FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothesay, May 27—The Red Cross Society tea this week on Tuesday afternoon, was in charge of Miss Pitcher and Miss Ganong, and was as usual well attended. The tea committee appointed for next week are Mrs. J. H. Thomson and Mrs. Blanchet. When the weather becomes warm enough the meetings are to be held in the Boat Club house, which should prove attractive.

On Monday Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robertson arrived at Karsalie, their summer home here, after an enjoyable trip in the United States and Canada.

A delightful automobile outing was taken on Victoria day by Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allison and children, Mrs. R. E. Puddington, Miss Puddington, Miss Allison, Mr. Walter Allison and children, to Barnesville, returning home by Golden Grove.

Mrs. W. J. Davidson is coming home this week from Fredericton, where she has enjoyed a visit to her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Duncan Davidson, and her wee grandson. Mrs. Davidson was guest at the home of Mrs. Hodge.

The holiday was greatly enjoyed by Miss Ganong, Miss Cameron, Miss Sweet, Miss Palmer and a number of Netherwood girls, who remained at the school over the 24th. The party were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Puddington at their camp on Long Island, crossing the river in their motor boat.

Mrs. C. O. Foss has ben visiting relatives at Sackville and enjoying the closing exercises of Mount Allison.

Mrs. John H. Thomson, Mrs. Royden Thomson and children, Mrs. Walter Harrison and children, motored to Cosy Lake and spent Monday at their camp.

After spending the winter in New York, Mr. W. H. Coffey and his sisters, Misses Mary and Kate Coffey, arrived home on Friday.

Also on Friday Miss Lillian Brock came home from Philadelphia and New York, having been away all winter.

On Monday evening next, the 31st inst., the members of the local branch, woman's auxiliary, are to meet at St. Paul's church Sunday school house and pack the bales for a Canadian northwest mission school.

On Monday Miss Ina Rathburn, who has been in the St. oJhn hospital, was able to come home by automobile and her many friends are greatly pleased.

Mrs. Royden Thomson and two children, Betty and Archie, arrived from Winnipeg at the week-end, and with her husband who met her here, spent a few days with Mrs. John H. Thomson. On Tuesday they went to Bear River, where Mr. Thomson has bought a farm. Mrs. Thomson expects to return to Rothesay for a short visit.

For the week-end and Monday, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wetmore, of St. John, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Robertson.

Mr. John M. Robinson has moved his camp cottage from the shore at Fair Vale to Henderson's Point, and here on Victoria day Mr. and Mrs. Robinson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frink and children spent the day.

Miss Grace Ayer, who spent the winter here with Mr. and Mrs. Barclay Boyd and Miss Jesise Fraser, who has been with Mrs. T. A. Rankine, St. John, have reopened their cottage at Gondola Point and settled down there for the summer.

Miss Jean Foss has been a few days' guest of Miss Jean Schofield at Hampton.

On Monday morning's train Misses Anna and Dorothy MacKeen, Miss Jean Daniel, Miss Dorothy Purdy, Mr. J. H. A. L. Fairweather, and Mr. Hawkins went to Sussex, taking two canoes. They paddled back to Rothesay, a distance of about forty miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bell, Miss Nan Brock, Miss Alice Davidson, Rev. Mr. Sherman and Miss Sherman, of St. John, went by automobile to Mr. Bell's camp at Gondola Point on Monday and spent the day.

Mrs. Walter Harrison returned to Fredericton on Tuesday.

For a few days fishing, Messrs. Walter Allison, Thomas Bell and W. S. Allison left on Tuesday for the South Branch of the Oromocto.

Mrs. Brock is enjoying a visit to Fredericton, guest of the Bishop and Mrs. Richardson.

Lieutenant Compton, of the 26th battalion, was here from St. John on Monday spending the holiday with his family.

Although Mrs. Robert Thomson had been ill for some weeks, the news of her death on Tuesday morning came as a shock. The family have many friends here who unite in loving and sincere sympathy. Since closing their summer home, Rothiemay, last autumn, both Mr. and Mrs. Thomson have passed away, and they will be sorely missed in many ways, especially in the Rothesay Presbyterian church.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, May 26—Mrs. H. H. McNally entertained on Thursday evening at a bridge of four tables, in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Cook, of New York (nee Miss Bessie McNally.) Mrs. W. P. Lowell was the winner of the first prize and Lady Ashburnham of the consolation prize.

After a delightful visit here, of four weeks, with her mother, Mrs. James McNally, and old friends, Mrs. Cook is leaving tomorrow for her home in New York and with her husband will spend the summer at Ocean Beach.

