ROBBING STREET LETTER BOXES.

New York Banks Victimized by a Check-Raising Thief.

New York, July 5.—Postoffice Inspector Ashe has sent the following to the officials of the various banks:

"There is reason to believe that some person having obtained unlawful possession of a key to the street letter boxes in this city is robbing those boxes of the letters they contain and forging the endorsements on checks obtained therefrom. These forged endorsements consist of the names of the payees followed by those of the drawers of the checks, and these latter are so skilfully executed as to make it evident that the forgery is the work of professionals. A number of these checks have been paid by banks. Every effort will be made to apprehend the offender."

DOUBLE MURDER FROM JEALOUSY.

Said He Would Kill Any Man Talking to His Wife, and Did.

Gallipolis, Ohio, July 5.—The Sons of Veterans at Lincoln gave an ice cream supper at the G.A.R. Hall last night. Among those present were Calvary Tipton, his wife, from whom he had lately been separated, and John Wills, a young school teacher. Tipton had boasted that he would kill the next man he caught talking to his wife. During the evening the woman engaged Wills in conversation, and Tipton went outside and fired two shots into Wills' brain through the window. He then shot and killed his wife and escaped to the hills.

DIED ON HIS MOTHER'S GRAVE.

Shot Himself Rather Than be a Burden to His Relatives.

Stamford, Conn., July 5.—The body of Albert Roux was found this morning in Woodland Cemetery. He had shot himself in the breast, and died on his mother's grave. He wrote two letters before he died, one to his brother Emil, in which he said he was afraid he would be a burden to his relatives, as he was growing deaf and eccentric. Another letter to an undertaker told just where the money could be found, and requested that he should be cremated. His request in regard to the disposition of his body was carried out.

THE BOSTON RIOT.

Two of the Disturbers Arraigned on a Charge of Murder.

Boston, July 5.—Harold C. Brown and John Ross, charged with the shooting and killing of John W. Wills, in the riots which occurred during the "Little Red Schoolhouse" parade in the East Boston district Thursday, were arraigned in the District Municipal Court charged with murder. Judge Emmons continued the case until July 12. The defendants were not admitted to bail. Six witnesses were released on bail.

East End Notes.

The new hook and ladder equipment for Bolton-avenue fire hall is now completed by the builders, and it is expected will be placed in the new hall ready for emergencies during next week.

Ill luck again attended the Sunday School entertainment at Howard's Farm of the St. Clement's, Leslieville, congregation. A great number of children and teachers were assembled, and when the games and fun were at their height rain came down in torrents, completely marring the whole festival. The rector, Rev. J. Usborne, has been peculiarly unfortunate in his outdoor entertainments this summer, rain having fallen on each occasion.

Around the Wharves.

Yesterday saw but little abatement in the number of Sunday school picnics which come to and go from the city. Three hundred members of Whitby Baptist Church came here by the G.T.R. in the morning and spent the day at Centre Island Park. Bloor-street Presbyterian Church and their friends went to Wilson Park, N.Y., on the Garden City. Dunn-avenue Methodist Church went in the Niagara Navigation Co.'s boats and the Electric Railway to the Falls, and Zion Congregational Sunday school was at Victoria Park. Quite a number of visitors came to the city from the other side of the lake, and the wharves had their usual busy appearance all day.

Still Looks Like Suicide.

The inquest into the circumstances of the death of Arthur Mashinter, whose body was taken from the lake ten days ago, was continued at Police Headquarters by Coroner Young last evening. Dr. Bingham made the post-mortem examination and said death resulted from suffocation. The body was so badly decomposed nothing could be said as to evidences of foul play. The skull was not fractured. The friends of the deceased still cling to the theory of murder, though the evidence points unmistakably to suicide because of failure to procure work.

For England.

