FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, May 8—On Monday afternoon a special meeting of the senior branch of the Woman's Auxiliary was held at the rectory. Mrs. Daniel, president, was in the chair and conducted the opening devotional service, also giving a very interesting little paper on the life, work and example of "Dorcas," which was greatly appreciated. Reports of the annual diocesan convention, recently held in St. John, were given by the delegates, Mrs. Brock and Miss Magee, who evidently gave strict attention to the many subjects discussed and told the home society in a very interesting way of what they had heard. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered both ladies. Arrangements were made to pack the bales for Lesser Slave Lake Mission at the Sunday school house on the evening of Tuesday, May 19, and also to have the closing lesson of the mission study class at the home of Mrs. W. J. Davidson on Monday afternoon next. Among those attending were Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Hanington, Mrs. Domville, Mrs. Brock, Miss L. Professor Fletcher Peacock, of Fredericton, was in town Saturday.

The Misses Lena, Hilda and Minnie Tait, of Shediac, spent the week-end in town, guests of Mrs. F. B. Black.

Mrs. Albert Mott and children, of Campbellton, are visiting in town, guests of Mrs. Mott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson.

Mr. W. S. Fisher, of St. John, is spending a few days in town.

Mr. W. Turner left last evening for Lisbon Falls (Me.), where he will visit his daughter, Mrs. C. A. Wyndham.

The tea and sale of fancy and useful articles, given by the young ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church proved very successful. Delicious chicken salad and many varieties of palatable eatables were served to a large number. The well supplied table of useful and fancy articles was very attractive and lured many who could not restrain from purchasing. The May baskets found ready sale as did the delicious ice cream.

Mrs. Freeman Lake's little daughter and maid, of St. John, arrived in Sackville the last of the week, where they expect to spend the summer. Mrs. Tuck, mother of Mrs. Freeman Lake will join her later.

Mrs. William Ogden and her daughter, Greta, who have spent some time in Edmonton (Alta.), are expected to arrive in Sackville the first of next week. They will be accompanied by Mrs. H. H. Parlee and her three children, who will spend some time here.

Mr. Roy Barnes returned on Saturday from a several weeks trip to Winnipeg.

On Friday evening the boys of the Methodist church as well as a number of the boys of other denominations were given a supper in the Sunday school rooms of the Methodist church, which was greatly enjoyed.

On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Wood gave a fashionable and most enjoyable reception at their pretty home on Allison avenue. The drawing rooms were beautifully ornamented with cut flowers and ferns. Mrs. Wood received in a beautiful English gown of pink brocaded satin, and her guest, Mrs. Roy Sumner, was gowned in pink satin and black chiffon. During the evening an orchestra of five pieces rendered several selections and vocal solos by Mrs. John Hammond. Miss Kathleen Fawcett and Mr. McCallum were very much enjoyed. A few of the younger set tripped the light fantastic between 11 and 12. Included among the guests were Governor and Mrs. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Read, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mackenzie, Professor and Mrs. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher, Mrs. G. M. Campbell, Mrs. Horace Fawcett, Mrs. Dwight, Mrs. David Allison, Miss Lou Ford, Miss Cameron, Miss Kathleen Fawcett, Misses Lena, Hilda and Minnie Tait, Miss Kathleen Smith, Miss Whitman, Professor Hunton, Dr. B. Mrs. Robert Christie, of River Hebert; Miss Christie and Mrs. Botsford Smith, of Amherst, were guests of Mrs. Bates last week.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Mallory, representing the graduating class in household science, entertained at luncheon in the dining room of the domestic science apartment. Mrs. G. M. Campbell was the guest of honor, with other friends, including Mrs. Howard Sprague, Mrs. Dwight, Mrs. Wheelock, Mrs. Crowell and Mrs. A. H. McCready. The luncheon was a practical demonstration of what an up-to-date luncheon should be. Needless to say the various courses were prepared with skill and served gracefully. Very unique and pleasing was the large glass vase in the centre of the polished table containing daffodils and maiden hair fern. Very cleverly arranged were the yellow ribbon streamers, coming from among the centre of the daffodils and ending at each cover in a loop and daffodil, whereon rested the place card which was hand-painted, carrying out the color scheme.

Miss Josephine McLatchey, daughter of Rev. E. B. McLatchey, Moncton, who won distinction for herself at Yale, has added to her laurels by winning a coveted scholarship from the University of Chicago. Miss McLatchey is a graduate of Acadia and will continue her studies next year at Chicago. She has many friends here who will be pleased to learn of her success.

Mr. Caleb Phinney and daughter, who have lived in Cole's Island for over seventy years, expects to leave this week for Washburn (Me.), where he and Miss Phinney will spend the summer months with relatives. While Mr. Phinney's departure is to be regretted, it will be the wish of many that he may spend a very pleasant summer in the neighboring republic. On the eve of their departure from Cole's Island a number of their friends from that locality and Sackville gathered at their home and presented Mr. Phinney with a substantial leather traveling bag and Miss Phinney with a pretty gold pendant set in amethysts. Rev. H. W. Cann made the presentation. Mr. Albert Anderson gave a short historical sketch of Cole's Island. Refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

SUSSEX

Sussex, N. B., May 7—The many friends here of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ryan, St. John, sympathize with them in the death of their youngest son, George, which occurred last Saturday morning. The funeral was held Tuesday at the Millstream church; interment in the family lot there.

The Old Folks concert given last Friday evening by the Opportunity Circle, was not only enjoyable, but very profitable. Much credit is due the circle, and especially to their leader, Mrs. A. F. Robinson. The High school orchestra, under the direction of Mr. G. H. Warren, furnished excellent music. Mrs. Irvine Malcolm, of Moncton, gave several readings in the usual finished style. Miss Ethel Gray delighted her hearers with two solos. The choruses were especially good, those taking part being Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Myles, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ashford, Mrs. A. F. Robinson, Mrs. Percy Gunn, Miss Bess Parker, Miss Mary Allen, Miss Blanche McLeod, Miss Alice Mace and Mr. Howard Pearn. The duet sung by Mrs. Myles and Mr. Ashford was very pleasing, as was also the solo by Mr. Ashford. Another enjoyable number on the programme was a tableau. Very quaint and pretty the young girls looked at their work; some were spinning and some winding yarn, from wheels and swifts which had been used many years ago. Among the girls taking part were: Miss Marjorie Roach, Miss Hazel Davis, Miss Nellie Freeze, Miss Grace Davis, Miss Bee Lutz, Miss Muriel Armstrong, Miss Della Heffer, Miss Grace Armstrong. The costumes worn by each one taking part were very quaint.