Mrs. Frank Shute and two children, of Yarmouth (N. S.), are visiting Mrs. Shute's mother, Mrs. W. T. Whitehead.

Rev. Mr. McKim, of St. Luke's church, St. John, was an over Sunday guest at the deanery with the Dean and Mrs. Neales. Mr. McKim preached most acceptably to the Cathedral congregation on Sunday morning.

Dr. Frank H. Patterson with Mrs. Patterson, of San Jose (Cal.), are here renewing old acquaintances and visiting Dr. Patterson's old home. Dr. Patterson is a son of Dr. E. P. Patterson, formerly a well known practitioner of St. Mary's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Scammell and son Jack went to their home in St. John for over Sunday and the holiday.

Mr. Charles S. O. Crocket and son Harold, of Campbellton, spent the week-end and holiday with Mr. Crocket's parents, Dr. and Mrs. William Crocket.

Mr. Octavus Crocket and daughter, Miss Marion, of Moncton, were included in the home party who spent the holiday and week-end with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. William Crocket.

Miss Bertha Harvey went to Woodstock last week to attend the Carvell-Fisher wedding.

Mrs. Henry Chestnut has returned from a pleasant visit with Mrs. Fred. Daniel in St. John.

Dr. and Mrs. MacKinney, of Seattle, are spending a short time at Mrs. MacKinney's old home. Mrs. MacKinney (nee Miss Keene) is a former graduate of Victoria hospital, and is receiving a warm welcome from many old friends. On Monday Mrs. Charles Richards entertained at a double luncheon of ten covers for Dr. and Mrs. MacKenny.

Mrs. A. H. Wells, of St. John, was a week-end and over the holiday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Creed.

On Thursday and Friday afternoons, Mrs. J. H. Reid received her bridal calls at her home in University avenue, and was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. I. R. Golding. Mrs. Reid was gowned in white satin en train, with corsage of shadow lace, and wore a rope of seed pearls. In the tea room on Thursday afternoon Mrs. J. D. Palmer poured at the daintily arranged table, which was centered with white carnations, and was assisted by Miss Daisy Weddall, Miss Hazen Allan, Miss Jean Wilson. Miss Hunter presided at table in the library and served the ices, and was assisted by Miss Grace Gibson and Miss Gertrude Davidson. On Friday afternoon Mrs. Waycott poured; Miss Hunter served the ices, and those assisting were Miss Hipwell, Miss Waycott, Miss Cooper, Miss Helen Vanwart, Miss Daisy Weddall and Miss Jean Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Slipp were week-end and over the holiday visitors to Robertson's Point, Grand Lake.

Miss Edith MacRae, of St. John, spent a few days here, the guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. J. Gregory, returning home on Wednesday morning.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. A. J. Gregory entertained at a drawing room tea in honor of Mrs. Francis B. Gregory, of Victoria. Mrs. Hedley Bridges presided at table and poured tea, Miss Hilda Gregory and Miss Edith Gregory assisted.

Miss Lillian Flewelling has returned to her home in Vancouver, after a two weeks' visit to her home here.

Miss Lucy Morrison spent the holiday in Gagetown.

Mrs. G. N. C. Hawkins has returned from a pleasant visit with friends in Moncton.

Mrs. G. C. Vanwart, Miss Stopford, Mrs. F. W. Barbour, Mrs. A. B. Kitchen, Lady Ashburnham and Mrs. J. A. Morrison are in Halifax attending the fifteenth annual meeting of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire.

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, May 26—Miss Garda Tingley, of Shediac High School spent the holidays the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Wella Tingley.

Mr. Nixon, who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Percy Foster for the past week returned on Monday to his home in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hickman, Mr. Will and Miss Alice Hickman were in Amherst for several days last week to be with Lieut. Joe Hickman, of the French Canadian Regiment, who left Amherst for the front on Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Chapman spent a day last week in Moncton, the guest of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillspie have returned from Moncton, where they were guests of their son, Mr. Tom Gillspie, of the Royal Bank staff.

Mrs. Percy Forster entertained very pleasantly at auction, a few of her friends on Thursday evening last for her brother, Mr. Nixon, of Montreal. Those present were, Miss Nina Tait, Miss J. Oulton, Miss Bernice Kay, Miss Beryl Jones, Mr. J. L. Steeves, Mr. Nixon.

Misses Gladys Clark, Muriel and Myrtle Thomas, Garda and Carrie Tingley, Blanche Bishop, Mollie and Jean Piercy, spent Monday in Sackville, attending the Mount Allison closings.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hickman, Misses, Alice and Frances Hickman, also were in Sackville on Monday attending the closing exercises of Mount Allison.

Mrs. C. L. Harrington spent Saturday in Sackville, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Wood.

Mrs. Geo. B. Ryan very pleasantly entertained the Bridge Club on Friday afternoon last.

Miss Lila Foster, spent last Wednesday in Amherst the guest of Miss Helen Douglas.

Miss Josephine Oulton is spending the holidays in Sackville the guest of Miss Jean Kainnie.

Rev. Mr. Smith, of Toronto, spent a few days last week the guest of Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Robinson.

Miss Myrtle Thomas has returned from St. Stephen, where she was the guest of Miss Edith Lawson for a few weeks.

A large and enthusiastic gathering assembled in the Methodist church on Friday evening and listened to the splendid lecture on the 'Present War," by Dr. Spurgeon, of England. Rev. R. A. Robinson, rector of Trinity church acted as chairman. The collection, which amounted to a large sum, was in aid of the Red Cross Society.

A "Nation Once Again," by Judge Carleton, of St. John, under the auspices of the I. O. D. E. was also listened to by a highly appreciative audience in Hickman's Hall on Wednesday evening last.

Mr. James Friel, acted as chairman. A very snug sum was realized for patriotic work.

Misses, Bernice K. Kay and Beryl Jones spent the holidays at their respective homes in Moncton and River Glade.

BORDER TOWNS

St. Stephen, May 26—This afternoon a large party of ladies, members of the Woman's Canadian Club and the Red Cross Society, have assembled in Trinity church school room under the direction of Mrs. W. F. Todd, Mrs. Irving R. Todd and Miss Ada Maxwell, to cut into bandages the linen and white cotton cloth that has been so generously contributed by the ladies of St. Stephen and vicinity for the Canadian hospitals in England and France.

Mrs. Alfred McClaskey, of St. John, is the guest of Mrs. Mansfred Robinson.

Mrs. Rondu (nee Miss Mary Graham) has arrived from Antigonish (N. S.) to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Graham, in Milltown.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Marks Mills are enjoying a fishing trip at Red Rock, near St. George.

Mr. J. Lewis Haley with his daughters, Adelaide and Ruth, and Mrs. D. Morris, have returned from a visit in Fredericton.

Miss Florence Newnham is expected to arrive from Boston on Monday to spend a month with her parents, Ven. Archdeacon and Mrs. Newnham, at Christ church rectory. Miss Newnham will be most cordially welcomed by her friends.

Miss Gladys Blair and Miss Arthuretta Branscombe have spent the past week in St. George with their friend, Mrs. Thomas R. Kent.

Mr. John Black, jr., spent Victoria day in Milltown with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Black. He returned to Montreal on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Wall and their young son, Gilbert, left on Saturday for Apohaqui, where Mrs. Wall will spend a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Snyder.

Mrs. Eleanor Talcott arrived on Tuesday from Pasadena (Cal.), and will be the guest of Mrs. James G. Stevens for several weeks.

Miss Doris Clarke arrived from Vancouver (B. C.) last week and is most cordially welcomed home by her friends after her absence of several months.

Mrs. James McWha leaves at an early date for Sydney (C. B.) to visit her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Boyd. Mrs. McWha has been most seriously ill for several weeks and is taking the trip to Sydney for the benefit of her health.

Miss Winnifred Smith, of Woodstock, has been spending a few days with her aunts, the Misses Grimmer.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stevens and Miss Theo Stevens have been visiting friends at Moores Mills.

Miss Etta DeWolfe spent the week-end at Oak Bay with her friend, Miss Amy Young.

Mr. Harry Burton and his young nephew, Jimmie Burton, have been guests this week of his mother, Mrs. Maria Burton.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey P. Newnham and daughter, Muriel, came from Woodstock on Saturday to spend Victoria day with Ven. Archdeacon and Mrs. Newnham at Christ church rectory.

Mrs. Charles F. Beard, of St. John, is the guest this week of her aunt, Miss Emma Watson.

Rev. Beverley Smith, of Wyckcliffe College, preached in Trinity church on Sunday. During his stay he was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Tomalin at Trinity rectory.

Dr. Frank I. Blair and Dr. Bunker have been enjoying a few days' fishing at Bonny River.

Mrs. Howard Q. Boardman and her daughter, Miss Emma Boardman, have gone to Boston to make an extended visit.

Mr. John A. Young, formerly manager of the Bank of New Brunswick here, but now assistant manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia in St. John's (Nfld.), was in town last week and was most cordially welcomed.