The Allan Royal Mail steamer the Numidian, which sails from Montreal this morning and Quebec 9 a.m. Sunday, has a full list of cabin passengers, and all the officers' rooms have been taken. Among the cabin passengers from Toronto are: Mr. Martland, Prof. Jones, Miss Strachan, Mrs. Snelling, Mr. J. D. Flavelle, Mr. James W. O'Hara, Mr. M. McLaughlin, Mr. L. McLaughlin, etc. The Numidian will also have a large list of second cabin and steerage passengers.

The Allan Royal Mail SS. Sardinian leaves Montreal next Saturday.

Sleeplessness is due to nervous excitement. The delicately constituted, the financier, the business man, and those whose occupation necessitates great mental strain or worry, all suffer less or more from it. Sleep is the great restorer of worried brain, and to get sleep cleanse the stomach from all impurities with a few doses of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, gelatine coated, containing no mercury, and are guaranteed to give satisfaction or the money will be refunded.

DR. GALBRAITH REPROVED.

ELM-STREET OFFICIAL BOARD REPLIES TO HIS SPEECH.

They Characterize the Pastor's Action as Most Unfair, and Condemn His Immoderate Language—Trustees Withdraw From the Joint Arrangement—Pastor Refuses to Put a Resolution—The Board's Strong Protest.

At a meeting of the official board of Elm-street Methodist Church, held last night, a communication was received from the trustees, notifying the official board of their withdrawal from the joint arrangement.

After the letter had been filed the following resolution was moved and seconded, but the chairman, Rev. Dr. Galbraith, declined to put it:

An adjournment was moved and a meeting of the officials held, at which the following resolutions were adopted:

A Strenuous Protest.

Whereas, the differences formerly existing between the Quarterly Official Board and Trustees in regard to the payment of music were finally settled at the joint board meeting, Aug. 9, 1893, by the unanimous adoption of the following resolution:

Moved by Warring Kennedy and seconded by R. C. Hamilton, "That a Music Committee be appointed to consist of three members from each board (Quarterly and Trustee), who, with the pastor of the church for the time being, shall have charge of the music of the church, and that the Finance Committee pay over quarterly to the Music Committee the amount necessary to meet all expenses of the choir, and that the appropriation for the salary of the organist and leader be $600 per annum, to commence 1st Sept. 1893,, said Music Committee to report annually to a joint meeting of the two boards."

And whereas, the said joint arrangement was continued at the regularly called meeting held in October of last year by the election of the Joint Music Committee, and the appropriation of funds for the continuance of said joint arrangement for the current year;

And whereas, such joint agreement, if not provided for at the time it was originally made, has since been authorized by the action of the General Conference in September, 1894, in the provision, which says: "And to paragraph 17 on Discipline, the following, as an additional clause: 'The Quarterly Official Board may make arrangements or agreements with the board of trustees, not inconsistent with the discipline of the church, or with the trusts upon which the trust property is held, for the administration or disposal of any of the church funds which are under the control of the said boards, or either of them.'"

And whereas, financial obligations were and have been undertaken in accordance with said joint arrangement for the current year;

And whereas, the joint board has endeavored to faithfully adhere to the letter and spirit of said joint arrangement;

And whereas, the present organist was appointed in a regular way for one month on trial at the Joint Board meeting held on Jan. 2 last, and it has since been impossible, through the action of certain trustees in preventing a quorum of said joint board to secure further action thereupon;

And whereas, in default of said joint board meeting on Jan. 30, the official board instructed the Joint Music Committee to continue the services of Mr. Jury:

Resolved, That the official board stands by the original joint agreement as having been final and complete, and the only solution to the pending difficulties between the two boards.

No Interference by the Trust Board.

Also resolved: That the Official Board can not and does not recognize the notice served upon it by the Trust Board of the latter's withdrawal from the said joint arrangement entered into for this year, nor can it recognize the right of said Trust Board to now interfere in any way with the action of the Joint Music Committee, either through the pastor of the church or otherwise in requesting the dismissal of the present organist and choir leader;

Also resolved, that the Official Board place on record its approval of the said appointment, both as to the personal character and qualities of Mr. Jury, and the ability and success that have so far characterized his occupancy of the position.

