SIGN BOARD BLOWN DOWN.

The sign board over Willis, Mott & Co's store fell yesterday about noon. A lady, who was passing at the time, narrowly escaped being struck.

A PECULIAR ARM.

Malcolm Morrison, an old Scotchmen who came to the city police station for protection last night, has an arm which is hanging together merely by the skin. It has been broken several times and the bones have never set. A number of physicians not long ago wanted to perform experiments on him, but Malcolm was too sharp for them, and still retains his curiosity.

WANT A CHANGE.

Some of the policemen are agitating for a reform in their time-table on Sunday. They complain that they are not relieved from day duty until 7 p. m. Sunday which consequently prevents them from attending church service. When it is known that policemen have about one chance to attend church in five weeks it at once becomes reasonable that those desireing to do so should agitate for a change.

MASONIC INSTALLATION.

New Brunswick Lodge, No 22, had its officers installed last evening in the presence of a large assemblage of the fraternity at the Masonic Temple, by Grand Master McNichol, the following accompanying him: Henry Duffell, P D G M; W Watson Allen, as D G M; J A Hoyt, as S G W; A W Sharp, as J W G; Rev A McDougall, G C; Charles Masters, G T; E J Wetmore, G S; Geo Kilnapp, as J G D; A R Campbell, G D of C; Saml Strang, as Asst G D of C; Robt Clarke, as G S B; Richd Rodgers, as G Swd B; W A Ewing, G O; W H Patton, C P; F Tufts and Fred Sandall, G S.

They were received by Worshipful Master Mathews and the installation took place as follows: Henry Buchanan W. M.; S. F. Mathews, I. P. M.; Walter Starkie, S. W.; H. H. Harvey, J W; Wm. R. Russell, (P. M.) T.; James McNichol, (P. M.) S.; Fred L. Hea, S. D.; George E. Day, jr., J. D.; John R. Palmer, S. S.; James Kelly, J. S.; John Dickers, D. of C.; Dr D. E. Berryman, I. G.; G. G. Boyne, tyler.

After some congratulatory speeches an abundance of refreshments was partaken of.

The coroner's jury in the case of Nicholas Kennedy whose death was noticed yesterday found a verdict of accidental death.

The coal shed of the Portland Electric light station will be completed today.

A Miss Nickerson from Goshen, Cardwell, who had become insane, was brought to the asylum by Constable W. P. Morton, of Penobsquis, yesterday afternoon.

The Carleton grocers have arranged to close their stores at 8 o'clock p. m. during the winter and spring months.

Portland Notes.

Sneak thieves have been busy in Portland this week. Besides breaking into T. McMaster's barber shop and stealing a cow from Mr. Palmer's barn, as before mentioned in the GAZETTE, they have provided themselves with fowls from a Straight Shore hen roost, and with a quarter of beef, taken from the woodshed of one of policeman Myles' tenants, Mr. Gordon. It is a pity that these nightly marauders connot be caught.

Alexandra Temple of Honor will attend divine service in Portland F. C. B. church next Sunday morning.

Yesterday morning one of the sailors of the schooner Alice S., in his hurry to catch the outgoing ferryboat at Indiantown, fell off the platform leading to the deep water alongside. He was rescured by some other men and in his cool and dripping condition he realized the truth of the old adage "The more haste the less speed." This platform is much too narrow and only having a rail on one side persons not familiar with the place are very apt to walk off into the water. In fact some five or six persons have done so inside a year. And if the platform is not widened and another rail placed on it there may some day be a drowning accident at the spot, but it is hoped that it will be looked after at once, and the necessary improvements made.

Coming Events.

A lecture is to be delivered under the auspices of York lodge, No. 3, L. O. A., by Rev. Wm. Lawson, in the Orange hall Germain street, on Thursday evening, 17th inst.

Mr. Morley will give the first of his organ recitals in the Mission church this evening. The programme has been published and gives abundant proof of an excellent entertainment.

City Police Court.

Morton Newman drunk on Carmarthen street was fined $2.

A boy named Fleming was arrested on a warrant charging him with using abusive language against Andrew Hutchinson. The charge, however, was withdrawn on payment of $1 costs.

Malcom Morrison in for protection was let go.

Portland Police Court.

Robert Fox drunk on City Road was fined $4 or ten days.

No herring in the bay; no fishing vessels in the harbor; no snow on the streets; business dull. That's what they say at St. Andrews.

