CARTER HANDICAP TO-DAY ROSEBEN SELECTED TO WIN

Good Opening Card at Aqueduct--Montgomery Handicap on at Memphis.

New York, April 15.—The Carter Handicap, the $10,000 feature of the opening day of Metropolitan racing, will be run at Aqueduct to-morrow over a track deep in mud. Heavy rains to-day put the going in such bad shape that no amount of work can make the course other than heavy and holding. The indications to-night, however, are that the field in the Carter will be the best attracted by the stake. The race has grown into an unusually rich stake for so early in the season and the open winter has enabled trainers to get their charges into racing condition much earlier than for years past. The Carter has always been an interesting race, as it has furnished the first real contest between the better class of horses and has oftentimes developed the horse of the year. This was notably the case in 1904, with Beldame. Last year's Carter was won by Grmonde's Right, who again is a candidate this year.

For the first time this summer there will be a well-organized secondary racing circuit in the east. The circuit will include the Pimlico meeting at Baltimore, which begins Monday and continues until April 28, the inauguration of the New England Breeders' Club, with a meeting at Rockland Park, not far from Boston, June 28 to July 27, the Narraganset Breeders' Association meeting at Narragansett Park, R.I., July 22 to Aug. 11, a fall meeting at Rockingham Park, and dates at the other tracks yet to be assigned.

Public opinion as to the outcome of the Carter Handicap to-morrow is diversified as usual when a big race is about to be run. The fact that mud is to be encountered and that many horses are facing the barrier the first time this year, lends an amount of uncertainty that will make speculation all the more active. Many, however, favor the chances of Roseben, if the going is at all good and if he is sent to the post his position will undoubtedly be that of favorite.

Whimsical, the champion 2-year-old filly of last season, is another candidate whose chances will be fancied by many expert handicappers.

Lord of the Vale from the stable of August Belmont, the chairman of the jockey club, had his Carter preparation at Benings, where he was returned an easy winner during the past week. He likes heavy going and is regarded as a factor in to-morrow's feature. The two New Orleans representatives, Ram's Horn and Phil Finch, the latter one of the stars of the winter session in the south, have had a refreshing rest and have attracted much attention in the Carter trials.

The tentative starters, jockeys and probable odds are:

Horse.	Weight.	Jockey.	Betting

Sutton and Hoppe Defeated.

New York, April 14.—Willie Hoppe met his first defeat in the tournament for the International billiard championship this evening, when George Slosson beat him with apparent ease. The score was 500 to 245.

In the afternoon Jacob Schaefer of Chicago defeated George Sutton, 500 to 397. Schaefer jumped away in the first inning with a run of 30, and in the sixth inning he nursed and coaxed the ivories for 131. He maintained his advantage all the way to the fifteenth inning, at the end of which he led Sutton by over 100 points.

Sutton, who had been playing steadily against hard luck, made a wonderful brace in the sixteenth inning. He got the spheres well in hand after a few gathering shots and began to nurse them in faultless style. Sutton held them until he had clicked off 118 points, which gave him the lead. He did not hold it long, as Schaefer ran ahead again with 76 in his eighteenth inning.

Both men played well in the nineteenth, Schaefer scoring 72 and Sutton 74. The score then was 445 to 397 in favor of Schaefer, who won with an unfinished run of 55 in the twentieth inning.

Schaefer's average was 25, and his high runs 131, 76, 72 and 55. Sutton's average was 20 17-19, and his high runs 118, 74, 53 and 46.

Balmy Beach Gun Club Shoot.

The cup and annual shooting match of the Balmy Beach Gun Club was well attended, and the presence of some well-known city gun experts added interest to the occasion, especially as a match was soon arranged between them, in which Dick Mitchell won by a nose from Jacob Rogers after an exciting struggle. Craig, Purvis and Stewart, the also rans, kept the leaders hustling all the way, and it was anybody's match till the last shot was fired.

A special shoot was held for prizes kindly donated by Alex. Anderson, Andrew Wilson, Mr. Daley and others, in which W. R. Draper was top man, with 14 out of 15.

In the final shoot for the McGill Cup, Charles, with a straight score of 25, was high. Ross Pearsall and Lyonde tied at 22 each, and Draper got 20.

In the second shoot of the annual club series, W. R. Draper made a straight score of 25, Charles 24, Hambly 22, Pearsall, Seagar and J. G. Shaw 21 each.

In the third shoot Boothe, Ross and Draper tied at 24 each; Adams, Casci, Charles and J. G. Shaw, 23 each, and Hambly 22.

Every Swim a Record.

Save Your Regrets

Business men who come in here to buy Office Furniture and see the famous "Macey" Filing Cabinets, express the regret that they had not seen them before buying some other. It's too bad, of course, but you needn't do it. If you've a mind to see every other Filing Cabinet that's made, do so by all means, but see the "Macey" before you buy and save regrets. It is the best Filing Cabinet made. "Seeing is believing," you know.

PLAYED LEAGUE BASEBALL IN BROOKLYN ON SUNDAY

Boston Won 5 to 3---Pittsburg Beat St. Louis by Same Score ---Notes of the Diamond.

Brooklyn, April 15.—The grounds of the Brooklyn National League Baseball Club were opened to-day, when Boston defeated Brooklyn in the first Sunday game of the season here. No admission was charged at the several entrances, nor were any score cards or programs sold. At all the gates contribution boxes were conveniently and conspicuously placed and the majority of those who passed thru voluntarily dropped the regular amount charged for the grandstand, pavilion or bleachers on week days into these receptacles. The plan seemed to work, judging from the piles of silver that were being counted in stacks on tables in the clubhouse, while the game was in progress.

Any persons who did not contribute, and these were very few, passed in without hindrance. Deputy Police Commissioner O'Keefe, with his secretary and several policemen, were present, but there was no interference on the part of the authorities.

Five thousand persons witnessed the game, which was played on a rainsoaked diamond and outfield, a liberal use of sawdust around the bases keeping the runners from slipping. There will be no game to-morrow, as the one scheduled for that date was played to-day. Score:

TORONTOS AND TECUMSEHS MUST STAY OUT OF THE EAST

N.A.L.U. Turns Down Delegates in Undignified Manner—Foran Elected President.

The Toronto lacrosse emissaries returned from Montreal yesterday sadder but wiser men. Mr. Solman of the Tecumsehs and the Toronto officers thought that the C. L. A. seniors looked weak, with President Westbrook declaring that Brantford would have no team, and the Chippewas totally inactive.

A telegram to Joe Lally, who attended the C. L. A. convention, was a warm invitation to the Toronto teams to cast their lots with the N. A. L. U., hence the trip east on Friday night to the annual meeting of the eastern association.

McLaughlin of the Shamrocks volunteered to handle the admission applications that were tabled, while the election for the presidency hung in the balance. Foran of Ottawa had only the Caps and Shamrocks, while Carlind was supported by Montreal, Nationals and Cornwall. The big pair flaunted Torontos and Tecumsehs in their face, the result being that Carlind's name was withdrawn.

With Foran elected there was no more use for the tenderfeet from the west, and so they were told, whether politely or otherwise, deponent sayeth not. However, Nationals and Cornwall were alone in their support of Torontos and Tecumsehs at the finish, Caps and Shamrocks joining Montreal in opposition to the newcomers.

Thus the chapter ended, and when the smoke clears away the Torontos and Tecumsehs will appreciate that long before their delegates went east last week Caps and Shamrocks had a gold brick prepared for them, and they got it good and plenty. While it required a total vote for admission, they did not even receive a majority.

Now there will be no digging after clubs for a senior C. L. A. series, for surely good lacrosse can still be furnished by a league composed of clubs picked from Chippewas, Torontos, Orillia, Tecumsehs, St. Catharines and Bradford.

Cut Loose From C. A. A. U.

Montreal, April 15.—At the annual convention of the N.A.L.U., which was held here on Saturday evening, it was decided not to entertain the applications of the Tecumseh and Toronto Lacrosse Clubs. Mr. Foran of the Capitals was elected president and Mr. Thomas Carlind of Montreal vice-president. The league this season will be composed of Shamrocks, Montreals, Nationals, Cornwalls and Capitals. It was also decided to cut loose from the C.A.A.U., whose decisions are not liked. The action of the delegates in refusing the applications of Torontos and Tecumsehs, after they had been practically promised that they would be admitted, was sharply denounced by the western representatives. The union adjourned to meet April 25, when the schedule will be fixed.

Lacrosse on Saturday.

At Brooklyn Saturday, the Crescent Athletic Club lacrosse team proved too formidable an opponent for the College of the City of New York twelve. It was a one-sided battle from start to finish, and only their generosity prevented the champions from rolling up a heartbreaking score. The final score stood: Crescent Athletic Club 5 goals, College of the City of New York 0.

At Baltimore, in a well-played game on Saturday afternoon, the Johns Hopkins lacrosse team downed Harvard by a score of 7 goals to 1. At the beginning of the game Hopkins seemed to carry the visitors completely off their feet, Knipp scoring the first goal after 15 seconds of play. Harvard's only score was made by Mendell at first attack, in the first half. Hopkins scored six of its goals in the first half and only one in the last, when Harvard put up a great defence.

New C.L.A. Council's First Meeting

The first meeting of the C.L.A. council was held at the Iroquois Saturday morning, with President J. C. Miller in the chair. The other members present were O. S. Eby, Brown Jackson, T. E. McKim, H. Goodall, J. K. Forsyth, W. Tegart, B. McGuire and Secretary W. H. Hall.

The following district committee was appointed: J. D. Bailey, J. K. Forsyth, T. Doyle with the president and secretary as ex-officio members. They will hold their first meeting on Wednesday night, April 25, at the Iroquois. Clubs are requested to notify Secretary Hall at once as to which series they intend entering, and also suggest the districts they would like to be in.

The application of T. J. McFarlane (Brantford), who played one senior game last year, to return to the intermediate class, was granted, as were also those of the following Young Toronto men: George and John Heal, W. Morrison, A. Mara and W. Selby.

Robinson of the Chippewas, who played under an assumed name, was refused reinstatement.

The intermediate and junior districts will be formed on Wednesday evening next at a meeting of council, and clubs are asked to write the secretary at once as to the districts they would like to be placed in.
