C.P.R. Lorry Team Takes Fright and Dashes Out of a Lane Across Yonge Street Into a Shop Window.

Miss Maggie Rogers Caught Under the Horses and the Tongue of the Wagon Pinned Her Hat to the Wall—She Was Uninjured.

Miss Maggie Rogers.

Wonderful presence of mind saved a young lady from what appeared to be certain death on Yonge-street at 6 o'clock last night. Scores of people shuddered as they saw the girl knocked down by two frightened dray horses on the sidewalk, and, as the horses crashed thru the plate-glass windows of the Royal Shoe Store, 88 Yonge-street, and the heavily freighted lorry climbed over the edge of the curb, there was but a faint hope that the girl would be extricated from the wreck alive, but she was, and, by some miracle, she escaped injury from the shower of kicks of the two fallen horses and was dragged underneath one of them into the shoe store.

Terror to Spectators.

The scene was one that struck terror to the hearts of the spectators. A C.P.R. lorry (No. 95), with two heavydraught horses attached, was standing in The World lane, and the driver, Charles Cantwell, of 143 Cumberland-street had stepped from his wagon and called for the hoist from the Central Press Agency. The horses started at his call, and, altho Cantwell retained his hold on the lines he was thrown down from the platform on which he stood, and the horses dashed madly thru the lane and on to Yonge-street. Two pedestrians were knocked down as the lorry emerged to the street and a bicyclist was upset by one of the horses.

Mad Rush Across the Street.

The team made a mad rush to the opposite side of the street, and, as their hoofs struck the curb, one of the horses fell, dragging the other after it. It was at this moment that Miss Maggie Rogers, who lives at 34 Alice-street, was passing the Royal Shoe Store, and the tongue of the wagon struck her hat and pinned it in the demolished mirror at the entrance to the Royal Shoe Store.

Miss Rogers' Predicament.

Miss Rogers fell between the two struggling horses, and a cry of horror went up from those who witnessed the incident. Miss Rogers was under the tongue of the wagon, and as the horse in the store window endeavored to rise and go so far as to balance on his fore feet, she crawled under the arch thus made beneath his body, and, assisted by Mr. G. E. Chambers, an employe of the Royal Shoe Store, she was able to escape from her precarious position. After crawling over two or three yards of broken glass while the horses were still lying kicking on the sidewalk, she was safe inside the shoe store, where she received every attention that could be given, and, to her own and everyone else's surprise it was found that she was uninjured, and the only damage she sustained was to her wearing apparel.

Chambers a Target.

When the horses started on their wild escapade from The World lane, Mr. G. E. Chambers was dressing the window of the Royal Shoe Store, and they seemed to make him their target. He just escaped in time to help Miss Rogers, as the horses made an effort to get into the store thru the window. Others inside the store were two lady customers and Mr. C. F. Tugman, manager, and Mr. V. Polen, clerk.

Driver Blames the Off Horse.

Charles Cantwell, the driver, was spoken to by The World immediately after the accident. P.C. Redford, who used excellent judgment in handling the crowd that accumulated, had helped to raise Cantwell's horses, and the driver was profuse in his thanks to the constable. Cantwell told The World that his horses were not very badly damaged, and he did not think their wild freak had caused much injury to any person. He blamed it all on the off-horse, which, he said, led the other one astray. His story was simply as told before. He had left his dray, which was loaded heavily, to take on a load at the Central Press Agency, behind The World office. He had, however, kept his hands on the lines, because he lacked confidence in one of the horses. As he called for the hoist, the horses started down the lane, and until they were restored to him by P.C. Redford and a number of other willing hands he had no control of them.

Lucky All Round.

It is most fortunate that more considerable damage and even loss of life was not caused by the runaway, for it happened just at a time when the street was most crowded. The wagon passed within a few inches of a crowded trolley car, and seemed to have just enough space to cross the street.

The Front Wrecked.

At the Royal Shoe Store the damage occasioned is in the neighborhood of $500, and it is covered by insurance. Two plate-glass windows and a large mirror are demolished, and the store front is entirely wrecked. Mr. Chambers had a very narrow escape, and he says he does not know how he got away from the danger in time.

ANGLICAN CLERGYMAN DYING

Rev. A. S. Hammond Graeme Was Found in His Bed Unconscious.

WAS PERFECTLY WELL ON SUNDAY

And Assisted in the Services at St. Philip's Church—Suffering From Poisoning.

