Every man knows of a good use to which some other man might put his money.

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels, promptly and cause a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc. in the market.

A person must have some sense before he can know whether he has any or not.

Mr. J. R. Allen, upholsterer, Toronto sends us the following: "For six or seven years my wife suffered with Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Inward Piles and Kidney Complaint. We tried two physicians and any number of medicines without getting any relief, until we got a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. This was the first relief she got, and before one bottle was used the benefit she derived from it was beyond our expectation."

nual Meeting of the London Y. M. C. A.

d Work Done by the Association—he Reports of Committees—Statistical Records—Election of Officers.

Tuesday evening the annual meeting of Y. M. C. A. was held in the commodious lor. A large number of young men wed their active interest in a good cause their presence and enthusiasm. In the sence of President Hobbs the chair was upied by J. Frith Jeffers, and the meet was opened with devotional exercises by Rev. H. C. Speller and Rev. W. yhurst. The reports below tell their own ry of last year's work.

The report of the Ladies' Auxiliary owed 14 associate and 11 active members all good workers. The receipts from tober, 1889, had been $31 77, with a lance on hand of $20 59. During that riod 13 meetings, 5 receptions, 1 lecture d 1 garden party had been held. M. A. oore is the secretary and Mrs. Gregsten e treasurer. Report adopted with nks to the ladies.

L. W. Noble presented the membership port, showing a total of 302 members, e having died and another withdrawn. e senior members were made up of 102 tive, 79 associate, 31 honorary and 2 life. ethodists numbered 99, Presbyterians 38, piscopalians 26, Baptists 19, Congregalists 4, doubtful 19. The concert and ture course had produced $96 and had en the means of increasing the membership.

George T. Grasby's Mission and Tract ommittee report evidenced the usefulness that branch. Jail work had been regu ly kept up and was a wide field for labor. e hospital was visited Wednesday evening, and meetings were also held in the intry barracks, at the livery stables, the T.R. roundhouse and station yards. At these places religious literature was istributed. Due thanks was tendered homas McCormick for his kindly assistnce, James Anderson for tracts, and others ho had aided. Adopted.

Frank Holman read the report of the evotional Committee. During 44 weeks nding May 1, the following meetings had een held: Sunday evening general meetgs 7, attendance 327; Sunday afternoons 5, attendance 2,318; for Bible study 34, ttendance 226; Saturday evenings 39, atendance 735; Sunday morning prayer 22, ttendance 185; for commercial travelers , attendance 9; boys' 44, attendance 276; special 10, attendance 1,840—an verage of 4 meetings per week and a total ttendance of 6,996. Visitation work had een carried on actively. During the 10 onths 9 persons had professed conversion. he Sunday afternoon meetings had been ery helpful, although the attendance aturday evenings was not very encouraging when the number of young men who araded the streets was considered. Since Mrs. Sayer had assumed charge of the oys' meetings they had prospered greatly. he want of music was touched upon. ood prospects were ahead and the committee this year should do like the little oy on the runaway hayrack—pray and ng on.

The report passed after some discussion to the best method of improving the aturday night meetings. The necessity of ersonal invitation and effort was strongly mpressed.

Two or three minor reports were then aken up. W. J. Lind stated on behalf of he Extension Fund Committee that circulars had been sent to every member and considerable number of pledges obtained. W. Hobbs' report of the junior branch howed 39 boys' meetings held, with an verage attendance of 28. Gratitude was expressed for the consideration of the irectors in providing recreation grounds. V. Partridge, the secretary of the new oating club, reported on its recent organization.

Secretary Sayer's report was interesting. The statistical record shows that during eight months he has made 1,810 and received 1,752 calls and sent out 2,259 and received 919 letters and cards. The attendance in the building for 207 days had been 19,150. The association was not bound up in the secretary or carried around by the directors, but each member individually was part and parcel of it, so its work was a failure or success as they made it. He thanked all for the kindnesses shown him while a stranger in the city. It was to be hoped that all possible endeavors would be put forth to make this a year of freedom to many a young man in the city.

