TRAVEL on the railways is increasing as the spring advances. So far the greater number of passengers are westward bound.

FOR THE SUFFERERS.—A concert will be held in the Blue Rock mission, Carleton, Thursday evening, in aid of the Springhill sufferers.

REHEARSAL.—The members of the music union will meet for rehearsal in the Y. M. C. A. hall, King street, West end, this evening at 7.30 o'clock.

SHOWERS OF WORMS.—A shower of worms fell in Lakeville, during a recent snow storm. They were of brown color and about the size of the codlin moth, which infests our apples. Canning Gazette.

AT SOUTHAMPTON, York Co., on Saturday last the 7th, John Turner's little daughter, eight years of age, dropped dead while eating her dinner. Heart disease was the cause. She had been ailing for some years.

ELIJAH ESTABROOKS, an old and respected resident of the Nashwaak died last Tunday at Marysville about three o'clock in the afternoon. The deceased had passed the three score years and ten and had led a useful life.

ORGAN RECITAL.—To-morrow evening at St. John's (Stone) church, Mr. James S. Ford, will give his annual organ recital. Mr. Ford will be assisted by the choir of the church and other well known talent. The recital will begin at 8 o'clock.

OATS HAVE ADVANCED in price from 10 to 15 cents on the bushel bringing them up to about 63 to 65 cents wholesale, or a higher price than has been obtained for nine years. The price of other kinds of feed is advancing in proportion to the price on oats.

Y. M. S. OF ST. JOSEPH.—The young men of this society will be assisted in their entertainment at the Institute tonight by some well known local talent. As the proceeds are for the orphans it goes without saying the seating capacity of the hall will be tested to the utmost.

GETTING BETTER.—Alfred Lord, who was injured by a flying stick in Gregory's mill, Carleton a few days ago, is slowly improving. His kidneys are badly injured but Dr. White, who at first despaired of his ever getting better, now considers him out of danger and on a fair way to recovery.

C. P. R. COAL TENDERS.—The Canadian Pacific Railway company advertise for tenders for 30,000 tons of coal to be delivered in equal quantities at Carleton and St. Andrews, the delivery to be during the months of April and September. The tenders close March 31st. The handling of this large quantity of coal at the Carleton terminus will make considerable work there during the summer months.

AN ORANGEMAN'S FUNERAL.—Alexander Davidson, a young man not quite 21 years of age, died yesterday at the residence of James Dunlop, City road. He was a native of Latter Kenny, Ireland, and has resided here only about three years, but he was a respected member of Verner Loyal Orange Lodge, and so he was looked after by the brotherhood in his sickness. Tomorrow they will attend his funeral at 2.30 o'clock in full dress regalia.

AT TWO O'CLOCK last Thursday morning, Fred Bevan, now in Queens County jail, and who was sentenced at the January court, attempted suicide by hanging. He occupies a room next to Henry McEwen, and this morning the latter was awakened by hearing strange noises coming from Bevan's room as if some one were strangling. McEwen immediately gave the alarm, and Assistant Keeper McNeill responded. He opened the door of Bevan's apartment and found Fred suspended between the floor and ceiling and almost in the last agonies of death. Bevan was evidently determined to do away with himself as for want of better means he had utilized two towels and the grating over his cell door to carry out his attempt.—Charlottetown Patriot.

SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

Athletic.

THE GO-AS-YOU PLEASE OF THE PRESENT.

NEW YORK, March 15—Madison Square Garden was alive with animation this evening, when another six-day walking match was begun.

There was the same crowd of highly colored women and flashy men as in former years, and the same clouds of tobacco smoke, the same rivers of beer, the same old-time music and the familiar confusion incident to such events.

At the outset Manager Couch, alias Alberts, found himself in fresh trouble, as James Albert, the star of the show, and the recognized American champion refused to start. When the pedestrian first heard that Couch had assumed the name of Alberts he wrote remonstrating, and received in reply a profuse apology and a proposition of $3000 to enter the race, apart from what prize money he might win.

Albert accepted Couch's note for the amount, indorsed by the manager's backer, but when the latter failed to come to time about the prize money Albert demanded the cash in advance. This demand resulted in his refusal to start.

The other 30 odd contestants filed out arrayed in all colors of the rainbow, and all were on the scene when Bob Fitzsimmons, in evening dress, however, promptly at 12;05 o'clock shouted: "Go!"

All gaits and styles were shown, from Guerrero's easy swinging run to Hughes' hop-and-go-fetch-it lope.

Before the conclusion of the first two miles the Persian prince had a stitch in his side, and probably wished he was back at his banana stand. At 12.30 o'clock Chief of the Scorers S. C. Austin resigned, as the scores were jumbled and mixed in a frightful manner. The race is now a howling farce.