The Woman's Canadian Club are to have the pleasure of listening to Miss Eleanor Robinson, of St. John, who is to address the club on Thursday evening, June 3, in the Methodist vestry.

Capt. H. J. Smith, of the overseas reinforcement company, now at Sussex, was in town today.

Mrs. Annie V. Deacon and her young son, Godfrey, have been in Sussex this week to visit her sons, Sergeant J. Merville Deacon and Private Wilfred Deacon, of the 55th Battalion.

Mrs. J. D. Lawson was hostess last week to the Saturday Evening Club.

Mrs. James Murray is to entertain friends at tea on Friday evening.

MONCTON

Moncton, May 27—Capt. R. V. Bennett and the Misses Bennett, of Hopewell Cape, motored to the city Saturday and spent the day.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. McCarthy, Miss Mary McCarthy, and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tingley have returned from Sackville, where they attended the recital of Miss Marjorie McCarthy, who graduates this year.

Mrs. P. Fogarty has gone to Montreal to visit her son, Mr. William Fogarty.

Mr. Hinson West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel West, has arrived home from McGill College, Montreal, where he graduated recently and intends leaving shortly for Labrador where he will locate.

Mrs. C. Lionel Hanington, of Dorchester, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Willett.

Mrs. Herbert Armstrong spent the holiday with friends in Harcourt.

Mrs. J. B. Magee has returned from Montreal, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. S. Benson.

Mrs. H. B. Smith and son, who have been visiting friends in the city have returned to their home in Halifax.

Mrs. D. C. Allan, of Amherst, is in the city for a few days, the guest of Dr. S. W. and Mrs. Bridges.

Miss Jean McLatchy, daughter of Judge McLatchy, of Campbellton, is a guest at the residence of Rev. E. B. McLatchy.

Mr. Vernon Stoddard, of the Bank of Montreal staff, at Dorchester, spent the holiday in the city, the guest of Mr. Roy Keith.

Mrs. T. J. Gallagher spent the week-end in Newcastle, where her two daughters are students at the convent.

Miss Edna McPherson is spending some time in Newcastle with her sister, Mrs. John Kingston.

Miss Helen Harris has returned from Newcastle, where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. H. Sinclair.

Miss Florence Hocken has gone to Chatham to visit at the home of Mrs. Geoffrey Stead.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Day and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Firvan left Saturday on a fishing trip to McFadden Lake.

Mrs. H. S. Bell has returned from Shediac, where she was spending part of the week with her sister, Mrs. D. S. Harper.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Clark, of Sussex, are the guests of firends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lowery spent the week-end in Petitcodiac, the guests of Mrs. Lowery's mother.

Mrs. J. P. Clark and daughter, Miss Clark, have returned from Sussex, where they were spending the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. McKenzie spent the holiday with relatives at Fort Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Pearce, of Sussex, spent part of the week with friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Coll McDougall have gone to Shediac to spend the summer at their cottage.

Mrs. Tweedie, wife of ex-Governor Tweedie, of Chatham, spent Tuesday with friends in the city.

Mrs. Mariner Smith is spending a week in Hillsboro with her sister, Mrs. W. H. Duffy.

Mrs. Nelson, of Charlottetown, and Miss Campbell, of Amherst, spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Ballantyne,

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mahon have gone to Sydney to spend the summer months.

Mr. Gerald Lawson, of the Bank of Montreal staff, spent the holiday with friends at Amherst.

Mrs. M. F. Keith has gone to New York to attend the annual international convention of Sunshine Societies. She was accompanied by Dr. Keith and Miss Blanche Keith.

Mrs. S. L. Shannon and daughter, Miss Nora, have returned from a two week's stay in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Finlayson, of Summerside, spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Brown.

Mr. George Emmerson, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce staff, at Campbellton, spent the week-end with friends in the city.

Mrs. J. H. Moore has returned from Manchester (N. H.), where she has been spending the winter with relatives.

Mrs. A. J. McCrae has returned to her home in Buffalo after spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. O'Dwyer.

Miss Orpah Russell, of Hopewell Hill, is spending a few days with Miss Dorothy Russell.

Mrs. A. J. Webster and Mrs. Gibson, of Shediac, spent Saturday with friends in the city.

The Misses Daisy Weldon and Grace Bell spent the holiday in Sackville, the guests of Miss Bessie Carter.

Miss Ethel Swanson, teacher of domestic science, spent the week-end with friends in Sackville.

Mayor McAnn and Mrs. McAnn, accompanied by Miss Ada McAnn, have gone to Quebec to spend a week.

