AT OSGOODE HALL.

Tuesday's List.

Court of Appeal at 11 a.m.—Armstron v. Lye (to be continued), Kreh v. Bishop, Ostrom v. Sills, Irvine v. Macaulay, Henderson v. Henderson.

IN THE COUNTY COURT.

Judgment Reserved in the House-Damage Case—Action for Wrongful Seizure is Non-Suited.

In the County Court yesterday, before Judge Morgan, the case of Sarah Ann Wray against William Stibbs, contractor, for $200 damages to her house while an adjoining one was undergoing repairs, was concluded. His Honor reserved judgment.

The next case taken up was that of Susannah Foley of 202 Broadview-avenue, against the City of Toronto and Bailiffs John Fleming and James McTanney, for $200 damages for wrongful and irregular distress and damages consequent thereon. The seizure was made on account of $87 taxes owed the city by Patrick G. Foley, husband of the plaintiff, who claims she owned the household goods seized; that nothing was left her, and that she suffered severe bodily damage by being compelled to sleep on the floor, and having no heat, the bailiffs having taken the only stove in the house.

The plaintiff was unsuccessful in establishing her claim, the judge entering a non-suit.

Sunday Car Amenities.

In Magistrate Miller's Court yesterday afternoon a somewhat amusing affair arising out of the recent Sunday car campaign was ventilated, in the charge of assault preferred by Joseph Osterhout against Charles Bradley and his son, James Bradley. It appears from the evidence of Osterhout that he and the defendants were neighbors, living on Euclid-avenue, and that they had frequently discussed the burning question of Sunday cars, Osterhout favoring the cars on Sunday, while the defendants warmly opposed them. On Sunday last, following the vote, Osterhout swore that he had gone over to the defendants' place to report of the result of the vote, but the Bradleys ordered him off their premises, and one of them threw him out and the other chased him with a pitchfork. This, however, the Bradleys denied, claiming that they ordered him out, and as he was slow in going, one of them put him out. The Magistrate dismissed the charge.

Business Embarrassments.

S. Meadows, plumber, Queen-street west, this city, has assigned to T. H. Pearce.

W. A. Reid, furniture, London, has assigned to Alf. Robinson.

R. H. Switzer of Blanshard has assigned to J. M. Young.

At a meeting of the creditors of John Waterhouse, woolen dealer, Tillsonburg, the sheriff as assignee was instructed to take proceedings to set aside the sale of certain property in Tillsonburg, formerly held by Mrs. Waterhouse.

The hardware stock of G. W. Smiley, London, who recently assigned, was sold to the Stacey Hardware and Manufacturing Company at 48c on the dollar. The stock was valued at $2000.

At a meeting of the creditors of the estate of William Mulveney, general storekeeper of Port Elgin, Mr. Mulveney offered 30c on the dollar. The liabilities are in the neighborhood of $800, and assets of $400.

Sale of Fine Worsteds.

At Suckling & Co.'s trade sale, which will be held on Wednesday and Thursday next, in addition to the consignments of drygoods, tweeds, gents' furnishings, hats, clothing, boots, they will sell, in detail, in lengths to suit the tailoring trade, three cases of fine blue and black worsteds, Venetians, twills and fancy mixtures. These goods were imported by a wholesale woolen house, doing a high-class trade, and now in liquidation, and range in price from 5 shillings to 10 shillings sterling per yard. They will be on view on Tuesday. On Wednesday, commencing at 2 o'clock, a city boot stock will be sold in detail, amounting to $3000, all seasonable goods, well assorted, and sold in lots to suit the trade, and also at 2 o'clock the merchant tailoring stock of A. N. Reid, Belleville, $2281, will be sold en bloc.

Receipts of wheat at Minneapolis and Duluth to-day 478 cars, as against 395 cars the corresponding day of last year.

