From Chas. Willmer's News Letter, of Feb. 4

The Parliamentary Session will be opened this day by Her Majesty in person. It is not difficult to anticipate, that from first to last the Royal Speech will consist of a string of congratulations on the Domestic tranquility and happiness,—the commercial prosperity,—the flourishing state of the public finances, the pacific condition of our relation with foreign countries,—the friendly visits of the King of the French and other European sovereigns. What of promise the speech may contain, we of course, are not sufficiently in the secrets of those in authority to hazard even a conjecture. Great things are anticipated and something of consequence probably will be done. In some quarters it is confidently announced that the tariff will undergo an extensive revision, the success of the former reduction of duties on imports having been most decided.—Wilmers' News Letter.

COMMERCIAL SUMMARY.

There has been a very large business done in most descriptions of merchandize since our last, and all of a bona fide character. The arrivals have been large, from all parts, especially from the East and West Indies, but the exports have been exceedingly light. The tendency to prices is downwards, owing to large stocks being in hand, and heavy sales being pressed on the market. Until the financial plans of the ministry are made known, it is not at all improbable that business in commercial circles may be, in some degree at least, restricted. Yet the business advertised inward is large. There is scarcely a branch of industry in which excellent employment is not offered. The iron trade has rallied immensely since this day twelvemonth; owing to the extension of railways, (we were going to say in all parts of the world, but certainly throughout Europe as well as at home).

The prospects of both spinners and manufacturers are bright, and many new mills are in process of erection. These undertakings seem to be generally entered into by parties already in the trade, and many therefore be considered as well advised, and warranted by the extension of the demand. The Canadians are now in the market, and report very favourably of the state of trade during the last season. Stocks, they say, have been very fairly sold off, and if the ports be kept within prudent limits, there is every probability of a first rate spring trade in our North American Colonies. The increase in the sales of cotton at Liverpool may be accounted for by the purchase made by the trade in anticipation of a struggle with the importers in opposition to their new regulations.

NEW GOVERNOR GENERAL FOR CANADA.

It has been currently reported that Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to appoint Sir Henry Pottinger Governor General of Canada, in the place of Sir Charles Metcalfe, who is seriously indisposed. The Spectator has represented the illness of Sir Charles to be dangerous, but this is stated by his friends to be an exaggeration.

SIR CHARLES METCALFE A PEER.

A recent Gazette contained this announcement,

"WHITEHALL, 16th Jany.

"The Queen has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal, granting the dignity of a Baron of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland unto the Right Hon. Sir Charles Theophilus Metcalfe, Bart, G. C. B., and Captain General and Governor-in-Chief of her Majesty's Provinces of Canada, New-Brunswick, and Nova Scotia, and of the Island of Prince Edward, and Governor-General of all her Majesty's Provinces on the Continent of North America, and of the Island of Prince Edward, and to the heirs male of his body lawfully begotten, by the name, style, and title of Baron Metcalfe, of Fern Hill, in the county of Berks."

LIVERPOOL TIMBER MARKET.

As regards the Timber trade in this port, the past week concluded has been of very satisfactory character, and is altogether the most remarkable that it has been our duty to record, whether we consider the exceeding extent of the import, (the largest ever known here,) the peculiar pressure with which it was thrown upon the market, (the bulk of it arriving in two months,) or the extraordinary sustained demand, with advancing prices, that has existed throughout.

The Tonnage employed in the North American Timber Trade exceeds that of any previous year, amounting to 369 vessels, 189,414 tons, against 311 vessels, 154,518 tons last year, and 300 vessels, 158,364 tons, taken on an average of the four previous years—excluding that ending 1st of February, 1843, which was only half an import. In addition to the above, very large quantities of Deals, &c., were brought in floor vessels, tonnage of which is not computed in the regular timber arrivals, but which still form a very large addition to the import.—The stock of square Timber, analyzed, consists of 1,552,000 feet of Quebec, 880,500 feet of St. John and Lower Ports, and 288,400 feet Red Pine. The sales of the month have been—of Quebec, from the quay, apart, by private at 18¼d to 19 1-2d per foot, and by auction at 19d to 19 1-4d, and 19d for very small average; of St. John, one cargo of 21 1-2 inch average is said to have been sold at 22 1-4d, one of 20 3-8 was sold at 20 3-4d, one of 19 1-2 inch at 19 1-2d, and one of 21 1-2 inch at 21d per foot.

