—The members of the Princess Hockey Club met at the Princess Rink last night and appointed Will Lind as their representative to the Toronto meeting at which the club will ask membership in the Ontario championship series. The election of a captain was deferred.

—An Appin correspondent says: Miss Lizzie Turton, of London, and Fred Marriott, of this place, were united in marriage by the Rev. Alex. Henderson at the manse on Saturday afternoon in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends. The happy couple left on the afternoon train for a short visit to London. On Monday evening a reception was tendered them at the residence of A. Marriott, when a large party of invited guests assembled to congratulate them.

—The remains of the late Mrs. Chas. W. Ruppe were brought home from Yonkers, N. Y., Wednesday evening. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. Samuel Gibson, Oxford street, London West, and was married about a year ago. As a teacher at St. George's Church Sunday school she was very popular. Beautiful floral gifts from her late scholars and others decorated the casket. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended, impressive services being held at St. George's Church.

A Veteran Subscriber.

Mr. Charles Sidgett, Mount Brydges, writes: "I saw in the ADVERTISER that Mr. Campbell said he had taken your paper for 21 years, and that he wished to hear from anyone who had taken it longer. I beg to state I have subscribed for your paper every year since its birth (1863), with the exception of nine months, and have not grown tired of it yet. Beat this who can. Wishing your paper every success, I remain, etc.

Elopers Traced to London.

A Windsor dispatch of yesterday's date says: "Miss Myrtle Harcourt, a handsome young lady of 18, eloped from her home in Toronto last Sunday with a barber named Aylford. The girl's father was in Windsor this morning on his way to Ypsilanti, Mich. He says he tracked them to London, and at that point learned they left for Ypsilanti. He threatens vengeance when he meets the pair."

Christmas Cheer.

At the adjourned meeting of St. George's Society, held last evening, the matter of distributing "Christmas cheer" came up for consideration. It was decided to carry out the usual custom of the society at Christmas time, and $100 was voted for this laudable purpose. An efficient and energetic committee was also appointed to see that the society's bounty finds its way into the homes of the deserving poor.

Before the Police Magistrate.

The charge against Chas. Jackson of having maliciously damaged a tree on a public highway was dismissed at the Police Court this morning.

Elizabeth McDonald, on a charge of vagrancy, was remanded for a week, unless the authorities would grant her a railroad pass to Centralia.

Wesley Brown, arrested for drunkenness and vagrancy, was let go.

Geo. Bagnell, drunk, was escorted out of the city by the police.

A Story Well Applied.

One of the funniest things that has happened in months is the assurance given by Hon. John Carling to the effect that his friends and followers in London will always fight their elections fairly, whatever others may do. This is rather good from the man who is sitting in the seat which belongs by right to young Hyman. It recalls the story of the fellow who went to the grocer's store and lauded the virtue of honesty until the grocer told him that in future he should either steal a shorter codfish or wear a longer coat.—[Dundas Banner.

No Prison Gate Home.

The Prison Gate Home Committee met in the Y. M. C. A. parlor yesterday, Dr. Arnott in the chair. Mesdames Hutchinson, Macbeth, Carfrae and Thornley, Miss Farncombe, Dr. English, Norton Udy and Thos. McCormick were also present. A communication was read from Commandant Booth, of the Salvation Army, stating that the army would not be able to assist in the establishment of a home until next spring. The treasurer reported cash on hand of $608. It was deemed inadvisable to retain this amount until steps could be taken to use it in carrying out the object for which it was subscribed and it was therefore decided to refund it by check to the donators. The committee could not see their way clear to establish the home without the assistance of the Salvation Army, and so for the present, at any rate, the idea is abandoned. The Prisoners' Aid Association is still carrying on its good work and will be pleased to receive cash subscriptions or clothing with which to aid discharged prisoners.

Companions' Concert.

The East End Hall, as usual on such occasions, was packed last evening, the joint attractions being a concert and assembly under the auspices of Pride of the East Circle, No. 55, Companions of the Forest, A. O. F. Companion A. E. White, past district deputy, presided ably and affably, and in a brief address introduced a programme both varied and meritorious. It comprised a piano solo by Miss M. Purdey; songs by Miss M. Bergin, Mr. J. E. Avann, Miss M. Purdey and Mr. Seddles; a comic solo by the inimitable Harry Hogg; a duet by Master Oscar Pirie and Miss Whitall; a sailor's hornpipe and the "Kerry Dance" gracefully executed, by the Misses Shands; a Highland fling by Miss Lizzie Robertson, loudly applauded; an Irish jig and a clever sword dance by Miss E. Murray, and a recitation by Mr. L. J. Hessel. A farce was acted by several young men, to the amusement of the audience. After the concert an assembly was held, in which many happy young couples participated. Mrs. Marrs was the head of the managing committee and Mrs. Head the secetary. It was financially, socially and artistically a great success.

