Miss Violet McCann and Mr. Josiah F. Wells were quietly wedded yesterday afternoon at the home of F. W. King, 144 William street, by Rev. J. H. McRoberts, pastor of the Hill Street Methodist Church. The bride was attended by Miss Maud King, and the groom by his brother. Prest presided at the organ and played the wedding march. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Lena Sceli, and Miss Belle Erskine, sister of the groom. The groom was supported by Mr. T. A. Glendenning. The church was prettily decorated for the occasion with lilies of the valley, white lilacs and snowballs. A sumptuous wedding repast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Erskine left on the afternoon train for Cobalt and other points, where they will spend their honeymoon.

HOWELL—PHILLIPS.

At St. Mary's Church, Woodstock on Tuesday morning a pretty wedding was solemnized by Father Stanley, when Gertrude, daughter of Edward Phillips, of the Woodstock Spring-Mattress Company, was married to Frank Howell, of Detroit, a former resident of Woodstock. CORRESPONDENCE

An Episode at Springbank.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

A very incorrect account of an occurrence at Springbank Park yesterday afternoon appeared in this evening's issue of your paper; and since it is my desire to enlist the sympathies and co-operation of every right-minded citizen in the protection of the harmless birds and animals in cur beautiful park, I should like to give you a correct statement of the affair.

On my way to the station at the farther end of the park I noticed a large group of boys of all sorts and sizes, urged on by a man (?) engaged in stoning a chipmunk which they had treed. One boy who had climbed the tree was keeping the little animal down within range. Knowing that boys often do these things out of thoughtlessness rather than brutality, and that they forget that though life can be easily taken it cannot be given back, I appealed to their sense of fair play, reminding them that forty to one was hardly "square." Most of the boys responded readily and willingly, and though some large boys jeeringly objected I was successful in seeing the little squirrel reach safety. As I was turning away these boys stirred up a baby chipmunk and eventually captured it. The captor tried to escape, but I "collared" him, upon which he threw it into the bushes. To my astonishment I was myself "collared" and threatened with arrest by an individual who professed to be a park official!!! Doubting the truth of his statement, since he was so anxious for the boys to escape, I sent for the police and detained him until they arrived.

Perhaps I feel more strongly in the matter because I have recently witnessed several instances of men giving object lessons in brutality to children by wantonly torturing and killing animals, not only harmless but useful, such as the wholesale slaughter of toads in Queen's Park.

To the lover of nature one of the chief charms of our park at Springbank is the fact that it offers excellent opportunities for the observation and study of plant and animal life; and it must greatly add to the pleasure of even the casual visitor to see birds and animals not usually met with by a dweller in the city. Yours sincerely,

London, June 8. E. H. McKONE.

ST. PETER'S WON

Defeated St. Mary's Team by Score of 11 to 5.

St. Peter's baseball team yesterday defeated St. Mary's by a score of 11 to 5. The features of the game were the hitting of St. Peter's team. Two fast double plays were made.

Sensational fielding by St. Peter's saved the game in the first and third innings. The lineup and batting order for St. Peter's was: Second base, Ed. Brennan; pitcher, N. Bahams; shortstop, P. Mascari; third base, G. O'Hara; first base, F. Mullins; centre fielder, J. Catalano; catcher, M. Catalano; left field, M. Sansone; right field, H. O'Rourke.

"It cured me," or "It saved the life of my child," are the expressions you hear every day about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This is true the world over where this valuable remedy has been introduced. No other medicine in use for diarrhoea or bowel complaints has received such general approval. The secret of the success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is that it cures. Sold by all dealers. 1

BRANTFORD PEOPLE WANT IRISH PICNIC

Sarnia Would Also Like the Big Outing This Summer.

A meeting of the officers and members of the executive committee of the Irish Benevolent Society is called for Friday evening, June 10, at 8 o'clock, in the board of trade rooms, when committees for the year will be named.

It is the intention to start the membership committee out at once, and a large attendance of members is looked for.

The picnic this year may be held at a point outside of Port Stanley.

Brantford has already made an offer for the outing, and other places are anxious to get the excursion.

Some of the members would like to go to Sarnia this year, and special inducements can be secured.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPT. REMEMBERED BY CLASS

Presentation Made to Mr. J. A. Dickinson by Colborne Street Church.

Towards the close of the session of the Colborne Street Methodist Sunday school on Sunday last, the recently appointed superintendent, Dr. A. K. Reynolds, called the late superintendent, Mr. J. A. Dickinson, to the platform, to take part in the closing exercises of the school. This consisted if the presentation of an address from the teachers, officers and friends of the school, expressive of their appreciation of his faithful services during the past ten years, in which he has been the superintendent of the school.