Rev. A. S. Hammond Graeme, M.A., the well-known Anglican clergyman, is lying at the point of death at his home, 53 Kensington-avenue. He is suffering from poisoning, and the physicians in attendance hold out faint hopes for his recovery.

Rev. Mr. Graeme assisted at the services in St. Philip's Church on Sunday evening, and was then apparently in the best of health. At the conclusion of the service he went to his room, and retired about 11 o'clock. He did not make his appearance at the usual hour yesterday morning, but, thinking that he was tired, the other inmates of the house did not make any efforts to find out the cause. Shortly after noon hour the minister was found lying in bed in an unconscious condition. Dr. Sinclair was summoned. He worked with Mr. Graeme for some time, but all efforts to restore him to his senses proved futile.

Drs. T. McKenzie and Harley Smith were called in, and a consultation was held. There were symptoms of opium poisoning, but no trace of any poison could be found. A search of the apartments revealed no traces of any poisonous drugs.

Rev. Mr. Graeme is 50 years of age, and unmarried. For several years past he has assisted at St. Margaret's Church. His mother is living in London, Eng.and.

Successor Not Yet Settled, Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson Says—An American Anyway.

New York, Nov. 12.—Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, president of the Grand Trunk Railway, who reached this city from England last Saturday, says that the main object of his visit is to secure a general manager for the Grand Trunk in place of Charles M. Hays. President Wilson says: "We have not decided to whom we shall offer the position, but it will go to an experienced American railroad man."

MAJOR HAMILTON MERRITT

Is Still Serving as A.D.C. to General Brabant, Who Commands Brabant's Horse.

THE BRIGADE HAD 500 CASUALTIES.

Has Been in Sixteen Fights and Fought in Over Seventy Engagements.

Ottawa, Nov. 12.—Mr. Archibald Blue, Census Commissioner, has received a letter from Major William Hamilton Merritt of Toronto, now serving as a D.C. to General Brabant, one of Lord Roberts' brigadiers in the South African campaign, in which he looks forward to an early termination of the campaign. This colonial brigade of 2500 men has had 500 casualties, been in 16 fights, 70 engagements o fone kind or another, and marched over 1000 miles, and, as Major Merritt puts it, has had enough.

THE BRITISH CABINET.

Under Secretaries for War, the Colonies and India—Cabinet of 20 Members.

London, Nov. 13.—The Times this morning announces the following appointments:

Lord Raglan, Under Secretary of State for War.

The Earl of Onslow, Under Secretary of State for the Colonies.

Earl of Hardwicke, Under Secretary of State for India.

"It seems certain," says The Times editorially, "that the Cabinet will consist of 20 members, the largest recorded in our political history. This is unfortunate, but it seems to be regarded by Lord Salisbury as inevitable."

SMALLPOX IN PARIS.

An Epidemic of the Malady in the French Capital, Due to Massing of Arabs.

Paris, Nov. 12.—An epidemic of smallpox has broken out here, due probably to the massing of Arabs and other persons from the east during the Exposition. Notices have been posted by the police, warning persons who have not been vaccinated within six years to be vaccinated now. Every precaution to stamp out the disease has been taken.

WARM GREETING TO EX-LEADER ON HIS ARRIVAL AT WINNIPEG

Ladies of the Prairie City Presented Sir Charles With a Beautiful Bouquet—A Public Banquet to Be Tendered on His Return From the Coast.

Winnipeg, Nov. 12.—(Special.)—Sir Charles Tupper, ex-leader of the Conservative party, arrived in the city to-day, accompanied by Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper. Both are on their way to Vancouver, and left this afternoon for the West, where Sir Charles will assist in the election in Yale-Cariboo, on Nov. 27.

Sir Charles appears bright and active, and does not seem at all fatigued by his long journey.

Crowds at the Depot.

Long before the train from the East was due, the C.P.R. Depot was crowded with an expectant throng, assembled to honor the veteran baronet. Among those gathered were: Lady Tupper, Lady Schultze, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Tupper, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Tupper, Miss Tupper, Hon. Hugh John and Mrs. Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Galt, Miss Margaret Galt, Mr. and Mrs. John Galt, Hon. Colin and Mrs. Campbell, Hon. J. A. Davidson and Premier Roblin, Hon. Robert Rogers, Hon. D. H. McFadden, Hon. Speaker Hespeler, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Aikins, Mr. F. W. Drury and a host of others.

