INCREASE of our population for last year nearly 30,000, or 15 per cent, according to the statistics of our city directory, which should be a reliable authority. Toronto has undoubtedly taken a step and the advance next year may be still greater, the upward tendency of real estate. Our clients all made money last year, and some of them large amounts. We are careful to offer only safe investments, in central city property, and only where there is sure profit for our friends.