On behalf of the school Mr. A. Burness (the veteran teacher of the school), presented Mr. Dickinson with a handsome leather-covered armchair, and the secretary, Mr. J. S. Lovell, read an address.

As Mr. Dickinson is still laboring in the school as a teacher, he did not expect such treatment from his fellow-workers, and while he was pleased to know the kindly expressions contained in the address, he thought his fellow-workers had been too kind, and assured them that it was always a pleasure to him to perform his duties in connection with his church home

FINED TEN EACH

Man and Woman Who Took Part in a Street Fight.

St. Thomas, June 9.—Judge Coulter yesterday imposed fines of $10 on Mrs. Irene Johnson and James Ketlum, two of the four charged with participating in the street fight with Richard Rock on the night previous to the finding of Rock's dead body below the Wabash bridge. It was shown by their own evidence given at the inquest that both Mrs. Johnson and Kellum slapped Rock in the row following a drunken carousal. The judge said that while the accused parties could not be held legally responsible for Rock's death, the man who took a bottle of whiskey to a drunken orgy was morally responsible, and all concerned were guilty in this respect. The circumstances, he said, were disgraceful.

LATE JAMES PARKINSON

Had Been Down Town the Day Before His Death.

The death of Mr. James Parkinson, of 429 Pall Mall street, took place very suddenly last Friday afternoon. While feeling somewhat discouraged over failing eyesight, Mr. Parkinson had been about the city the day before as usual, but not feeling well on Friday morning he did not rise as usual. In the afternoon, when attempting to rise from his bed, he found he was not able to do so, and after the exertion sank at once from heart failure, and before his famly realized there was danger, he had passed away.

Mr. Parkinson, who was born at St. Johns, London Township, 72 years ago, had been a resident of the city for the past ten years, having moved here from Exeter, where he carried on a general store business. He had also carried on successful business enterprises in Wilkesport, Lambton County, and Trout Creek, Parry Sound.

Besides his widow and one daughter, who mourn his loss, he is survived by three brothers, all residing near Detroit, Mich.

He had been for some time an official of the Colborne Street Methodist Church, at the services of which church he was a regular attendant.

The interment took place at Woodland Cemetery, on Monday afternoon, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. Dr. Hannon and Rev. J. Bruce Hunter.

EARL GREY STOPS RUNAWAY HORSE

Steps in Where Others Shirks the Risk.

Ottawa, June 9.—Earl Grey performed a nimble feat yesterday afternoon in stopping a runaway horse near Government House lodge. Some street repairs are being made, and a cart horse, taking fright at the debris, bolted up Sussex street at a gallop. His Excellency, who happened to be walking towards Rideau Hall, saw the danger, ran to the middle of the roadway, and catching the rein, brought the affrighted beast to a stop.

Several pedestrians, who were nearer to the scene than was His Excellency, shirked the risk of attempting to catch the runaway steed.

WINS OUT IN AUSTRALIA.

Montreal, June 9.—On May 22 the steamship "RAKIA" sailed from this port for Auckland, New Zealand. Part of the Rakai's cargo consisted of two carloads of "2 in 1" Shoe Polish, made in Hamilton by F. F. Dalley Company. This is the third shipment of "2 in 1" sent to Australia by the Dalley people within the last year. The first, sent June 8 last, consisted of 1,000 gross, the second, sent Nov. 2, contained 1,500 gross, while the shipment just sent amounted to 1,540 gross, or 221,760 boxes. This brings the total of "2 in 1" sent to Australia within the year up to 581,760 boxes. It would be hard to find a stronger recommendation for "2 in 1" Shoe Polish than that it should thus force its way to the ends of the earth, past almost prohibitive tariffs, against the strongest kind of competition from British and other firms.

PRESSING NEED OF THE CHURCH

Lack of Men to Man the Presbyterian Pulpits.

THE CALL OF THE WEST

"Ralph Connor" Pleads for More Men to Carry on Work in Western Fields.

Halifax, June 8. — The most pressing need of the Presbyterian Church in Canada is more ministers and more students in the divinity halls of the colleges. A feature of today's session was an address by Rev. C. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor), in which it was pointed out that the church must man next autumn 250 preaching stations in the west, while only 57 students in theology have graduated this year from the various Presbyterian colleges. As the church spends $250,000 a year in maintaining colleges, each graduating student costs about $5,000. Dr. Gordon declared that the system of educating ministers had broken down somewhere. In the face of this rather serious statement the assembly agreed to the launching of another divinity school at Strathcona, where the provincial university of Alberta is located.

The assembly this morning dealt first with the report on the reception of ministers from other churches. All the applications were received except two. That of Rev. George Jack was deferred, and that of Rev. Mr. Burrows was referred to the Synod of the Maritime Provinces.