Presented With a Bouquet.

As the train carrying Sir Charles arrived the crowd thronged forward to greet the veteran statesman, who, as he stepped to the platform, was presented with a magnificent bouquet of red roses tied with a blue ribbon, the gift of the Conservative ladies of Winnipeg to the ex-leader.

His Knightly Act.

The presentation was made by Miss Margaret Galt, and as an acknowledgment Sir Charles imprinted a grandfatherly kiss upon the lips of the blushing young maiden, and, addressing himself to the bevy of ladies immediately surrounding him, thanked them heartily for their beautiful gift and jocularly expressed the opinion that if the ladies had been given votes last Wednesday would have been a much warmer day for the Conservative party thruout the Dominion, a sally that was greeted with applause from the fair sex.

The Aged Couple Cheered.

Foremost among the ladies to greet Sir Charles as he landed was Lady Tupper, and as the aged couple embraced each other a thunder of applause went up from the crowd. The cheers which welcomed Sir Charles were renewed when his son, Sir Hibbert, appeared, and the Conservative leaders present surged forward to present him with their congratulations. He appeared cool and smiling, as usual, and was engaged in conversation with Hon. Hugh John Macdonald, Premier Roblin and others for some time. The prominent Conservatives of this city held a meeting on Saturday night and decided to tender a banquet to Sir Charles Tupper, Bart.

BASIS FOR A PEACE TREATY

Foreign Envoys Have Agreed Upon the Groundwork for the Coming Negotiations.

A MONUMENT TO VON KETTELER

Death Penalty Upon Eleven Princes and Officials, and Indemnity All Round.

London, Nov. 13.—Dr. Morrison, wiring to The Times from Pekin Sunday, says:

"Pressed by the common desire for a speedy termination of present conditions, the foreign envoys have finally agreed to the following terms, to be presented in a conjoint note, which, subject to the approval of the Governments, will be pressed upon China as the basis of a preliminary treaty:

"China shall erect a monument to Baron Von Ketteler, on the site where he was murdered, and send an Imperial prince to Germany to convey an apology. She will inflict the death penalty upon 11 princes and officials already named, and suspend provincial examinations for five years where the outrages occurred. In future all officials failing to prevent anti-foreign outrages within their jurisdiction shall be dismissed and punished. (This is a modification of Mr. Conger's proposal.)

Indemnity to Be Paid.

"Indemnity shall be paid to the states, corporations and individuals. The Tsung li Yamen shall be abolished, and its functions vested in a foreign Minister. Rational Intercourse shall be permitted with the Emperor, as in civilized countries.

Forts to Be Torn Down.

"The forts at Taku and other forts on the coast of Chili shall be razed, and the importation of arms and war materials prohibited. Permanent legation guards shall be maintained, and also guards of communication between Pekin and the sea. Imperial proclamation shall be posted for two years thrnout the whole Empire, suppressing Boxers.

"The indemnity is to include compensation for Chinese who suffered thru being employed by foreigners, but not compensation for native Christians. The words 'missionary' and 'Christians' do not occur in the note."

CHINESE OFFICIALS AROUSED.

The Late Executions Have Surprised and Incensed the Pekin Officials.

Washington, Nov. 12.—It is understood that the Chinese authorities at Pekin have been profoundly aroused by some of the executions of Chinese officials which have occurred of late, and that they have made known in an official way their surprise and regret that this should occur while the peace negotiations are going on. It appears that the execution of the acting viceroy of Chi li is looked upon as peculiarly reprehensible, and has been the main cause of the present intense feeling of the Chinese officials at Pekin. This acting viceroy served during the absence of Li Hung Chang at Pekin, occupying his yamen and in all ways executing Earl Li's functions, while he was conducting the peace mission. His headquarters were established at Pao Ting Fu, whence the allied forces under the German commander recently directed their expedition. It is said that the acting viceroy made no opposition to the advance of the German and other allied troops, altho he had an army capable of resisting. He is said to have come from the city to meet the allies and to have turned over his yamen to them. Notwithstanding this, he has been put to death, and this fact, when communicated to Li Hung Chang and his associates at Pekin, has caused the present intense feeling. From the Chinese standpoint, China is herself proceeding to punish guilty officials, and the question of punishments is also being considered in the negotiations now progressing. The Chinese officials maintain, therefore, that this summary execution of one of the highest officials, while he is said to have been non-combatant and peaceful, is both extraordinary and is calculated to stir up animosity among the Chinese people, which there is every destre to avoid.

