WHAT THE HORSES WILL CARRY IN THREE EVENTS.

The Vosburg's Work Likely to Prove Unsatisfactory in the Jumping Races—The Gallops of the Horses at Woodbine Yesterday—Racing on Many Tracks—Toronto Horses in To-Day's Jumping Racing at Windsor.

The appearance of the weights to-day for the Waterloo, Street Railway Steeplechase and Jockey Club Handicaps, to be decided at the coming meeting, as usual will be liberally discussed by the followers of the turf. Of course, Mr. Vosburg's work will be picked to pieces, as it is an impossible task to please everyone, and a thankless undertaking at the best. However, in this case, there appears to be some reason for disagreeing with Mr. Vosburg's opinions, particularly in the jumping race. In the first place, ten top weight might have been 168 pounds, which has generally been the case, and thereby give the poorer class some chance. Why, Strathclyde is asked to give winners like Vicar of Wakefield, Don Pedro and The Rake weight it is difficult to understand, as is the case with Bob Neely, who has to concede a point to The Rake. Mr. Vasburg may know something about the flat winners, but it is doubtful if his work in the allotment of weights in the jumping race will prove very satisfactory to the majority of owners.

THE WORK AT WOODBINE.

The weather yesterday morning was all that could be desired at Woodbine Park and the rain of the previous night was just sufficient to put the track in excellent order. It was certainly a perfect morning, and the followers of the bangtails were on hand in good numbers to watch the horses at work. The best "move" was accomplished by William Hendrie's Maximum, who worked a mile and an eighth in 2.01, the first mile in 1.46¾. Meleba, another representative of the Hendrie stable, who gives great promise, negotiated six furlongs in 1.22, and a mile a shade better than 1.50, Ogdensburg going three-quarters in 1.24. Lord Lovell breezed a mile in 1.53. The hunter, Royal Bob, was sent two turns of the field, the last time at top speed. Plover, the Plater, was breezed through the stretch.

Lord Nelson, of Charles Boyle's string, covered a mile in 1.49, Havoc the same distance in 1.54, Looram a half in 50¼. Florence Colville and Miss Celestine a mile in 1.52, Maguire a mile in 1.56, but went on another mile before he could be pulled up, the saddle slipping.

Ben Pope gave the Dawes horses strong work, Red Monk and Laurel going a mile in 1.50¼, and the 2-year-olds, Sleepy Belle and Lady Stella, a half in 58.

The Seagram contingent were out in full force. Dandelion joined Joe Miller for a mile and a quarter, which was covered in 2.22, the first mile in 1.52. The balance of the older division were subjected to slow work, while Strathclyde was given an inning in the field under the careful guidance of Johnny Grover. The 2-year-olds, Bon Ino, Abbotsford and Ferdinand, reeled off a half in 54. Morpheus, who arrived from the farm on Thursday, was given his first work yesterday on the New-market track. It is said that the stable will be divided during the Woodbine meeting, Johnny Walker taking the best ones to Brooklyn, while Jerry Johnson will have charge of the others, which will race through Canada.

The new arrival, Edna D., from Aqueduct, L.I., made her appearance on the track, and took slow exercise. She is a likely-looking filly, and will bear watching.

SCRANTON WAS EASY.

Coal Heavers Make Errors Galore and Toronto Wins by 17 to 6.

Scranton appeared outclassed against the Torontos yesterday. They fielded like third-class amateurs, and Toronto scored 14 unearned runs. The visitors could not hit Moran, who pitched a good game, notwithstanding his wildness. Herr put an easy ball over the plate, and the locals batted him all over the field. The game was slow and generally poorly played, and many of the small crowd left before the finish. Delehanty has been secured from Pittsburg, and will be played at short. Score:

The Renaissence of Piano Architecture.

This is one of the most beautiful designs that has been made to mark the architecture of a fine piano. An opportunity was presented a few days since to examine one of these instruments of the Heintzman & Co manufacture that was to be shipped to Montreal. There is a very scholarly treatment of this style of architecture that appeals to the highest taste of the educated and cultured. The piano in question was probably one of the most magnificent that has been shown by any piano manufacturer, Canadian or foreign. The fact is that Heintzman & Co. have reached so great perfection in piano construction, whether we speak of the beautiful exterior or the perfectness of the interior, that their pianos are taking the place of instruments of foreign importation.

Score's Big Ad.

Score's recent advertisements have ordeated a genuine surprise among Toronto's gentlemen. The idea is now fully dispelled that high-class garments can only be bought at a high price. The reputation this firm has maintained for 54 years is a sufficient guarantee that the garments are of the choicest description, both in material and workmanship. So great has been the success attending their overstock sale, they have decided to continue it for another week. No time should be lost in visiting "Toronto's Greatest Tailoring store."

YOUNGSTERS AT MASSEY HALL.

Annual Gathering of Junior Christian Endeavorers of All Denominations.

The rally of junior Christian Endeavorers in Massey Hall last evening was a wonderful sight. They filled the body of the vast hall. The galleries were also crowded with interested friends. Seated on the platform was a chorus of about 400 white robed girls and happy looking boys, while in the foreground sat the fearless young chairman, Master Herbert Todd.

The churches gave, in this instance, unquestionable evidence of their unison in endeavor work, members of all congregations being present in proportionate numbers.

The following societies were fully represented: Methodist—St. Clarens-avenue, Euclid-avenue, Agnes-street, Bathurst-street, Broadway Tabernacle (junior and senior sections), Epworth Church, Trinity, Dunn-avenue, Gerrard-street, Woodgreen, Simpson-avenue, Queen East, King-street, Metropolitan. Presbyterian—Central College-street, Claremont-street Mission, Church of the Covenant, Western, Parkdale, Cooke's, Eastern, Queen East. Baptist—Beverley-street, Parliament-street, Eastern-avenue. Congregational—Zion, Olivet, Dovercourt, Bond-street, Northern and Broadview-avenue.

The program consisted of well rendered selections by the orchestra, songs and exercises by the juniors, a trio by the McBratney Bros. of Agnes-street Methodist Church, which received a well deserved encore, and spirited five-minute addresses by Messrs. Thomas McGillicuddy of College-street Baptist, S. J. Duncan-Clark, president Toronto C.E. Union, and the Rev. C. O. Johnson.

The report of Secretary George B. Bickle showed a total of 38 junior societies, 1389 active and 519 associate members, 126 superintendents and assistants and a total subscription, among the juniors, for missions of $278.34.

The reports of the work of the different societies were very encouraging, all being engaged in charitable or missionary work and none having to report a decrease in membership.

Elm-Street Methodist Church.

Rev. William Lloyd, D.D., New York city, is one of the foremost pulpit orators and lecturers on this continent. The doctor is of English birth, having come to this continent some years ago. He has occupied the pulpit of the Central Congregational Church in New York city for several years, and is much in demand by the churches of the union, as a preacher and lecturer on special occasions. When visiting England last year his time was largely taken up in preaching and lecturing throughout the large cities of the old land. Dr. Lloyd has been engaged to conduct the anniversary services of Elm-street Methodist Sunday school next Sabbath. He will preach morning and evening, and will deliver his interesting lecture on "Ideals" son Monday evening in the church.