The following summary contrasts the present with last year's import of square Timber:—

	1844.	1845.
Quebec,	2,653,000	3,664,969
St. John,	1,582,000	1,826,021
Miramichi,	60,000	49,241
Other Ports,	506,000	185,925
Red Pine,	619,000	420,418

PLANKS.—NEW BRUNSWICK AND NOVA SCOTIA.—Last year we recorded an import, the largest ever then known; but this year it is exceeded more than one-half, the import being 16,795,800 feet of 2 inches, against 10,522,000 feet last year. The consumption has been great, exceeding last year by more than 66½ per cent., being 12,999,800 feet, against 8,534,000 feet; and we carry over an unprecedented stock, being nearly double that of last year, say 9,136,000 feet, against 5,200,000 feet. This excess in Planks, which now rise at about 16d per cubic foot, will influence them, as already remarked of Quebec Deals, to be used in preference to square Timber at its present rates. The subjoined table will show the comparative rates of prices throughout the year. New Brunswick Deals, though rating lower, in proportion, than Timber, have a more extended application than Canada Deals, because of their longer lengths, which also causes them, in a great degree, to supersede Baltic. The latest sales have been of several cargoes of St. John at 2 5-8d, one at 2d 9-16ths, one at 2 1-2d, and one Halifax at 2d 7-16ths per foot of 2 inches; with cargo, they have been sold at 2 3-8d, 2d 7-16ths, and, in one instance, at 2 5-8d. A cargo of Miramichi Yellow has been sold at £10 10s. per standard.

At the annual meeting of the Anti Corn-Law League, Mr Bright said that body had expended, within the last three months, upwards of £30,000 in proselyting freeholds in North Cheshire, South Lancashire, and West Yorkshire.

The Espiegle, 12, designed by the committee of naval architecture, Messrs. Read, Chatfield and Creuze, and the Flying Fish, 12, designed by the surveyor of the navy, are ordered to sail from Devonport on another experimental trip.

Captain Carry, of the Superb, has set an example worthy of imitation throughout the navy, by issuing an order to the midshipmen's mess of his ship, that the outfit is not to exceed seven pounds for each member, and that the month's expenses afterwards shall not be more than 24 shillings per month.

Conversions from Romanism.—On Sunday last—the first Sunday of the year—six persons publicly renounced the Romish apostacy in St. Audoen's Church, and embraced the pure faith of the ancient church of Ireland; they also partook of the holy communion and signed the commutation roll. Since the month of May last five priests have openly abandoned popery, and there are at this moment upwards of eight hundred converts in and about Dingle, in Kerry.—Statesman.

Ministerial Arrangements.—It is definitely arranged that Sir Thomas Freemantle goes to Ireland as Lord Eliot's successor in the important office of Chief Secretary; that the hon. Sydney Herbert takes Sir Thomas Freemantle's place as secretary at War, with a seat in the Cabinet; and that the Right Hon. H. T. L. Corry succeeds to the first Secretaryship to the Admiralty, vacated by Mr. Sydney Herbert. Mr. Thomas Baring, M.P., has been invited by Sir Robert Peel to take office in all respects suited to his talents and commercial knowledge, and we fully expect that we shall, in a day or two, have to announce his accession to the Ministry in a position in which he can be eminently useful. Lord Dalhousie quits the Vice Presidency of the Board of Trade, and will become the head of that department by reason of the retirement of the Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone.

Our latest news from Frederiction states that a vote of "want of confidence" would be moved in the House on Thursday. If this be the case we may be assured for another fortnight or three weeks with long speeches on Mr. Reade's appointment. The result of the first debate on this question is given in our columns to-day, and it is to be regretted that the House, for the sake of consistency, had not come to that decision at once, as many of the members' speeches on the subject little accord with the spirit of the resolution, which gives Responsible Government the go-bye completely.

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE.—On Monday evening Mr. Hardings delivered an interesting and instructive lecture on Taste, and its application to Painting, &c., which was well received by a large audience. This evening Doctor Paddock will lecture on Animal Mechanics; and on Monday evening, Mr. Wilson, of St. Andrews, is expected to lecture on the Antiquities of Egypt.

The lectures lately delivered by Mr. Wishart, on Political Economy, have been published and are for sale at the Courier Office.—We acknowledge the receipt of a copy this morning, but have not as yet had time to examine it.

☞ Our old correspondent "A B." will no doubt be highly gratified to know that his shittes have been noticed in so high a quarter as the Woodstock Gazette, from which paper for last month we copy the following:—

"In another column will be found a copy of a very excellent letter, which appeared in the Saint John's Weekly Chronicle, published at New Brunswick, relative to the Duke of Normandie's non-recoil gun. We the more readily give a place to the letter, as it is evidently the production of a retired British officer, possessed of great scientific knowledge; and, although located "Down East," still deeply interested in all that transpires in this country, in connection with his earlier pursuits and the profession he has followed."

