THIS IS DECLARATION DAY FOR THE KING'S PLATERS

This is declaration day for the King's Plate. It is likely that a great many of the horses entered will be withdrawn. The race, at the present time, looks to be between four horses—Court Martial, Wicklight, Hillhurst and Slaughter. Hendrie will likely start Sword Dance, as he is the best of the lot. This would leave five horses in the race. Last year there were six.

Very little work was done yesterday morning at the Woodbine, the track being too sticky, and the horses were only galloped.

Kinleydale and Fort Hunter, the Dyment pair, worked a mile together, the latter breaking five lengths in front and finishing ten behind. Fort Hunter will not work unless up with his mate. Kinleydale's time was :27, :53¼, 1.21½, and 1.51½.

The Hendrie Platers, Sword Dance and Blue Grass, were sent 1¼ miles in 2.34. The first half was done in :54 seconds and the second in 1.02, making the mile in 1.56. They were pretty much all in at the finish, Sword Dance being in the best condition. Chippewa was sent a mile in 1.52.

The Platers, Court Martial, Wicklight and Hillhurst, were all galloped.

Shine On and King's Guinea worked ¾ in 1.23.

The steeplechase course will be the same as last fall, there being no water jump.

The Street Railway Company are going to try and get the people home earlier this year. The spur to the east of the main gate is being extended, and will run for 50 yards down the old track, where cars will be held in reserve for the rush, tho the public will not be able to get on them until they are on the street.

The mare Morning Star has dropped a filly foal to Wickham at Cedar Grove Farm, Oakville.

Mr. Dyment has entered Kinleydale and Court Martial in the Buffalo Derby.

W. Garth arrived at the Woodbine yesterday with a string of horses; also John Faugle. Some more trainers are expected in to-day.

ROSEBEN MADE FAVORITE METROPOLITAN HANDICAP

19 Horses Carded to Go To-Day on Muddy Track in First Eastern Classic at Belmont Park.

New York, May 9.—Nineteen horses are carded to-night to start in the Metropolitan Handicap, the first of the classic spring races of the eastern turf at Belmont Park to-morrow. The historic race at one mile will be run over a heavy or holding track, a steady rain to-day having made fast going practically an impossibility despite the prediction of fair weather for to-morrow. This will be the second time the Metropolitan Handicap has been run over the magnificent course of the Westchester Racing Association at Belmont Park, the race prior to 1905 being the feature of the year at Morris Park, in the Westchester Hills.

The horses entered for the Metropolitan are somewhat disappointing as far as class is concerned, many of the more famous racers including Sysonby, Hermis and Delhi, having been declared out on various accounts.

Undoubtedly many horses have been left out of the overnight entry list because of the probability of heavy going. If the track should work into any sort of fair condition it is more than likely there will be six or seven added starters. The Metropolitan this year will be worth nearly $14,000, and it looks to-night as tho the first big purse of the season will go to the owner of Roseben, David C. Johnson. Roseben is made favorite by every expert to-night and he will be heavily played to win. Roseben's decisive defeat in the Excelsior Handicap has not shaken his owner's faith in him. His partiality for the Belmont track, where last year he won a world's record at 6 furlongs and the fact that he can run just as well on a muddy track as a dry one, seems to make his chances stand out above the other contestants. The distance of the Metropolitan is more to his liking.

The lightweighted horses will be the troublesome factors in the race, and it is agreed that if Israfel and Grapple, the more likely contestants for first honors, go out to run with Roseben the first half mile they may take the heart out of the phenomenal sprinter. Israfel is one of the best handicap horses shown this year and has been defeated but once. He is fast and courageous and will have the benefit of Miller's capable handling. Graphite, a John A. Drake candidate, is regarded as very dangerous.

Stalwart, Dandelion, Pegasus and Ivan the Terrible are starting for the first time this year and either of them might furnish a surprise. The others in the field have shown their form this year. The entries, weights, jockeys and probable odds follow:

Gossip of the Turf.