CHINESE IN DANGER OF STARVING.

Four to Six Millions of Celestials North of Pekin Are in Danger, Crops Having Failed.

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 12.—Oriental advices received by steamer state that four to six million Chinese north of Pekin are in danger of starving, their crops having been a total failure. One million piculs of tribute rice were to be despatched from Shanghai and distributed among these hungry hordes from Tien Tsin and Pekin, but the military officers at Shanghai gave orders that no rice should be sent out of Central China. There is great danger that an immense swarm of robbers will be sent out of the famine districts, as usually happens.

REPORT FROM GEN. WALDERSEE.

Allied Troops on the Move in Different Directions—There Has Been Some Fighting.

Berlin, Nov. 12.—The following report, dated Nov. 8, has been received here from Field Marshal Count von Waldersee:

"Major Graham, with two companies of the First East Asiatic Infantry, the Second Squadron and the Second Battery, proceeded from Tien Tsin via Chung Ying to a point sixty kilometres north on the left bank of the Pei Ho, where he had a slight encounter with mounted Boxers, and has arrived at Tungpa, twelve kilometres east of Pekin.

"Russian troops have successfully encountered 6000 Boxers north of Shan Hai Kuan, losing 4 killed and 61 wounded.

"British columns have returned from Pao Ting Fu to Pekin and Tien Tsin. The latter column destroyed several Boxer camps."

It Will Civilize China.

New York, Nov. 12.—The opening of the interior of China to modern civilization is regarded at Washington, says a Journal of Commerce special, as a probable outcome of the present negotiations between China and the powers.

NEWFOUNDLAND ELECTIONS

According to the Latest Count Mr. Bond Will Have 24 at His Back and Morine 4.

THE LIBERALS GAINED EVERYWHERE

Mr. Reid Used His Steamers and Railroads, But to Little Purpose.

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 12.—The Colonial general election returns from the Bonavista district, with half the count completed, indicate the election of Mr. Morine, Opposition leader, and his colleagues, Messrs. Blandford and Chaplin, by majorities of about 700, as against 1700 received in the previous election. No other counts have been reported.

This will give Morine four men and Premier Bond seventeen.

Morine Gets a Few.

St. John's, Nfld., Nov. 12.—Complete returns from the Bonavista district in the colonial general election show that Messrs. Morine, Blandford, Chaplain, Reidites, have defeated Messrs. Cowan, Hutchings and Martin, Liberals, by an average majority of 580, as against 1680 at the previous election. The Liberals are jubilant over the reduction, because Mr. Reid had exerted every influence to secure the election of Morine. Mr. Reid's son canvassed the district with Mr. Morine, and the contractor's steamers and trains were used to help him.

The Liberals criticize the fact that Mr. Morine is Mr. Reid's general counsel, Mr. Blandford his shipmaster, and Mr. Chaplain his outfitter. They contend that this is not a seemly situation for members of the Legislature.

In Other Districts.

In St. George's district Mr. Howly, Liberal, won the seat by a majority of 333. It went at the last election to the Tory candidate by a majority of 320.

Complete returns from the Burin district show that Messrs. Gear and Davey, Liberals, have secured a majority of 500 over Messrs. Lake and Lilly, Tories. The district was won by the Tories at the previous election by a majority of 530.

In the Fortune district Mr. Way, Liberal, has defeated Mr. McCuish, Tory, securing a majority of 778. He carried the seat in the bye-election last November by 113 votes.

Partial returns from the Placentia district promise the election of three Liberals there. With these Mr. Bond, the Premier, would have 24 supporters in the new Legislature, and Mr. Morine four.

WYNDHAM'S FIRST ACT.

New Chief Secretary for Ireland Proscribes the Meeting of the League at Wycklow.

Dublin, Nov. 12.—The new Chief Secretary for Ireland, George Wyndham, signalized the first day of his tenure of the office by proscribing the meeting of the Irish United League at Wycklow. The speakers announced were John Redmond, leader of the party; John Dillon and the local parliamentary members. The police broke up the meeting and handled the people rather severely. The police inspector himself led the police, shouting, "Give it to them hot." Both Redmond and Dillon, however, addressed meetings in the Town Hall and neighboring districts, and warmly denounced the conduct of the Government. It is thought that such treatment of the United League will consolidate it, and ensure it almost unanimous support.

