Wood Buffaloes.

Edmonton Bulletin.

Of the wood buffaloes shot in the Athabasca district last season only one specimen has found its way to town. This was brought down last week by J. Carlton of Fort Chipewyan, and was the only one shot by him this winter. He brought the whole hide, head, hoofs and tail intact, so that it could be set up as a museum specimen. The hide is 10 feet in length, its girth 8 feet. The wood buffalo is fast becoming extinct. The Indians hunt them whenever they can. In season or out is the same to them. They follow them for weeks at a time, very often being unsuccessful; but they are fond of the meat, and will endure many hardships to get it.

Toronto Lacrossists Defeat Athletics by 7 Goals to 1.

| Game. | Won by. | Scorer. | Time. |
|---|---|---|---|
| First | Athletics | Downey | 15.00 |
| Second | Toronto | Nelson | .80 |

| Sixth | Toronto | Keith | 4.02 |
| Seventh | Toronto | Nelson | 3.00 |
| Eighth | Toronto | Nelson | 4.00 |

St. Kitt's Athletics were only a little while in it yesterday at Rosedale. The first game was prolonged 15 minutes and then Downey scored. After that the Torontos had it pretty much as they liked, and rolled up seven points without allowing another to the visitors. The lacrosse was rather ragged at the outset and there were many muffs and wild throws, and finally from a football scrimmage Downey knocked the ball through. After that the Torontos settled down and simply outclassed the Athletics. They put up a capital combination and showed a great improvement over Saturday's form. It was a good exhibition of the national game after Downey scored, and the 500 people present seemed to thoroughly enjoy the contest. Dr. Dave Heggie of Brampton refereed the game satisfactorily, and incidentally sized up the Torontos in anticipation of the approaching visit of the Excelsiors two weeks hence. The teams:

Athletics (1)—Goal, Bradt; point, Elliott; cover, Lobb; defence, Richardson, Notman, Graves; centre, Hare; home, Downey, McIlwain, Timmons; outside, Beard; inside, Downey; captain, H. Notman.

Toronto (7)—Goal, Allan; point, Douglas; cover, Knowles; defence, Brummell, Hartley, Wheeler; centre, Turnbull; home, G. Keith, Cross, Burns; outside, W. Keith; inside, Nelson; captain, Martin.

Referee, Dr. Heggie; umpires, F. W. Thompson, Castleman. Gilmour replaced Castleman after first game.

Fast Wheeling at Hartford.

Hartford, Sept. 3.—The eleventh annual tournament of the Hartford Wheel Club was well managed, the entries were large and weather about perfect, but the racing was rather tame. W. W. Taxis of Philadelphia won two of the Class B races, the mile open and the quarter mile open. The mile open was declared no race as it was run in 2.40, the time limit being 2.25. The race was not run off and the men do not get the prizes. Taxis won the quarter mile event rather easily in 32 3-5. A.B. Goehler of Buffalo was second and W. F. Murphy of Brooklyn was third. At the age of eight years I became afflicted with "Hip-joint Disease." For a year I suffered as much as it was possible for a human being to suffer. My physicians told me I would have to wait patiently, but my father procured me some of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and I found my failing health restored. I can cheerfully say that I believe I owe my life to the use of that valuable medicine.

THE THEATRES LAST NIGHT.

OPENING OF THE VARIOUS PLACES OF AMUSEMENT.

All the Houses Were Crowded and All Presented Excellent Programs — Six Theatres Opened Their Doors—Comedy the Feature for the Week.

|---|---|
| GRAND | Sol Smith Russell |
| TORONTO | "Baggage Check" |
| ACADEMY | "Summer Shower" |
| AUDITORIUM | Vaudeville |
| MASSEY MUSIC HALL | Russian Court Orchestra |

With a chorus of laughter the theatres of Toronto were thrown open to the public yesterday for the season of 1894-5.

By a strange co-incidence all the places of amusement presented for their initial bill of the season comedy, more or less laughable. Every one of the theatres was well attended and Torontonians turned out in numbers that delighted the hearts of the managers. At the Grand Sol Smith Russell presented "Peaceful Valley"—the Toronto had a farce-comedy of the strictly farce type in a "Baggage Check." The Academy signalized its new management with another comedy, "A Summer Shower." The Auditorium, another new venture, had a comedy variety bill, while the Musee had its usual melange of funny men in the theatre. The Massey Music Hall, of course, could not produce anything so worldly as a comedy, but the Russian Court Orchestra proving a drawing attraction.