NOTICE TO BRITISH PRINTERS AND EDITORS.—The Editors and Printers of British Newspapers may save themselves some trouble by leaving out the apostrophe and letter s after the name of this city.—There is St. John's in Canada, St. John's in Newfoundland, and St. John's in the West Indies and other places, but there is no St. John's in New-Brunswick.—Please leave out the s, making the name St. John.

ROBBERY.—On Monday night the shop of Mr. Hugh M'Pherson, King's square, was forcibly entered by two thieves—the till robbed of a small amount, and sundry articles of provision, &c. prepared for being carried away, when they were discovered by one of the watchmen. The thieves, however, succeeded in forcing their way past him before assistance could arrive and for the time escaped. They have since been apprehended, and lodged in gaol.

On Sunday, Mr. N. A. Webber, of Boston, arrived in this city in pursuit of a burglar named William Baird, who, it appears (having previously been a servant man in the house, had entered the premises of Francis S. Blake, Esq. in Boston, and stolen therefrom a quantity of valuable Plate and Money. On finding that Baird was in the city, application was immediately made to His Worship the Mayor for the necessary authority to arrest him, and the services of Mr. James Stockford, High Constable, were secured for the purpose; the parties being well informed as to the desperate character of Baird, and the fact of his being well armed, as it afterwards proved, with a six barrelled pistol, (five of which were loaded,) a twelve-inch poignard and an Italian stiletto—all in best condition for use.

We are informed that the greatest credit is due to the High Constable for the courage and fearlessness he displayed in attacking and securing this desperado, and it was solely owing to his dauntless intrepidity that the capture was made without bloodshed. There is little doubt of Baird's fixed determination to keep his liberty at whatever sacrifice, then no hope of escape offered, to destroy himself.—Not being in the house throughout the day, it was about 9 o'clock in the evening when he came to his lodgings, where Stockford had been placed in the hall, who on his entering, immediately claimed him prisoner. This was no sooner said, than the pistol was about being drawn out, but before he could accomplish his purpose, quick as thought the High Constable had seized and thrown him on the floor, when a desperate struggle ensued for the mastery, and the pistol was finally taken from him. He was then handcuffed, and afterwards made an attempt upon his life with a penknife, but was prevented doing injury to himself by those present.

We understand that the professional services of M. H. PERLEY, Esquire, have been retained to take the necessary legal steps for sending this prisoner back to the United States, where he is claimed under the Ashburton Treaty.

We understand that the Committee of the New-Brunswick Auxiliary Bible Society, at a late meeting, resolved that it was expedient to make a general visitation of the city for the purpose of ascertaining and supplying the Bible wants that exist. To this end several sub-committees have been appointed, who will commence their labours of benevolence within a short period, as their reports are to be given in about the 1st of May. We hope every facility will be given, and all the courtesy shewn that the object requires.—Courier.

We regret to learn that the residence of the Rev. J. M. Stirling, Rector of Maugerville, was last week destroyed by fire, during his absence at Fredericton, and that the contents of the building, comprising a valuable library, furniture, wearing apparel, &c., were all consumed.—Ib.

CANADIAN MAILS.—We understand that the negociations between the two governments, for the transmission of the mails between England and her Canadian Provinces, through this country, has been concluded at Washington, and the Mails from England will hereafter be landed from the steamships at Boston instead of Halifax, and the Mails from Canada will be brought here and received by the steamers, instead of being taken to Halifax. The contract for the conveyance of these mails has been made by the Post Office Department, for the British Government, with the Concord Railroad Company. Bunker Hill Aurora.

MELANCHOLY OCCURRENCE.—The bodies of four men, all of one family, of the name of Mercer, have been picked up frozen to death in an open boat off Broad Cove.—They belonged to Port de Grave and had been out on a shooting excursion.—Halifax Journal.

Montreal, Feb 1.—The house of Assembly last night disposed of several of the orders of the day with tolerable celerity. The motion of Mr. Papineau, seconded by Mr. Smith, Attorney General, for addressing her Majesty to recommend an alteration of the Union Act so far as respected the use of the French language in legislative proceedings, was carried by acclamation. Mr. Lemieux brought forward his bill for allowing clergymen to vote at elections, and introduced an amendment disqualifying Clergymen from voting who received any emoluments from Government. This he withdrew, and Mr. Price, supported by Mr. Baldwin, introduced another amendment to the effect that no clergyman should vote in right of any property he held as a part of benefice. After a long and warm discussion, this also was negatived, and we understand the Bill to pass the committee, and simply repealing the clause of the act of last session disqualifying clergymen from voting. Capt. Williams also amended his Bill for enabling religious congregations to hold lands, by omitting the clause preserving a religious test, which we understand was only introduced by him to facilitate its passing, a similar clause having been added to the Bill last year, in the Legislative Council.—Gazette.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CHRONICLE.

