Any person desirous of securing a furnished room or suite of rooms in Wolfville for the summer may learn of a good opportunity by applying to THE ACADIAN.

Mr W. A. Reid is handling the popular 'Overland' car this season. Read the series of advertisements beginning in this issue. If in need of a car you cannot do better.

The annual reception given by the students of Acadia Collegiate Academy took place in College Hall on Saturday evening last and was a most successful and pleasing function.

Mr. Gordon Ainsley Bishop, for many years prominent in the public affairs of the Municipality of Kings County, and of the Township of Horton, died at his home in New Minas on March 17th.

A special meeting of the Kings County poultry club will be held in the Town Hall, Wolfville, on Monday April 1st, 8 30 p. m. Business very important. Will all members please attend. FRANK GODFREY, Asst Secretary.

Daughters of the Empire.

The sum of $65 37 was realized from the War Time Supper held in the dining room of the Baptist church under the auspices of the Red Cross and Daughters of the Empire

The Daughters gratefully acknowledge the receipt of $25 25 from the lecture given by Lt. Leon Archibald in their interest. Five dollars of this amount was contributed by the Seminary girls who were unable to attend.

As many socks have been coming in that are entirely too large for use, it has been thought well to give the following rules for the guidance of knitters. By far the greatest need is for socks of this size: Set up 62 stitches, rib 3 inches, knit plain 8 inches, set up heel, knit the foot not to exceed 11 inches from outside of heel to toe.

The Daughters hope to hold a rummage sale at a time and place to be announced later, and solicit contributions from all housekeepers. What a relief to know that you need no longer dust and lay away those perfectly good things you no longer need but which are too good to throw away. All such articles will be gratefully received and your country needs them Please keep this in mind when doing your spring cleaning, and you will have less work in the autumn.

10 P. C. FOR CASH!

We wish to announce to all our Customers that in the future we will give a

10 Per Cent. Cash Discount

On all Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes!

This will mean a saving to many, in these days of high prices and in run of a year will amount to dollars saved.

If any should think this will not be a genuine discount, we wish all to note that if any are not satisfied with the value received we will guarantee to refund their money.

The reason we are doing this is, that, although having at present a large number of regular customers, we do not feel that Wolfville gets its full share of the trade from the surrounding country, much of which goes to mail order houses and cities, although many would sooner buy at home and select their goods personally.

In this way we can sell more goods, do a larger cash business, which should enable us to get along with a smaller profit.

Lt. L. Archibald, M. C., R.E.

Lt. Leon Archibald, R. E., has just received word, unofficially, that he has been awarded the Military Cross This is a signal honour for an imperial officer and especially when granted to a Royal Engineer. When questioned as to why it was awarded he merely said, 'Oh, it was due to a little affair that happened in Trones Woods, I suppose.'

Red Cross Notes.

The Red Cross much appreciate the gift of $10 00 from Miss Eva Mason. This sum was especially earned for the Society. We admire that spirit and hope more of our boys and girls will do the same.

Mr. Chas. Hamilton, of New Haven, Conn., has very kindly sent $10 00. He never forgets us!

An Appreciation

To THE Editor of the ACADIAN:

SIR:—If I may be allowed to 'butt in,' as the boys say perhaps you would permit me to say how happy I am in common with many other citizens of our community to hear that Rev. Mr. Miller is to remain among us. Mr. Miller has always been a most useful citizen, ready at all times to lend a helping hand to every good cause, as well as a devoted and successful pastor and a preacher of more than average power The congregation is to be congratulated in retaining him and his family who are no less popular than himself.

L. W. SLEEP.

Two Recitals at Acadia Seminary.

On Friday evening, March 15, was given in College Hall a programme which included the two operettas, The Japanese Girl, by Vincent, and the Rose of Savoy, by Bordese. These operettas were directed and staged by Miss Newey, of the Vocal Department of the Acadia Conservatory of Music, and very efficient assistance was rendered by the Acadia orchestra under the direction of Miss Eadie. Miss Bunting, of the Conservatory staff, and Miss Lillian Russell, of the Seminary graduating class, were accompanists.