Mr. Homer Huston, of the Royal Bank staff at Halifax, spent the week-end at his home in the city.

Mrs. W. E. Sherrard has returned from Sussex, where she spent the holiday with relatives.

Miss Nellie Gallagher, of Dorchester (Mass.), is spending a few weeks with Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Craig.

Mrs. Sanford Hoar, of Petitcodiac, is the guest of relatives in the city.

Miss Grace Warman, who is taking a course in nursing in New York, has arrived home to spend her vacation.

Miss Winnie Davis has returned from Amherst, where she spent the week-end with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Rising and children, of St. John, spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Humphrey.

Miss Alice Brown, of Greenville (N. S.), is spending a few weeks in the city, the guest of Mrs. William Somers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lea, of Summerside, spent the holiday with relatives in the city.

Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Richard have returned from a two weeks' trip to Boston and New York.

Miss Beatrice Harper, of Shediac, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. S. Bell.

The many friends of Mrs. L. H. Higgins, who has been so seriously ill, are pleased to hear of her satisfactory recovery.

Mrs. C. W. Robinson arrived home from the west on Tuesday, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Marjorie Robinson, who has been spending the winter with relatives at California.

Miss Emma Sangster, who is attending Mount Allison Ladies' College, is spending the summer holidays at her home in the city.

Miss Emma Piers, of St. John, spent the week-end with Miss Nina Atkinson.

Mr. Roy Ackman, of Halifax, spent the holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ackman.

Miss Daisy Reid has returned from Sackville, where she spent Sunday with relatives.

Miss Edith McKenzie, of Fredericton, spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Irving.

Mrs. William Atkinson, who has been the guest of friends in the city, has returned to her home in Sackville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Thompson spent the week-end in Sussex, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burgess.

Mrs. I. B. Humphrey and daughter, Miss Jennie, have returned to their home in Apohaqui, after a pleasant visit with friends in the city.

Miss Ella Steeves, of the Victoria school teaching staff, spent the holiday in Petitcodiac, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Steeves.

Mrs. Walter Williams, of Santiago, California, is spending a few weeks with her cousin, Mrs. H. L. Bass.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Armstrong, of Chipman, are the guests of friends in the city.

SACKVILLE

Sackville, May 27—Dr. Graham, of Toronto; Mrs. E. A. Smith, St. John; Misses Lena and Hazel Tait, Shediac; Mr. Stanley Smith, St. John, and Mr. Walter Pickup, Granville Ferry, were guests at Government House during closing.

Miss Annie Starr, of Toronto, is visiting in town, guest of Dr. and Mrs. Morton.

Miss Marjorie Sumner and Miss Margaret Price, of Moncton, were guests of Mrs. H. M. Wood on Saturday.

Miss Nan Clark, of Bear River (N. S.), is visiting in town, guest of Miss Jean Campbell.

Mrs. S. D. Heckbert, of Chatham, was in town for closing, guest of Mrs. Edgar Ayer.

Mrs. Dunbar, of Chatham, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Scott.

Dr. and Mrs. Elderkin and Miss Elderkin, of Weymouth, were in town for closing, guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cahill.

Mrs. Taylor and Miss Taylor, of Charlottetown; Miss Bertha Rogers and Miss Evelyn Crowell, of Halifax, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bennett during closing.

Miss Ruby Wigle, of Halifax, is visiting in town, guest of Miss Vega Gronlund.

Mr. Hensley, of Summerside, and Rev. G. J. Bond, of Halifax, are guests of Professor and Mrs. DesBarres.

Miss Gladys Woodbury, of Halifax, and Miss Gertrude Borden, of Wolfville, are guests of Miss Gladys Borden.

Miss Hilda Eastwood, of New Glasgow, was in town for closing, guest of Mrs. Whitehead.

Miss Gretchen Mills, of Sussex, is visiting in town, guest of Misses Sibyl and Georgie Calkin.

Mrs. J. Wood was hostess at a very enjoyable dinner party on Wednesday of last week. The guests included Lieut. and Mrs. Smith (St. John), Mrs. F. B. Black, Miss Moss, Miss Gretchen Allison, Miss McDonald (Picton), and Capt. Taylor, of the 6th Mounted Rifles, Amherst.

Mr. and Mrs. Hetherington, of St. John; Mrs. Innis, Liverpool (N. S.), and Mrs. Foss, Rothesay, were in town for closing, guests at the Ford Hotel.

Miss Daisy Read, of Moncton, is visiting in town, guest of her sister, Mrs. Roy Fowler.

