

Adjournment Debate

The hon. member should also recognize the very important benefits of employment which will accrue to those shore based industries which will process this increased quota. I wish to emphasize that consultations were held and that all parties were consulted before the decision was made. It is clear that no amount of additional consultation could have resolved differing views. Therefore it was the minister's responsibility to make the final decision on the basis of those consultations and the best scientific advice available.

It should be noted, Mr. Speaker, that trawlers based outside the Gulf have always fished from this stock.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. McCain): Order. The motion to adjourn the House is now deemed to have been adopted. Accordingly, this House stands adjourned until tomorrow at 11 a.m.

Motion agreed to and the House adjourned at 10.30 p.m.
