NORTH PERTH PROTEST

The Hearing of the Preliminary Objections Postponed Indefinitely.

Toronto, Jan. 27.—On behalf of George Lionel Money, petitioner, the matter of hearing the preliminary objections by James Palmer Rankin, Liberal, respondent, to the protest by Money against his election for North Perth in the recent Federal election, was adjourned sine die, to be arranged between counsel. Mr. G. B. Strathy asked to have it allowed to stand until Feb. 5, but Mr. H. W. Sharpley, for the respondent, wished an adjournment sine die, as there were some questions to be considered, which might delay it beyond that date. There was some question, said Mr. Strathy, whether the motion should not come up before a judge in court, and not in chambers, and Mr. Justice Clute said he thought it was a court order motion and should come before a court, with Mr. Holmested, the election clerk, as registrar. Mr. Strathy, however, read a clause in the new rules for election trials, providing that all interlocutory questions and motions shall go before a judge of the high court. Mr. Strathy had no instructions as to enlargement into court, so the matter was left as stated. His lordship said that if they desired the motion might be spoken to before him today.