General John B. Castleman of Louisville will accept the presidency of Douglas Park, and it is expected that his strong following will be enabled to give Churchill Downs a strenuous fight for popular favor. Douglas Park will race in conflict with the Latonia track, it is said.

Isaac Frank, well known as part owner of several racehorses a few years ago, died in New York City on Tuesday.

Constant Reader—Away, 2-year-old, beat Tongorder the last day of the fall meeting.—Ed.

Demund, the most-talked-about 2-year-old that has raced this spring, was sold at private sale in New York by Newton Bennington to Paul Rainey. The price paid was not made public, but report had it that Mr. Rainey paid $45,000 for the horse, which, tho he has won but a single race, and that an unimportant event at Aqueduct, has been the cause of much speculation and several efforts to purchase him at a large price. Demund is a chestnut colt by Goldfinch—Graciostic, bred by J. B. Haggin, and bought in by Mr. Bennington at the Haggin sale last September, under the agreement thru which Mr. Bennington has raced a stable made up almost entirely of horses of Mr. Haggin's breeding for several years.

College Cricketers Beat Gordon-MacKay Team 25 Runs and 6 Wickets.

Upper Canada College opened the season auspiciously yesterday and, notwithstanding the raw weather, ran up a respectable score, 59 for four wickets, easily defeating the Gordon-MacKay team. Woods and R. L. Green were very destructive with the ball, while McArthur's batting for 34 was brilliant. Green also did well with the willow. Type B — Stooping Shoulder Variation

THE STOOPING SHOULDER.

When nature has been left alone her handiwork is regular. When habit — occupation — temperament exert their influence we discover irregularities—each one caused by an artificial condition of life—each one we group with many others produced under similar circumstances of living.

Take the stooping shoulder variation—so general, we almost make it a type by itself—a condition due to much office work—certain occupations demanding a great deal of stooping—a "laisser aller" temperament—any one of these may produce the stooping shoulder type of physique. We make this figure appear erect!

By a cunning device of cutting the front of the coat short—with much fullness over the chest—plenty of roll to the lapel—and judiciously placed padding at the back of the neck—do we give this physique an upright figure—where a custom tailor, by ignoring anatomy would accentuate the stoop of the shoulders.

All these alterations can be made easily because the suit is basted only and the seams left with outlets.

After you are fitted perfectly it only takes two hours to make alterations and deliver. Money back for any cause.

Our Boys Coming Home.

Arrangements have been completed for the opening of the championship season at Diamond Park on Monday afternoon next, when the Torontos come home after their long trip around the Eastern League circuit. Newark will be the opposing team, and the four great games these clubs played two weeks ago in Newark is sufficient guarantee of a stirring contest. As a preliminary to the league game, a one-innings battle will take place between teams selected from the city hall and the parliament buildings, and Inspector James L. Hughes, who has the affair in hand, expects to spring a great surprise on the public by the quality of the baseball that is to be played by his proteges.

Previous to the game there will be a street parade, leaving the Palmer House at 1.30 p. m. The route is King, Yonge, Carlton, Jarvis, Queen and Dufferin-streets, to the ball grounds. The officers and players of the competing clubs and the Rooters' Club will participate. The Toronto management will be made the recipients of a mammoth floral, or cabbage, horseshoe. The league game will commence at 3.30 o'clock.

Tennis at Varsity.

Six courts are now in course of preparation at the Varsity Lawn Tennis Club. The two cinder courts will be ready for play in a few days, while the four grass courts will be in shape within a fortnight. In anticipation of a large membership list the management request prospective members to communicate their intentions as soon as possible. Varsity will be represented in both the senior and intermediate tennis leagues. Membership in the club is not confined to students. All communications should be addressed to the secretary-treasurer, Walter H. Goldstein, 39 Wilton-crescent. Phone M. 2055.
