LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

A special sitting of the exchequer court will be held in this city on June 2nd.

Emily Luby, the young woman charged with perjury, was sent up for trial in the Supreme Court.

Mr. T. L. Chappelle intends re-opening the Diamond Bookstore at the old stand as soon as the necessary repairs have been made.

The Supreme Court, at Georgetown, adjourned Wednesday evening, sine die. Neil McSwain, the prisoner charged with larceny pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two months hard labor.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead, who never to himself hath said, 'I'll pay, before I go to bed, the debt I owe the printer.' Yes, there are some we know full well, who never such a tale can tell; but they, we fear, will go to—well, the place where there's no winter.

Andrew Olsen, a Norwegian employed as head sawyer at Chapman's saw mill, at Shiniimecca, N. S., met with such frightful injuries one evening last week that death resulted in four hours afterwards. He attempted to cast the belt on the main driving wheel with his foot, when his foot became entangled in the belt and he was pulled with lightning rapidity through the air, striking the ceiling, breaking both legs in two places and smashing in his head and chest. Deceased leaves a wife and two children.

St. John has a new enterprise. It is an identification bureau. The company supply each subscriber with a small metal badge. On one side it reads, "This badge will identify me (see other side)." On the other side is, "Telegraph this number(—)to the Dominion Identification Co., St. John N. B. They will notify my friends." The number on the badge corresponds with one registered on the company's books, on an application blank filled in by the person, giving his name and address, age, height, weight, color of eyes, color of hair, size of hat, collar and shoes, and any special scar birth mark or other ready means of identification, with also the address of the relative or other party to be notified in case of need.

Four buildings were destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon last, at Southport. The fire originated in the store of Mr. James Morgan. Its origin is unknown, it having started during dinner hour when the store was unoccupied. From the store the blaze spread to the barn and warehouse in the rear. The dwelling house adjoining, owned by Mr. Robert Bowyer and occupied by a man named Hamm, also caught and was destroyed. The entire contents of Mr. Morgan's premises were totaly destroyed. A number of the members of the Charlottetown Fire Brigade went over to the fire and rendered effective service in preventing the spread of the flames. Mr. Morgan was insured for $1,700—his stock for $1000, store $600 and outbuildings $100. He estimates his loss at about $1,200 in excess of the insurance. Mr. Bowyer's house was insured for $400.

Miss Matilda L. Gordan, a native of New Perth in this Province, but now a resident of Quincy, Mass., was fatally shot on the 28th ult, in a Boston boarding house, by an intimate friend of her family, named Farquharson. After firing at Miss Gordon the man then shot himself dead. While in Boston that day Miss Gordon called to see Farquharson. After having spent some time at the house she was preparing to leave to take the train for Quincy, when Farquharson shot her. She was putting on her rubbers when he fired. He fired two shots. One ballet entered the right side of her neck. The other struck her on the back of the neck, and glancing off the skull, made but a flesh wound. No reason can be assigned for Farquharson's rash act. Miss Gordon cannot account for it. The young lady is now in the Hospital at Boston, and, it is thought will recover. She lived with her brother Dr. J. A. Gordon. Farquharson was a native of Scotland, and aged about 50 years.

The grand musical and literary entertainment to be held at Emerald, under the auspices of the Emerald Branch of the Benevolent Irish Society, on St Patrick's night, the 17th inst. promises to eclipse all previous entertainments held at that place. The committee in charge have been indefatigable in there efforts to prepare a first class musical treat, and the programme, a copy of which we have seen, attests the success that has crowned their endeavors. The province has been scoured for talent, and some of the very best obtainable has been secured. Performers come from the east and from the west, from Charlottetown and from Summerside. The laughable farce itself, which will occupy forty-five minutes, is alone worth the price of admission. Rev. Dr. Doyle of Vernon River, delivers the address and is also down for several other numbers. The Emerald Branch of the B. I. S., has a bright record for St. Patrick's entertainments, and in the coming one they intend adding to its lustre.

The steamer Numidian arrived Sunday at Halifax, from Liverpool, with 723 immigrants.

The Y. M. C. A. Concert to be held to-morrow evening promises to be a great success. An excellent programme has been prepared, and the prospects for a crowded house are of the best.

A bar of gold weighing 170 ounces, valued at $3,500, was brought to Halifax Friday from the Richardson mine, Isaac's Harbor. This is the first crushing of the mine, and is the result of 22 day's work. The mine is owned by a Halifax company.

The fire alarm sounded Monday afternoon about 5.30 for a slight blaze in the Finley house corner of Kent and Prince Streets. A spark from the chimney ignited the shingles on the roof of the house. It was quickly extinguished.

Wm. J. Pidgeon, aged 34, a St. John barber, was found dead in a shed Sunday afternoon. He, with two other companions, had been enjoying themselves during the day, and drank quite freely. His companions left him where found. It is supposed death was due to alcoholic poisoning.

A Halifax lad named Edward Humboldt, aged 13, was gathering coal under the cars at Richmond Saturday evening. A shunting engine came along and moved the cars while the lad was under them. In trying to get out the wheels passed over his legs badly crushing them. He died shortly after.

