SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

Athletic.

THE BEAVER SPORTS.

The semi-annual limited handicaps of the B. L. & A. C. were held last evening at the Palace rink, and the boys, as usual, were greeted with an overflowing house, in fact every available inch of space was occupied, and everybody was comfortable, for three rows of seats had been provided. The events were run off smoothly and with despatch, owing largely to the unflinching efforts of secretary J. F. Maher, who was moved by no appeal for "just another minute." The sports were successful from every point of view, each event being contested with that spirit and vigor that well illustrates the bone and muscle of the athletic youth of the city. The officials of the evening were: Geo. F. Smith referee; Chas. E. Macmichael, G. W. Jones, J. J. O'Hearn, judges; Oscar Watson, starter; Chas. Coster, timer; J. F. Maher, clerk of course; T. Shaw Hall, announcer; C. E. O'Reilly and O. Watson, handicappers.

E. R. Taylor, 3 feet, won the 1st heat of the fifty yards; R. A. Watson, 2 feet, second.

W. Vincent, 3 feet, won the 2nd heat, Frank Carvill, 3 feet, 2nd. Carvill was sent back a yard.

Taylor won the final by a foot, R. A. Watson, 2nd. Vincent 3rd. Carvill. Watson and Carvill were sent back two yards for false starting.

A. Norris bound hand and foot took the surprise race.

A. J. Baxter won the mile from scratch, T. O'Reilly, 12 yards, dropping out about the 12th lap, on account of sickness. C. Lawton, 14 yards, gave Baxter a great race, and finished close at his heels; time, 5.08.

Wm. Vincent from scratch took the broad jump with 18 ft., 8 in., a great feat, uphill. R. L. Johnson, 12 in., took second with 17 ft., 4½ in.

Frank Berton, scratch, and P. G. Hall, 6 yards, hustled in the half mile walk, the former winning by half a body in 3.54½. J. E. Berton came third.

The first heat in the 220 yards was won in a canter by R. A. Watson in 30⅘, H. Bain second.

R. L. Johnson 12 feet took the second heat, Taylor second. Johnson won the final, Bain ten feet second.

W. Walker took the high jump with 5 ft., 1 in.; Vincent second.

The regular Y. M. C. A. team won the tug-of-war from a scratch team from the same club.

J. S. Thornton, 11 yards, handily won the half in 2.26⅕, D. N. Puddington, 13 yards, second.

E. Gerow, scratch, won the boys' race.

C. Lawton captured the 440 yards dash with 4 yards start on Vincent; time 63⅕ sec.

The Citizens band was present.

NOTES.

The Beavers are popular.

Y. M. C. A's meet next.

The announcer has a most useful vocal apparatus.

That's a very bad practice, Sandy!

Charlie Coster did the timing alone.

Two members of St. George's society officiated as judges.

Frank White was in poor condition having been quite ill a few days ago.

Small boys who hiss ought to be suppressed, so should those who take the centre of the rink when they have no business there.

St. John's Church Rock Parliament.

Last evening the parliament of St. John's (stone) church met. Speaker Belyea being absent, Senator Boyd consented to take his place. On taking the chair he thanked the house for his unanimous election to the high office of speaker stating that in consequence of the attack on the senate of which he was a member, he had for that night resigned, for the higher position of First Commoner of Canada, and although the senate had the previous session received such treatment, yet being of an unforgiving disposition, he would wipe their assaults out of his memory, and treat all parties with that courtesy, which such a distinguished leader deserved. He was particularly favored on taking his seat for the first time, that the great question of Woman Suffrage was up; for as the Irish poet sang,

"This world was all a waste, the garden but a wild."
"And man, a hermit sighed: till woman smiled."

So every question that affected our daughters, sisters, mothers, sweethearts and wives stirred the hearts of the rougher sex. And besides, all must accord to woman, the portion of the world's ruler who while man held the reins, woman showed him the way to go, and without whom, the world would be indeed, a dreary waste.

The orders of the day were then called: the opposition moved an amendment, looking to woman's suffrage. Other bills were named on the government side and the debate was begun by Hon. Mr. Sanborn. He was followed by the Honorable Messrs. Ruel, Turnbull and Knowlton, and the eloquent member for Dipper harbor, at which the latter said there were thirteen churches and one pump. The government speakers were Hon. Attorney General Wetmore; minister of finance, Hon. L. P. D. Tilley; public works, Hon. Mr. Mott; customs, Hon. Mr. Humphrey. The amendment was lost, and the government sustained, by a large majority. The speaker announced the next meeting would be on Thursday night fortnight at eight o'clock. Every member honored his position; the newly elected member for Dipper harbor being especially happy in his keen wit and local hits, equally at home among the youthful members of parliament as he is among bishops and archbishops in synods, or as an eminent preacher in the pulpit, as assistant to the bishop of Ripon, Hulsean lecturer at Oxford, professor in the London University, chaplain to Lord Dufferin in Russia, or vice president of the Neptune Rowing club in St. John; exhibiting in all, the humility of his Master and the adaptiveness of His religion and mission to all ranks and conditions of men.

In no place can a more pleasant and instructive evening be spent than in this beautiful room and it is free to all, thanks to the vestry of St. John church.

"Well, Rastus, I hear you have left Mr. Smithers."

"Yas, sir."

"Did he give you a good recommendation?"

"Yas, sir. He dun write it, an' said I wuz de mos' mendacious an' fallible niggah he knowed."

A False Presentiment.

Wife (fretfully)—Something is going to happen, dearest. Yes, yes, I have a presentiment. I feel sure of it.

Husband (thoroughly acquainted with his spouse)—No, I think not. The dressmaker and milliner called while you were out, and I—er—settled the bills.

Wife (rapturously)—Darling.

Married at Trinity.

Last evening at Trinity church, Rev. Canon Brigstocke officiating, Dr. W. H. Steeves, of this city, was married to Miss Edith Clark, daughter of Mr. W. Walker Clark, chief of police. Mr. Fred Wedderburn acted as groomsman, and Miss Blanche McKinley, of Halifax, and Miss Pauline Clark, sister of the bride, as bridesmaids. The centre of the church was crowded with guests, and many others were present to witness the ceremony. The bride looked charming in a beautiful costume of white brocaded silk, ostrich feather trimmings. She wore a spray of orange blossoms in her hair and her bouquet was of yellow daffodils and white spiræ. Mrs. Clark the bride's mother, was attired in black satin and gold brocade, with black velvet trimmings. Her bonnet was of black and gold, with pale green feathers, and her ornaments diamonds. Mrs. F. W. Whitney, of New York, the bride's aunt wore black velvet, prettily trimmed, and a bonnet of black and gold. The bridesmaids' costumes were of pale yellow China silk, with white veils and yellow aigrettes. Their bouquets were of cream roses, lily of the valley and maiden hair fern.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's father, Lancaster, where many beautiful gifts were arranged as testimonials of the good wishes toward the happy couple. Dr. and Mrs. Steeves left for a bridal trip to New York.
