CHICAGO MARKET.

BULGE IN EVERYTHING THIS MORNING — GOVERNMENT REPORTS AND SHORT INTERESTS POINT TO REACTION.

Chicago, August 9.

Jan. lard was 2c below yesterday's close. Oct. pork and Oct. lard, and all kinds of Short Ribs were at the same price, as also was Dec. corn and Dec. oats. Everything else was higher. May wheat ¼, Sept. ⅜, Dec. ½; Corn, May ⅛, Sept. ¼; Oats, May ⅛ Sept. ⅛, while Jan. pork was 5c higher and Sept. 2, Sept. lard 3. Following upon this auspicious opening were sales in which the movement of values was uniformly upward. Corn was a purchase. Wheat market was due for reaction, the short interest being large, the Government reports to-morrow being about 85 in spring wheat, and North West situation causing a reduction in estimate of crop.

Liverpool cables told of wheat and corn ¼ higher with Paris grain unchanged, and of London where wheat was dull, there being no buyers. It was on receipt of news of yesterday's firm closing in American market that Liverpool started off with ⅜ advance. For corn, shippers are bidding 1c over present prices in Iowa.

Grain received:

Wheat, Car lots	148,	shipments	5,510
Corn "	288	"	501,751
Oats "	244	"	42,000

Primary receipts last week 725.030, shipments 283,956.

At Chicago received to-day: Hogs, 25,000; Cattle, 15,000; Sheep, 1,4000.

Curb wheat 68⅝ to 68⅞; curb corn 30¾.

Weather reports:—north and northwest, cloudy; west and southwest, steady; Duluth, rainy; Minn., too much rain for wheat; Britain, good weather
