HARDWARE MEN HOLD BIG SECOND ANNUAL PICNIC AT THE PORT

Add Two Cows To Herd at Byron Sanatorium.

DRAWING BROUGHT $310

Athletic Events and Swimming Contests Were Features of Day's Program.

A record-breaking temperature, which was toned down, however, by the cool lake breezes, and calm water for bathing contributed largely to the enjoyable time registered at Port Stanley yesterday when the local hardware men staged their second annual picnic at that popular lake resort.

A great many of the participants in the events sought the tepid waters of Lake Erie as a means of gaining relief from the hot sun's rays. Notwithstanding the rush for the lake, a first-rate program was carried out on the beach, however, and a delightful entertainment for everyone was provided in the form of various kinds of sports, a particularly interesting raffle with a fine cut glass bowl as the prize being the feature. The executives of the sports had decided that the proceeds of the raffle would be used to purchase a cow for the Byron Sanatorium.

The result of the raffle was more successful than the most optimistic anticipated and instead of one, two fine cows will be added to the herd.

The amount realized from the drawing was $310, the winner of the handsome prize being Miss Pigot of the Hobbs Hardware office staff.

The sports program was carried out without a hitch, a total of 20 events, including an interesting swimming race, being run off successfully, with much competition on the part of the contestants.

The brass band of the 1st Hussars accompanied the picnickers to Port and furnished many pleasing musical selections throughout the whole of the afternoon.

At the conclusion of the sports, the hardware men and their friends and relatives served supper on the heights, after which the younger crowd proceeded to the pavilion and danced to the end of a perfect day.

Every retail and wholesale hardware firm of the city was represented in large numbers at the picnic, and the efforts of the officers whose unexcelled arrangements were responsible for the success of the outing were appreciated by all.

The winners of the various sporting events were as follows:

Boys, 11 to 14—John Doman, Douglas Westman, Fred Maycup.

THOSE WHO MAKE BIG WAR PROFITS LEAST AFFECTED BY THE TAX

Local Financiers Criticise the Proposed Bill of Financier.

NOT ENOUGH EXEMPTIONS

Opinions Prevail That Insurance Premiums Should Have Been Considered.

Some criticisms have been made by financial men in the city today regarding the income tax by Sir Thomas White. The principle of the thing is supported, but there are certain omissions that are mentioned that should be worth discussing.

For instance, it is pointed out that the scheme does not exempt premiums on life insurance policies. In Great Britain, such premiums are exempt. For instance, if a man has an income of $5,000 a year and pays out $1,000 a year for insurance policies to protect his family he is taxed on a $4,000 income. The Canadian law does not take the insurance premiums into account, as some of the financial men here think it should. It does exclude all grants to patriotic funds, and many are of the opinion that if there are to be any exemptions insurance premiums should be considered.

Another objection is that there is not sufficient distinction between unmarried men and single men. The married man is under at least double the expense that a single man is. If a single man is getting $10,000 a year, he is in a position to spare a great deal more money out of his income than a married man. A difference of $40, or even $100, is a mere bagatelle in such matters.

A still further exemption is that the tax does not reach the men who are making enormous profits out of the war.

Large financial institutions, of which there are many in London, have to pay as much taxation as the munitions factories. The latter make enormous profits in many instances on small capital, while the financial institutions pay small profits on large investments. However, the latter must pay as much as the munitions plants. If the stock in war supplies is sufficiently spread out, the munitions men get off quite easily. "These are things that struck me in looking over Sir Thomas White's bill," said a financial man to The Advertiser. "I think that these things should be considered. The men who profit by the war should bear more than the share of a man who does not profit by the war."

BLUNDER IN AJAX RUBBER BYLAW TO COST CITY $1,200

New Agreement Now in Course of Preparation.

VOTE IN SEPTEMBER

City's Careless Methods of Doing Business Is Being Criticized.

The blunder regarding the Ajax Rubber Company's guarantee bylaw will cost the city about $1,200, money wasted entirely, as the work done will have to be done over again.

There is much criticism of the slovenly way of doing business, and it is probable that the whole thing will be aired later.

The vote will be taken on either the second Monday in September or on the Monday following the Western Fair.

The new agreement is in course of preparation, and will be ready in plenty of time to take the vote on the dates mentioned.

ROY BIRMINGHAM DROWNS IN THAMES WHILE SWIMMING

Father and Mother of Lad Both Seriously Ill.

BODY NOW RECOVERED

Chum Claims That Call for Help Was Brutally Disregarded.

The body of 6-year-old Roy Birmingham, drowned at the foot of Dundas street last night, was found about 1:30 today, a short distance from where he went down for the last time.