Baseball.

BASEBALL IS DEAD.

"Baseball is dead." mournfully said Director Macpherson to the Empire yesterday afternoon. The corpse of the Toronto International League Club was laid out yesterday, mourned by few and its demise is unheeded by the general public of the city. The subscription list did not come up to expectations and the promoters of baseball in Toronto reluctantly relinquished their efforts to establish a league club in the city.

WALKING TO NEW YORK.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., Mar. 15,—Zoe Gayton, who is walking from San Francisco to New York on a wager of $2000, arrived here this afternoon. She has until April 8 to complete her journey.

Notes.

The New York Athletic club spent $29, 879,07 on athletics last year.

The annual meeting of the Beavers will be held to-morrow evening.

This evening the much postponed game of hockey between the Bankers and the S. N. H. C's. will take place at the Palace rink. The proceeds will go in aid of the Springhill fund.

Tomorrow evening there will be a skating tournament at Victoria rink. Breen and Laidlaw are on the programme for a race, which should be one of the best of the season. Everybody has been anxiously awaiting the meeting of these two flyers.

This Evening.

"Out of His Sphere" in St. Rose's Hall, Fairville.

Concert in St. Patrick's Hall Carleton, in aid of orphans.

Concert in Mechanics' Institute given by the Young Men's society of St. Joseph.

D Company, 62nd Fusiliers, will meet at the Armory drill shed at 8 o'clock sharp, to arrange to attend the funeral of the late member Alex. Davis.

Special services in Brussels street Baptist, Coburg Street Christian and Union Street Congregational churches.

The Natural History council meet at 7.30 o'clock.

Pioneer, Siloam and Golden Rule Lodges, will pay a faternal visit to Peerless Lodge. Members are to meet at Odd Fellows' Hall.

Return of the Beautiful.

Winter's tail ender was felt more to-day than any other storm of the season. It ought to be safe to assume that winter is at an stand still when good domesticated citizens begin to take off their outside windows and to unhinge their frost proof doors; when aspiring youth ressurrects the spring overcoat, and prepares the Easter bonnet for Sunday service. But such is not the case. To-day, and it is the one devoted to St. Patrick, too, has proved otherwise. The mercury reached the low ebb of zero, while the north wind, which has such a tempering influence on the atmosphere about this community, played havoc with the new horn whiskers of the happy possessors, carried snow drifts down their necks, and made itself generally sociable and comforting.

Silas H. Brown dies in New York.

Mr. Silas H. Brown, father of Mr. D. J. Brown, of Macaulay Bros. & Co., died in New York last evening quite suddenly.

Deceased was a native of St. Martins. He removed to this city early in life and was a well known master builder, his work in that direction including the Y. M. C. A. and Market buildings. About ten years ago he removed to New York, where he has since resided. He leaves a widow and four children as follows: D. J. Brown of Macaulay Bros. & Co., C. G. Brown and Mrs. Geo. Coster and R. W. Brown of New York. He was a member of Albion lodge, F. & A. M., and a member of the Encampment of St. John, Knights Templar. The remains will be brought to this city for interment.

Police Court.

Geo. Earle, Edward Langon and James Noiles, drunks, were fined $4 each.

Robert Craig, given in charge by James Doody for being drunk and wanting to fight in J. Wm. Roop's saloon, forfeited a deposit of $20 for non-appearance this morning.

Betsy Joseph, John Joseph, Peter Joseph, Joseph Sandpost, Jane Sandpost and Peter Sandpost, lodgers, were allowed to go.

James Murphy, another lodger is still in the cells. He is supposed to be insane.

Evangelists at Work.

At Coburg street Christian church special services are to be held every evening this week at 8 o'clock, conducted by Evangelist Howard Murray. Subject this, Tuesday evening, Profit and Loss.

The special services at the Congregational church, Union street, held every evening, are being largely attended. Mrs. Leger preached last night, and held a service in the Sunday school room this afternoon. The service this evening opens at 7.45 o'clock, Evangelist Whittier at Brussels street still draws a crowded houses.

PELEE ISLAND Co.'s Grape Juice is invaluable for sickness and as a tonic is unequalled. It is recommended by Physicians, being pure, unadulterated juice of the grape. Our agent, E. G. Scovil, Tea importer, No. 13 North Wharf, can supply our Brands of Grape Juices by the case of one dozen.

The Last Solemn Rites.

The remains of the late Edwin Frost arrived here yesterday by the C. P. R., from Atlantic city. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from the residence of the Rev. W. J. Stewart, Leinster street, where the funeral services will be performed by Rev. Howard Sprague of Centenary. Services will be performed in Centenary, of which church Mr. Frost was at one time a prominent member, The remains will be interred in the rural cemetery.

