St. Paul, March 29.—Wm. W. Traynor, 30 years old, a vaudeville actor, and Mrs. Wm. Pryor, an actress, 35 years old, were found shot to death in their apartments at the Clarendon Hotel.

The night clerk heard two shots, and, rushing upstairs, found Mrs. Pryor lying dead, shot through the temple. Traynor had a wound in the back of his head. He died soon afterwards.

A letter, full of promises, that had been sent by Traynor to Mrs. Pryor before she left her husband, was found in the room. It is believed by the police that the actress was reminding Traynor that he had not lived up to these promises and was threatening to leave him. This quarrel and business reverses caused Traynor to shoot Mrs. Pryor and himself. Traynor and Mrs. Pryor apeared on the stage as "Traynor and Taynor."

They had an engagement at Minneapolis three weeks hence, but no work was in sight for the intervening time.

Only $3 was found in Traynor's pockets.

TROUBLE IN PORTUGAL

Government Tries to Keep Republicans Out of New Parliament.

London, March 28.—A dispatch from Lisbon says the situation in Portugal is most disquieting. The Government is accused of endeavoring to prevent the return of Republican candidates at the elections, and this course, it is anticipated will lead to bloodshed.

For the last few days several regiments have been confined to their barracks because of fear of trouble. The reactionaries are intriguing to have King Manuel re-establish the dictatorship.

It is rumored that there has been a revolutionary outbreak at Oporto.

CROWDS ATTEND REVIVAL SERVICES

Three great meeting were held yesterday in Adelaide Street Church, where evangelistic services are being conducted nightly by the pastor and Dr. Towner, the talented musical conductor, and soloist. There was a large audience in the morning, every seat was filled in the afternoon and at night hundreds were turned away. Large numbers to the "after meetings" that followed the two last services, and many among them professed conversion. Dr. Towner sang several solos at each service, and led the large choir, the members of which have won high praise from Dr. Towner for the proficiency they have so soon attained.

On Tuesday delegations will be present from several outside places, and Dr. Towner will sing his inspiring song, "Paul and Silas." This is the doctor's last week in London.

Before the evening sermon the pastor baptized four candidates for church membership.

A Winnipeg shipment of pork held up at Fort William, as it was infected with trichina, and the Winnipeg packers say the diseased pigs are likely to all die.

In an effort to capture suspicious looking characters Chief Wilson, of the Strathroy police, caused all the electric lights of the city to be turned on at an early Sunday morning hour, but the hoboes escaped.

ITALY'S WAR ON THE ANARCHISTS

The Government Anxious To Prevent the Emigration of Desperadoes.

Rome, March 28.—Reports which have reached here about the war on Anarchists in America have produced the greatest satisfaction in all quarters from the Government to the lower classes, the latter having many relatives and friends among emigrants to America, whose reputation for being sober, honest, and laborious workingmen is compromised by the reckless acts of a few countryless desperadoes who have already been repudiated by their own fatherland and have sought refuge in America, thus hoping to escape justice. The Government authorities here will co-operate in every way in the campaign by preventing the departure of any who have the least stain on their record by refusing passports. A Government circular to all the prefects in the kingdom has given most stringent orders on the subject. The trouble is that the undesirable emigrants manage to sail from non-Italian ports. Information received here states that once in America these criminals are especially dangerous to other Italians, who often apply to the home Government for protection, but Italy cannot possibly interfere. But it is hoped that President Roosevelt's proverbial energy will be successful in standing off the gang of international malefactors who are trying to give their crimes a political character by calling themselves propagators of new doctrines. Nobody here forgets that Paterson, N. J., is the den from which Bressi was instigated to murder King Humbert. The blow to "La Question Sociale," the paper of those so-called Anarchists, is, therefore, heartily applauded. This, besides ridding the country of its worst element, will render a great service to a large number of Italians who are their direct victims, and who only desire to be loyal, quiet, and hardworking citizens. It is a curious fact that the King and the Pope are equally interested in Italian emigration, and are convinced that Italians will make splendid colonists if the bad elements are only weeded out.