SIR,—I should not have troubled you on the present occasion, and on so small a matter, if in blazoning forth the eminent services of M. H. PERLEY, Esquire, at the capture of Baird, on Sunday, the Editor of the New Brunswicker, had given the whole circumstances as they occurred; though I have not the slightest doubt they are furnished in that paper as the editor was informed.—In telling us that in consequence of the "strength and activity" of Mr. P., Baird was prevented cutting his throat, he forgot to inform us that the prisoner was already "cuffed." It might have been a different case had his hands been at liberty.—Again—the Constable and Mr. Scammell were the only persons, besides the High Constable in the Hall, when the latter threw Baird, and a scuffle ensued for possession of the six barrelled revolver: At the time Mr. P. came from a back room; but we are not told in the New Brunswicker that on seeing the "revolver" coming from Baird's pocket he immediately fled into the front parlour, crying out as he went "keep clear of the pistol." Now if Stockford had had as much preservative feeling as the gentleman who is so largely cracked up for his "strength and activity," no arrest of a "fugitive from justice under the Ashburton treaty" would have taken place, and the "energy and vigilance, courage, strength and address" of the captors of this desperado would probably never have been known to the public.

Yours, &c. FRIDAY.

NEW CHURCH AT UPHAM.

MR. EDITOR,—I offer no apology for requesting you to insert the following brief notice of an event which is interesting to every member of the church.

It cannot but be cause for joy and thankfulness when a building is erected and set apart for the honor and glory of Almighty God; an event for which all who love His Sanctuary must surely praise God and glorify His holy Name.

This feeling was especially exerted on Friday last, when the new Church in the Parish of Upham was for the first time opened for the celebration of Divine service.—If the beautiful Ritual of our holy Church addresses itself more powerfully to our affections at one time than another, it is, when we contemplate an assembled throng rejoicing in its sublime strains, that the work of their hands is consecrated to the service of their God. Such was the feeling of the Worshipers, when they hailed an house to the Name of the Lord their God, in which he will not disdain to dwell, and that this humble offering is acceptable in His sight.

When the frame was raised, the most sanguine only hoped the building might be used in two or three years; more thought that in their day it could not be finished; and even in less than 12 months, each individual who saw its first timber laid, has his heart gladdened by beholding its perfect beauty. Every part is completed in a way to reflect credit on the architect and builder, Mr. Isaac Raymond, of Norton. That it has been done with remarkable attention to economy, is proved by the cost being less than £600, which sum, with the exception of about £100 obtained by grants from the Venerable society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, the Church Society of this Province, and subscriptions from the benevolent in St. John and adjacent Parishes, has been collected in Upham. That the building committee have met their engagements promptly, is evident from the short time required in the work, and is alike creditable to all. Prayers were read by the Rev. William Scovil, Rector of Springfield and Norton, and an appropriate sermon preached by the Rev. William Walker, Rector of Hampton, who also has pastoral charge of Upham. The discourse was eloquent and impressively delivered, from 1 Chron. 17, 12 Verse 10.—"Arise, be doing, and the Lord shall be with thee; then said he unto me, let us go to the house of the Lord." He dwelt with earnestness on the relative duties of Minister and people, and with great force and perspicuity adverted to the blessings now within their reach, in having a temple in which they might assemble for social worship, with the Divine promise that Christ would ever be present with those who meet in his name. The officers of the church and the various classes of the congregation were separately and affectionately admonished of the duties incumbent on each, and the way pointed out in which all might aid and encourage their minister in his labours, and by promoting the cause of true religion, bring a blessing on our Zion.—With what grateful emotions must this Rev. Gentleman reflect on being the instrument by which such a congregation is gathered to worship the true God in our Apostolic Church.

After the sermon a collection was taken of over £4, during which Mr. Scovil read the offertory sentences, then the prayer for Christ's Church militant, and pronounced the blessing.—The heavy travelling did not deter a numerous congregation from assembling, though it no doubt prevented many from being present who would gladly have joined in the gratulations which flowed from every lip. Upham, Feb. 11.