Mr. Edwin Frost was married to Miss Lizzie Hanson, eldest daughter of Vernon Hanson, of this city. She died about six years ago. One brother, Henry D. Frost, survives him, at present living in Omaha, Neb.

The estate is valued at from one hundred to one hundred and twenty thousand dollars. The nephews of the deceased gentleman are Wilmot Frost and James Frost at present living in the United States and H. D. Ballentyne and James E. Ballentyne. These in addition to two sisters of Wilmot and James Frost, are the only immediate surviving relatives.

St. Patrick's Day Services.

To-day being St. Patrick's day it was fittingly celebrated in the various Catholic churches of the city by special services.

At the Cathedral this morning solemn high mass was celebrated in the presence of his Lordship Bishop Sweeny in cope and mitre. Rev. J. J. Walsh was the celebrant and he was assisted by Rev. T. Casey, deacon, and Rev. F. J. McMurray, sub-deacon. After the first gospel a panegyric of St. Patrick was pronounced by Rev. T. Casey, who took for his text the 11th Psalm. verse 7 "The just shall be in everlasting remembrance." The service was largely attended.

At the Lower Cove church Monsignor Connolly preached a sermon on St. Patrick. He was assisted in the services by Rev. L. LeBlanc as deacon and Rev. V. LeBlanc as sub-deacon.

At St. Peter's church an appropriate sermon was preached by Rev. Fr. Hayden.

THE APT CASE.—Yesterday, as stated in the GAZETTE, Wm. Apt was before the magistrate and was remanded for a week on account of discoveries made in Boston by the police, who have searched the room in which Apt lodged while in Boston. Rev. Mr. Mathers will leave this evening for that place in order to gather further information on the case. The Boston police have made some discoveries, which are expected to clinch the evidence already produced against Apt. In addition to other things they found the missing watch in the room recently occupied by the lad.

SERIOUS CHARGE.—D. C. Ferguson, photographer, Barrington street, was arrested to-day, charged with assault of an indelicate character on a child in his rooms, corner Barrington and Prince streets. Some time ago the City Marshal got an anonymous letter in regard to this gentleman, and Detective Power has been on the watch, and on Thursday night saw a girl standing in front of Mr. F.'s door; he watched and soon saw a bigger girl, sister of the one in waiting, come out; he followed and spoke to them. The result was his arrest this morning. —Acadian Recorder.

THE INDIANTOWN FERRY commissioners met yesterday afternoon to consider the tenders which had been received for the running of a steam ferry between Indiantown and Pleasant Point. They decided to accept the tender of Mr. Dennis Melaney, providing that he is willing to fulfil certain conditions which they impose. His tender is to furnish a boat with as much carrying capacity and as good passenger accommodation as the W. E. Vroom, now on the route and run by Messrs. Waring & McMulkin. Their contract expires the 28th of this month.

DEATH OF MRS. J. C. MOTT.—The many friends of Dr. J. C. Mott, in this city and elsewhere, will regret to hear of the death of his wife, which occurred at their home, Prince William, York co., yesterday. Word was received here this morning by telegram. The deceased lady was the eldest daughter of Mr. S. V. White of White's cove, Queen's county. She leaves besides her sorrowing husband, one daughter to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate mother.

THE MONTICELLO'S TRIP.—The City of Monticello, had a very stormy passage across the bay this morning. She left Digby at four o'clock this morning and arrived here at 10 o'clock. Captain Fleming considers this the worst weather that the boat has been out in this winter. The wind blew terrifically from west-north-west and was accompanied by huge seas. When the steamer got into port this morning she was almost sheathed with ice.

IN 60 HOURS.—The new schooner Beaver arrived last night from New York. She had bad weather in the bay before she reached port, but notwithstanding this and one morning's head winds, she made the run to this port in 60 hours.

THE RIVER is gradually rising and the ice is breaking up on the shores. Around the island above the city the ice is breaking very fast and travelling on the river there is dangerous. All teams have taken the bridge to-day.—Fredericton Gleaner.

SURVEY ON SCOWS.—The portwardens held a survey yesterday on the cargo of sugar in the barquentine Minnie G. Elkin. As far asseen they found the bags properly stored and dunnaged. They found twenty five bags in the ware-house partly empty.

GASPEREAUX.—The fishermen of Carleton are catching a few gaspereaux and are obtaining $2.50 per hundred for them. John Christopher captured about one hundred last night and John and Henry McLeod about forty.

THE POSTMASTERSHIP.—In regard to the rumor that Mr. J. Alfred Clarke had been appointed postmaster, that gentleman told a GAZETTE reporter this morning, that, so far, he had received no notice to that effect.