FRENCH CONSERVATIVES PASS A RESOLUTION TO SIR CHARLES

Every Successful and Defeated Candidate in Quebec Endorses the Sentiment That the Great Leader Possesses Their Entire Confidence—All Ready to Fight Again.

Montreal, Nov. 12.—(Special.)—The most representative meeting of the campaign took place at the St. James'-street headquarters this evening, and no one could have been present without being proud of the French Conservative party.

All of the old and a great many new recruits were present, and Messrs. Monk, Bergeron, Pope and all of the defeated candidates in this Province spoke, and one and all manfully stated that they had been beaten in their respective counties by the Laurier cry; that they were determined to begin the fight to-morrow and redeem the Province of Quebec.

Mr. Renaud, who came within 80 votes of carrying Joliette, said he had been defeated by a new firm, which should be afterwards known as "Laurier, Whiskey & Co."

Had the Province of Ontario been represented here to-night, the Conservatives of that Province would have been proud of their Quebec allies.

There was also another feature in all the speeches, and that was that the future of the Conservative party belonged to the young men of all the Provinces.

The following resolution was adopted, amid thundering cheers:

Resolved, that at this reunion of the Conservatives of the district of Montreal, the first since the general elections, we desire to express our profound regret that the eminent chief of the Conservative party, Sir Charles Tupper, has thought fit to retire from public life, which he has adorned for 45 years by his devotion to Conservative principles and by his enlightened patriotism.

That, at the termination of this fight, in which Sir Charles Tupper himself was the first and most distinguished victim, we desire to say that at no moment has Sir Charles Tupper failed to possess our most entire confidence. We recognize that the life of Sir Charles Tupper has been entirely consecrated to his country; he was one of the fathers of the Canadian Confederation; during the whole of his career his policy has had as first object the assurance of equal justice to all, and in this hour of defeat he is entitled to the respect of all.

We cannot at this moment forget her who has been the devoted companion of our chief, and we desire to extend to Lady Tupper our most respectful homage.

That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Sir Charles Tupper and published in the newspapers.

British Parliament Will Meet on December 3rd and Adjourn Before Xmas.

ONE HUNDRED MILLION POUNDS

Is the Amount Which It is Expected the British Taxpayers Will Have to Face.

SEVERAL BRITISH SUCCESSES.

Methuen, Kitchener, Kelly-Kenny and Smith-Dorrien Have Been Making Things Lively.

London, Nov. 12.—The War Office has received the following despatch from Lord Roberts:

"Johannesburg, Saturday, Nov. 10.—Methuen surprised Commandants Snyman and Bermass near Lichtenburg yesterday. Three dead Boers were found, and 30 prisoners and several wagons were captured. There were no casualties among the British.

"Kelly-Kenny reports that Major Macintosh of the Seaforth Highlanders occupied Philippolis Nov. 8. The Boers fled in all directions. Three wounded were brought to our hospital. Surgeon Hartley and seven men were wounded.

Kitchener Routed the Boers.

"Lyttleton reports that Kitchener successfully surprised the Boers during the night of Nov. 7. A mounted party of the 19th Hussars and the Manchester Mounted Infantry, under Captain Chetwode, managed to pass the Boer outposts, and, while the latter engaged the enemy's picket, the Hussars charged the Boers in the moonlight, sabring many. Chetwode and several noncommissioned officers behaved with great gallantry, but the Hussars would probably have suffered severely as they got into broken ground, had they not been supported by the Mounted Infantry. In the morning artillery and infantry joined Chetwode's force, and completed the Boer rout, who are said to have lost heavily.

Boer Generals Killed.

"Smith-Dorrien's wounded, who returned from the Boer camp, report that Commandant Prinsloe and Gen. Fourie were killed and that Gen. Grobelaar was wounded in the recent fighting."

AMERICAN MULETEERS ARE MAD.

They Arrived in London and Made Complaints of Bad Treatment on the Voyage.

London, Nov. 12.—One hundred and forty American cowboys and muleteers who went to South Africa on British mule transports arrived in London Saturday. They are loud in their denunciation of their treatment on the home journey, and intend to formally complain to the Board of Trade. They declare the rations served bad to be thrown overboard; that they would have starved had they not paid exorbitant rates for extra rations, and that they were berthed over horse stalls, where the heat and odor were unbearable.