Mrs. Armstrong, of Moncton, was in town for closing, guest of Mrs. D. Charters.

Mrs. Duncan Allanache, of Moncton, was in town for closing, guest of Miss N. Turner.

A thoroughly enjoyable and bright tea was given by Miss Kathleen Fawcett on Friday afternoon. Miss Fawcett received in a very becoming gown of rose crepe de chine with trimmings of lace, and was assisted by her mother, Mrs. H. E. Fawcett, gowned in black taffeta. The spacious drawing rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white carnations. Mrs. Raleigh Trites ushered the guests to the dining room, wearing a very pretty gown of blue chiffon over shell pink. Yellow daffodils and marguerites ornamented the handsomely appointed tea table, over which Mrs. F. B. Black, in navy blue silk and ninon, and Miss Lou Ford, in brown silk and chiffon, presided. Assisting with the refreshments were Miss Lila Estabrooks and Miss Gretchen Allison. Those invited were: Mrs. H. R. McCully (Amherst), Mrs. C. W. Fawcett, Mrs. Herbert M. Wood, Mrs. Fritz Read, Mrs. Whitehead, Mrs. Burnton, Mrs. D. S. Campbell, Mrs. D. Allison, Mrs. W. Duncan, Mrs. E. R. Hart, Mrs. E. Hazen, Mrs. J. W. S. Black, Mrs. Fred Fisher, Miss Jean Campbell, Miss Kathleen Davison (Halifax), Miss Jen Richardson, Miss Marie DesBarres, Miss Edith Hunton, Miss C. Harris, Miss M. Harris, Miss Nan Chapman (Moncton), Miss Masters, Miss Machum, Miss Thomas, Miss Gladys Borden, Miss Gertrude Borden (Wolfville), Miss Helen Wiggins, Miss Kathleen MacKenzie, Miss Eleanor Moss, Miss Vega Gronlund, Miss Wigle (Halifax), Miss N. Turner, Misses Annie, Ada and Helen Ford, Miss Caroline Cahill, Miss Elderkin (Weymouth), Miss McDonald (Pictou), Miss Maude Goff, Miss Kathleen Fisher, Miss Jean Rainnie, Miss McLeod, Misses Effie and Dott Johnson, Miss Clem Pickard, Miss Crowhurst, Miss Fydell, Miss Smith, Miss Sprague, Misses Etta, Marjorie and Muriel Taylor, Mrs. Daman, Miss Greta Ogden, Miss Milner, Miss Bateman, Miss Etta Ayer, Miss Bess Carter and Miss B. Poole.

Miss Gladys Borden entertained at a very enjoyable tea on Friday afternoon in honor of her guests, Miss Borden, of Wolfville, and Miss Woodbury, of Halifax. The guests included Miss Evelyn Crowell (Halifax), Miss Bertha Rogers (Halifax), Miss Gretchen Allison, Miss McDonald (Pictou), Miss Jean Campbell, Miss Ethel Burns (Sydney), Miss Fenton (St. John), Miss Eastwood (New Glasgow), Mrs. Whitehead, Miss Kathleen Davison (Halifax), Mrs. C. W. Fawcett, Miss Nan Chapman (Moncton), Miss Vega Gronlund, Miss Ruby Wigle (Halifax), Mrs. R. Trites, Miss Lila Estabrooks, Miss Kathleen Fawcett, Miss W. Thomas, Miss Elva Machern, Miss Margaret Harris (Pictou), Miss Lillian Sprague, Miss Jean Sprague (Woodstock), Miss Edith Hunton, Miss Marie DesBarres, Mrs. H. M. Wood, Mrs. E. R. Hart, Miss C. Cahill, Miss Marguerite Elderkin (Weymouth), Miss Dora Faulkner and Miss G. Faulkner (Halifax.)

Governor and Mrs. Wood were on Monday afternoon hosts at a very enjoyable double tea, in honor of a number of the visitors who were in town for closing. Among those present were Dr. Graham (Toronto), Mrs. E. A. Smith (St. John), Prof. and Mrs. DesBarres, Mrs. Innis (Liverpool), Mrs. Foss (Rothesay), Mr. and Mrs. W. McCoy (Halifax), Mr. E. R. Machum (St. John), Miss Gladys Borden, Miss Gertrude Borden (Wolfville), Miss G. Woodbury (Halifax), Miss C. Harris, Miss M. Harris, Mrs. G. M. Campbell, Mrs. Jones (Apohaqui), Mrs. H. M. Wood, Mrs. Freeman-Lake, Mrs. Burgess, Miss Burgess, Miss J. Campbell, Miss K. Dawson (Halifax), Misses Lena and Hazel Tait (Shediac), Mr. Stanley Smith (St. John), Mr. R. Paton (Charlottetown), Mr. Walter Pickup (Granville Ferry), and Prof. McKee.

