The Mill Men's Strike.

Affairs remain unchanged in the mill men's strike. All the mills whose owners signed the 10 hours notice have been shut down and the men remain out. About 18 or 20 of the mill men left the city by the Flying Yankee this morning to seek work elsewhere, and the general feeling seems to be that they will not return to the ten hour system no matter what happens. They seem much more willing to accept a reduction in pay than to do so. There is talk today of the ship laborers taking some action to help the mill employes out in the matter, but just in what direction it may be is not definitely decided upon. A number of the mill owners discussed the situation yesterday but although it is said some of them want to start again there is yet no break from the ranks.

The mill employees will meet tomorrow evening to talk the matter over.

This is the way Judge Morse lectured Staples the Amherst seducer, when he was discharged yesterday: I think the crown has not made out the case as it should have been made out. The crown should have gone further in order to prove your age, consequently you have escaped, in my judgment, the penalty of the law by accident, but you have not escaped, either the rebuke of your own conscience or that retribution which is sure to follow you in the form of Nemesis. You entered this girl's house and under the guise of religion accomplished her ruin. You did not make an honest woman of her and give her your name, as you were in honor and manliness bound to do. You will not escape the remorse which you should feel. You may go out from here, but retribution will dog your steps."

He was about 35 or 40 years of age, and was unmarried.

COULD EASILY BE REMOVED.—One of the street car horses, a gray, running on the Charlotte street line undergoes a rather peculiar operation almost daily. Not long ago while standing at the end of the line the horse was seized with the staggers, and a man who knows all about such attacks jumped forward opened its mouth and jabbed it across with a knife. This has been repeated several times since, and somebody should now suggest a better way of relieving the animal of its woes.

PASSENGERS, going across the bay by the steamer Monticello can procure breakfast on board.

The opera house will be open exhibition week and of course there will be a great rush for seats, as the season will be commenced with the very best talent on this continent, and the citizens should not forget that all stockholders have the privelege of selecting seats one day before the general public, not only for the opening but for all performances, lectures and concerts.

NELSON GOING WEST.

C. H. Nelson and his famous stallion have been admitted to the tracks of the American Trotting Association. This association controls over 200 of the fastest tracks in the West. This will afford Nelson all the opportunity he can possibly desire to trot his famous stallion, and also to obtain records for several prominent youngsters by Nelson and Dictator Chief, now in his stable, and which will go West with him in the carload which will be shipped early next week bound for Detroit, Mich.

Nelson will make his first bow to the public at Woodford Park, Deering, on Saturday, July 4. The Woodford Park is a National Trotting Association track, but the proprietors will not allow this fact to interfere with the trot, and will either withdraw from the National and enter the American Association, or will pay whatever penalty the former may inflict if any.

Nelson will be at the Eastern Maine State Fair in Bangor the first week in September, and will try to beat his half-mile track record there of last year,

FOR THE QUEEN CUP.

TORONTO, Ont., July 1.—The first race was sailed to-day for the cup given by Queen Victoria to be sailed for by any Canadian yacht belonging to a recognised yacht club, with five starters—Oriole, Aileen and Vreda of Toronto and White Wings and Verve of Hamilton.

The course was thirty miles in lake Ontario, the five-mile triangle being twice sailed. The Vreda won in a very close race.

THE OWEENE WINS.

The open sweepstakes race of the Corinthian yacht club was sailed off Marblehead July 1st. The course was triangular, distance 24 miles. There were four boats entered—the Beatrix, the Oweene the Alborak and the clever little Gossoon, but only three started, the Beatrix dropping out. The race was a genuine surprise, the Oweene winning, her corrected time being 3 hrs. 58 min. 51 sec. The Albarak crossed the line in 4 hrs. 13 min. and 47 sec., and the Gossoon in 4 hrs. 19 min. and 25 sec.

Parliament.

OTTAWA, July 2.—The house went into committee on supply today on the supplementary estimates.

Respecting the missing link between Annapolis and Digby, Sir John Thompson in reply to questions; stated that the government was desirous that the connections with the Western counties and Windsor and Annapolis lines should be in operation as soon as possible. The minister hoped the Western Counties company would be able to secure running arrangements over the new line from the contractors before the road was altogether in a position to be taken over as completed. It was explained that the Annapolis and Digby line cost $620,000, and that no rolling stock would be provided by the government, as the line would be operated by the Western Counties Railway to which it belongs.

The whole of the afternoon and evening session was given to consideration in committee of the supplementary estimates for the year just ended. There was the usual amount of reasonable and unreasonable criticism, the latter department, as usual, falling mainly in the hands of Mr. McMullen. The item of twenty thousand dollars for litigation, the minister of justice explained, was the cost incurred in the Behring sea suit in the United States federal court. The cost of the argument which was to have taken place in May had been paid, but the argument had been postponed to October. This brought up the question of legal expenses generally, and Sir John Thompson explained once more that the amount set down by the auditor general, for having been paid to the government counsel included the taxed costs of some suits and all disbursements in connection with litigation.

