VOTE AGAINST CONSOLIDATION

Rothesay Ratepayers Alarmed at Slight Increase in School Tax

LIVELY SPEECHES

One Gentleman Suggested Committee's Report, Favoring the Scheme, Be Thrown Out of the Window—Another Charged Scarcity of Domestic Help is Due to Education.

Rothesay, July 11.—(Special)—At a meeting held here tonight of the ratepayers of the school district the principle of consolidation was voted against by a large majority. At a previous meeting a committee consisting of Rev. A. W. Daniel, E. S. Carter and H. F. Puddington was appointed to consult with the trustees and ratepayers of Gondola Point, Foresters Cove, Model Farm and Quispamsis on the question of the consolidation of the five schools.

Arthur C. Fairweather was chosen chairman of the meeting last night, which was called to hear the report of the committee and Walter Wright, secretary. In his opening address Mr. Fairweather referred at some length and strong approval to the efforts which Judge Burbidge, when a resident of Rothesay, had made to secure just such a school as that now proposed.

On the conclusion of the chairman's address the minutes of the previous meeting were read for the information of the ratepayers and E. S. Carter was called upon to make the report of the committee. This showed that the school districts of Gondola Point and Foresters Cove had voted in favor of consolidation and that Model Farm and Quispamsis had negatived the proposition. The report went on to say that as only two of the districts had voted in the affirmative it was not expedient for Rothesay to enter consolidation but at the same time expressing approval of the principle.

Slight Increase in Tax.

Mr. Carter went on to show that the cost of a building for the consolidated school would be about $10,000 and that after making provision for salaries, interest, and sinking fund, maintenance and cost of transportation of children the tax rate after the government allowance was received would be about forty cents on $100, the present rate in Rothesay being twenty-seven cents.

A number of large property holders were in the audience, including John F. Taylor, Capt. Calhoun and L. J. Almon, and both Capt. Calhoun and Mr. Taylor took a decided stand against the proposition on account of the expenditure involved.

The first motion submitted after the reading of the report, was by Capt. Bogart. This was that the committee be thanked for their work and the report thrown out of the window. This language was strongly objected to by many of those present and the captain withdrew the latter part of his motion.

Mr. Taylor finally moved that the report of the committee be received and the meeting express its disapproval of the consolidation scheme. This was seconded by L. P. D. Tilley and carried.

Considerable discussion took place before the motion was put in which Mr. Puddington warmly advocated consolidation and J. Simeon Armstrong and Capt. Calhoun spoke as strongly against it.

Sees Ruin in Education.

The remarks of the latter gentleman were warmly applauded. He asserted that too much education is the ruin of the country and that things have now come to such a pass that it is impossible to get cooks or other household servants when they are needed.

L. P. D. Tilley, who also took part in the discussion, expressed the fear that the issuing of debentures would be a serious matter, that they would mortgage the district and be a burden on the ratepayers for years to come. He expressed strong disapprobation of consolidation and argued that the required building would cost considerably more than the committee supposed.

During the earlier part of the meeting it had been shown that the amount to be raised for school purposes in Rothesay district alone is $880 while if consolidation took place the amount to be raised between the five districts would be $1,200. It was also shown that the rates paid by a man paying taxes on $1 000 would be increased by little more than $1.

Matters of denominational and ministerial importance were discussed, after which Rev. W. Camp, of St. John, read a paper on Chrysostom, as a Man and as a Pastor.

At 7 p. m. Rev. B. H. Nobles, of St. John, preached the association sermon. His subject was The Holy Spirit. At the conclusion the devotional conference was held and participated in by many.

ST. JOHN MARKETS

The wholesale price of the best quality of western beef is now 9 to 10 cents a pound. But this beef is quoted at 8½ to 10 cents for country beef 7 to 9 cents. Mutton is also easier at 8 to 10 cents. Lamb is getting quite plentiful, but as yet the price is unchanged. The only quotations are by the carcase. Butter has fallen off in price in the produce market, that in rolls ruling at from 19 to 21 cents a pound. Old potatoes will soon be off the market and what stock is left is offering for from $1.80 to $2 a barrel, a decline of from 20 to 25 cents since last week.

In groceries and provisions, cheese is again easier, while beans have advanced owing to discouraging crop reports. Sugar has declined in value ten cents a barrel on all grades. The following were the principal wholesale quotations Thursday:
