Note and Comment

Rugby as she is played in England is to be disported before us, according to a despatch from New York. Since the outcry against the American college game the western universities have taken up the Rugby game, which has become very popular, but it has not gained much favor in the east, tho it is said that Pennsylvania, Yale and Harvard have Rugby teams playing the English game, but they are only second class, and would be no match for the English. An effort, however, will be made to assemble a combined eastern college team to meet the Englishmen.

According to the despatch a combined Oxford and Cambridge Rugby football team will visit the United States this fall, and will also play a series of games against the Canadian and western universities. A match may be arranged in New York City if a college team can be secured. The team will arrive in Canada in September, and will play matches against McGill, Toronto and other Canadian universities. The Britishers will then journey to Winnipeg. Matches have been arranged with the universities of Nevada, Chicago, California and other western institutions.

The question is, how will Toronto and McGill cope with the old country blues, when our game is as different from English Rugby as American college is to that played according to the Canadian code.

Sporting Editor World: Will you please give in your paper an example of how the pari-mutuel system works out in actual figures; also how the second and third money is divided? I have yet to speak to a person, either connected with the track or not, who understood it. Last fall I saw in The Sunday World an announcement that the O. J. C. had investigated this system and had decided it was not practicable for the Woodbine, but no reasons were given why it was not. If they can run it in Australia, why can't they run it here? The ratio of bettors to the sizes of their cities, I should imagine, would not be any more than here. Put it in the Note and Comment column and make an announcement before that you are going to do so, so that all the sports will get wise and discuss this question on its proper merits. Why not start a little campaign in favor of mutuels?

One Who Wants to Know.

Answer: The assistance of The Sunday turf expert, also Centaur, and others, has been sought for the solution of a proper description of the modus operandi of the mutuels, which will be duly given on this page in the near future.

The Ontario Jockey Club are naturally keeping open their stake entry list till the storm settles at Ottawa, which is expected to be soon. The races open at Woodbine Park, Saturday, May 21, which is King's Plate day, and there is ample time before then for many incidents to occur.

Dunc Campbell, the Handspring-Pond Lily colt in R. J. MacKenzie's string now racing in California, is said by the experts to be one of the best youngsters that have been shown on the coast this season. He has won his two starts. The stable has won seven races in the last few weeks, but has had a share of ill-fortune, too. Michael Angelo was very sick on the journey, and has not been able to run. The General Armstrong has not recovered from his injury of last fall, and it now seems unlikely that he will ever run again. This is particularly unfortunate, as he was a horse of unusual speed and promise.

The latest ailment of first-sackers seems to be aggravating callous growths on the feet, induced by the jolt of the spikes in tagging a base. Fred Tenney a few weeks ago underwent an operation on the heels from this cause. Claude Rossman has just been discharged from a Detroit hospital, where he had a growth removed from the ball of his foot.

A native enthusiast has asked Hugh Jennings, manager of the Detroit Americans, to pick the National League teams as he expects them to finish this year. Jennings made this prediction: First, Chicago; second, Pittsburg; third, New York; fourth, Cincinnati; fifth St. Louis; sixth, Philadelphia; seventh, Brooklyn, and eighth, Boston.

Your old friend, Deacon Jim McGuire, formerly of over the Don, is certainly overhauling that Cleveland team. Already he has disposed of thirteen players who were members of the Naps last season. In all, he has disposed of 27 men since the season ended. Twelve of these are divided between Columbus and Toledo.

Columbia Lacrosse Schedule.

NEW YORK, March 3.—The schedule of the Columbia lacrosse team for the coming season has been approved by the directors of the athletic association. Only seven games are arranged for at present, but it is expected that two more will be added, bringing the total up to nine.

Practice is to begin next Monday for both the varsity and freshman candidates. F. B. Tough, formerly captain of the Johns Hopkins team, will coach the Columbians. The schedule:

March 26, College of the City of New York at South Field; April 16, Lehigh University at South Bethlehem, Pa.; 23, West Point at West Point; 30, Hobart at Geneva; May 2, Cornell at Ithaca; 9, New York Lacrosse Club at South Field; 14, Harvard at South Field.

St. Stephens (58): Young, Thompson, Rogerson, Niblock, Anderson.

King Edward (50): Brodie, Rogerson, Freestone, Saunders, Stevenson.

St. Stephens (42): Bromley, Davis, Rogerson, Nicer, Stevenson.

Varsity Boxing To-night.

There is much interest centred around Varsity gym. on the boxing events that begin to-night. The boys have had their final workout and stand ready to do honor to their respective schools. One or two have had to go up one owing to their not being able to make the weight—Ingham from light to welter, and Willison from welter to middle. There will be a dozen boxing and as many wrestling bouts as time will permit.

Argonauts Hold Annual Dinner Many Present

The annual dinner of the Argonaut Rowing Club was held last night at the St. Charles, with President T. P. Galt in the chair. The room was daintily decorated with Argonaut colors, mingled with the Union Jack here and there.

About 150 sat down to a sumptuous repast. Among those present were: J. W. McAllister, captain of the Hamilton Rowing Club; P. J. Mulqueen of the Toronto Rowing Club, Captain Wilson of the Don Rowing Club, Commodore World of the Queen City Yacht Club, Coach Harry Griffiths of Varsity, George Ballard, R. McKay, sr., Rupert Muntz, G. H. Muntz, James Pearson, J. M. McWhinney, W. McKay, jr., W. Morrison, A. L. Eastmure, Major Heron, A. R. Vankoughnet, E. A. Thompson, C. Furlong, Controller Thomas Church, Joe Wright, Captain Barker, and many others, including A. McIvor of Edinburgh, Scotland.

After the toast to the King, Mr. Vankoughnet and Mr. McWhinney responded to the toast to Canada. In replying to the toast to the club, "Uncle" Bob McKay was given a tremendous reception. Mr. McKay dwelt upon the idea of having the club going for all kinds of sports, and pointed out the success of the hockey team this year as an example. G. H. Muntz and A. L. Eastmure spoke in glowing terms of the work done by the club, and their squareness in all sports. Coach Joe Wright of the Rugby club, thanked the boys for their faithfulness to the club last season in turning out to practice, and stated that their hard work last year was sure to bring better results this fall. Mr. Wright also gave great credit to the junior eight of last year for their remarkably good showing in capturing the junior and intermediate eights, and only being beaten out by the New York Athletic Club by six feet for the senior American championship. This year they will be stronger than ever, added Joe, and bade the rival clubs beware, for they were going to have two strong eights and as many fours.

Captain Phil Boyd of the senior eight rose to remark that he was present in the flesh, while Capt. Coryell of the Rugby club and Manager Sannagan of the hockey club gave good accounts of their charges.

"The Sister Clubs" was responded to by Capt. Wilson, P. J. Mulqueen, Coach Griffiths, P. W. McAllister, Commodore World and Larry Cosgrave, father of Jimmy Cosgrave, the sculler. Mr. Mulqueen urged upon the Argonauts to send Jimmy Cosgrave to England this summer—pointing out that Stuart, the winner last season, would not compete, and that Jimmy should win. However, Jimmy is going to England after the Diamond Sculls this summer, and will start training next week on the machines.

At the close, sketches were shown of H. O'Brien, the founder of the club; Robt. McKay sr., Bush Thompson, Joe Wright, Phil Boyd, Walter Harris, Skippen and Capt. Barker.

The musical entertainment was supplied by Harvey Lloyd, Eddie Piggott and the Doric Quartet.

Markham Hockey Tourney.

MARKHAM, March 3.—The Markham hockey games were continued to-night on fairly good ice and before a very large and enthusiastic crowd. The first game was played by the Grand Trunk seven of Toronto, and the Methodist Adult Bible Class of Markham. In the first half the A. B. C.'s scored six straight and in the second four more. The railroad boys only got two in the last half, ending in full time the score of 10 to 2 in favor of the Bible students.