Mrs. B. C. Borden was hostess at a very pleasant tea on Tuesday afternoon in honor of the faculty, visitors, and members of the Alumnae and Alumni. Miss Tweedie presided at the daintily appointed tea table and had as assistants Miss Borden, Miss Woodbury, Mr. Cartlidge, Mr. Hellens and Mr. McMillan.

Mrs. Murray, Mrs. Nelson and Miss Elliott, of Springhill, were guests of Mrs. Gains Fawcett during closing.

Mrs. Gronlund entertained a number of friends at luncheon on Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Miss Mazel Mowat, of Mount Allison Ladies' College, spent a couple of days in town, guest of Miss J. Richardson, before leaving for her home in Campbellton.

Miss Grace Bell and Miss Daisy Weldon, of Moncton, spent Sunday and Monday in town, guests of Miss B. Carter.

Mrs. G. M. Campbell and Miss Campbell entertained at a very enjoyable senior picnic at Silver Lake on Friday afternoon. Those who enjoyed the outing were Miss Mildred Barker, Miss Pearle Akerly, Miss Gertrude Kilburn, Miss Annie Metherall, Miss Eleanor Roach, Miss mary Sponagle, Miss Mary Boyd, Miss Rhoda Innis, Miss Marjorie McCarthy, Miss Mary Silver, Miss Beatrice Swan, Miss Hazel Mowat, Miss Hulda Blenkhorn, Mr. Gerald Anglin, Mr. J. McLean, Mr. J. Kirkpatrick, Mr. Carl Pickard, Mr. Raymond Dill, Mr. Ferguson, Mr. Dinnis, Mr. Wetmore, Mr. Hellens, Mr. Herb Poole, Mr. Blakeny, Mr. Farrer, Mr. Lewis and Mr. Windsor.

Miss Jean Cameron, of Halifax; Miss Kit Humphrey, of Moncton; Miss Grace Jackson, of Moncton; Miss Fenton, of St. John; Miss Ethel Burns, of Sydney; Miss Greta Metzler, of Campbellton; Miss Illa Marston, of Meductic; Miss Ethel Ryan, of Moncton; Miss Mildred Murry, of Riverside; Miss Ethel Boyd, of Fredericton; Miss Nan Gass, of Shubenacdie; and Miss G. Taylor, of Charlottetown, were guests at Mount Allison Ladies' College during closing.

During closing week, Mrs. Herbert M. Wood entertained a number of friends at a very pleasant tea and musical. An excellent programme of vocal and instrumental music was carried out by a number of the graduates. Among those present were Miss Nan Clark (Bear River), Miss Nan Chapman (Moncton), Miss Vega Gronlund, Miss Ruby Wigle (Halifax), Miss Elsie Tait, Miss Machum, Miss C. Harris, Miss M. Harris, Miss Jean Campbell, Miss Kathleen Davidson (Halifax), Miss Rhoda Innis, Miss Hazel Mowat, Miss Beatrice Swan, Miss Gladys Borden, Miss Gertrude Borden (Wolfville), Miss Gladys Woodbury (Halifax), Mrs. C. W. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Trites, Misses Lena and Hazel Tait (Shediac), Mr. Walter Pickup, Mr. C. Pickard, Mr. G. Anglin, Mr. Grant Smith, Mr. W. T. Wood, Mr. Fred. Reid, Mr. Robertson, Prof. McKee and Dr. McKeil.

Mrs. E. R. Hart entertained a few friends at tea on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. S. E. Freeman, of Joggins, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clarence Knapp.

Mr. Watson Carter, of the Royal Bank staff, Louisburg (C. B.), spent the holiday in town, guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Carter.

Mrs. C. W. Fawcett entertained informally at tea yesterday afternoon, in honor of a few of the visitors in town. Included among the guests were Mrs. Herbert M. Wood, Mrs. Raleigh Trites, Miss Thomas, Miss E. Machum, Miss Masters, Miss C. Harris, Miss M. Harris, Miss Lou Ford, Miss Gretchen Allison, Miss McDonald (Pictou), Miss Jean Campbell, Miss Nan Clark (Bear River), Miss Kathleen Davison (Halifax), Miss Gladys Borden, Miss G. Woodbury (Halifax), Miss G. Borden (Wolfville), Miss N. Turner, Mrs. D. Allanache (Moncton), and Miss Nan Chapman.