BULLER IN LONDON.

The Fighter of Ladysmith Has Reported to the War Office—Received an Ovation.

London, Nov. 12.—Gen. Buller, accompanied by his wife and daughter, arrived here this morning, and reported to the War Office. Large crowds had assembled at the Waterloo station and in Pall Mall, cheering the returning general, who received an ovation.

Baden-Powell Has the Fever.

Cape Town, Nov. 12.—Gen. Baden-Powell is ill with enteric fever. His condition is not serious.

BOERS' NEW PLAN OF CAMPAIGN.

Each Commando to Defend the District in Which it is Raised—A Reign of Terror.

Pretoria, Nov. 11.—Reports have been received here showing that the plan of campaign that has now been decided upon by the Boers contemplates having each commando defend the district in which it is raised. Each commando numbers from 300 to 600 men. Some of the commandants have established a reign of terror among the more peaceful burghers, and a number of these are coming into the British camps for protection. One burgher came into Greylingstad with his back badly lacerated from a sjamboking administered to him by the commandant in that district.

Col. Lessard of the Canadians and the Canadian Artillery did magnificent fighting with Gen. Smith-Dorrien in repulsing a desperate attack by the Boers on the British rear guard.

HER FALL RESULTED IN DEATH.

Mrs. Helen M. Mallory Succumbs to Injuries Received Three Months Ago—A Fatal Stairway.

Mrs. Helen M. Mallory, a well-known resident of the west end, died on Sunday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harris H. Sleigh, 314 Manning-avenue, from injuries received by falling down stairs about three months ago. At the time of the accident Mrs. Mallory was in attendance upon her daughter, who had also been injured a week previous by falling down the same stairway. Mrs. Mallory was on her way to St. Louis to visit the home of her son when she learned of the injuries sustained by her daughter, and at once returned to Toronto. After being here about a week Mrs. Mallory was called to her daughter's bedside, and in passing from one room to another in the darkness she missed her footing and fell down the stairs. She was rendered unconscious by the fall, and despite the best efforts of Dr. E. J. Barrick, who was also in attendance on her daughter, she gradually sank until her death occurred. Mrs. Sleigh, who was not seriously injured, has fully recovered. Mrs. Mallory was 70 years of age and was the widow of the late W. H. Mallory. The funeral will take place this afternoon to Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

The Globe's Claim That He Will Support the Government Is a Dream—Great Procession at Bowmanville—Thornton Defines His Position.

Bowmanville, Ont., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—For the first time in 55 years West Durham has returned a member to the Federal House who is not a Liberal. C. J. Thornton, the member-elect, was six years ago a Liberal, but came out from among them when the Patron party arose. He ran as a Patron in 1896, but was defeated. In the recent election he came out as the representative of the Independent electors of West Durham, who wished to have honest Government. The Patron element of the riding and the Conservatives to a man supported him, and to-night was given over to the celebration of his defeat of Robert Beith.

Mr. Thornton's Declaration.

Mr. Thornton stands to-day confessed an Independent member of Parliament in his speech to the electors. He said: "I fought this election, not against Robert Beith, but against the wickedness of the Government he supported. If we were honest four years ago in turning out the Conservatives, we would have pursued the same cause in regard to the present Government this year, for where they condemned the Conservative party they are guilty in tenfold degree of the self-same sins."

Conservatives Elected Him.

This was his position in regard to the Liberal party. He acknowledged that he owed his election to the Conservatives of West Durham, who, with unparalleled unanimity, stood by him. While he condemned the present administration, yet he would not pledge himself to support any particular party. He felt that he had been called to fight the battles of the people, and he would find out what was the best course, looking toward honest Government, and he would take it by the help of the Almighty.

Globe's Claim a Dream.

All this goes to show that The Globe's claim that Mr. Thornton is a Liberal is a dream, and it has not the shadow of substance to stand on. Imagine the pent-up enthusiasm of the Conservatives of West Durham who for 55 years have had no chance to demonstrate. Think of the Cartwright blazers smothering their feelings for over half a century, and their being given a chance to explode, and you will have a meagre idea of how wild the town of Bowmanville was to-night.

Whole Country Turned Out.

