FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Saturday, July 8.

Tennis and golf are the popular amusements in St. John at the present time. In fact any entertainment that provides society, what remains of it in town, is sure to be largely attended. Warm weather does not affect the ardor of either golfer or tennis player. On the contrary the higher the mercury the more energetic their endeavors, so it goes without saying that notwithstanding the hot days of the past week the links and courts had many visitors and the Wednesday and Thursday teas were well patronized. At the tennis court on Wednesday, the tea hostesses were Mrs. W. A. Ewing, Miss Portia McKenzie and Miss Nancy Kingdon. Among those present were Mrs. Percy Thomson, Mrs. McKenzie, Miss Clara Schofield, Miss Lydie Kimball, Miss Langstroth, Miss Mollie Robinson, Miss Gladys Hegan, Miss Eileen Taylor, Miss Young, Miss Ethel Pennock, Ottawa, Miss Norah Robinson, Miss Winnie Hamilton, Halifax; Miss Jean Trueman, Miss Jack, Miss Vera MacLauchlin, Miss Jenetta Bridges, Miss Vivien Barnes, Miss Kit Schofield, Miss Kathleen Sturdee, Miss Alice Green, Mr. D'Arcy, Mr. Lewis, Mr. Joy, Mr. Hugh McLean, Mr. Cyrus Inches, Mr. Wallace Alward, Mr. Don Skinner, Mr. King Hazen, Miss Kit Schofield was the winner of the ladies' singles.

On Thursday, tea was served at the golf club on the veranda, a delightful inovation the warm summer days. Yellow iris decorated the centre of the table. Clock golf was played, the prize winner being Mrs. Andrew Jack. Some played bridge, but the majority spent the afternoon in the open air. Among those present were Mrs. Malcolm Mackay, Mrs. Keator, Mrs. Fred Sayre, Mrs. George West Jones, Mrs. George McLeod, Mrs. J. S. MacLaren, Mrs. Walter Foster, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mrs. Percy Thomson, Mrs. R. Keltie Jones, Mrs. George F. Smith, Mrs. George McAvity, Mrs. Lucien deBury, Mrs. Matheson, Mrs. Louis Barker, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Clarence Allen, Dr. Margaret Parks, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Andrew Jack, Mrs. Sadlier, Miss McMillan, Miss Sidney Smith, Miss Ena MacLaren, Miss Sara Hare, Miss Nellie Jack, Miss Lou Jack, Miss Lou Parks, Miss Shadbolt, the Misses Taylor, Miss Young, Miss Lydie Kimball, Miss Muriel Sadlier.

Dominion Day, last Saturday, was most loyally observed. The holiday falling at the week-end, many took occasion to spend a couple of days fishing or visiting friends in the country. A great number of automobiles, carrying many parties, left the city for out of town. Others enjoyed yachting on the rivers and lakes and, happily, the weather was adapted for all kinds of outdoor amusement. At Westfield sailing boat races were held under the auspices of the Westfield Outing Association. There were also races at Renforth. At the Cedars, which was formally opened on Saturday, a number of people from the city were guests at the hotel, among them being Mr. and Mrs. H. R. ## ROTHESAY

Rothesay, July 6—The public school closing exercises, which were held on Thursday afternoon and were largely attended by friends of the scholars, many who were unable to find room in the building enjoyed the programme through open windows from outside. While every number was good, special mention should be made of a difficult "flag drill" which was perfectly done and deserves praise for teachers and scholars alike. The following prizes were presented to the boy and the girl who by vote of the pupils and teachers had exercised the best influence in school hours during the year. Rev. A. W. Daniel gave books, which were won by Marie Kirkpatrick and David Hambro; Mrs. David Robertson's prize for highest average marks, won by Gretchen Green, while Dick Gilbert captured Miss Thomson's prize, having tried hardest to maintain a high standard of the school at all times by every day good conduct in and out of school.
