The services are attracting considerable attention.

At the evening service in St George's church last Sunday, Rev. Mr. Walters referred in fitting terms to the sudden decease of the late Prince Leopold. The prayers of the congregation were also asked for the strengthening, by Divine aid, of the Queen in her deep affliction. At the close of the sermon the "Dead March in Saul," was beautifully played by Prof. Foot, the organist, and the national anthem was sung as the closing hymn.

OBITUARY.—Mrs. H. Newton, relict of the late George Newton, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Duckham, aged 73 years. Her husband was one of the early residents in this part of the country, but died a number of years ago, since which time she has resided almost continuously in Goderich. She was a devout Christain. She leaves five sons and two daughters—George Newton, of Londesboro; W. Linn Newton, of Clinton; Horace and Clem. Newton, of Goderich township; Chas. G. Newton, and Mrs. Duckham, of Goderich, and Mrs. Macpherson, of Detroit.

FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS.—The executive of the Sunday School Association of Canada, under the direction of their secretary, Rev. John McEwen, propose to hold a series of institutes for the benefit of the teachers of the county of Huron. The time proposed is as follows:—Wingham, May 11th, 12th and 13th, Clinton, 14th, 15th and 16th, Goderich, Sunday 18th, 19th and 20th; Seaforth, 21st, 22nd and 23rd. Mr. McEwen's institutes are said to be full of instruction, and all who take an interest in Sunday school work should make it a point to attend these interesting gatherings. Let a good reception be tendered the able secretary.

H. S. L. S. ENTERTAINMENT. — As usual, there was a large turn out at the annual entertainment under the auspices of the High School Literary Society, in Victoria hall on Friday evening last. Readings were given by H. I. Strang and Miss J. Strang, and well rendered recitations by Misses S. Williams, Maggie Cameron and K. Ball. An instrumental duett by Misses Trueman and Acheson was capitally rendered, and the medley and rounds of the glee club were lively and popular. Miss Nellie Tighe sang the pretty Irish ballad, "You'll soon Forget Kathleen," with feeling. The pantomime "Beauty and the Beast," was very well presented, Miss Williams winning much approval in the character of the heroine. All the persons in this piece acquitted themselves most creditably. The Chinese shadows—the dentist, the lover, the barber, etc.,—were uproariously funny to the younger element. The entertainment was well worth the price of admission. During the evening the principal of the school had to administer a well merited rebuke to some noisy boys, and a group of rattle-brained young men and women, whose incessant chatter and silly giggling made them a general nuisance. One of the lady reciters was so affected by their boorish behaviour that she was unable to proceed with her piece, and was forced to retire. We hope that in the future some provision will be made to keep those giddy gushers in check.

That enterprising firm, H. W. Brethour & Co., of Brantford, have discovered the value of advertising. They have already used our columns (to their profit, we learn), and have sent us another big advertisement of their bargains in carpets and general dry goods. Some of our merchants who are inclined to grumble about hard times, should take a leaf out of the book of this pushing firm, and place a big advertisement in THE SIGNAL. It pays to advertise.
