Fitz-Burns Fight Postponed.

Philadelphia, May 29.—The fight between Fitzsimmons and Burns has been postponed until Wednesday night, June 6. This was due to an officer from the state governor, who had ordered the fight stopped.

FOUR FAVORITES IN FRONT NICOL RODE 3 WINNERS

Minnie Adams Started at 1 to 15 and Romped—Bob Alone Beat Rising Sun.

Nicol rode three winners yesterday at Woodbine Park—Minnie Adams, prohibitive favorite in the Fashion Plate, and Comic Opera and Bath Maria, second and third choices. After the second race four favorites won in a row, a record for this year at the Woodbine, and then Rubaiyat, first choice in the last race, after setting a hot pace, blew up and finished second last, little Away, second choice, winning with a rush. Of the beaten favorites, Sultry and Remiss finished second, and Rubaiyat outside the money.

Comic Opera won the first in a field of 14, Henry Ach second and Sultry third. These three, with Mrs. Foster, carried the coin, the last named never having a chance. Kamerun led most of the journey, and it looked once as if Kirkfield Belle would get out of the maiden class.

The second was Bath Maria all the way. Remiss, favorite, had good support, and did better than last time out. Reina Swift took the show. Kirkfield Belle ran all over the track.

Half Seas Over, at 1 to 2, romped for the Ontario Purse.

Bob Alone led over every jump in the steeplechase, and his stable followers reaped a harvest. Rising Sun will do better next time, form players thinking him ready, had a disastrous plunge. Gulstan and Dragon raced away back for the show.

Minnie Adams let Royal China race close up all round, appreciating the yellow and black behind, but she hadn't Inferno to beat yesterday. It was a nice workout for the Toronto Cup winner.

Dixie Andrews showed the way six furlongs in the Glasgow Plate, with Jungle Imp next. These two stopped coming home, when Cadichon looked the winner until Beknighted sneaked up on the rail. Setauket, unbacked at long odds, was third. The Don carried the most money, that was a gift to the ring, and especially some wise layers.

Away made a wire win of the last race, and Pa Bradley cashed every one of his $5 tickets that he bet three ways in many books. Swain tried his best on Skeptical, thinking it was Rubaiyat he had to beat. Sleeping took the show from Ora Z.

On account of erratic running, Chatelaine's entry will be henceforth refused at this meeting.

Six races are on the card for to-day, including the King Edward Gold Cup, and watch them back Inferno and Minnie Adams, and probably Fort Hunter. Little Scout may also have something to say.

Canoe Crews Training.

The Toronto Canoe Club war canoe is pulling into shape. They have two full crews out every night, and should be in pretty good shape to meet all competitors at the regatta on June 23. They have issued invitations to all local clubs, and two or three outside clubs, to participate in the war canoe race in this regatta.

Next Saturday they start the racing season with junior novice, double-blade novice, junior single and single relay race, for which entries close on Friday night.

From the present outlook there will be a large number of contestants in all of these events, especially in the single-blade relay, which proved to be, last year, a very popular race on the program.

A week from Saturday the club will make a trip to the Humber, where they will have special open races.

Of High Estate—

There is not in Semi-ready tailor-made clothes the good, better and best of workmanship. — The $15 Semi-ready Suits are made by the same tailors who make the $20 and $25 Suits.—There is one quality only — the best.

The difference in price is the difference in cost of the materials used. In a $25 Semi-ready Suit one gets the cloths carried only by the high-class tailor who makes capital out of his exclusive one-suit cloth lengths.

We buy our cloths in the web—70-yard lengths—and perhaps 10 or 20 webs of each pattern—direct from the British woollen mills.

See our Spring Chesterfield Overcoats at $15 and $20.