The Pioneer understands that Messrs. Scharman, Clarke & Co, of Summerside, have secured the contract of furnishing the windows, doors, etc, for the new Catholic Church to be built next summer at Kelly's Cross; also for the interior finish of the Catholic Church at Palmer Road, now in course of erection.

A sad and fatal accident occurred at Leitche's Creek Monday evening. Mr. Alex. McSween of Ball's Creek when returning home from North Sidney was drowned near Leitche's Creek bridge. It appears that he missed his road and drove into the open water. Horse, sleigh and occupant were thus lost before help could arrive.—Sydney Reporter.

The twenty second annual report of the Board of Managers of the Halifax School for the blind, has been received. During the past year there were under instruction 54 blind persons, 37 of whom were males and 17 females. Seven of these graduated or left the school, and one was removed by death, making the total attendance on Dec. 1st 1892, 46. Of these 22 were from Nova Scotia, 17 from New Brunswick, 6 from Newfoundland and 1 from Prince Edward Island.

Rev. R. R. Macdonald's sermon in St. Dunstan's Cathedral Sunday evening on "The Sacrament of Penance—the Priest has Power to Forgive Sin," was an able eloquent and argumentative discourse It was, in fact, the best sermon to which we have ever listened. The Church was crowded, many non-Catholics being present. The reverend gentleman handled his subject in a thorough and masterly manner. He proved the Divine origin of the Sacrament, and quoted from the Scriptures, tradition and the Fathers of the Church in proof of its practice from the time of the Apostles. That Confession was a priestly invention, as is asserted by those outside the Catholic Church, was shown to be a base fabrication. The pages of history give the lie to the charge. No where on its pages can be found the name of the inventor or the place and year in which the invention took place. The very nature of Confession is in itself sufficient to prevent the adoption of such a humiliating act. Several attempts had been made to do away with it, but all proved fruitless. It would continue to be practiced until the end of time. Our only regret is that we cannot give the sermon in full.

THE WEEK'S DIARY.

A despatch from Panama says that Campedan valley, Gautemala, has been flooded; six villages were swept away; hundreds of people are reported drowned.

A movement is on foot in the south looking to an exodus of negroes to all parts of the west. It is expected 100,000 of them will leave the south in the next few months.

Both legislative houses of the state of Washington have passed a bill making it unlawful to manufacture, buy, sell or give away or to have in ones possession cigarettes or cigarette paper.

The examination of John C. Eno, under an indictment found against him in May 1884, by the New York grand jury, for having made away the funds of the Second National Bank, of which he was president, has been postponed indefinitely.

The residence of Cyrus Lee, about four miles from Greenville, Ky., was consumed by fire one night last week. The occupants Cyrus Lee, sister and brother, wife and child, were burned with the building. There was no one left to tell the tale how it happened.

The two-year-old son of Mr. H. J. Kenny, of Coulonge, Que., was accidentally choked to death last Wednesday. The child had been playing and got a small screw nail in its mouth, which lodged in its throat, choking him almost instantly. Medical aid was immediately sent for, but before it arrived the child was quite dead.

A cyclone Saturday night in the northern part of Georgia wrecked many buildings, wiped out some small settlements and killed about 20 persons. Many were also killed and injured in eastern Mississippi and western Alabama. At Hartnet Station, Miss., fourteen were killed and twenty injured.

Geo. Hazlett, of Whiting, Ind., who has twice passed through the Niagara whirlpool in a cask, is making preparations for another shoot over the falls. He proposes to use an egg-shaped barrell similiar to those employed by himself, Potts and others in going through the whirlpool. He is confident the drop of 165 feet can be made without fatal results.

The Agency Italiana says the Grand Duke Frederick of Baden, by marriage uncle of Emperor William Second of Germany, and among the closest friends and advisers of the Prussian court, is about to declare publicly his conversion to Catholicism. The Grand Duke is said to have attended all the religious ceremonies connected with the Baden celebration of the Papal jubilee.

Ella Nora, the colored baby of Ann and Esther Fisher Parway, of Moberly, Mo., died a few days ago of pneumonia. At its birth the child weighed one pound, and every one who saw it was positive that its life would go out in a short time, but in spite of its extreme smallness it lived to be ten months old, and when it died it weighed three pounds and ten ounces. Thousands of people from all over the country called to see the child after its birth and been quite known. Fisher Parway has had the subject on exhibition at the country fair last fall, and at home ten cents was readily paid every day to see it.

A Belfast, Ireland, despatch of the 2nd says: More than five thousand persons attended the great Orange meeting here today. Dr. Kane, who presided, said Ulster was prepared to defend herself to the last against the proposals of the Home Rule Bill. He had received letters from military and police officers in England and Ireland, and telegrams from Canada and Australia promising co-operation with the men of Ulster if the latter resorted to arms to defend the liberties against the tyranny of their historic foes One hundred thousand Orangemen were ready to resist to the death the home rule bill. Wm Johnston, M. P. for South Belfast, concluded a violent speech by swearing on the Bible that he would never submit to the laws of a Dublin parliment. Dr. Kane tore to pieces a copy of the home rule bill. This evening effigies of Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Morley were burned in High street in the presence of a cheering crowd of thousands.