Although warm weather has hitherto had the effect of dissolving audiences into thin and unprofitable air, last night was an exception. With two new contestants in the struggle for public favor not one of the established houses showed a diminution in attendance, and the new ones received a welcome which augurs well for permanent success.

Sol Smith Russell at the Grand.

There is dispute amongst critics, who say they know, as to whether Sol Smith Russell should be classed as a legitimate comedian. Legitimate or illegimate, comedian or just plain Sol Smith Russell, he has the power of drawing excellent audiences, and these audiences testify their approval in a manner which there is no mistaking.

When, last night, he opened the Grand Opera House for the season, he was greeted with an enthusiastic audience. The story of Edward E. Kidder's play, "Peaceful Valley," has already been told. Hosea Howe is simply Mr. Russell or vice versa. The quaint character is one that is built to fit Mr. Russell's peculiarities of speech and manner, and save in the pretty scenes with his mother, the star is not called upon for much real acting. But what there is to be done is well done, and the audience which was in tears one moment over the pathetic, homelike passages between Hosea and his old mother, was laughing deliriously the next over some gawky eccentricity of the country lad.

The women of the company show to much better advantage than the men. Miss Belle Archer as Virgie Rand is beautiful, acts well and wears stunning gowns. Dainty little Anna Blancke is vivacious and pretty as Niobe Farquhar. Miss Josephine Lennox is an excellent Mrs. Howe, and Miss Kate Blancke is an acceptable Martha. Charles Mackay is a handsome Jack Farquhar, but the other men in the cast seem to be put in merely to fill up and act as if they knew it.

After the first act Mr. Russell was called before the curtain and had to make a speech before he could get away in peace. It was characteristic—a few words of thanks, during which the actor kept retreating nervously towards the wings, where he suddenly disappeared.

"The Baggage Check."

Once again it has been shown that Mr. Jacobs made no mistake when he placed Mr. Small as manager of his Toronto house. Jacobs & Sparrow's Theatre was packed to the doors again last night by an audience that thoroughly appreciated the new farce comedy, "A Baggage Check."

Just where the baggage check comes in is difficult to tell, but nevertheless it seems to introduce a number of pretty girls in dashing costumes, who can sing and dance a bit. The mainstay of the piece is Arthur Moulton, who is well-known in Toronto. He is clever, and so is Louis Martinetti, and Cora Leslie is worthy of a notice.

Take it all through, it is a jolly performance and will please the public all week. Matinee this afternoon.

At Massey Music Hall.

The Imperial Russian Court Orchestra had a most flattering reception last night in the Massey Music Hall. Although there were 11 numbers on the program, the audience were so delighted with their performances that 20 numbers had to be given. The members of the orchestra are all musicians and soloists, and play with a splendid tone and spirit. The costumes worn are the same as those worn by the nobility of Russia, and are very picturesque. There will be two concerts to-day, a matinee at 2.30, which will be immediately followed by an organ recital given for one hour by Mr. W. H. Hewlett. In the evening Mr. Frank Wright, the comic singer, will take part, as also will Mr. Arthur Blakely, organist. The orchestra, playing their characteristic and peculiar music, will no doubt be listened to by large audiences all week.

Opening of the Auditorium.

"Standing Room Only" was the sign displayed at the Auditorium last night. If the program presented at the opening is a fair sample of what is promised, the success of Manager Higgins' show is assured. The program was an exceptionally strong one. The performance was opened by Leonzo, the wonderful juggler, followed by Miss Mattie Angeline in a repertoire of the latest songs, which pleased the large audience, if applause is any criterion. The other performers who made up the program were Collins and Ma Dell, the monarchs of music and fun; Celeste, the swinging wire artist; Clark and Angeline, the Irish comedy sketch artists; Prof. Higgins, the ventriloquist, and John F. Clark, "the man to make you laugh," concluding with the amusing farce "Ma, look at him." The opening entertainment at the Auditorium augurs well for the success of the house.

The Academy.

There was a good house at the Academy of Music last night, and the audience laughed till their sides cracked at the comicalities of "A Summer Shower." Arthur C. Sidman is a quaint comedian, who acts his part in an easy and graceful style, and his company support him in a fair rate manner. For a light evening's entertainment "A Summer Shower" is particularly appropriate. It is brimful of fun, with just enough clouds to make the sunshine appear the brighter.

The Musee.

