the world, to make sure, will be sure to find out the character, and exposure of the printer, the author, and every one concerned, to the end that everybody, and everything, may be published and made ridiculous. Yet the world, of course, will not be satisfied with enough on his shoulders, or "that we lay the blame on the press, being a inanimate machine on the track of public conscience: his hand is like one, his voice is filled with lies, his mouth is full of calumny, and his driving wheel is poison and venom; whenever he daughters, it is caused by the non-payment of subscriptions. He is expected to work for nothing and board himself—and if he is unfortunate enough to have a family, he will either have to run in debt for their support or take lodgings in the almshouse. Poor fellow! he is—nothing but an editor.

A GOOD SUGGESTION AND PLEASING.—The existence of such a thing had been noticed by Cooke. We hence now published satisfactory evidence that a new and very similar to that which passes our Eastern coast, runs along that of Eastern Asia across the whole breadth of the Temperate Zone, and in a south easterly direction. Lieut. Bent, of the U. S. Navy, has recently brought it to public notice in this country.

General Activity a Lawyers at Saints.—Thousands of individuals of both sexes suffer a martyrdom with these complaints, and are at an utter loss to know what to do to alleviate their sufferings, having recovered in many instances to the very last thing in the world likely to benefit them. Holloway's Pills are the most celebrated medicine for general debility, and lowness of spirits, as well as for all diseases to which the human frame is liable, and they will most certainly effect a cure of bowel and liver complaints, indigestion, and all other derangements of the intestines in a remarkably short space of time, after every other remedy has failed.

It is believed that in the United States alone not less than 30,000 persons are engaged in the tobacco trade.