The report of the Board of Directors alluded to the absence of a secretary at the beginning of the current year, thus causing reports to date from July. Three of the directors having resigned, John Cameron, Frank Holman and James Gordon were appointed in their places. In the opinion of the Board the changing of Sunday evening general meetings to Sunday afternoon meetings for men only had been a good one. By the reports of the several committees it would be seen that a vast amount of work had been done, though much remained for future efforts. The report suggested that the work be planned before the hot weather, in readiness to start in by Sept. 1. It was hoped the new recreation grounds would be taken full advantage of; steps were being taken to put them in first-class condition. Thanks were due to the worthy treasurer, H. E. Nelles, to the press and all who had assisted. The report nominates the following: W. R. Hobbs (president), Thomas McCormick, H. E. Nelles, William Glass, William Bowman, Henry Bapty, W. M. Spencer, John Cameron, V. Cronyn, Joseph Jeffery, J. F. Jeffers, James I. Anderson, T. F. R. Eccles, Frank Holman, W. S. Williams, H. A. Hodson and Geo. A. Somerville as a board of directors for the ensuing year, and Ald. W. M. Spencer and H. Bapty as auditors. The report was adopted.

The following committees were also elected, the first named being chairman. Devotional—Frank Holman, Wm. Lind, George Grasby, Jas. W. T. Park, Bert. Howard, James Jeffery, W. J. Doherty. Membership—Jas. W. T. Park, A. J. Wilson, Wm. Muir, Robert Lind, L. Noble. Mission and Tract—George Grasby, Alf. Hogg, Alex. Hay, E. W. Odell, John Hoi-

Reception—T. B. Howard, E. B. Hamil-, E. R. Struthers, W. Partridge, R. W. Gurd, W. J. Doherty, Wm. Muir, Noble, W. Lind, Davis Rougvie, D. M. B. Screaton, Jas. Muir, G. J. Clark. Visitation—Jas Jeffery, C. J. Burns, D. Ion, J. Case, A. Parker. Library—John Cameron, Jas. I. Anderson, A. Nelles, H. A. Hodgson, Wm. M. Ger. Gymnasium—Wm. R. Hobbs, H. E. s, H. Bapty. Music—Dr. O. VOICES OF THE PEOPLE.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Several of my shopmates and myself had an argument the other day. There were different opinions among us, so we decided to have your opinion through your paper, if you would be kind enough to give it. The question is this: "Is a practical pipe-layer, either water, gas or steam mains, classed among the different trades or not?" When the water commissioners let the contract for laying their mains this year, one of the party said he ought to have the contract on the ground that he was a mechanic, and that the man that got the contract was only a laborer; but I place him as a practical pipe-layer, and my reasons for doing so are this: When Stevens & Burns got the contract to lay all the mains in the city and to Springbank in 1878, according to this man's statement they could have got all the help they wanted in London. There were plently of blacksmiths and mechanics of all kinds idle in the city at the time, as trade was very dull. But they knew it was no use, and had to advertise for practical pipe-layers, and paid them from $1 75 to $2 50 per day. What I hold to is this, that waterpipe-laying is a branch entirely by itself, and it takes years to make a man perfect at the business. Now Irwin, the present contractor, has had very good experience. When Peter Rimmer and our present foreman of waterworks was running the contracts for Stevens & Burns, two men that had spent the most of their lives at the business, he went with them to Hamilton, where they laid seven miles of pipe, five miles at Brampton and five miles at Dundas. Now, all of this ought to give a man pretty good experience, and more than that mostly every waterworks system on the continent of America is run by practical pipe-layers, and still this mechanic or blacksmith put them down as as laborers.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

A grocer owed me a sum of money. I gave out several orders to creditors of mine on this grocer, who was then solvent, and remained so for ten days after I gave the last order. If any of these orders were not presented to the grocer before failure, can they be returned to me? Am I responsible?

The O'Hearn Trouble.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

If you had the goodness to take your report of my arrest from the clerk's official account you would see it plainly stated that I was arrested by my sister Mary Ann for threatening language. Now, my two sisters, Kate and Maggie, wish it stated in your paper that I never used an unkind act or word towards them in my life, but have been the kindest brother to them, and it was in defending my sister Maggie from insult I got arrested. Yours truly, JOHN O'HEARN, DANIEL O'HEARN (father), CATHERINE O'HEARN (mother), KATE O'HEARN, MAGGIE O'HEARN.
