ROTHESAY

Rothesay, July 26.—Beautiful weather and a large attendance were two very important things which helped make the entertainment given by some of the members of Rothesay Junior Red Cross, on Saturday afternoon such a grand success. On the lawn at the summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong a very pretty play was given by the children, who had been carefully trained by Mrs. Lewis Barker and certainly did her credit, and was greatly enjoyed by all present, who frequently applauded the performers. The play was entitled "Snow White," and little Miss Phyllis Barker took the part of the leading character in a very charming manner. Elizabeth Armstrong was the Queen and Betty Thomson the Prince, who at the end of the play, drove off in a pony carriage with "Snow White" his prospective bride, all very sweet and pretty. Seven "Gnomes" in gay smocks and a fine "make up" did their parts well and made an attractive picture as they danced on the grass and faithfully served "Snow White." These were Katherine and Margaret Peters, Rachel Armstrong, Peggy Jones, Kathleen Blanchet, Frances Gilbert and Margaret Page. This prologue was read by Miss Grace Ponton of Toronto, who is guest of Miss Annie Armstrong. The "Fire Fly Dance" given by Miss Beryl Mullin added greatly to the enjoyment. With an admission fee of only 15 cents, and nothing to sell there was glad surprise when the receipts were found to be $28.60. The Junior Red Cross members are greatly interested in the work and are aiming at being able to send from their circle once a month $10, and ten pairs of socks to the Rothesay Red Cross Society. Miss Helen Allison is president and Miss Florence Puddington, sec. treasurer.

Rothesay members of the Valcartier Chapter I. O. D. E., have decided to serve tea every Saturday afternoon at the tennis courts and will welcome all who come. Proceeds all for patriotic purposes. Last Saturday the hostesses were Mrs. John Belyea and Mrs. Hugh MacKay. This week, Miss Edith Cudlip and Miss Low Robinson will take charge.

Rev. Canon Vernon of Windsor College, has been spending a few days in Rothesay, guest of Rev. Canon and Mrs. Daniel, "The Rectory." Canon Vernon preached in St. Paul's Church on Sunday evening.

The Red Cross funds are being greatly helped by the afternoon tea, now served on Tuesday and also on Friday. Mrs. Rothwell provided for this last Friday and Mrs. Hibbard took charge for her at the Sunday School house and poured the tea.

On Tuesday afternoon this week, Mrs. and Miss Puddington were hostesses for the Red Cross tea.

The "market" held every Wednesday morning in the old school house is proving very popular, and this week again raised a good sum for Red Cross work, $35 being the proceeds. Mrs. J. M. Robinson, Mrs. J. R. Thomson, Miss Brock, Miss Madge Robertson and Mrs. J. H. McIntyre served at the different tables. Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Lewis Barker were cashiers.

For her mother, Mrs. Scharfe of Montreal, who is visiting her, Mrs. Harold Ellis on Wednesday gave a little informal lunch. Covers were laid for eight, being Mrs. Scharf, Mrs. James F. Robertson, Miss Pitcher, Mrs. Skelton, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Mrs. Bell, Miss Hooper and Mrs. Ellis.

SUMMER DREAM.

A big, thick steak, not a fixed up fake,
But a solid chunk of meat,
And a quiet nook by a lake or brook
Away from noise and heat.

A big, thick steak and a quiet lake
And a hunk of good corn pone;
A fire I'd make and I'd broil that steak
And I'd eat it all alone.