The chorus, which comprised twenty-two carefully selected and trained voices, did exceptionally good work. The soloists in the Rose of Savoy were Misses Edith Staples, Stella Jones, and Helen Starr. The cast in The Japanese Girl was as follows:

O Hanu San, a Japanese Girl of Position—Edith Staples, Marysville, N. B.

O Kitu San—Irma Corning, Chegoggin, N. S.

O Kayo San—Clara Payzant, Dartmouth.

Chaya, tea server—Ellen Spencer, Grace Bay.

Nora Twinn and Dora Twinn, young English ladies—Helen and France White, Sussex.

Miss Knowall, governess—Aileen Yeaton, Hantsport.

The work of Miss Staples, especially in The Japanese Girl, was of a high order. Miss Staples graduates from the Conservatory this year Nor must this statement be construed as casting any reflection upon the work of all the soloists. It was all good, but Miss Staples shows the results of her longer training.

A most interesting Junior Recital was held in College Hall on the afternoon of Friday, March 22 In this for the most part the juvenile pupils of the Conservatory participated apparently much to their own delight as well as to the unfeigned enjoyment of the audience The younger pupils were assisted by the older girls. The musical material at Acadia is evidently abundant and of exceptional quality.

In response to the appeal made in behalf of the Prisoners of War Fund by Captain Taylor, of the Military Y. M. C. A staff, the students have already pledged and given to this fund $1500 and this may be augmented to $2000. Since the beginning of the war the Red Cross Society of Acadia Seminary has given for all patriotic purposes including the pledge of $600 to the above fund more than $3,000 This shows what can be done by systematic giving of small amounts, plans for summer sewing, etc.

At The Opera House.

'Maciste,' the superman who's real name is Ernest Vagani, is to appear at the Opera House next Monday and Tuesday in the remarkable Photoplay, 'The Warrior.' Gene Willard the American giant Pugilist is a pocket edition to this Italian soldier who is a present holding up the honor of his country.

The story of 'The Warrior,' starring the giant Maciste, simply duplicates the actual experiences through which the herculean Italian soldier-actor passed through at the outbreak of hostilities. With several companions, Maciste was on the wrong side of the border when war was declared. The Italians were placed in a detention camp Maciste overpowered the guards, led his companions to safety and after many thrilling adventures, joined one of the brave band of Alpinos fighting in the mountain fastness to keep the world safe from democracy. The New York World says The Warrior is the best film Broadway has seen since Cabiria, it is thrilling, also rarely has a film contained so much excitement and humor, incomparable interest and fun. He is a whole show and 'some guy,' even war has its smiles, he is a mighty but a merry hero, he stands seven feet in height, weighs three hundred and thirty pounds has a chest circumference of fifty eight inches, his collar would more than encircle the average mortal's thigh See his wonderful feats of strength. All in all 'novelty' sums up 'The Warrior.' It is the biggest novelty of the year on either screen or stage It offers a new form of entertainment, which every one in Wolfville will welcome.

The story follows the adventures of Maciste as a member of the Alpine division of the Italian army. His many encounters with the Austrian, Fritz his rescue of the old Italian Count and his daughter from the invaders and the manner in which he reunites the girl with her lover are the principal episodes in the evening entertaining picture.

Sgt. Austin Chute (M A, of Harvard), connected with the 10th Siege Battery, sailed for overseas this week. Before enlisting Sgt. Chute held a splendid position in a New York college as teacher of classics; a position which he gave up in order to defend our cause Our best wishes follow him for a speedy and safe return.

NOTICE.

The water committee request that citizens discontinue the practice of letting the water run and urge stopping waste, as there is no more than sufficient water coming from the source to supply actual needs of the town. Until a big rain or thaw occurs the supply will grow less.
