REFUSED TO SIT AT FIRE ENQUIRY

Controller Foster Wanted Investigation Conducted by Coroner.

A QUESTION OF MAINS

G. T. R. Refuses to Allow City to Instal Hydrants on Water Front.

When the enquiry into the charges by Ald. Burgess of inefficient fire protection was commenced by the board of control yesterday morning Controller Foster left his seat, refusing to take part, as he held that the enquiry should be made by a coroner.

"Is it the duty of the fire and works departments to provide fire protection to the city? Should the island have fire protection from the opening to the close of navigation?" were questions first submitted by Ald. Burgess to the board.

"Certainly," Mayor Hocken replied. "If I prove carelessness by the fire and works departments, will you admit inefficiency of fire protection?" Ald. Burgess then asked.

"Yes," Mayor Hocken answered.

"Then I am ready to have my charges taken up," Ald. Burgess said.

The first charge was of carelessness in providing fire protection at the island on April 20, causing the loss of several buildings by fire.

"The time of turning on the water in mains on the island each spring was haphazard, leaving an uncertainty between the works and fire departments as to when the water should be turned on," said Ald. Burgess. "It was thus easy for the water to be turned on and the fire department not know."

"In future the water is to be turned on at the island on April 1, or earlier if the weather will permit," Mayor Hocken remarked. "It is admitted that the onus of delay at the fire on April 20 is on the works department and not on the fire department."

J. S. Craig, superintendent of fire alarms, stated that the fire alarm system on the island is not so housed as to permit operation when the weather is cold, and that the system was in operation as early as possible last spring.

"It is reasonable to expect that the works department should notify the fire department when the water is turned on at the island," Commissioner Harris said. "It had always been done informally and no record kept. That is all wrong in system and has now been rectified."

Did Not Respond.

That disposed of the charge of carelessness at the fire on April 20 at the island. The next charge was that the fire tug was notified of a fire on the waterfront at Simcoe street on June 11 and did not respond. A $8000 boat was burned.

"The captain of the tug saw the blaze flash up and quickly go down, and he thought it was a launch on fire, so did not go," said Chief Thompson. "He was absolutely wrong in not going, and I told him never to repeat that error. I don't think he will."

Then came the charge of lack of hydrants to fight a fire on the waterfront, near Spadina avenue, on July 6.

"We can't have hydrants convenient there, because it is all private property, owned by the G.T.R.," said Chief Thompson. "We have tried for years to get permission from the G.T.R. to lay a main there."

"If a fire occurs down there we can't control it," said Deputy Chief Noble.

"There is an area down there without sufficient mains and the chief and deputy chief say it is impossible to put in mains there," said Controller McCarthy.

"The railway company should be indicted," said Ald. Burgess.

"All the property is to be altered next year and the G.T.R. does not want to go to any expense for mains now," Commissioner Harris explained.

Water Pressure.

Next charge was that water pressure was insufficient at a fire on Balmuto street on Aug. 2.

"The pressure was not up to the mark, but he had plenty of engines there and got good pressure thru them," Deputy Chief Noble stated. "It was a very inflammable place, and we had to protect the surrounding property. We got there three minutes after the telephone alarm was received and found the building burning fiercely."

"So far in this enquiry there has been no evidence of lack of fire department apparatus," Controller McCarthy said. "I mention that to show that there is no need for $100,000 worth of additional equipment, as declared by Chief Thompson in his report to the mayor. The city has not starved the fire department, as charged in one newspaper. The city has poured money into the department."

Jersey Avenue Blaze.

The next charge was that the water supply was insufficient at a fire on Jersey avenue on Aug. 3.

"There was hardly enough water to run out of the nozzle," Deputy Chief Noble said.

"The lack of pressure there is caused by a six-inch main being fed by a three-inch main," Commissioner Harris explained. "In other parts of the city similar conditions obtain. This is the result of property owners in the older part of the city having refused to pay for more than three or four-inch mains. Since I took office I ordered that nothing less than six-inch mains should be laid. We are correcting the trouble with smaller mains as rapidly as possible, and before the fire occurred on Jersey avenue we had the six-inch mains on the ground there ready to be laid."

"Has your department full data on the pressure to be expected from each hydrant?" Controller McCarthy asked Chief Thompson.

"No," Chief Thompson answered.

Once a Month.

"There are 5218 hydrants in the city and all are examined once a month," Commissioner Harris stated. "The works department will supply the fire department with full information upon the pressure at each hydrant."

The next charge was that there are no keys in the fire alarm boxes at the Exhibition grounds, and that caused a serious delay in sending in an alarm for the fire there on Aug. 3.

"There are plenty of keys in the possession of the officials of the Exhibition and the grounds," Chief Thompson said. "Did we have glass fronts to the alarm boxes at Exhibition Park there would be many false alarms. Wherever there are few lights and little traffic there are the most numerous false alarms sent in. To show that the system at the Exhibition grounds is not exceptional, the university authorities insist upon having glassless boxes and keeping the keys in the possession of officials only."

The enquiry was adjourned at 11 o'clock this morning.

APPEALED AGAINST INCREASE IN TAXES

Moore Park Deputation Interviews Officials of Revision Court.

Moore Park sent a large deputation to the court of revision yesterday to appeal against this year's assessment. J. S. Fullerton, K.C., headed the deputation.

"We represent 100 property owners in Moore Park," said Mr. Fullerton. "Our assessment has gone up 700 per cent. by annexation, and we are assured it will be three years before we will have a sewerage system there. It is very unjust that our assessment should be so greatly advanced, and yet there can be no increase in value to our property for three years."