If you wish a fine imported Havana cigar, three for a quarter mild or strong, call at Louis Green's, 59 King street; satisfaction guaranteed.

Town Tattle.

I had quite an interesting chat with the bartender of one of the leading hotels the other day, regarding the effect of New Year's day "swear off." Said he, business at this bar is very slow for the past two weeks of the New Year. You see, nearly all the boys old and young, make good resolutions for the New Year, and they always keep them for a while. "Whiskey you said.' This remark was addressed to an elderly gentleman who nodded assent and poured three fingers into the glass placed for him and emptied it into his throat closing his eyes with apparent satisfaction as the liquid ran down his throat. Next he placed his coin on the counter and disappeared. "Then the bar-tender resumed his conversation." That is the first time his nibs has been in here this year. He swore off on New Year's day, that was his first. In a few days he'll work up to his old average of six drinks a day but he's very steady. He takes six a day and couldn't be persuaded to take more. From this out there will be a few additions to the boys every day and by the end of the month they will all be in again with perhaps the exception of one or two

* * *

It is always amusing to watch the man, who, with a half dozen of friends has made a lot of good resolutions for the new year. He will get thirsty and after walking around in a lonesome fashion for awhile, will side in all alone buy a cigar and after a chat with the bartender will order a smash of some kind or other. The chat with the bartender is only to see who is watching him. This kind of thing will go on for a week or so and finally the gentlemen who have agreed to abstain from intoxicants will meet in some of their old haunts and then the keg will be declared off.

* * *

There is rather an amusing bet on now between two well known citizens. On New Year's day they both went on kegs and then it was decided that the one who took the first drink within the city limits was to forfeit the sum of $10.

* * *

"There is one thing," said Mr. Edward Jack to a GAZETTE man in the Victoria last evening, "that the North-shore lumbermen have not made public in regard to their interview with Attorney General Blair on the stumpage question. The leases under which they are working were made for ten years and have now five years to run. I am informed by a person who was present, that the Attorney General told the North shore men, if they were not satisfied with their present leases and the rates of stumpage he would release them and put the land up to open competition again. This, however, they one and all refused to do. The GAZETTE is quite right," continued Mr. Jack, "in its treatment of this question. There is no fair comparison to be made with Quebec, because freights are higher to the St. Lawrence than to the North shore ports, and the logs have to be brought, on an average, four times as far. The stumpage the north shore men are paying may be too high, but the comparison they make with Quebec does not show it."

Publications.

A GREAT POPULAR CYCLOPEDIA.

The third volume of Alden's Manifold Cyclopedia, a marvel of condensed information, covers the alphabet between the titles Artemisia and Baptista. There seems to be little doubt that it will prove to be the great popular Cyclopedia for the next score of years at least. The embodiment of an Unabridged Dictionary of Language and a complete Cyclopedia of Universal Knowledge in one work, in large type, with thousands of illustrations, and all for a price less than people have been used to paying for a Dictionary alone, is not only a novelty in publishing, but to the ordinary book-buyer the fact is hardly less than astonishing.

The venerable Prof. Day, of Yale College speaks of the work in the following emphatic terms: 'The book in all respects more than answers my expectation. It is a very neat volume, of a form convenient for use, firmly bound, of large, clear type, with contents of just that general character which the popular reader requires—comprehensive, accurate, and compact. Its marvelously low cost makes it a prize eagerly to be sought in every intelligence-loving household.'

The publisher, John B. Alden, 393 Pearl st. New York, will send a specimen volume (which may be returned if not wanted) in cloth for 50c., or half Morocco, 65c.; postage 10c. extra. The set of thirty volumes is offered at a considerably reduced price to early subscribers.

Circuit Court.

The suit of the Halifax Banking Company against Smith et al is still occupying the attention of His Honor Judge Tuck and jury. It is a Westmorland case and like not a few suits from that county it has developed several features of a collateral character that tend to delay. The probabilities are that this cause will take up the remainder of the day. At noon James A. Smith one of the defendants was still under cross-examination by Mr. McLeod. During this examination an interesting incident occurred in reference to an objection made by Mr. Dickson that the evidence being produced by Mr. McLeod on cross-examination was immaterial. The Judge thought Mr. Dickson was quite right in his view, but permitted Mr. McLeod to go on, on his assurance that he as counsel considered it was material. The judge would give no other decision although Mr. McLeod said he thought it unfair to him that the judge would not decide upon the objection. His Honor said he agreed with Mr. Dickson's view that the evidence was not material in the cause but as Mr. McLeod thought it was Mr. McLeod had permission to go on. The cross-examination was then resumed.

