E. V-A-S-E.

BY JAMES JEFFREY ROCHE.

From the maddening crowd they stand apart,
The maidens four and the Works of Art:

And none might tell from sight alone
In which had culture ripest grown—

The Gotham Million fair to see,
The Philadelphia Pedigree,

The Boston mind of azure hue,
Or the soulful Soul from Kalamazoo—

For all loved Art in a seemly way,
With an earnest soul and a capital A.

Long they worshipped; but no one broke
The sacred stillness, until up spoke

The Western one from the nameless place,
Who blushing, said: "What a lovely vace!"

Over three faces a sad smile flew,
And they edged away from Kalamazoo,

But Gotham's haughty soul was stirred
To crush the stranger with one small word.

Deftly hiding reproof in praise,
She cries: "'Tis indeed a lovely vaze!"

But brief her unworthy triumph when
The lofty one from the home of Penn.

With the conciousness of two grandpapas.
Exclaims: "It is quite a lovely vahs!"

And glances round with an anxious thrill,
Awaiting the word of Beacon Hill.

But the Boston maid smiles courteous lee
And gently murmurs: "Oh, pardon me!

I did not catch your remark, because
I was so entranced with that charming vaws!"

Dies erit prægelida.
Sinistra quum Bostonis.

Resolve not to Procrastinate any More.

On Tuesday, Nov. 9th. 1886, in New Orleans, La., at the 198th Grand Monthly Drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery, under the sole care of Gen'ls G.T. Beauregard of La., and Jubal A. Early of Va., the wheel of fortune spun rapidly thusly: No. 94,552 drew First Prize of $75,000. It was sold in fifths at 1.00 each: one to A. L. Beltran of No. 193 Esplanade St., New Orleans, La., a young sugar refiner there; one to T. L. Pendell of Keene, Ky.; a tobacco raiser, paid through 1st National Bank of Lexington, Ky.; one to Mrs. Eliza J. Peterson, No. 53 Moulton St., Charlestown, Mass.; the others to parties in Chicago, Ill., and Manchester, Va. No. 48,000 drew the Second Prize of $25.000, also sold in fifths at $1.00 each: one to Henry L. Valencia, San Francisco, Cal., paid through Wells, Fargo & Co. Express; one to Jas. H. Johnson, San Antonio, Tex., paid through Traders' National Bank there one each to W.M. Brown and James K. Jackson, both of Boston, Mass.; No. 67,858 drew Third Prize, $10,000, also sold in fifths at $1,00 each: one paid to Wm Tonkin, San Jose, Cal., one to G. Rocco, Stockton, Cal., both paid through Wells, Fargo & Co. Express; one to the Anglo-Californian Bank of San Francisco, Cal.; the rest to parties in New York. Nos. 19, 011 and 92,825 drew the two Fourth Prizes $6,000 sold all around. But on Jan. 11th 1887 the 200th Monthly Drawing will cause $535,000 to go flying about, and any information can be had of M.A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., on application. It would be well to form new resolutions with the new year, and not procrastinate; the wooing of fortune.

The Porte has intimated its desire to discuss the evacuation of Egypt by the British.

The importance and value of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, to a family cannot be estimated in dollars and cents. It is both for internal and external use and will prevent and cure diphtheria and all other dangerous throat and lung troubles.

The Russian press has been forbidden to detail the movements of Russian troops.

A Seasonable Hint.

For an obstinate harrassing cough there is no better remedy than Haygard's Pectoral Balsam, which cures all throat, bronchial and lung diseases. It is pleasant to take and effectual for young and old.

Forty-two lives have been lost by a collision between two steamers off the Queensland coast.

Broken down.

"Being completely broken down in health, I was induced to try that valuable remedy, Burdock Blood Bitters. One bottle made me feel like a new man, restoring me completely to health." Geo. V. Detlor, Napanee, Ont.

The Powers have returned evasive answers to the Porte's recent circular on the Bulgarian question.

A Seasonable Hint.

During the breaking up of winter, when the air is chilly and the weather damp, such complaints as rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sore throat, croup and other painful effects of sudden cold, are prevelant. It is then that Haygard's Yellow Oil is found truly valuable as a household remedy.

A dishonest "understanding" between the servants and tradesmen of the New York Union Club has been brought to light.

A Heavy Load.

"When I ate, my food was like a lump of lead in my stomach. I took Burdock Blood Bitters. The more I took, the more it helped me, I am like a new man now," says Ezra Babcock, Cloyne P. O., Township Barrie, Ont,

The captain of the Normanton, which foundered off the Japanese coast last month, has been sentenced to three months' imprisonment,

Children Starving to Death.

On account of their inability to digest food, will find a most marvellous food and remedy in Scott's Emulsion. Very palatable and easily digested. Dr. W. COHEN of Waco, Texas, says: "I have used your Emulsion in Infantile wasting. It not only restores wasted tissues, but gives strength, and increases the appetite."

The British Postoffice authorities are accused of tampering with letters addressed to Mr. Sullivan, ex-chairman of the Irish National League of America.

It Seldom Fails.

J. D. Cameron, of Westlake, Ainslie, Cape Breton, had inflammatory rheumatism which Haygard's Yellow Oil cured after all other treatment had failed.

One hundred female students at St. Petersburg, implicated in the recent disturbance, have been deprived of their passports to prevent their running away. Eighteen have been expelled from the capital.

The History of Hundreds.

Mr. John Morrison, of St. Anns, N.S., was so seriously afflicted with a disease of the kidney's that dropsy was developing and his life was despaired of. Two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him after physicians had failed.

It is believed that grave difficulties will soon arise between the United States and Mexico, growing out of the position taken by President Cleveland against the right of Mexico to try Americans committing offences against Mexican law while on American soil.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who, desire it this recipe in German, French, or English with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. N. NOYES, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N.Y.

Louis Werner, a New York saloon keeper, recently arrested for selling liquor on Sunday for the past 15 months, has been paying $3 a month for police protection to ex-Ald. C. H. Southworth. He said he knew of 344 other saloon keepers paying the same amount.

Vital Questions!!

Ask the most eminent physician
Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves and curing all forms of nervous complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always?
And they will tell you unhesitatingly
"Some form of Hops!"

CHAPTER II.

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:
"What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs, such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention or inability to retain urine and all the diseases and ailments peculiar to Women"
"And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically, "Buchu."
Ask the same physician
"What is the most reliable and surest cure for all liver diseases or dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion, biliousness, malarial fever, ague, &c.," and they will tell you:
