FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Saturday, Nov. 26.

Society's season has opened most satisfactorily and from now until Christmas there will be an incessant rush from one function to another. Also there are many fashionable entertainments for philanthropic purposes planned. Society of all ages is much interested in them and the variety of programmes that are furnished for the benefit of those who care to aid in the good work, and while doing so meet their friends under pleasant circumstances, is quite surprising. The Lady La Tour chapter of the Daughters of the Empire, who met last week at the residence of Mrs. J. Douglas Hazen, purpose holding a bridge about the 13th or 14th of December, at probably the Golf Club, for the benefit of the Tuberculosis Association. Then the "Lend a Hand" circle of the King's Daughters will give a moving picture show at the Opera House on the 5th and 6th of December, afternoon and evening. Several ladies and gentlemen have offered their services to assist in the musical programme. Tag day will also be an interesting one in the city, a great number of ladies being interested in the project. Like the King's Daughters' entertainment, the fund will be devoted to the Tuberculosis Society.

Notable among the week's social events was the reception and dance given on Wednesday afternoon and evening by Mrs. L. G. Crosby at her handsome residence in Germain street for the purpose of celebrating the double event of Miss Daphne Crosby's debut and birthday. During the afternoon, filled to overflowing with stylishly gowned women, the drawing rooms presented a beautiful appearance. Pink chrysanthemums in tall cut glass vases banked the mantlepieces, silver candelabra holding pink wax candles and shades were placed among the flowers, and southern smilax in large quantities fell in graceful festoons below these. In the dining room the color scheme was yellow and white. The handsomely appointed table had as centrepiece a basket filled with daffodils, on the handle of which was tied large yellow satin bows. Tiny bon-bon baskets of yellow with pretty daffodil decoration held choice candies. A handsome yellow and white electric dome shed an exquisitely soft light over the handsome china and other table ornaments. Mrs. Crosby received her guests in the dining room, very elegantly gowned in a natier blue embroidered costume trimmed with silk iridescent garnitures. The yoke and sleeves were of Persian lace; ornaments, diamonds. Miss Daphne Crosby, who received with her mother, made a charming picture gowned in an imported costume of white crepe de chine embroidered with seed pearls, and almost hidden from view by the magnificent floral tributes sent from out of town friends and from many in the city. Quantities of jacquiminot roses, carnations, American beauty roses and fragrant violets formed a floral display seldom seen on such occasions. In the dining room Miss Hazel Hall and Miss Lillie Raymond presided, the former gowned in white lace over satin, black velvet hat with white fox crown trimmed with pink roses. Miss Raymond wore yellow ninon de soie over silk of the same shade, black beaver hat with yellow and pink rose garniture. Those who waited were Miss Kimball, Miss Ethel Emerson, Miss Farquhar (Halifax), Miss Jean White, Miss Mary MacLaren, Miss Vivien Barnes, Miss Jean Leavitt, Miss Kathleen Trueman.