There is general complaint among the Chicago grain houses about the falling off of speculative trade the past sixty days. There is no new blood coming into the market, and it is felt particularly in wheat. It is due to the recent decline from 75c to below 64c, and a reaction inside of two weeks, which killed the outsiders, who have made up their mind that there is no use of trying to get ahead of such an erratic market. A few years ago commission houses were getting orders from 80 to 100 different places, and now orders come mainly from New York, St. Louis, Detroit, Indianapolis and a few other places. Most of the old territory has been worked out. A commission man who has been on the lookout for new territory says there is a prospect for a fair business through Montana and the section west of there.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Never in its history were there so many cattle on the market in one day as there were yesterday. Every pen was filled, and for a time some of the cattle had to remain in the cars for want of room in the stock yards. The market was glutted, and as a consequence prices were heavy, with butchers' cattle inclined to be easier.

Besides what was left over from Tuesday's market there were 85 carloads made up as follows: Cattle 1500, hogs 1700, calves 140, 350 sheep and lambs and 20 milk cows.

There were 200 exporters unsold, and many of the dealers complain bitterly of having lost money on this season's speculations up to the present time.

For those who have cattle ready to ship it would be better for them to hold them for a short time until shipping space was more plentiful.

The hog market is firm, and there was a slight advance on yesterday's quotations.

D. McDonald, Rice & Whaley shipped via Buffalo to Boston 7 carloads; S. Halligan, 5 carloads; M. Vincent, 2 carloads; A. Montrauell, 2 carloads; Warden & Ironsides, 1 carload; Shortreed, 1 carload, via C.P.R. and Brown & Snell 8 carloads, Mr. Reed 2 carloads, via G.T.R., all export cattle.

McIntyre & Wardwell (John J. Dixon) received the following despatch to-day from New York:

The stock market was dull but strong this afternoon, closing about best prices. It is considered that Cuba, as a disturbing factor, is out of the way for the present, and the belief that the decision of the United States Supreme Court, expected Monday in the Nebraska maximum rate case, will be in favor of the railroads, caused the buying. Covering of shorts rallied Jersey Central over 2 per cent., and Delaware & Hudson recovered moderately. Strength in Chicago Gas was credited to improved prospects for the legislation desired. Sugar was again neglected. Tobacco was heavy on adverse trade rumors. Foreign exchange is quiet at $4.87½ to $4.87¾. Baltimore & Ohio is again causing trouble by taking business from other roads. A good bank statement is expected to-morrow. More business is doing in commercial paper. The Interstate Commerce Commission oppose action on the pooling bill now because important cases bearing on the subject await decision in the Supreme Court.

CHICAGO GOSSIP.

Henry A. King & Co., 12 King-street east, received the following despatch today from Chicago:

Wheat—There was less force in speculative market than for days. The trade is not confronted with any new conditions. There is a certain difference of opinion in regard to the effect existing conditions will have. The foreign political situation is no longer watched by the trade. No one believes any action regarding Cuba will influence prices. The season is so well advanced that many of the most serious crop damages are disproved. The spring seeding and planting has been done under favorable conditions, except for a little delay. The dullness in the market favors sellers. The public has never let speculative markets move severely alone than for the present season. This makes the prices for higher doubly higher with the bulls. The Liverpool markets opened quiet at unchanged prices to ¼d lower, closing dull at ¼d to ⅜d lower for futures. Dupee brokers led the buying. Barrett helped break the market to a low point, and took back all his sold. California despatches called it the hottest day of the year, and no rain. There was no cash demand such as to help rescue the trade from its dullness. The trade is too bearish and the shorts have little confidence in their position. By and by the Hessian fly will be heard from and the bad crop reports will come, in a heap. It has begun in Michigan, and, they say, in Kansas, but we do not believe that, because that particular kind of vermin has never been in Kansas. They have a large assortment of all kinds of bugs in that God-forsaken country, and they don't need the Hessian fly to ruin crops there.

Corn and Oats—Ruled steady and fairly active within a narrow range, ½c to ¾c. The cash situation is less pronounced. Commission people bought moderately. Receipts are improving. Corn 263 cars, and oats 318 cars.

Provisions—A better feeling prevailed in the speculative market for hog products today, and prices ruled strong all around. Packers and commission people bought pork and ribs freely, and lard advanced in sympathy. Domestic markets were a shade firmer. Receipts were only 24,000 hogs and 15,000 estimated for to-morrow. The close was firm.