The opening program of the Musee was up to the well-earned reputation of this house. Manager Young did not disappoint the patrons of the house in the quality of the bill presented. That his efforts were appreciated was evidenced by the large attendance. Besides the many new features presented in the Musee, there is an extra strong bill in the theatre.

No better medicine than Ayer's Pills for all irregularities of the digestive organs. 267

The 16th Annual Exhibition, under the direction of the Industrial Exhibition Association, will be formally opened to-day at 2 o'clock by Sir John Thompson.

At 9 o'clock Sir John will hold a reception at the Queen's Hotel, and at 1 o'clock he will lunch with a party, comprising directors of the Exhibition, members of the City Council, Local and Dominion Government representatives and other well-known personages.

An hour later the ceremony in connection with the opening of the Exhibition will take place in front of the grand stand. President Withrow will deliver an address of welcome on behalf of the Exhibition, to which Sir John Thompson will reply and afterwards declare the show open.

The Exhibition which opens to-day bids fair to eclipse all its predecessors in Toronto. The directors and managers have been unceasing in their efforts during the past year preparing for the 16th Exhibition, and, as the public will discover when the gates of the Fair grounds are thrown open to-day, their labors have not been in vain, nor have they worked for nought.

It is doubtful whether the exhibits and arrangements have ever been so near completion at the time of opening as they are to-day. It seems to be the general thing for an exhibition to be as unfinished as possible on the day of its opening, but the Toronto Fair directors have appreciated the fact that this is a mistake, and have hurried on arrangements, so that in a very few hours after Sir John Thompson's declaration the show will be quite complete and ready for inspection.

Many Applications For Space.

The applications for space, especially in the Main Building and buildings devoted to machinery and carriages, have been particularly numerous, and several firms who delayed making known their requirements to the directors have had to suffer through the pressure on the space available for exhibits.

The grounds are in fine shape. The rain that fell on Sunday night worked wonders in the way of freshening up the general appearance of the park and changing the burnt-up aspect of the lawns to a refreshing green color. New evergreens and trees have been planted in all directions, the sidewalks have been renovated and in some places renewed, and as a result the grounds never looked better than they do now.

To the general public the Natural History Building will have many charms that will ensure it a large number of visitors. The special features of the museum this year are fish and snakes—not mysterious ethereal snakes, but immense serpents of the earth earthy. Two artificial fish incubators, loaned by the Ottawa Fisheries Department, will be shown in operation, also a number of well-preserved fish, which will all be labeled for the information of the visitors. In addition there will be a very large collection of stuffed birds and animals. The building has been artistically decorated with marine scenes.

The band stand in the Main Building is decorated with about 30 heads of animals from North Bay, including moose, cariboo, bear, deer, fox, wolf and others.

The Canadian Pacific building has been fitted up as usual with a large exhibit of products of the Northwest, to show the fertility and resources of that region.

To the east of the building a large screen has been suspended which will be used for giving stereoscopic views illustrative of life in the Northwest, accompanied with a discourse.

The Art Gallery.

There are more pictures in the Art Gallery than was at first anticipated. Over 450 paintings, by prominent artists, will be on view. The catalog will not be ready to-day, but the authorities promise that they shall be on sale to-morrow morning. The Ontario Society of Artists has made a particularly careful selection this year, and the result is that the art gallery contains a very fine display. A slight change has been made in the arrangement of the pictures, the water colors this time being hung on the eastern side of the building instead of on the western side as previously. For Mr. Cooper's immense work, "The Morning of the Crucifixion," a portion of the south-eastern division has been partitioned off.

The Amusements.

The amusement department of the Exhibition will be, as usual, very complete, supplying entertainment for all tastes. Music will be provided daily by the Victoria Industrial School Band, Prof. King's Exhibition Band and the Ladies' Orchestra.

One of the special attractions for this afternoon will be the first of the races between Ketcham's celebrated trotting dog, "Doc," and J. A. Perry's "Victor" for the championship and a purse of $500. There will also be trotting in the horse ring for the 3 minute and 2.45 classes.

The entries for the dog show are this year very numerous, including several noted animals from leading kennels in the States, an award of this show having come to be considered as carrying a good deal of value with it.

Leather Suits For Schoolboys.

There isn't such a thing, although most of us sometimes wish that there were.

The next best thing, however, to leather is our Boys' Wear Resister Suits at $5, made in three pieces, from good solid Tweed.

It takes lots of exercise on the boys' part to wear them out, and what it costs in money the boy gains in health. Sick boys are easy on clothes.
