The Dutch Defeat.

AMSTERDAM, Aug. 28.—Additional particulars concerning the defeat of the Dutch expedition sent out to punish the Rajah of Lombok Island have been received. It appears that the Rajah's troops surprised and attacked the Dutch soldiers, killing 164 of the latter. Among these were fourteen officers, including the commander, Gen. Von Ham.

Divorce Case in High Life.

TORONTO, Aug. 28.—Application has been made before the Senate at Ottawa, by Helen Woodburn Jarvis, wife of George Hamilton Jarvis, barrister, late of Toronto, but now of Detroit, for absolute divorce. Mr. Jarvis was married to this lady, who is the eldest daughter of Mr. J. W. Langmuir, in the spring of 1883, and in February, 1887, it is alleged, he eloped with his typewriter operator, who was formerly a Miss Neville, but who was then said to be married. Mr. Jarvis secured a divorce in the American courts soon after his departure. He is a son of the late Sheriff Jarvis, of Toronto.

To Cleanse the System

Effectually yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, to dispel headache, colds or fever, use Syrup of Figs.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—The ADVERTISER'S new story is begun today.

—Mr. J. Tiffin, of Stratford, son of Superintendent Tiffin, of the Grand Trunk Railway, is in the city.

—Robert Herrington was taken to Strathroy today by Chief of Police Dodd to stand trial for the burning of Lyons' planing mill.

—Eighteen years ago last Sunday the First Congregational Church opened its new place of worship on Dundas street. How time flies!

—Messrs. J. Phillips and H. Cause, of London, Eng., are at the Tecumseh. Mr. Phillips is a horse buyer, and is an old friend of Mr. T. D. Hodgens.

—Rev. Dr. Ormiston, formerly pastor of Central Presbyterian Church, Hamilton, but now of California, was stricken two weeks ago with paralysis, from which there is little hope of his recovery.

—Mr. Frank Whiting, line foreman of the Bell Telephone Company here, has received word of the death of his father in Rochester, N. Y., yesterday, at the age of 66. The body will be brought to Strathroy for interment.

—Prof. Davis, the Kick-a-Poo Indian medicine vendor, was before a magistrate in Lucan yesterday for violation of the Dentistry Act. The case was dismissed. Davis extracted teeth at his evening meetings free of charge.

—The Lehigh express train ran into the east local at Wyoming at noon today. The local was foul of the switch. Very little damage was done. The express was not delayed very long and soon proceeded on her way to the tunnel.

—Rev. Herbert E. Wise and wife are visiting friends in this city. Mr. Wise was pastor of a Baptist Church in Calgary, N. W. T., for the past two years and it is his intention to take a three-years' course at the College of Newton Center, Mass.

—The Chatham Band has been engaged to play at the Western Fair on Sept. 19, for $100 and expenses. The Banner says: "The Londoners must rest assured that they will get music of the very highest order from our musical combination of over 25 pieces."

—Mr. J. D. O'Neil, solicitor, has issued a writ on behalf of T. D. Fawcett, dentist, against Bailiff Burns for alleged wrongful seizure of his dental instruments. Fawcett claims $500 damages. Mr. Burns has issued an interpleader in connection with the case to test the claim of the landlord for rent as against the executioner of the creditor.

—The Rt. Rev. H. M. Turner, D.D., of Atlanta, Ga., presiding bishop of the Twelfth Episcopal district of the A. M. E. Church and first colored bishop of that church to visit Africa, will preach this (Tuesday) evening in Beth Emanuel, B. M. E. Church, Grey street, at 8 o'clock. Dr. Derrick, the missionary secretary, will also accompany the bishop on his visit to London. The latter is en route home from attending conference in Hamilton.

The Marine Band.

We are pleased to announce that the Marine Band of the Young Liberal Fleet will play in Victoria Park on Friday evening next. The programmes will consist of new and choice selections never before heard in the city. Officers of the Fleet in uniform will take voluntary contributions at the gates. It is hoped that the efforts of the young men to advertise the city abroad will be repaid by a generous collection.

Ill-Treated a Horse.

Charles Decker, a peddler, was one of the few before the police magistrate this morning. He was charged by Inspector Sanders of the Humane Society with cruelty to a horse. It appears that Decker was driving down Clarence street the other day when the animal (which the owner described as very stubborn) became somewhat unruly, and got a taste of the whip. Decker, however, applied the lash too freely, for Mr. Luke Jeffrey and Mrs. S. K. Shanly said that the blows came very fast and with all Decker's strength. The offense cost him $2. John Sharpe, a resident in East London, was charged by his neighbor, Frank Meeson with assault. Sharpe is the owner of a cow, which wandered into Meeson's garden, and on the latter attempting to take it to pound was interrupted by Sharpe, who the plaintiff alleged threatened to cut his hand off at the wrist. Mason did not appear to prosecute and the case was dismissed. A youthful wheelman paid $1 for a five-minute ride on the sidewalk.

Daring Daylight Robbery.

The swarm of tramps which has invaded London of late has evidently deserted the north end and taken to the portion south of the track. They have been committing depredations on many residents, but the most daring is reported by Mrs. M. J. Parker, of the Hamilton road. Mrs. Parker was away from home on Monday, and about noon a stranger was seen hanging about the neighborhood. When the lady returned in the afternoon she found things turned generally upside down—giving evidence that the place had been entered. On closer examination it was found that a suit of clothes, two hats, two silk handkerchiefs, a pair of gold cuff buttons and a gold ring were missing, but no trace of the thief or the goods could be discovered. A neighbor named Haggart saw a well-dressed man leisurely walk from the house about noon, but thought nothing of it. The stranger carried a large bundle under his arm, possibly containing the stolen property.

Mr. Miles, a farmer residing near Lambeth, had a light spring wagon stolen from his premises the other night, and has so far failed to recover it.

A TRIUMPHAL MARCH.

Laurier Gets a Great Reception at Sault Ste. Marie.

A Fine Audience and a Great Speech—His Reception at Winnipeg.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont., Aug. 28.—Such a demonstration as that accorded Hon. Wilfrid Laurier last night by the citizens of Sault Ste. Marie is seldom the privilege of any man not being a popular political leader to receive. It must have been a proud moment for Mr. Laurier as he stood up and surveyed the great audience that had assembled in the International Hotel to greet him and to cheer his eloquence. He was given a splendid ovation by the people, as he arose to address them, but the cheering was still louder when the gifted leader had concluded the exposition of his policy. Many ladies were present, and they, too, joined in the demonstration of approval. The hall itself presented a scene of beauty as the result of the artistic efforts of a number of ladies of the "Soo." Forming an appropriate background to the platform was the old flag which hung in graceful folds from the ceiling. On either side was a profusion of flowering plants, which filled the air with their delightful perfume. Cut flowers, ferns and exotics completed the decoration of the platform, and made a picture of rare beauty.

The chair was occupied by Mr. C. F. Farwell, who defeated Mr. W. H. Hurst in the recent struggle for the representation of East Algoma. Around him were many of the leading Liberals of the district and not a few ladies, who took a keen interest in the proceedings. Mr. Laurier's address was a masterpiece and aroused the greatest enthusiasm. Speeches were also made by Wm. Gibson, M.P., D. C. Fraser, M.P., of Guysboro, N. S., and James Sutherland, M.P., of Woodstock.

Mr. Laurier will arrive at Winnipeg on Monday, Sept. 3, at 12:30 noon. He will be escorted through the streets by a large procession, and will be invited to speak at the Labor Day celebration in the afternoon.