Miss Vega Gronlund and her guest, Miss Ruby Wigle, of Halifax, spent Wednesday in Amhers[illegible]sts of Mrs. Edgar Hewson.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Black gave a charming dance last evening in honor of Lt. Col. Ryan and officers of the 6th C. M. R.'s stationed at Amherst. Mrs. Black wore a most becoming gown of white crepe de chene with lace overdress and trimmings of steel and crystal. Dancing took place in the spacious studio which was appropriately decorated with bunting and flags of the allied nations, with further decorations of cut flowers, principally snapdragons and carnations. The music, furnished by Mrs. Fraser and Mr. Nelson of Amherst, was all that could be desired. Supper was served about midnight and dancing was resumed for a couple of hours. Among those invited were, Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Trites, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. T. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fawcett, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. S. Black, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher, Col. and Mrs. Morris. Prof. and Mrs. Whitehead, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Copp, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Murphy (Cape Tormentine), Prof. and Mrs. Fritz Read, Prof. and Mrs. Brunton, Lieut. and Mrs. Smith (St. John), Miss Jean Campbell, Miss Kathleen Davison (Halifax), Miss Lila Estabrooks, Miss Fydell, Miss Smith, Miss Machum, Miss Harris, Miss Masters, Miss Thomas, Miss Lou Ford, Miss Gretchen Allison, Miss McDonald, Miss Kathleen Fawcett, Miss Helen Wiggins, Miss Bess Carter, Miss Edith Hunton, Miss Marie DesBarres, Miss Kathleen Mackenzie, Miss Vega Gronlund, Miss R. Wigle (Halifax), Miss Greta Ogden, Miss Marjorie Young-Smith (Moneton), Miss Dora Hewson (Amherst), Miss Gladys Borden, Miss Eleanor Moss, Mrs. D. Allison, Miss Innis, Miss Hazel Mowat, Miss Mary Landry (Dorchester), Miss Crowhurst, Miss Kenyon, Miss Constance Smith, Miss Jean Rainnie, Miss Clem Pickard, Miss Caroline Cahill, Misses Annie, Ada and Helen Ford, Miss Henderson, Major Ings, Major Markham, Major McLean, Major Lydiard, Major McIntosh, Capt. Inman, Capt. Scovil, Capt. Gray, Capt. Soocoe, Lieut. Ganong, Lieut. Otty, Lieut. Atkinson, Lieut. Barnes, Lieut. Mooney, Lieut. Everett, Lieut. Morrissey, Lieut. Thomas, Lieut. Grimmer, Lieut. Pineo, Lieut. Knowlton, Lieut. Brown, Lieut. Bownes, Lieut. Arnold, Capt. Gow, Capt. Marsh, Mr. Walter Pickup, Mr. W. Landry (Dorchester), Mr. Robertson, Mr. Strong, Mr. Fred Reid, Mr. L. Bulmer, Mr. Burke (Shediac), Mr. Melanson (Shediac), Capt. Gorden Taylor (Amherst), Mr. W. T. Wood, Mr. H. A. Ford, Mr. F. L. Ford, Mr. R. G. Henderson, Mr. D. Pickard, Mr. Maurice Fisher, Prof. McKee, Dr. McKiel, Mr. Kenneth Pickard and Mr. Carl Pickard.

Mrs. Silas James and Miss James, were hostesses on Wednesday afternoon and evening at very enjoyable receptions, in honor of Mrs. James' daughter, Mrs. Ernest Baines of Lockport (N. S.) The guests included, Mrs. J. Wood, Mrs. Gronlund, Miss Vega Gronlund, Mrs. G. M. Campbell, Miss Jean Campbell, Mrs. Hunton, Mrs. B. A. Trites, Mrs. DesBarres, Miss Jen Richardson, Miss Tweedie, Mrs. H. H Woodworth, Mrs. E. R. Hart, Mrs. Watson, Miss Lillian Hart, Miss Etta Ayer, Mrs. C. W. Cahill, Mrs. D. Allison, Miss Reta Charters, Miss Mabel Dixon, Mrs. J. O. Calkin, Mrs. C. W. Ford, Miss Annie Ford, Miss Copeland (Lockport), Mrs. Fred George, Mrs. Arthur George, Mrs. C. C. Avard, Mrs. Fletcher George, Mrs. J. M. Palmer, Miss Vandini, Miss Edith Trueman, Mrs. F. T. Tingley, Mrs. Alex. Ford, Mrs. Charles George, Mrs. Chalmers Hicks, Mrs. E. M Copp, Mrs. A. B. Copp