UNDER THE SEMAPHORE.

There are probably not many travelers on the railroads who know of the "visiting" clause in the rules of sleeping-car companies. In the Wagner rules it is provided that "passengers who have purchased berths will not be prohibited from inviting friends en route to share their accommodations. For persons so invited the regular form of berth check will be issued punching out the cipher and writing the word 'visitor' plainly across the face of the check. This rule does not admit of an invitation being extended so that more than two persons occupy one berth. * * * On trains where there are two or more cars of this company, visiting will be allowed between the passengers who have purchased accomodations in either car, provided inconvenience is not done to any of the other occupants of the cars."—[New York Times.

The next Reading deal is said to be in sight already, and involves the purchase of a controlling interest in Baltimore and Ohio. The voting trust established when Mr. Bacon purchased the city of Baltimore holdings will soon expire, and Reading people are reported to be picking up the receipts.

At the meeting of Trunk line presidents in New York on Thursday the action regarding a reduction of 20 per cent. on all trains of more than 35 hours was ratified, and it was decided that after Dec 1 east bound freight rates will be restored to the basis of full tariff rates.

At Baltimore, Ind., the B. and O. Railroad Company gave orders Wednesday to increase by 2,000 men the forces employed at the company's various works. Orders for 60 first-class locomotives have been placed. They will cost $750,000. Orders were also given for 2,500 freight cars.

IT'S COMING.

Snow Storms Impede Travel and Demoralize Telegraph Lines in the West.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Nov. 17.—Heavy snow has been falling all day. Street car traffic is greatly impeded and telegraph wires are down.

At Davenport five or six inches of snow fell between 8 o'clock this morning and 6 o'clock this evening, driven by a strong north wind. The storm would do credit to mid-winter.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 17.—A furious snow storm prevailed in Kansas and Missouri to-day. The principal damage was to the telegraph companies' property. All communication by wire east and west of Kansas City was entirely cut off from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. The snow reached a depth varying from one to three inches in different parts of the two States.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 17.—The heavy snow storms of to-day throughout Missouri and portions of Kansas, Southeastern Nebraska and Southwestern Iowa will greatly benefit winter wheat, according to reports received at various railroad offices.

BELOW ZERO!

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Dispatches from various parts of Illinois say a heavy storm is raging and that the mercury has fallen below zero.

ESCAPE OF EX-GOV. MIJARES.

Chance for Another Squabble Between the United States and Venezuela.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Red "D" Line steamship Philadelphia arrived to-night at quarantine with Senor Mijares among her passengers. He was Governor of Caracas, the capital of Venezuela, and fled to the Dutch colonial port of Caracas when the revolutionists took possession of Caracas, to escape punishment for the part he had taken against them.

When the Philadelphia stopped at La Guayra the Venezuelan officers demanded that Mijares be delivered over to them. Captain Chambers declined to give him up, thereupon the customs house officials refused the Philadelphia her sailing papers. American Consul Hanna declared that if the custom house refused to give up the ships' register he would dispatch the vessel himself with consular certificate, which he did.

Then the authorities at La Guayra sent a boatload of soldiers out with orders to take Mijares by force, but the ladder had been drawn up and the soldiers could not get aboard.

The Venezuelan Government declared they wanted Mijares not as a political prisoner but for stealing horses from citizens of Caracas during the war.

Liver Complaint, Kidney, Debility and Female Weakness All Cured.

LONDON, June 29, 1880.

For some time I was a sufferer of liver complaint affections of the kidneys, debility and female weakness, also with pain in the side, between the shoulders, and underneath the shoulder blades, and much weakness in the back and distress across my body, and much sinking down of the system. Through persuasion I tried Williams' Royal Crown Remedy, and have derived great benefit from its use; in fact I am feeling better at present than I have for a number of years. I can with pleasure recommend it, and I would induce anyone who is afflicted to get it without delay.