Chairman Drayton reserved judgment.

AVIATOR'S FAMILY IS LEFT PENNILESS

British Government Will Make Provision For Widow of S. F. Cody.

LONDON, Aug. 13.—(Can. Press.)—Samuel F. Cody, the Anglo-American aviator, who was killed at Aldershot on Aug. 7, died practically penniless. All the prize money he had won was spent by him in perfecting his machines and his wife and family were left in such a dependent position that the British Government is making an investigation with a view to providing for them in some way.

FARMER INJURED WHILE THRESHING

Arthur Ovens of Perth County Severely Cut on Arm.

ST. MARY'S, Aug. 13.—Perth County leads the list of counties in the upper school entrance examinations. The little County of Perth, with its turnips, sour milk and big Durham calves, beats them all.

Mr. and Mrs. John Willard of St. Mary's attended the golden wedding of the former's brother, Mr. W. Willard of Galt. In five years' time Mr. and Mrs. John Willard will be able to celebrate their golden wedding also.

During the late electrical storm the Grand Central Hotel was struck, but no material damage was done.

Arthur Ovens, a farmer of concession two, McGillivray, while threshing on William Cameron's farm, had his forearm severely cut clean thru, and another gash was made near the elbow. He is doing fairly well.

The barn and season's crop of Robert D. Stanley, Biddulph, near Granton, was destroyed. Mr. Stanley lost the season's hay, wheat and barley crops and a few implements, but no live stock. An adjacent granary and hogpen, as well as the house, was saved after a hard fight. The lost building was insured.

William McIntyre of Cobble Hill had his barn destroyed. The total loss in the vicinity was several thousand dollars.

The house of Alex. Mills, on the sixth concession of East Nissouri, was struck and the chimney knocked off.

The funeral of Clarence Slack, a former resident of the Stone Town, takes place today (Wednesday) from St. James' Church to St. Mary's Cemetery. The news of Mr. Slack's sudden demise from heart trouble on a Toronto street, came as a shock to his many friends in town. His mother, Mrs. C. Slack, with her only son, Clarence, removed to Toronto from St. Mary's, about four years ago.

THREE HUNDRED ENTER FOR THE BABY SHOW

There were 280 babies in the running for the prizes at the Canadian National Exhibition last Labor Day. So numerous are the entries for this year that over 300 are expected. The latest entry is from Brampton.

Edmonton has entered a carload of dogs, and there are no coyotes among them.

Premier Borden, who will formally open the exhibition, will be accompanied by Mrs. Borden.

CODERRE DENIES RESIGNATION RUMORS

Hon. Louis Coderre, minister of mines, who came to Toronto yesterday to attend the banquet to the members of the industrial congress of geologists, was asked about the rumors that he intended resigning his portfolio. The minister of mines emphatically denied the truth of the rumors. "There is nothing in the story now at all," he said, when interviewed at the King Edward.

IRISH PEER IS VISITING CANADA

Lord Glentworth of Dunmare Castle and Principal Fitzgerald of Oxford House School, London, are in the city. They have been in aking a trip across the Dominion.

The young Irish lord is making a study of Canadian conditions, and will spend some time on a fruit farm near Grimsby. He will go home for Christmas.

COLLEGE STREET IN GOOD ENQUIRY

Wave of Commercialism Will Soon Sweep West From Yonge Street.

The action of the university governors in the relieving of part of College street, from Yonge over to about the new hospital, from ruling that shut out business houses is having its effect. Already the properties affected by the change from residential to prospective business use are in active enquiry, and sales are sure to result very soon. The citizens are quite likely to see a rush of business houses into the two or three blocks west of Yonge before the winter is begun.

Residents who hope to stand against the natural tide of development feel uneasy as to the certain prospect of the residential character of the street being swept away. Over half of the properties between Yonge and the Victoria Hospital are on the market, at prices better than a year ago, when the present condition was not anticipated.

The Christian Science Church, at the northwest corner of Elizabeth street, for example, is on sale. And strange to Toronto, the congregation will worship in a public hall on Sundays after the sale of the site.

SIXTEEN HOUSES IN ONE TRANSACTION

Fifty Thousand Dollars Paid For All Brant Place, South of King Street.

House sales, usually with large first payments and quite often all cash, are providing considerable business for agents just now. Present activity indicates a very brisk business in houses this fall. The supply is going to be very meagre, builders having done very much less work this season than usual. Certainly, the number of houses being erected is not in proportion to the number of newcomers.

A sale of sixteen dwellings, being the whole of Brant place south of King, is reported by A. Anderson and Son, 22 College street. Dr. Hood was the vendor, and Mr. Kominker of Toronto the purchaser, the price being about $50,000.

The houses are in the terraces, one on each side of the street, are brick fronted and contain 6 and 7 rooms each. The total frontage is 240 feet.

YOUNG MAN'S NEAR CALL.

During the rush hour yesterday morning a young man tried to board a moving King car between Beaty and Dowling avenues. The passengers saw him flung to the pavement close to the car. He fell on his back. As he fell he flung up his heels, with so quick a jerk that his metal money flew out of his pants' pocket and jingled and rolled on the pavement.

His quick use of his legs as he fell saved them from being amputated by the trailer. The car was promptly stopped. It waited while the man gathered up his money and boarded the trailer. He seemed so free of injury that the conductor did not demand his name.