Tho the score in this game was one-sided the play was fast and the railroad men's goalkeeper was responsible for the large tally. The teams:

In the next game the O.H.A. juniors of Markham and the intermediate team of North Toronto had a red hot go. After ten minutes' play, when the score was three to nothing in favor of the juniors, one of the visitors brutally struck one of the Markham boys, felling him to the ice with one blow of his strong right arm. There was positively no reason for this cowardly act, and the offender was promptly benched for the remainder of the game. The game continued six men each until the Markham boy was repaired, and with seven men to six the game ended 8 to 0 in favor of the Markham juniors, altho the North Toronto team worked hard. The teams:

To-morrow night the Broadviews v. Maitlands of Toronto, and the Juniors and A.B.C.'s of Markham will try conclusions in the order named. This will be a good evening's hockey. A special train will run as usual, leaving Toronto 6.30 p.m., returning after the game. Referee Waghorne is handling all these games in the tournament, which is a guarantee that only hockey is allowed.

Amateur Baseball.

A junior or intermediate league will be formed in the near future. Due notice of organization meeting will be announced thru the papers. All teams who desire to enter an up to date league conducted on business lines by responsible people are asked to attend.

The Garrett League baseball, the standard Canadian article, will be used by most of the amateur leagues in Toronto as usual the coming summer.

Underwood & Co. held a very successful meeting last night in their offices for the purpose of organizing their ball team, which was well attended, and a winning team is assured. Any person proposing to form a factory league is asked to communicate with the secretary. The following are the officers: Hon. presidents, J. J. Sykes, C. Sanderson; vice-president, T. Burns; secretary-treasurer, C. Gilhooly; manager, D. Leonard. The line-up comprises: Plaudmore c, Huck p., Bennett 1b., A. Sanderson 2b., Stanley 3b., MacBride ss., Daly l.f., Fee r.f., Newman c.f., Vennett, spare.

KEELER MAY COME TO TORONTO.

Wee Willie Keeler, just released from the New York Americans, unconditionally, has been made an offer by his former club mate, Joe Kelley, to play the outfield for Toronto next year. This he is considering in conjunction with another offer from John McGraw of the New York Nationals, also an old member of the former champion Baltimores.

BARRIE VS. PRESTON TO-NIGHT

Two Well Matched Junior Teams Will Battle It Out.

Preston and Barrie will try again to-night at Mutual-street, and break the deadlock to see which team will enter the Junior O.H.A. finals with Kingston. Those who witnessed these two teams play last Tuesday will be back again with their friends, for to-night's game promises to be no exception from the others, which were close and exciting. The two teams are well balanced and as each town will run a special train, the rink should be packed to-night. The plan is on sale at 189 Yonge-street. The teams:

Hockey Players Discharged.

BRANTFORD, March 3.—The sequel to the local wind-up of the Ontario Pro. Hockey League transpired in the police court here this afternoon when four players, Lehman and Corbeau of the Berlin team, and Sandford and Dusty of the Brantfords were discharged. Dusty and Corbeau were arrested while scuffling on the ice, the latter, however, being taken in mistake for Lehman.

The charge against all four was disorderly conduct by fighting at the Waterloo-street rink. Several reputable citizens who were spectators were called as witnesses and described the incident which occurred when Dusty went in on Lehman's goal crease, having just previously scored a goal in that way. The two collided and merely engaged in a hugging affair, all the other players rushing up, either to separate the pair or make it a general scrap, which was not shown. No blows were struck and the crowd followed the police on the ice.