The drowning occurred shortly before 6 o'clock last night at the point where the north and south branches of the river meet. With little Teddy Harbech, a chum, he was swimming, having entered the river from the north side of the main branch. Teddy came into the shore to dress, and heard his chum call to him that he was going out deeper before coming into the bank. The next moment the boy had disappeared.

Teddy says that he shouted to an ice man who was crossing the bridge, but that the man called back that it served the boy right, and drove on. As the bridge is some distance from the scene of the drowning it is possible that the man did not hear clearly the boy's cry for help.

John Howard, 15 years old, who was in the vicinity, ran down to the river, arriving after the boy had gone down for the last time. He immediately ran back to W. T. Mullin's store, where he telephoned for the pulmotor and dredging apparatus. The firemen responded immediately, and, aided by men in boats from Whit Lancaster's boathouse, commenced the search. Divers also assisted. One of these was a brother of the drowned boy.

Parents Are Ill.

A sad feature of the tragedy is that Mrs. Birmingham had that morning been taken to the hospital after being ill for some time, and the boy's father, Oliver Birmingham of 52 Dundas street, is in a serious condition at home. The news of his son's death affected him so that it was necessary to call a doctor.

Occurring just as the crowds were returning from work, the accident attracted hundreds of citizens to the spot, and both banks of the river were lined with onlookers. Scores crowded on to the Dundas street bridge and watched the dragging operations from there, while hundreds more gathered on the premises of the London Rowing and Bowling Club.

Many Deep Holes.

Much difficulty was experienced in carrying out the search, as the south branch of the river joins the north at that point, creating many cross currents. There are also several deep holes in the vicinity.

Basil, a brother of the drowning victim, is an expert swimmer, and holds a medal for life saving, as well as one for stopping a serious runaway. Another brother is in England with the overseas forces. Oliver, another brother, was attached to the 142nd Battalion, but was invalided from England some time ago, and Hugh, a fourth brother, is in Sarnia. The little boy is survived also by three sisters, Mrs. Link of Wyatt street, and Ida and Margery at home.

The drowning is the second one to occur within the city limits within five days. Willie Field was drowned at the foot of Regent street Saturday night.

W. T. GREGORY MAY BE CANDIDATE FOR SOUTH ESSEX SEAT

Popular Leamington Resident Needed Now, Declares the Post.

LEAMINGTON, July 26. — Today's issue of the Leamington Post commenting editorially on the coming election, says in part: "It looks as if a national win-the-war government is coming. [illegible]owed by an election, in which case [illegible] time for South Essex to set its [illegible] in order. More particularly is [illegible]e case since the riding has been [illegible] at Ottawa, and left without [illegible] in the present national crisis. [illegible] time when the saving of Can[illegible]cends all party questions, and [illegible]needs saving, not only from [illegible] from without, but from the [illegible]in. That being the case the [illegible] rightful representative from [illegible]sex should be William T. [illegible]f Leamington. Although born [illegible]tes he has become a British [illegible]nd has proven that he is a [illegible]litisher and better Canadian [illegible]y within our borders."

[illegible]st eulogizes the splendid pa[illegible]rk Mr. Gregory has done, and [illegible] with an appeal, that he be [illegible] put his personal feelings [illegible]d place himself in the hands [illegible]win-the-war party.

[illegible]. I. STRANG HAS RESIGNED

[illegible]RICH, July 24.—For the first [illegible] its history as an educational [illegible]on, Goderich Collegiate is ad[illegible]g for a classical master. Dr. [illegible]strang, head of his department [illegible]ly half a century, has tendered [illegible]gnation.

[illegible] the days of the old grammar [illegible] down through the years of its [illegible]as a high school, and on during [illegible]enty odd years as a collegiate [illegible]te, the old school has had but [illegible]acher of classics. Forty-six years [illegible]H. I. Strang moved from Galt to [illegible]ich as head master of the gram[illegible] school. For more than a third [illegible] century he was principal of the [illegible], and for nearly fifty years he [illegible] been in charge of the department [illegible]lassics.

[illegible]rhaps the greatest of his many [illegible]mphs as a teacher was back in [illegible] eighties, when two young men [illegible]om he trained for the university won [illegible] graduation gold medal for two suc[illegible]ssive years at Toronto University. [illegible]ese two men since have won emi[illegible]nce for themselves. One is Dr. Don[illegible] MacGillivray, the well-known [illegible]olar and teacher of Shanghai, China, [illegible] the other is John C. Robertson, [illegible]fessor and dean of the faculty of [illegible]s of Victoria University.

[illegible]Ten years ago, Dr. Strang was the [illegible]ntral figure in a reunion of his for[illegible]er students here, and at the same [illegible]me the senate of Toronto University [illegible]onferred upon him the honorary de[illegible]ree of L.L.D.