Gripsack.

The Gripsack for January, 1889, compiled by Messrs Knowles and Reynolds is out and for sale at the different book stores.

This exceedingly handy book is full of interesting matter about commercial men; and in relation to matters of particular advantage to the travelling public generally. Its frontispiece is an excellent likeness of the popular conductor, Joe Edwards, and with the picture there is an interesting biographical sketch of the aforesaid 'Joe,' which will be eagerly sought for and read by the thousands who know him as well as by the numbers who have heard of him in connection with railway interests in the sister province.

In addition with general matter found in Gripsack, the present issue contains the regulations and rules of the Intercolonial Express Company of Canada, and a list of the offices of this comyany in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, P. E. Island and Quebec, with Western Union Telegraph rates, making an addition of sixteen extra pages the whole making a most useful and interesting book for travellers by railway or steamboat.

THE SPIRIT OF THE TIMES.

An Albany special to the World states that Kilrain says he is not satisfied with the Toronto agreement. He says his friends had to give way in everything to bring Sullivan to terms and that "the baby" was even now trying to crawl out of the fight. Putting the fight off six months and choosing a referee at the ring side are Kilrains objections. He says the referee thus chosen would of course, be a Sullivan man. Kilrain could not say whether he would fight under the agreement or not. He would have to consult friends in New York. He did not believe the fight would come off. Sullivan would insist on having everything his own way and would blame the other party for kicking and the fight would fall through. Sullivan when shown the World special said; "Kilrain is a monkey. Referees are always chosen at the ring side in championship fights. I will be there to fight whether he is or not.

* * *

The Inter-Ocean says: Notwithstanding the fact that Sullivan has always declared his intention of not fighting a colored man, he will be placed in an awkward predicament should Jackson challenge him, for if Sullivan beats Kilrain, and then refuses to fight Jackson, the latter will be entitled, according to all the rules of the prize ring, to claim the championship of the world. In England the question of color would not be allowed to crop up, then why should it in this country? In America the dictum is that "one man is as good as another," and Jackson's friends claim that he should have equal rights with any other professional fighter.

* * *

The Empire thinks this will be a grand year in all kinds of sport, but none more than in the world of the wheel. "Some professionals' antics have been a little detrimental to the healthy condition of bicycling in America, but it is hoped to soon surmount this and raise cycling sport into its proper ascendancy." This is an universally expressed hope. No sport is more enjoyable and healthful.

Mr. W. E. Eldridge has been awarded the medal offered for the largest record made by one of the Hudson County Wheelmen of New Jersey. He covered almost 3,000 miles.

Miss Hattie Lewis, of Pittsburg, won the six-days female bicycle race ended 11 p. m. Saturday night after a very exciting contest between the former and Miss von Blumen. Besides a money prize she gets a $40 medal for defeating Miss von Blumen. The score is as follows: Miss Hilda Sauller, 354 miles 1 lap; Miss Hattie Lewis, 455 miles 9 laps; Miss May Allen, 314 9: Miss Jessie Oakes, 280 17; Miss Elsa von Blumen 451 9.

A race for the amateur half-mile skating championship of the world took place at Amsterdam, Tuesday, and was won by Von Panschin, of St. Petersburg in 1 minute 25 3-5 seconds. Joseph F. Donoghue, of Newburg, N. Y., who was a contestant, fell during the race. He afterwards skated over the course against time, covering the distance in 1 minute 27 2-5 seconds. Von Panschin won another half-mile race in 1 minute 24 1-5 seconds.

* * *

Axel Paulsen, the Norwegian skater, is in Minneapolis. The Toronto Globe thinks a good honest race between Paulsen and Black, Dowd and McCormick, the Canadian flyers, would be a great attraction in a Toronto rink. It would still be a greater attraction in a St. John rink, because the winner would be a St. John man.

Dangerous Pastimes.

A good deal of amusement, attended by much danger was occasioned by a fiery untamed steed running wildly about King Square this morning. Somehow or other it escaped from its keeper and managed to crawl towards the centre of the green. Hundreds of boys and men started in pursuit with sticks, stones and other weapons, and after several hours fruitless chase the animal was carrolled in a back yard, and fastened once more to its keeper with a chain. Numbers of women and children who were attracted by the scene were scared almost to death, and several ladies fainted. No further damage is recorded and things are now looking lovely.

Mr. Wanamaker may get into the Cabinet buy and buy.
