"August Flower"

What is It For?

This is the query perpetually on your little boy's lips. And he is no worse than the bigger, older, balder-headed boys. Life is an interrogation point. "What is it for?" we continually cry from the cradle to the grave. So with this little introductory sermon we turn and ask: "What is AUGUST FLOWER FOR?" As easily answered as asked: It is for Dyspepsia. It is a special remedy for the Stomach and Liver. Nothing more than this; but this brimful. We believe August Flower cures Dyspepsia. We know it will. We have reasons for knowing it. Twenty years ago it started in a small country town. To-day it has an honored place in every city and country store, possesses one of the largest manufacturing plants in the country and sells everywhere. Why is this? The reason is as simple as a child's thought. It is honest, does one thing, and does it right along—it cures Dyspepsia.

G. G. GREEN, Sole Man'fr, Woodbury, N.J.

OFF TO OTTAWA

To Forward the Port Stanley Bill—A Strong Deputation Will Fight the Matter to a Finish.

Yesterday afternoon's special meeting of the City Council was attended by Mayor Essery, Ald. Heaman, Taylor, Parnell, Coo, Thos. Jones, Dreaney, Garratt, Carruthers, John Moule, Pritchett, James Fitzgerald, F. J. Fitzgerald, Stevely, Welford, Shaw, ex-Mayor McCully, of St. Thomas, and Mr. T. G. Meredith.

Mr. Meredith, at the request of Mayor Essery, informed the council of the result of the St. Thomas interview as published in last night's ADVERTISER.

The mayor advised that the strongest possible delegation go to Ottawa and fight the matter out to the bitter end.

Ald. Coo moved that the mayor, Ald. Moule, Taylor, Stevely and Welford form the committee.

This was considered too small, and Ald. Moule favored the whole council going.

The mayor thought this too large, and Ald. Carruthers suggested that the delegation should consist of the aldermen who were on the Port Stanley board and the members of the Port Stanley board, including Mayor Gill.

Ald. Fitzgerald thought that the strongest possible delegation should be sent, regardless of expense.

Ald. Parnell said that everything that could be done in the interests of the citizens had been done by the delegation that morning, and when St. Thomas showed itself so hostile he thought the matter should be fought to the finish. It had been said that last year's council had ignored St. Thomas, but he, as one of the number, repudiated that idea. He was present when the mayor of St. Thomas expressed himself so satisfied that he cast his vote in favor of the lease.

Mr. Ivey was then heard. As far as the proposition was concerned he had submitted it to the syndicate and naturally the first question asked was, "What does St. Thomas want?" and he was unable to tell them.

Mayor Essery—Well, St. Thomas wants pro rata rates and the syndicate ought to be able to get at what that means.

Mr. Ivey—From a conversation I had to-day with people in St. Thomas, they hardly expected pro rata rates. They did not expect one-third the rate that London enjoyed. We would like something in writing from St. Thomas as to what they really do want before considering it.

Mayor Essery — Well, ex-Mayor McCully, of St. Thomas, is present; maybe he can tell you what St. Thomas wants.

Mr. McCully—I am simply in the city on business and have nothing to say about the bill. I think Mr. Ivey's knowledge must be very limited if he has been at Ottawa as long as he has and does not know what St. Thomas wants.

Ald. Garratt moved in amendment, seconded by Ald. James Fitzgerald, that the deputation consist of the mayor, the city solicitor and the members of the council belonging to the L. and P. S. R. board, the mayor to have power to add to their number, and the deputation to have power to deal with the whole question on behalf of the council. Carried.

After some discussion with Mr. Ivey it was found that the bill came up again at Ottawa on Wednesday, and it would be necessary to start at once if any work was to be done.

Some of the aldermen said that they could not possibly go, and the mayor decided to take Ald. James Fitzgerald, Parnell, Dreaney, Taylor, Coo, Welford, Thos. Jones, Garratt and Shaw, together with Solicitor Meredith.

The delegation left at 5:30 last night.

LAWSUIT OVER A PRINTER'S ERROR

Father Barzynski Refused to Pay for Medals, But the Plaintiffs Won the Case.

CHICAGO, March 13.—The suit of Joseph A. Stolba & Co. against Vincent Barzynski to recover $310 for making 1,000 brass medals was tried in Judge Hutchinson's court and a verdict rendered for the plaintiff. The defendant is pastor of the Polish Catholic Church at Noble and Ingraham streets.

In May, 1891, just before the centennial of the adoption of the Polish constitution, Father Barzynski ordered the medals made in commemoration of the event. On one side of the medal appeared the word "swifca." This word in Polish means "celebration" when there is an aspiration mark under the the "i" and the "c." With these marks left off it means "candles." When the medals were made it was found that the marks had been left off, and, instead of relating to the "centennial celebration," the inscription read "Centennial Candles" when translated into good English.

The priest and his flock were indignant when they saw what a ridiculous mistake had been made and refused to accept the medals, but Stolba & Co. could not see how the omission of two little commas from beneath the word could make any material difference. The jury could not see it, either, and rendered a verdict for the plaintiffs accordingly. The priest and his friends may take an appeal.

"Quadrants" for Excellence.

Are you going to ride this season, and if so what wheel is it to be? This is a question of some importance to us, but of more importance to you. Are you "up to date"? Of course you want to be, but take our advice and go slow. Don't be in a hurry in selecting your mount for 1893. Some dealers are behind the times, others think they are ahead. We claim to be right there every time. We have no last year's patterns at low prices as a bait. We are "up to date." Look around and see first what others offer, then come to us. We can give you material, finish and design, the three essentials of a good wheel. The "Quadrant" is a leader, it led at Queen's Park last fall, you know, and it will lead again. Watch it, we say, for it has come to stay. Prices right for cash, and right for time, too. Come and have a talk with us. J. D. MCKENZIE & Co., Duffield Block, Clarence street. b