Sergeant Wallace, who arrested Dusty, would not say that the conduct was even disorderly, and intimated that he had acted under instructions. Citizens swore, as well as Referee Kelly, that had there been no interference from the police, the game would have been continued, but the Berlin officials, with one of their players arrested, decided to withdraw. This incensed the crowd, and was largely responsible for the riot at the depot afterwards, the view being held that Berlin's withdrawal was the reason for the crowd not getting its money's worth. All the witnesses affirmed that the game was free from rough play, and that no blows were struck either by Lehman or Dusty. This settled the affair, and the magistrate, in dismissing the cases, said the police were justified in acting only because of what might have happened. The result was received with satisfaction by a crowd which filled the court-room to capacity, as the action of the police under the circumstances was by no means a popular one.

Pennetang Tie at Elmvale.

ELMVALE, March 3.—In a game of hockey played here last night against a picked team from Penetang, the locals sprung a surprise in holding them down to a two-all score. The game was rough thruout and only by close checking were the visitors prevented from taking the lead. The ice was very heavy, making it impossible for combination work. The line-up was as follows:

GRACE CHURCH CRICKET CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Season Averages Show Paris Leading Batsman and Short Best Bowler.

The Grace Church Cricket Club held their annual meeting at the residence of Dr. G. B. Smith (captain of the club), Wednesday evening. The secretary and treasurer presented their annual reports, which showed the club to be in a good financial condition, having a balance on hand.

It was decided to enter a team in both the City and Church and Mercantile Leagues again this season.

The president, Mr. M. Rawlinson, has very generously decided to entertain the officers and members of the club to a dinner, which will be held shortly, time and date to be arranged later.

After the business of the meeting was transacted, the members present were very pleasantly entertained by Dr. and Miss Smith in their usual hospitable manner, and enjoyed by all. The meeting was well attended, and great interest was taken in the coming season's work. The following officers were elected: Hon. president, Rev. J. R. Fidler, M.A.; hon. vice-president, Hon. W. J. Charles Seal was sent to jail for 60 days for theft of $23 in money and $35 in cheques from the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, by whom he was formerly employed.

Meadows Will Referee.

Fred Meadows, middle distance champion of the world, will referee the races between Percy Sellen and Don McCuaig, the Hamilton runner, and Tom Longboat and Paul Acoose at Riverdale Rink a week from to-night. Longboat has had another of those eccentric spells of his and insists on walking great distances in preparation for the race. He says he will run but little and that next week. The Onondaga thinks that he was enabled to beat Shrubb in that memorable New York match because of the benefit derived from the long walks he took around the country in the neighborhood of his New Jersey training camp. Acoose sticks to the traditional rules of training, and says that he must win or go back to the Saulteaux reservation in Saskatchewan to face the stern disapproval of his tribesmen. The prices will be lowered to 25 and 50 cents for admission.

Old Oriole Ball Champions Line Up With Mugsy McGraw

BALTIMORE, March 3.—Johnny McGraw is hot after Willie Keeler. He wired him yesterday that he would pay him a salary of $5000 and Mac now is waiting for word from the "Wee One." If Mac could get Willie, he would put him in the game and take a chance on Willie banging out a few more of those timely, well-placed hits that made him famous while a member of the Baltimore pennant-winning team.

In fact, Mugsey has become enthusiastic over the idea of landing Keeler. He says Bill would make a great coach for his youngsters, for there never was a ballplayer in the world who ever had anything on Willie when it came to placing his hits. No men ever pulled the hit-and-run game like McGraw and himself, and if Mac and Willie could teach the New York Giants how they used to do the stunts that made the Orioles famous in baseball history Keeler would be well worth his little $5000.

Aside from the fact that Keeler still has a chance to play real good ball, for he has taken care of himself, McGraw thinks a great deal of him. They were great friends when the pair played here together. In fact, the members of the "Big Four" were about as chummy as any four men possibly could be. It is rather an unusual thing for four such stars to be so friendly, for the little green-eyed monster usually creeps in and breaks up things. But the secret of the success of the famous old Orioles was that all the star players were close personal friends.