Mr. Landerkin thought he had made a discovery when he found that over a hundred dollars had been paid to A. R. Dickey, who as a member of parliament is not supposed to be employed by the government.

Sir John Thompson mitigated the value of this scandal by remarking that Mr. Dickey had taxed this amount in a suit wherein he was counsel against and not for the government.

The Equity Court.

In the case of Forestell vs Forestell on the motion of Mr. G. O. D. Otty the referee's report was confirmed, and ordered that the money not paid over be placed to the credit of the cause in the Bank of New Brunswick. This a was partition suit of lands situate in Kings county.

Mr. George Gilbert, Q. C., appears as plaintiff's counsel in the suit of Chas. Robbins and company et al vs Young et al. Mr. D. L. Hanington, Q. C., and Mr. Roy Campbell appear for the defendents This is a very much complicated case. The question of law is whether certain mortgage and assignments are valid by reason of the value thereof being less than $600 and consequently coming under the old Homestead Act—now repealed—which exempted homesteads to the value of $600 from execution in law. The case is still being argued.

John Rodgers was fined $20 for being drunk and assaulting Mary Huskins.

Diocesan Synod.

At yesterday afternoon's session of the Diocesan Synod at Fredericton. Rev. O. S. Newnham submitted the following resolution which was adopted.

Resolved, that a committee be appointed to inquire into the present position of the parishes throughout the diocese and to report as to the number in which church corporations may have been formed with the titles of such corporations and other information.

The committees appointed are the bishop coadjutor, Revs. O. S. Newnham, L. A. Hoyt, and George A. Schofield and W. M. Jarvis.

On motion of C. N. Vroom, Rev. W. O. Raymond was appointed as the synod's representative in the joint committee appointed in reference to holding joint and regular meetings at St. John.

Rev. J. Roy Campbell and R. T. Clinch were elected representatives in the board of the governors of King's college, and John B. Foster of Sackville was appointed trustee of the synod of the church school for girls at Windsor.

The following were appointed a committee on the transfer of church property and in re the manual of direction to church officers: The coadjutor bishop, Canons Brigstocke and Neales, Rev. M. Montgomery, Sir John C. Allen, Judge Wilkinson, D. L. Hanington, H. L. Sturdee and Wm. Jarvis.

R. T. Clinch was appointed auditor, and George E. Fairweather was re-elected treasurer.

Canon Neales and Forsyth and Messrs. A. P. Tippes and C. N. Vroom were appointed a committee to devise the best methods of meeting the expenses of the synod. Votes of thanks were passed to the citizens of Fredericton and on motion of Canon Ketchum, seconded by Sir John C. Allen, it was resolved that the cordial thanks of this synod be tendered to the Lord Bishop the Metropolitan of Canada, for his kind attendance at the meetings of the synod, and they desire to express to his lordship their deepest feelings of affection and regard.

After complimentary remarks were made to the bishop coadjutor by the Rev. Canon Brigstocke, and concurred in by a standing vote, the synod adjourned.

A Laughable Comedy.

There will doubtless be a very large audience assembled at the Institute Monday night to witness the first production in this city of that very amusing comedy "Aunt Jack." The appellation is bestowed on a strong minded female by her nephew, "whom she has brought up; since he was in short clothes." She is an injured female who sues for damages in a breach of promise case, and the several characters become so complicated as the play proceeds as to produce any amount of merriment. The play is funny, very funny, legitimately so. It is a farce comedy which can stand as one of the best of its class, being while broad not extravagant or depending on horse play. Above all it has a distinct, well constructed and intricate plot. The fact that it had a run of two hundred nights in London, and as many more in New York is in itself a criterion of success. Grace Huntington, will be seen As aunt Jack, and we feel sure that the audience will be delighted when she recovers damages in her breach of promise suit. Hudson Liston has a great character part as the barrister, and Frank Kendrick also as a country lawyer. The entire company is in the production, and the jury will be composed of——well wait.——

Morrow's Story of the Springhill Disaster.

The Saint John Fire of 1877 and the Springhill Explosion of Feb. 21st. last, were among the greatest calamities of this generation and as such will always be borne in sorrowful remembrance by our people. Of the latter event Mr. R. A. H. Morrow, of this city, has prepared a succinct and well written account, which makes a handsome volume of more than 300 pages, with many fine engravings. Aside from a full account of the explosion, the names of the killed and of their families, the book contains a complete history of Springhill and an account of coal mining as it is conducted in this and other countries. This handsome volume is sold to subscribers at $1 per copy.

A few days ago a well known Toronto agent of the Eastern insurance company had a pair of pants stolen from him while en route to Halifax over the C. P. R. He was asleep in a Pullman berth, and one of the windows was slightly raised. At one of the stations someone lifted the window up to its full height and pulled the pants out, leaving the insurance man in a nice fix.
