Sudbury Again Wins Over Granites, 5--1

Curlers No Match For Northern Wolves—Northerners Meet Varsity Tonight in Semi-Finals.

TORONTO, March 21.—Sudbury again on Saturday night defeated Granites in the Allan Cup series, winning the second game by 5 to 1, and the round by 11 to 3.—In the first meeting between the champions of the Northern Ontario Hockey Association and the senior O. H. A. champions last Wednesday night the Granites were somewhat stale from frequent engagements, but they were rested up Saturday night and still they lost to the "Wolves of the North." The Sudbury team, though ranking in the O. H. A. as intermediates, proved altogether too much for the local seniors.

"That's the best intermediate team I ever saw," remarked a local fan, and those who heard him agreed that he was right. The Northern Ontario hockeyists, whose victory was witnessed by over 300 fans from Sudbury, gave three cheers for Granites at the end of the game.

Sudbury will play University of Toronto tomorrow night in the Allan cup semi-finals, and again on Wednesday night. The winner of this round will meet the Falcons of Winnipeg, Western champions, in the finals, the first game of which will be played here Saturday night. On Monday night, March 29, the final game to decide the winner of the Canadian championship and the winner of the Allan cup will be played. The indications are that Sudbury will be the contender against the Winnipeg team for the wind-up honors of the season.

In the Saturday night contest Granites' only hope of overcoming the Wednesday night lead of 6 to 2 against them was in the first seven minutes of play when they caught the Northerners off their stride and rained in shot after shot at Goaler Duncan, but succeeded in tallying only one goal. Thereafter the locals were helplessly out of the running. Captain "Shorty" green is entitled to the lion's share of the victory over Granites. He was easily the star of the series and is one of the best centre players seen here in years.

In the second period rough play threatened to develop, but after Langlois and Boucher had drawn penalties in quick succession for body-checking, and Romeril and W. Green were chased off for passing angry words, the two teams settled down to clean play. Granites won their single goal in the first period, when Sudbury won two. There was no score made in the second period.

The line-up:

Referees—G. VanHorne, Kingston; T. Munro, London.

Ingersoll To Have Factory League Ball This Season

INGERSOLL, March 21.—A four-team factory baseball league, it is expected, will be formed this week. The general tendency on the part of fans and players is for the formation of a factory league which, it is believed, should be unusually strong, as there is more material than in many years from which to choose. The advisability of admitting players who are not identified with the factory will be dealt with. The prospects for a season of plenty of keen sport are very good. It is expected the factory league will come into existence at a meeting to be held on Friday night to which all players and others interested have been invited.

As You Were

(Sudbury Favorites.)

After Sudbury's showing in the Granite series, the whole East is pulling for them to win against Falcon. Little attention is being paid the efforts of Varsity tonight and Wednesday night, as the fans who have seen the games claim the Blue and White haven't got a chance. Falcon's chances are not considered much better. The Wolves use their weight without any regard and most effectively, and it is claimed the Western style of playing the puck will fall down against this wrecking crew from Sudbury.

Wore Than Friday 13th.
The Allan Cup winners win the cup on Monday, March 29, whoever wins it, and days later on April Fool's Day will sail via the Melita for Belgium. That's hardly giving the winners time to change their clothes, let alone their minds.

Hardly Necessary.

The Falcons when they found out that they jumped right off the ice and onto the ocean wanted to know if they won, couldn't they go back home and catch a later boat? If they want to find out anything about the trip, they better get chummy with the Wolves and make arrangements to correspond.

Love That's Turned To Hate.

Maxine Dempsey says that she blackened Jack's eye once. She says further if Carpentier can 'get him in the fourth or firth rounds, he'd better, especially the fourth. Whether she did or did not blacken his eye, she's certainly making a good job of blackening his character.

Connie Mack sold his infield five years ago for $100,000 and been in the cellar ever since. If anybody else got a bunch of coin and spent the rest of their time in a cellar, they'd be talked about.

There'll be pro lacrosse this year. Toronto, Montreal and Cornwall, where they invented the pastime, are mentioned. There is lots of good material available in all the places mentioned, and there are men in them who still believe that there are a few lacrosse fans left.

F., first prize; Court Orient, No. 331, C. O. F., second prize; Court Defiance, No. 7, C. O. F., third prize. McCormick's Welfare Society team ranked fifth, winning Dr. Hugh Stevenson's Legislature trophy. Over one hundred onlookers watched the wind-up on Saturday night. Court Orient's team played double games and won both of them. Court Defiance also played a double game, winning one.

Orkie and Glasier, From M.-O., Are Turned Back

Both Frank Okrie and Bert Glasier, the two London and Hamilton recruits from the M.-O. circuit to the Detroit club, have been turned back for more experience, according to Detroit dispatches.

Okrie may return here. He has expressed the wish to get back to London, but whether that will come under Jenning's plans is another question. Okrie is credited with having everything but experience but between the lines; Glasier, the diminutive hurler, who did mound duty for Hamilton last year, didn't have much beyond ambition, and Coombs apparently went out of the way to find out if he had.

..."You Know Me Al" Wisner is still with the Pirates. He got an awful walloping the other day, but, of course, there must—inevitably there must—have been an excuse for that and a good one or at least original.