The great regard that the men have for each other has been shown in many ways since the days when they trotted over Union Park. Take McGraw, for instance, and see how eager he is to have Robinson with him every spring, and now he is after Keeler. On the other hand, Hughey Jennings and Joe Kelley are just as true and loyal. There is plenty of room in organized baseball for little Willie Keeler, and there are many owners of teams who would take a chance on spending considerable money to get Willie's services.

The manner in which Frank Farrell, owner of the New York Yankees, treated Willie when he let him out shows how he felt toward the little outfielder. He made Keeler a free agent when he could have sold him for a neat sum of money to either McGraw or Bill Dahlen of Brooklyn. But Farrell, in the goodness of his heart, realized that Willie had always worked hard in the interests of the Yanks, so he did not want to send him to any club where things might be disagreeable.

Old Robbie Robinson, also formerly of the Orioles, is down at Marlin Springs coaching the pitchers of McGraw's bunch. He was delighted when he heard that McGraw had made an offer to Keeler. Many of the other players were delighted, too, for Willie is popular with every man in the business.

MINING INSTITUTE NOT TO BE EXCLUSIVE

Considerable discussion over the proposed amendments to the constitution of the Canadian Mining Institute took place at the afternoon session of their annual convention yesterday. Several members were of the opinion that the membership should be more exclusive and consist of men scientifically connected with the mining industry. Professsor H. E. T. Haultain thought that the eliminating of the unscientific men would greatly weaken the prestige of the institution.

"If you make this a closed corporation," said Mr. A. Clabon, "of graduates in engineering and scientific men, you will not be able to go to the government at Ottawa as a national body when you are looking for a subsidy."

The proposed amendment was thrown out.

A very interesting paper was read at the morning session by Dr. A. E. Barlow, Montreal, on the "Origin of Asbestos." In spite of the fact that production had increased 150 per cent., the price had been raised 50 per cent. in the last six years.

Dr. Jades Douglas of New York referred to the possible utilization of low grade Quebec copper ores. "In view of the improvement in metallurgy for mining copper," he said, "this should be a simple matter."

Dr. Wilson commented on the lack of systematic, scientific exploration for minerals in Quebec.

A smoking concert in the ball room of the King Edward was the program for the evening session of the convention.

The feature of the evening was a presentation of a silver ink stand to Major Leckie in honor of his recent appointment as new dean of the mining institute.

The annual dinner will be held this evening at the King Edward.

Amongst those who registered yesterday at the convention were:

WAYNE GARDEN, DETROIT, Mich., March 3.—(Special.)—Larry Sutton's Liberty team of Rochester advanced into second place in the A.B.C. tourney to-night by rolling 2739.

The Royal Canadians and Athenaeums of Toronto rolled here to-night, but the latter did not take the alleys till near midnight.

The Royals did not fare very well, running into numerous bad breaks. They were off to a good start, but fell away, getting a 2632 total. Scores:

The A. B. C. Tourney.

DETROIT, Mich., March 3.—The leaders in the three events of the tenth annual tournament of the American Bowling Congress remained unchanged as the result of to-day's onslaught on the pins. New faces appeared, however, in the second place in the five-man teams and singls.

The Libertys of Rochester, N.Y., proved best of the first squad in the five-man event, rolling 2789, fourteen pins below the 2803 of the leading Colonials of Madison, Wisconsin. Their score was good enough to nose out the Elks No. 31 of Syracuse, N.Y., of second place by two pins. Larry Sutton, individual champion of 1909, was best with 181, 229 and 177. The team had hard luck, running into many splits and railroads.

The Royal Canadian five of Toronto was third to-night with 2632.

Drossman of Detroit was the leader of the four squads which shot in the singles. His 611 came within one pin of tieing George Oakey of Madison, Wisconsin, for the lead.

Three other men were able to get more than 600 in their series. Wm. Sage of Chicago scored 623, and went into sixth place. L. Bonning of Detroit was close behind with 620, while J. A. Stiggers of Vanwert, Ohio, counted 617.
