The Secret in Getting Ahead is in Getting a Start

The first step toward substantial progress in life is getting a home. Every man should have a home, and if he is married and has a family, the duty is even more imperative.

WORKINGMEN!

HERE'S YOUR START—TAKE IT!

Yes, you need not look at your more fortunate friends and wonder how they managed to get a home—you can have one of your own.

As Easy as Paying Rent

Here's the way to do it. Get a lot in the

PARSONS ESTATE

You can buy one for $4 to $12 per foot, on easy terms—$10 down and $5 per month. You get immediate possession and can start building at once. Our terms are so easy that by setting aside the amount you formerly paid in rent, it will very largely pay for building your house. Start now and build in your spare time and you will have it done by fall.

GO AND SEE PARSONS ESTATE SATURDAY AFTERNOON OR ON YOUR SUNDAY WALK

Saturday afternoon you will find our agents there to show you the unsold lots.

Parsons Estate is located at north end of Dufferin Street. Take Lansdowne Avenue car, Sundays, and go up to Davenport Road, then east to Dufferin Street, and thence north to the property. The Carlton Street car goes up Lansdowne Avenue every week-day to the Canada Foundry. On Saturday afternoon our motor cars will meet visitors from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at end of Carlton Street line and take them to see the Parsons Estate. This is the best way of seeing the property. To those who cannot come in person, we would be glad to send a copy of our book about the Easy Way to Own a Home. Send us your name and address.

NEGROES PLEDGE SUPPORT TO ROOSEVELT IN 1912

National Business League in Session at New York Unanimously in Favor of the Colonel.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The support of the negro electorate of the United States for a possible third term was pledged to Col. Roosevelt to-day by the 1100 delegates to the National Negro Business Men's League, in convention here.

The endorsement of the former president came after he had addressed the delegates on the opportunities for advancement open to the colored race in this country, and as the climax of an earnest and eloquent eulogy of his conduct in office by Bishop Clinton of this city.

Recalling the words of the former executive, that he would not be one "to close the door of hope in the face of a man because his skin happened to be black," Bishop Clinton expressed the gratitude of all negroes for the encouragement which this attitude of the then president had given to his race, and closed by assuring Col. Roosevelt that whatever "promotion" in public life he might seek, he would always find the negro element solidly allied in his support.

The cheering which greeted this declaration had hardly abated when Booker T. Washington, chairman of the meeting, advanced to the front of the platform and urged that all in sympathy with the sentiment expressed by Bishop Clinton rise to their feet.

The entire assembly rose amid renewed cheering.

PRAISE FOR MISS HASWELL

Minneapolis Critic Glad to See the Talented Actress Here.

Caryl B. Storrs, dramatic and musical editor of The Minneapolis Tribune, was in the city yesterday.

"When I alighted from the train that had brought me to Toronto from a two weeks' fishing trip in Georgian Bay, I was a stranger in a strange land. I had just left a group of friends at Pointe au Baril, and was a victim of that most solitary variety of loneliness, that assails a man in a great city where he knows not a single soul," he said last night.

"It was, therefore, like the glimpse of a friendly face to see upon the billboards the name of Percy Haswell, and to learn that she was playing a summer stock engagement at your beautiful Royal Alexandra Theatre.

"In Minneapolis we have enjoyed two summer stock seasons, with Miss Haswell as leading woman of the company, and we realize, as I am delighted to observe, Toronto does also, her exceptional personal charm and the fact that she is to-day one of the foremost actresses of America. No American actress is more sure of herself or more certain to get the very point of her play and every nuance of her role 'across the footlights.'

"I saw her to-night as Syrienne in Sardou's brilliant satire 'Divorcons,' and it was as artistic and intelligent a performance as that of Sarah Bernhardt or of Grace George in the same play. In 'The Darling of the Gods' she has excelled, in my opinion, Blanche Bates, for whom Luther Long and David Belasco wrote the play; and as leading woman for Otis Skinner in 'The Honor of the Family' she divided honors evenly with that famous player. She is equally charming in farce, romance, tragedy or problem play, and Toronto is fortunate to have had an opportunity to see her in twelve plays of varying kinds."

Duelist Ends His Life.

VENICE, Aug. 19.—Count Ferrucio Macola, victor in the most sensational duel of 50 years in Italy, killed himself with a revolver to-day. His friends say he was hounded to death by the adherents of Felice Cavallotti, poet, dramatist, publicist and radical leader. In March, 1898, Cavallotti, who had fought 35 duels, forced another combat on Macola, following a dispute in the chamber of deputies, of which both were members, and was killed.
