Mr. Gordon Taylor (Bow River): Madam Speaker, I just want to say a word or two. I think that all of us feel very strongly about those who have inadequate pensions, particularly when it was promised. A few years ago when we found that the workers under the Workers' Compensation Board in Alberta were not getting enough to live upon, the Government decided to put money into it out of general revenue and, consequently, those on workers' compensation have been able to get by at least better than they would have had before. I thought that I should mention that, because there are ways of solving these problems.

The Acting Speaker (Mrs. Champagne): Is the House ready for the question?

Some Hon. Members: Question.

Motion (Mr. Robinson) agreed to.

The Acting Speaker (Mrs. Champagne): Is there unanimous consent to call it 10.04 p.m.?

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.