The Synod of Saskatchewan was given permission to erect two new presbyteries if the facts warrant such a step.

Messrs. James Bewes and W. T. Hamilton, minister evangelists, were given the status of ministers, but Messrs. W. T. Smith and W. W. Smith will have to spend one year in the home mission field before full standing will be accorded them.

Must Join the Fund.

Rev. W. J. Dey, Simcoe, moved that hereafter all ministers be obliged to connect themselves with the aged and infirm ministers' fund. Dr. Robert Murray seconded the motion, but Dr. Campbell opposed it on the ground that the presbyteries had not approved such a course. Dr. Ratcliffe contended that a majority of presbyteries had favored the principle, but some criticised the attendant regulations. Dr. E. Scott desired to know how the proposal could be enforced. A man cannot be tried for heresy if he refuses to pay into the fund. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Macdonald moved that ministers under the age of 55 be allowed to connect themselves with the fund without respect to the date of their ordination by paying arrearages. The motion, seconded by John Lowden, was carried.

Dr. E. D. MacLaren moved that Rev. J. A. MacFarlane be appointed for one year superintendent of home missions in the Synod of Montreal and Ottawa, at a salary of $2,000, this salary to be contributed from the home mission, augmentation and Sabbath school funds. An advisory committee, consisting of Principal Scrimger, W. C. Clark and W. R. Cruikshank, was appointed to direct Mr. MacFarlane. The resolution was agreed to.

Another motion contemplating the granting of a larger measure of autonomy to synods in the administration of home mission matters was also adopted.

A large committee was appointed to make an exhaustive inquiry into the whole financial system of the western section of the church, with a view to making whatever changes may be necessary and to report at the next assembly.

Another committee was appointed to endeavor to secure more men for the ministry and mission field. This committee was appointed because of the crisis in the west.

Aid of the Aged.

The report on the aged and infirm ministers' fund was presented by Mr. J. K. Macdonald.

The committee recommended that the assembly enact that it be obligatory for all ministers hereafter at their ordination to connect themselves with the A. and I. M. fund. They find the presbyteries' returns on the other question too meagre to indicate the mind of the church, and suggest sending down again the proposed amended rules with instructions to report not later than April 1, 1911. They recommend that the assembly at the same time remit the advisability of enacting an obligatory clause also for this fund.

It was agreed that minister evangelists be allowed to go in the fund by paying the same rates as ministers, and that they be permitted to draw from the fund after having served in the ministry for fourteen years. Dr. Macrae moved that the report be adopted, and in so doing he reminded the assembly of the debt of gratitude the assembly owes to Mr. Macdonald. He thought that ministers should be allowed to retire at 65 instead of 70, and should receive a maximum allowance of $500, and that every minister should be compelled to connect himself with the fund.

The motion was seconded by Judge Forbes, and supported by Rev. H. McKellar and Senator McGregor. It was adopted.

THE IMPERIAL BANK

Thirty-fifth Annual General Meeting Was a Most Satisfactory One.

The thirty-fifth annual general meeting of the Imperial Bank of Canada recently held was one of the most gratifying yet held by the bank.

The year was marked by steady advancement along all lines, and the year's business extremely gratifying.

The sum of $550,000 was paid out as dividends at 11 per cent per annum. The bank premises account was credited with $48,851 67 and $7,500 was added to the employees' pension fund. To the profit and loss account was added $96,356 94, a very handsome figure indeed. This profit of $702,508 61 was paid after every possible bad debt had been arranged for.

This feature of the year's business was referred to by the president in his report, and was the cause of sincere congratulation on the part of the directors.

During the year the bank had extended its branches, new offices being opened in Toronto, Nashville, Jordan, Vineland, in Ontario: at Fort Qu'Appelle and Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, and at Moyie and Chase, British Columbia.

To meet the growing business conditions of the country the capital stock, was increased $1,000,000, and the shares allotted at par to the shareholders.

The deposits and circulation of the bank have now reached $45,000,000—a splendid record. Mr. R. Arkell, the local manager of the Imperial Bank, has developed a fine business in London.

MEETS DR. COOK

Detroiter Hears Explorer Purchased Ranch in Argentine.

Detroit, June 9.—Charles Drasler, of the American Tap-Bush Company, of Detroit, who has just returned from a six months' trip through South America, met Dr. Frederick Koch at Valapariso.

"While I was at the hotel in Valparaiso there was an American there who went by the name of Craig," Mr. Drasler said. "Some of the other Americans in the house thought they recognized him as Dr. Cook from his pictures, and later that identification was made absolute by a Danish engineer who had accompanied him on one of his exploring trips.