The whole countryside turned out to do honor to C. J. Thornton, one of themselves, a farmer and an honest man. By 6 o'clock the streets were jammed as they were when Durham Old Boys revisited the haunts of their boyhood frolics.

A Big Procession.

When the demonstration began there were 4000 persons on the streets and in the procession. The procession was a feature that knocks all records to smithereens, and it stretched along King-street for over a mile, and took over half an hour to pass a given point. There were five hundred stalwart Conservatives in line three hundred of whom carried flaring torches, and two bands, packed tight into two huge vans, rent the air with the strains of "See, the Conquering Hero Comes." A tinhorn brigade, composed of 50 young men, made the confusion worse confounded, and as the procession wound its way along King-street and around the principal streets of the town it was cheered with a heartiness that left no doubt as to the popularity of the member-elect, and a bigger procession was never seen in Bowmanville, and more enthusiasm from spectators and processionists never before exhibited. It was terrific and inspiring. The procession was headed by Chief Marshall Welsh and Mounted Marshalls Fred Heal, Harry Allan, C. McLean and Captain Brown.

In the Carriages.

The leading carriage held C. J. Thornton, M.P., W. H. Reid, M.L.A., Angus Stalker (president of the County Conservative Association) and Dr. Hiller, without whom no Conservative demonstration could be a success, and a second carriage held P. Trebilcock (the orator of the County Association), Captain King, D. McConochie, Jesse Trull and J. Gale of The News. In other carriages were: John Davey, Township Council of Clarke; Fred Lorkin, Reeve of Clarke; James Parker, Reeve of Newcastle; E. McLean, barrister, of Newcastle, and organizer for C. J. Thornton; J. E. Blacock, councillor of Cartwright; A. Tait, councillor of Bowmanville, and hundreds of other prominent men, representing every part of the riding, and no little credit for the success of the demonstration is due to Bandmaster Pickard of Newcastle and Bandmaster Morrison of Bowmanville. They made their men blow as they had never blown before.

On the Market Square.

The procession halted on the Market-square and formed around a covered platform, from which the orators spoke. Their

MR. PACAUD AS A DICTATOR

Before Minister Blair Gets Back to Ottawa Le Soleil Tells Him What He Must Do

ABOUT THE INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY.

The Personnel of the I.C.R., Pacaud Says, is Unpopular and Odious—A Demand Made.

Montreal, Que., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—The Quebec district is already after the Government on the patronage question. "We ask," says Mr. Pacaud's Soleil, "that the superintendent of the Intercolonial for the division which extends from Montreal to Campbellton be given greater power. He should be the person to whom all persons in the Province of Quebec having business to transact with the railway should address themselves. The question is a very simple one. Every one objects to doing business with Moncton. The personnel at Moncton is more than unpopular, it is odious. We will be told, no doubt, that such an important railway as the Intercolonial must have a central control. We admit this, but it should be possible to fix in advance special tariff rates for the carrying of goods, the stopping of express trains at certain times or the free carriage of certain objects in the interest of the road. Why should these things be left under the control of the personnel at Moncton, who knows nothing of our district instead of being left to the care of a man like Mr. Dube, who knows better than any one else what is best for the Government railway? Let Sir Wilfrid Laurier not be offended if we importune so soon, but he must be prepared for it. The public in the Province of Quebec does not wish to have anything to do with Moncton. We desire that the superintendent of that part of the road which traverses his territory shall have sufficient authority to look after its wants. If this demand were only a caprice, we would not endorse it, but we find it just and in the interest and the good administration of the road."

It is more than probable that Mr. Pacaud remembers that Hon. Mr. Blair refused to receive Le Soleil in his Department not many months ago.

More Old Voters.

Editor World: I have read in your paper about old men voting in the late election. I think that Brighton deserves the cake for old voters. There were four voters in this town, the combined ages of whom totalled 364 years. They all voted for Mr. Ed. Cochrane, the successful Conservative candidate. They were Dr. Barker 97, Abraham Good 93, Abraham Singleton 87 and Richard Square 87.

Blow, Winds, Blow!

Truly these cold days do lose their bite when we are properly clothed. For women there is but one comfortable overgarment—the fur jacket. Dineen Company, who since "94" have been looking after your wants in this line, have this year imported immense numbers of the best skins and such designs as are favorites in Paris. It has been said with justice that Dineen has outrivalled his reputation. Call and see their display. Write for a catalogue.