The Doctor Further Taken to Task.

Whereas, a congregational meeting was held in the church on Wednesday evening last, at which our ex-parte statement was given by Rev. Dr. Galbraith in regard to the difficulties at present existing between the officials and trustee boards;

And whereas, strong personal reflections were made on the occasion referred to by Rev. Dr. Galbraith in regard to the members of the official board without an opportunity for defence of their action.

Resolved, That this board characterizes the whole statement of Rev. Dr. Galbraith as most unfair, and his immoderate language and reflections upon members of the board as not only calculated to do our church serious harm, but to cause reflections to be made upon the whole cause of Christ.

Street Car Strike in Washington.

Washington, July 5.—Forty drivers and stable employes of the Washington & Anacostia Street Railway Company declared a strike to-day. By concerted action all the cars were abandoned along the line. The cause of the trouble was the refusal of President Griswold to pay the men $1.50 per day, an increase of 30 cents over their present salary. There was no disturbance following the strike.

Dug Up a Skeleton in Chains.

Fredericksburg, Va., July 5.—While mending a road in King George County yesterday, workmen dug up the skeleton of a man enclosed in a cage of iron bars, all in a tolerable state of preservation. It is evidently the remains of some malefactor hung in chains in colonial days.

Band Concert at Island Park.

Robertson, H. P. Brown, H. Hutchinson, H. McGee, J. B. Hayes, J. W. Whittaker, W. Rogerson, R. Briggs, Henry Barber, Mrs. Barber, Miss Campbell, Mrs. H. Barber, John Rutherford.

Stabbed His Wife. Then Cut His Throat.

Brooklyn, N.Y., July 5.—Samuel Herkowitz, 23 years old, a convict lately released from the Auburn State Prison, went to his wife's apartments this morning. Upon his wife's refusal to live with him he stabbed her. Herkowitz then cut his own throat. Both will die.

Tenders for $1,224,500 City of Toronto 3 1-2 per cent. General Consolidated Loan Debentures.

Sealed Tenders, addressed to the Mayor of the City of Toronto, and marked will be received by the undersigned up to 3 o'clock p.m. on Friday, the 19th of July, 1895, for the purchase, at a minimum price of 94 1-2 and accrued interest, of debentures of the city of Toronto, aggregating $1,224,500, issued under By-laws Nos. 2337 and 3261, of this municipality.

"TENDERS FOR DEBENTURES"

The debentures will be dated June 30th, 1894, maturing July 1st, 1929, and will bear interest at 3 1-2 per cent. per annum, payable on the 1st of January and the 1st of July in each year. The interest coupons due on 1st January and 1st July, 1895, will be retained by the city. Interest accruing from 1st July, 1895, to date of delivery of the bonds is to be paid to the city.

The debentures will be made for such sums of money as may be required, either in currency or sterling money; not less than one hundred dollars Canadian money or twenty pounds sterling each, amounting in the whole to the sum of $1,224,500, and will be made payable in Canada, Great Britain, or elsewhere, as may be desired.

Tenders will be received for the whole or any part of the debentures. The purchase money is to be payable as follows: Five per cent. on allotment, and the balance on delivery of the debentures. Unless otherwise specified, payments are to be made in Canadian currency in Toronto, but tenderers may specify that payment is to be made in sterling in London, England. In comparing tenders, which are based on payment for the bonds in sterling with tenders in currency, full allowance will be made for the premium, should sterling exchange be worth more than par on the day named for the receipt of tenders.

The city will, if the purchasers desire, deliver the debentures in London against payment there, on being indemnified for the stamp duty and the cost of transmission and insurance, the latter not exceeding 1-8 of one per cent.

No tender of less than ninety-four and one-half per cent., with accrued interest in addition, will be considered, but the premium (if any) on sterling above referred to will be allowed for sterling tenders, if necessary, to make up the minimum price.

Any further information required will be furnished on application at the office of the City Treasurer, City Hall.