American Claims He Still Controls Windsor Race Track

MONTREAL, March 21.—In a dispatch from Ottawa dated last Friday, Mr. Bradley Wilson, the new general manager of the Devonshire Park Racing Association of Windsor, Ont., is stated to have submitted to the Government a list of stockholders of the Devonshire Park, showing that it has passed entirely out of the hands of Messrs. Grant, Hugh Brown and Tom Duggan, of Detroit and Montreal, respectively.

Mr. Thomas J. Duggan, when shown the above dispatch, stated he still owned sufficient stock in the Devonshire Park race track operated by the Western Racing Association to control it. He further stated that the track had not passed out of his hands as yet.

Mr. Duggan has asked a Windsor paper to correct a statement similar to that from Ottawa.

BOXING

GEORGES SHE ARRIVE.

Parblue! What you tink of dat? Spring he arrive yesterday, and Georges Carpentier she too arrive in New York. Now, by gar, you watch for heem, dis Georges! Maybe you theenk him just happen? Just be peek the easy wans! Well, you tak de teep and watch heem. And you theenk he maybe eat too mooch at de reception—get too mooch de bubbles and forget de box fight. Non! Georges is too much of de wise for dat. You think Georges she run with hard nut to heet before she fini beeg treep. Maybe so! I tink not so, me!

Jimmy Wilde has been offered another bout, this time with Patsy Wallace. He is guaranteed $10,000 by the Detroit promoter. According to Detroit papers, Wallace recently fought Wilde, knocked him down for the count of four and beat him handily. Short memories or poor records.

Old Sam Langford, who occasionally waddles into the ring now even, tops the list of knockout fighters of any one fighter. The old Nova Scotia dinge has 70 knockouts to his credit, and is aiming for the century-mark before Father Time calls him out for the count. Jimmy Wilde comes next, with 60 lone ring exits. Benny Leonard, lightweight king, who often lets them stay for the house, comes next with 54 sleep potions.

Who leads the way on the receiving end isn't on record, but Arthur Pelkey or Big Bob McKay, formerly of Winnipeg, of the glass chin, probably would have it between them.

Benny Leonard is sojourning in California, the golden and fat producing state, if records anent the sojourns of other fighters are to be believed. Jess Willard waxed fat and lazy in the Golden State before he lost his title. California was certainly his Cleopatra, so critics say, more than Dempsey was his master.

Young Corbett, Leach Cross, K. O. Browns are other notables of the ring who put on flesh on visits to California and paid for it on their return. What will happen Benny!

A 90-POUND REASON.

Why not match Jimmy Wilde and Jack Dempsey?

A New York boxing fan suggests that such a match might not be so unequal as it sounds, and contends that Wilde is only a few steps out of Dempsey's class after all. Here's the dope to prove it:

Jimmy Wilde fought Joe Lynch.

Lynch fought Joey Fox.

Fox fought Benny Valger.

Valger fought Johnny Dundee.

Dundee fought Benny Leonard.

Leonard fought Jack Britton.

Britton fought Mike O'Dowd.

O'Dowd fought Clay Turner.

Turner fought Bat Levinsky.

Levinsky fought Jack Dempsey.

But the poundage is something else again—Jimmy Wilde, 105; Jack Dempsey 200.

SMITH BEAT REECE.

LONDON, March 21.—(By Canadian Press.)—In billiards, Smith beat Reece by 5,473 in a 16,000-point game, with an unfinished run of 500.

Stevenson beat Inman by 1,460 in 16,000.

TWO DETROIT MEN BUY HALF INTEREST IN TIGER CLUB

Sale of Yawkey Estate Gives Detroiters Interest in Ball Club At $500,000.

DETROIT, Mich., March 20.—Malcolm W. Bingay says in the Detroit News: "Detroit's baseball is in the hands of its friends; that is to say, three of them."

Frank J. Navin, president of the club, announced last night that the season of 1920—now two months away—would be opened under a new ownership.

He has taken into partnership with him two of Detroit's staunches baseball fans, John Kelsey and Walter Briggs. These two gentlemen have bought a half interest in the Tigers, taking over the interest of the estate of William Yawkey.

With the passing of the millionaire sportsman, Yawkey, Mr. Navin felt that the interest in the Detroit Tigers should be local and personal rather than a mere financial investment held by an estate in New York City. He looked around Detroit for home talent.

Ever since Frank Navin got into baseball 20 years ago, two men have been leading supporters of baseball in Detroit; John Kelsey and Walter Briggs. These gentlemen, now wealthy citizens, before they made their fortunes used to sit out on the old bleachers of Bennett Park in the days of Van der Beck. They loved baseball for the game itself and each for many years has had his season box at Navin Field, never to miss a game unless serious illness or a more serious—it had to be more serious—business matter kept them away.

Pay $500,000 Cash.

Messrs. Kelsey and Briggs will soon sign all papers which will legally make them half owners of the club. The documents have been drawn up and, with the exception of a few minor details, everything is ready for the official signatures.

The consideration involved is more than $500,000 cash. For the money Messrs. Kelsey and Briggs secure a one-half interest in the franchise, players, grounds and all stands and buildings at Michigan and Trumbull avenues.

One thousand shares will be owned by Frank J. Navin, while the same number will be in possession of Messrs. Kelsey and Briggs, the ball club having 2,000 shares of common stock.