"As soon as we discovered his identity the fact leaked out, and a horde of reporters came down upon him. He was surrounded by them, much to the annoyance of Mrs. Cook, who was with him. During one of their sessions I was standing quite near when I heard her say:

"'Suppose he is Dr. Cook, what do you want of him? Does he owe you anything?'

"The Cooks did not stay long at Valparaiso, but went over the mountains into Argentine. Travellers who left on the same train said that he alighted at Mendoza, Argentine. It is undertood that he has bought a ranch there and that he is to become a permanent resident."

COLLIE DOG GOT A WAY FROM "BEN"

One Prisoner Got Out of the Dog-Catcher's Clutches.

"Stung Again" was the title of a little sketch put on by Dog-Catcher Ben Blackstock this morning at the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets, to the great delight of a large crowd of citizens. About 8 o'clock Blackstock came down Dundas street leading a large collie dog, which he had captured, by a rope tied to the animal's collar. The dog came unwillingly, and in order to assist him and protect himself, Blackstock had his net partly over the dog. He wished to lead the collie to the city hall, but when the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets was reached the collie evidenced a strong desire to haul Blackstock to the police station, and made a rush northwards. He hauled Blackstock partly across the street, to the great delight of the crowd. Blackstock, however, steadied himself and started by main force to drag the big dog southward. The crowd was beginning to enjoy the situation immensely, and fairly howled with joy when the dog's collar gave way under the strain and Blackstock staggered back and nearly fell, while the dog ran away to a safe distance and then barked at him.

COULDN'T TELL TWINS

Lady Dudley's Two Boys Strangers After Absence.

London, June 9.—The worries and responsibilities of occupying a high social and public position fall on nobody more hardly than upon Lady Dudley, wife of Lord Dudley, governor-general of Australia.

Eighteen months ago, on leaving for Australia, Lady Dudley had to leave her twin baby sons in England.

On returning to England two months ago for a brief holiday on account of ill-health, she could not tell one son from the other. Both had the same colored hair, eyes and complexion.

The two boys, named Edward and George, each 2½ years old, had become strangers to their mother during her long absence.

It took several days for Lady Dudley to "get used to them," and recognize one from the other. Only their nurse, it is said, can immediately distinguish George from Edward.

A short while ago the twins were taken to a well-known woman photographer in Baker street. The photographer in posing them for their picture was utterly unable to tell which was which.

"I have never seen such a remarkable resemblance between two children," she said.

Lady Dudley, who will be returning to Australia as soon as she has recovered from her illness, is fortunately, according to latest bulletins, progressing satisfactorily. She underwent a serious operation just over three weeks ago.

Her sons will, it is stated, remain in England, and Lady Dudley will have to leave her children for the second time for an indefinite period.

SOCIETY WOMEN IN COACH ARE ROBBED

$7,500 Worth of Jewels Taken, and Given Back Later at the Club-house.

Seattle, June 9.—A spectacular stage robbery was pulled off today by four masked men, who held up and robbed the English stage coach driven by a young millionaire, Harry Whitney Treat, from the Hotel Washington, to the Seattle Golf and Country Club. Ten society women on board were robbed of $7,500 worth of valuables. All traditional methods were employed, and the highwaymen were polite but stern.

It soon leaked out that the robbery was planned by the husbands of some of the women on the coach, and the only semi-professional was "Red" Gleason, a tough waterfront character, who did the talking and gathered the loot from the women. When he was notified by the chief of police that he was wanted, he confessed.

The valuables were restored to the women after they reached the club-house.

Quickly Banishes Catarrh In the Nose and Throat

BREATHE HYOMEI FOR TWO MINUTES AND STUFFED-UP HEAD WILL VANISH.

Isn't it worth something to know that you can go to Cairncross & Lawrence this very day, buy on the money-back plan a Hyomei outfit for $1 00 that will quickly stop the discharge of mucous in the nose or throat and allow you to breathe freely awake or asleep?

And isn't it worth while to know that Hyomei when breathed into the lungs will thoroughly clean and renovate the entire respiratory tract; will kill that offensive breath and make your whole head feel fine and refreshed?

And just bear in mind that Hyomei (pronounce it High-o-me), has cured more cases of chronic catarrh (many of them given up as hopeless) than all the catarrh specialists in creation.

Hyomei is made chiefly from eucalyptol, a soothing, healing, germ-killing antiseptic, that comes from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia where catarrh, asthma and consumption were never known to exist.

Hyomei is pleasant and easy to use, just pour a few drops into the inhaler that comes with each $1 00 outfit and relief comes at once.

Hyomei is sold by druggists everywhere, and by Cairncross & Lawrence, who guarantee it to cure catarrh, sore throat, coughs, and colds or money back.
